DEFENDANTS THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C. AND HANS MAST'S MOTION/MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Defendants, The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. and Hans Mast ("Mast") (sometimes collectively "Popovich") by and through their attorneys Karbal, Cohen, Economou, Silk, & Dunne, LLC, pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/2-1005, submit this Motion/Memorandum in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment, and state as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Paul Dulberg ("Dulberg") was allegedly injured on June 28, 2011 when he was assisting a friend, David Gagnon ("Gagnon"), trim a tree with a chainsaw in the backyard of a home owned by Dulberg's neighbors, Bill and Carolyn McGuire ("The McGuires"). Gagnon, who is Carolyn McGuire's son, and Dulberg were both over the age of 40 at the time of the accident. Dulberg retained defendant Popovich to prosecute a personal injury lawsuit against Gagnon and the McGuires. Defendant Hans Mast was the primary handling attorney. Eventually, in Mast's legal opinion, the case against the property owners was weak because the evidence showed they did not control the work. Mast recommended Dulberg accept the McGuires' settlement offer. Dulberg deliberated and accepted the McGuires' offer in January 2014. Thus McGuires were dismissed from the lawsuit in January 2014, and Dulberg continued to prosecute the case against Gagnon.

Popovich and Mast withdrew from representing Dulberg on March 13, 2015. Dulberg later settled with Gagnon, and waited until November 28, 2017 to sue Popovich and Mast. In an unavailing attempt to excuse the late filing of his lawsuit, Dulberg alleges that he did not become aware of a claim against defendants until he sought a legal opinion in December of 2016. He has never been able to explain what legal opinion he received or how it caused him to "discover" his claim and damages, or why he still waited almost another year after December 2016 to file his lawsuit. Summary judgment must be entered because Dulberg's claims are barred by the two-year statute of limitations for Illinois legal malpractice claims under 735 ILCS 13/214.3(b).

II. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

The following facts can be gleaned from the Complaint (Exhibit A), Amended Complaint (Exhibit B) and Second Amended Complaint (Exhibit C).[1] [2]

On or about June 28, 2011, Dulberg was involved in an accident while assisting David Gagnon in the cutting down of a tree on the McGuire property. Exhibit A, ¶6. Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw he was using causing it to strike Dulberg. Exhibit A, ¶7. In May 2012, Dulberg retained the Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich. Exhibit A, ¶8. In late 2013 or early 2014, Mast met with Dulberg and agreed with Mast to accept $5,000, releasing William and Caroline McGuire. Exhibit A, ¶13. Mast and Popovich continued to represent Dulberg through March of 2015. Exhibit A, ¶14. Thereafter, Dulberg retained other attorneys and proceeded to a binding mediation where he received an award. Exhibit A, ¶16. Dulberg alleges that following the execution of the mediation agreement and final mediation award, he realized for the first time that the information Mast and Popovich had given him was false and misleading and that the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake. Following the mediation Dulberg was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling malpractice matters, and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016. Exhibit A, ¶20.

In his First Amended Complaint, Dulberg modified his "discovery" allegations and alleged "it was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinion that Dulberg became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000 on an "all or nothing" basis. Exhibit B, ¶29. In ¶30 he reiterates that "Dulberg was advised to seek an independent opinion from a legal malpractice attorney and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016." Exhibit B, ¶30.

Dulberg's first substitute counsel in this case filed a Second Amended Complaint, further modifying the allegations. It is alleged that "after accepting a $5,000 settlement, Dulberg wrote Mast an email on January 29, 2014 stating that "I trust your judgment." Exhibit C, ¶48. He further alleges in ¶55 of Ex. C that "only after Dulberg obtained an award against Gagnon did he discover that his claims against the McGuires were viable and valuable." Exhibit C, ¶55. He also alleges that following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, Dulberg realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information that Mast and Popovich had given Dulberg was false and misleading and that the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake. Exhibit C, ¶56. He alleged that it was not until the mediation in December 2016 based on the expert's opinions that Dulberg retained for the mediation that Dulberg became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000 on an "all or nothing" basis. Exhibit C, ¶57. Dulberg's allegations of Popovich' breaches of the standard of care are contained in Exhibit C, ¶58 as follows:

> 58. Mast and Popovich, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed Dulberg by violating the standard of care owed Dulberg in the following ways and respects:
> a) failed to fully and properly investigate the claims and/or basis for liability against the McGuires;
> b) failed to properly obtain information through discovery regarding McGuires assets, insurance coverages, and/or ability to pay a judgement and/or settlement against them;
> c) failed to accurately advise Dulberg of the McGuires' and Gagnon's insurance coverage related to the claims against them and/or Dulberg's ability to recover through McGuires' and Gagnon's insurance policies, including, but not limited to, incorrectly informing Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000" and no insurance company would pay close to that;
> d) failed to take such actions as were necessary during their respective representation of Dulberg to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed and/or were principals of Gagnon, and who sought the assistance Dulberg by for example failing to obtain an expert;
> e) failed to accurately advise Dulberg regarding the McGuires' liability, likelihood of success of claims against the McGuires, the McGuires' ability pay any judgment or settlement against them through insurance or other assets, and/or necessity of prosecuting the[sic] all the claims against both the McGuires and Gagnon in order to obtain a full recovery;
> f) Coerced Dulberg, verbally and though emails, into accepting a settlement with the McGuires for $5,000 by misleading Dulberg into believing that he had no other choice but to accept the settlement or else "The McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion."

III. UNDISPUTED MATERIAL FACTS

A. Paul Dulberg Testimony

Dulberg has hired a personal injury attorney in 2002 and has hired a corporate lawyer in the past. (Dulberg Deposition, Exhibit E, pp.8, 9). He was injured on June 28, 2011 while assisting David Gagnon with a chainsaw cutting up some branches after they were removed from a tree. (Exhibit E, pp.12, 13). He hired Popovich to sue Gagnon and Bill and Carolyn McGuire in connection with his June 28, 2011 injury. (Exhibit E, pp. 9, 30). Hans Mast was the primary handling attorney. (Exhibit E, p. 30). Brad Balke substituted for Dulberg on March 19, 2015 when Popovich withdrew. (Exhibit E, p. 35). Dulberg asked hundreds of lawyers to take over his case when Popovich withdrew, but none accepted. (Exhibit, E, p. 36). Dulberg fired Balke prior to the binding arbitration, and he was then represented by the Baudin Law Firm. While Brad Balke handled the case, Balke never gave him an opinion as to the liability of the McGuires and whether the prior settlement was appropriate. (Exhibit E, p. 42). At some point, Dulberg hired The Daley Disability Law Firm to assist him with a Social Security disability claim. A criminal lawyer represented him in a guilty plea for drug possession in 1990. (Exhibit E, pp.34-35) (Exhibit E, p. 43). At some point during the case, it was Hans Mast's opinion that the McGuires did not have liability because they did not control the work David Gagnon was doing. (Exhibit E, pp. 50, 51). Mr. McGuire was inside the house for 45 minutes before the accident happened. (Exhibit E, pp. 51, 52).

On November 18, 2013, Mast emailed Dulberg and relayed a $5,000 settlement offer from the McGuires. (Exhibit E, p.52). Mast suggested that the $5,000 offer be accepted. Dulberg testified that at one point, "Mast defined what an independent contractor is and he said that David was an independent contractor and the McGuires weren't liable because they had hired somebody outside even though it's their own son, he is an adult, outside to do the work and that they weren't responsible." (Exhibit E, p.55). Dulberg believed that Mast was relying on his honest legal opinion at the time. (Exhibit E, p.59). Dulberg did not accept the settlement offer on November 8, 2013. Dulberg met with Mast on November 20, 2013. (Exhibit E, p.61). Then Dulberg reviewed the depositions of the McGuires and David Gagnon before he accepted the offer. (Exhibit E, p.63). Eventually Dulberg told Mast that he would agree to accept the $5,000 settlement offer from the McGuires, just before Christmas in December of 2013. (Exhibit E, p.66) Dulberg received a letter with a settlement release from Mast on January 29, 2014 and signed it and sent it back. (Exhibit E, p.69). From December 25 until he received the settlement release, he contacted Mast again to discuss whether it would be appropriate to let the McGuires out for $5,000. (Exhibit E, p.70). Dulberg did not talk to any other lawyers and there was nothing preventing him from seeking a second opinion from some other lawyer at the time. (Exhibit E, p.71). Dulberg emailed Mast with a question about the release on January 29, 2014, and then put a stamp on the envelope with the executed release, put it in his mailbox, put the flag up, and waited for the mailman. (Exhibit E, pp. 71, 72). Mast did not force him to take the settlement. (Exhibit E, p.73).

The case continued against Gagnon through discovery and some of Dulberg's doctors were deposed. (Exhibit E, pp. 78, 79). Dulberg told Mast "First, I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to prove David cut me with a chainsaw." Dulberg already started looking for new lawyers in the summer of 2014. Mast thought the case against David Gagnon was difficult. (Exhibit E, p.81). Mast told Dulberg that he did not make a good witness at his deposition. (Exhibit E, p.82). Dulberg and Gagnon were the only people who witnessed the accident. (Exhibit E, p.83). There were differences between the factual testimony provided by Gagnon and Dulberg in the underlying case. (Exhibit E, p.83). His relationship with Mast was deteriorating over the fall and winter of 2015, even long before that. (Exhibit E, p.86). On February 22, 2015, Dulberg wrote in an email to Mast "Now I'm left wondering… how hard it is to sue an attorney?" (Exhibit F). When asked what the reference to suing an attorney meant he replied:

A. That was me being angry.

Q. With Hans?

A. Yes. I was seeing red.

Q. You're suggesting that you may sue him?

A. Yeah. I didn't know that I could. I'm wondering about it.

Q. You, basically, made a threat, whether it be a veiled threat or an overt threat to sue him, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. You, ultimately, sued him for legal malpractice, right?

A. Yes.

On February 22, 2015, Mast wrote in an email to Dulberg "Paul, I can no longer represent you in the case. We obviously have differences of opinion as to the value of the case." (Exhibit E, p.91). Mast speculated that seven out of ten times he would lose the case outright. (Exhibit E, p.92). Dulberg filed for bankruptcy. He was ordered by the bankruptcy trustee to participate in binding mediation on December 8, 2016. (Exhibit E, p.96). Dulberg admitted that the allegation in his complaint regarding Popovich being involved with the high/low agreement in the mediation was a mistake. (Exhibit E, p.103). Dulberg testified that it was Baudin that advised him to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters. (Exhibit E, p.108). The lawyer he received the legal opinion on December 16, 2016 was Thomas Gooch, the drafter of the Complaint in this case. (Exhibit E, p.108). It was confirmed by Gooch on December 16, 2016 that Dulberg had a valid case against Popovich. (Exhibit E, p.113). He did not file a lawsuit until nearly a year later because "Thomas Gooch had some health issues and that his wife had some health issues. It took a while." (Exhibit E, p.114). Dulberg agreed that the legal opinion he received on December 16, 2016 was responsive to Interrogatory No. 1 from Dulberg's answers to Mast's Interrogatories. (Exhibit E, pp.125, 126). The legal opinion Dulberg received from Gooch was verbal. (Exhibit E, p.130). Gooch simply stated, "You have a case here. You have a valid case." (Exhibit E, p.130). When asked did he tell you exactly what they did wrong in connection with your – their representation of you, Dulberg replied "He probably did. I'm not recalling it right now. I'm pulling a blank." (Exhibit E, p.131).

Dulberg was questioned further: "Other than you have a case, what did Gooch say to you?" Dulberg responded, "He said they definitely committed malpractice." When asked whether Gooch ever put this in writing, Dulberg replied, "I think he backed it up by filing a suit. That's documented." (Exhibit E, p.136). Dulberg was asked, "As you sit here today, other than you have a case against Popovich and Mast, what did Gooch tell you specifically that was any different than what Mast and Popovich told you with respect to the McGuires' liability? Answer: They were definitely liable. He tried to say that – like Popovich and Mast were first – or second year lawyers and that they may have made a mistake here." (Ex. E, pp.139-140).

B. Hans Mast Testimony

Mast graduated from Kent Law School in 1991 and has been admitted to practice law in Illinois since 1991. (Mast Deposition, Exhibit G, p.10). He joined the Popovich firm in 2001 and worked there for approximately 18 years. (Exhibit G, p.12). He testified that every time he met with Dulberg: "Every time we met, we talked about this because this was the subject at the time with the McGuires and the testimony of the McGuires, given Paul' testimony, given the lack of any evidence that they were controlling any work or even knew what Paul was doing, I felt it was a big, high risk at moving forward on that claim." (Exhibit G, p.43). Mast thought Paul's case was going to be very difficult to prove based on the testimony of everybody, credibility issues, and the lack of evidence to support and prove. (Exhibit G, p.77). Gagon's testimony regarding the facts surrounding the accident differed from Paul Dulberg's version of the facts. (Exhibit G, p.77). Mast took that difference in testimony into account in his evaluation and his analysis of the case. (Exhibit G, p.77). Mast also took into account Paul Dulberg's poor performance as a witness at his discovery deposition. Mast's analysis and evaluation of the case hinged in part on whether the McGuires controlled the method of the use of the chainsaw. Mast testified that the McGuires were inside the house and not paying attention to what was going on outside at the time of the accident. (Exhibit G, p.78). Mast's recommendation or suggestion that Dulberg settle the case for $5,000 against the McGuires was based on his analysis of the entire case, including the risks and benefits of going forward and potentially losing the case at trial. (Exhibit G, pp.78,79). Based on his professional judgment, Mast suggested that Dulberg attempt to settle the matter as opposed to taking it to trial against the McGuires. (Exhibit G, p.79).

IV. LEGAL STANDARD

The purpose of summary judgment is not to try a question of fact but to determine whether there is a genuine issue of material fact. N. Ill. Emergency Physicians v. Landau, Omahana, & Kopka, Ltd., 216 Ill. 2d 294, 305 (2005). Summary judgment is proper if, when viewed in the light most favorable to the nonmovant, the pleadings, depositions, admissions, and affidavits on record establish that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Id. A defendant moving for summary judgment may meet the initial burden of production by either affirmatively showing that some element of the case must be resolved in defendant's favor, or by showing the absence of evidence supporting the plaintiff's position on one or more elements of the cause of action. Hutchcraft v. Independent Mechanical Industries, Inc., 312 Ill App. 3d 351, 355 (4th Dist.,2000). The plaintiff is not required to prove his case at the summary judgment stage; in order to survive a motion for summary judgment, he must present a factual basis that would arguably entitle him to a judgment. Robidoux v. Oliphant, 201 Ill. 2d 324, 335 (2002).

V. ARGUMENT

Dulberg's legal malpractice claim against Popovich is time barred by the two (2) year statute of limitations set forth in 735 ILCS 5/2-614.3.

735 ILCS 5/13-214.3(b) reads as follows:

> (b) An action for damages based on tort, contract or otherwise (i) against an attorney arising out of an act or omission in the performance of professional services [...] must be commenced within 2 years from the time the person bringing the action knew or reasonably should have known of the injury for which damages are sought.

735 ILCS 5/13-214.3(b).

While Popovich denies breaching any standard of care or proximately causing Dulberg any damages, assuming arguendo there was malpractice, Dulberg knew or should have known of his injury and that it was wrongfully caused when Popovich withdrew. In the alternative, Dulberg should have investigated any potential claims when he questioned the appropriateness of settling with the McGuires.

In his various pleadings, Dulberg alleged that Popovich concealed his malpractice and coerced him to settle with the McGuires, but his own testimony does not bear out any such concealment. He also attempts to plead that he did not discover the malpractice and his injury until December 12, 2016, but his anticipatory pleading is not supported by his own testimony. Under any analysis, Dulberg knew or should have known of the alleged malpractice and his injury by the time Popovich withdrew. Dulberg fails to meet his burden of proving a discovery date that would toll the limitations period.

To state a cause of action for legal malpractice, the plaintiff must allege facts to establish (1) the defendant attorney owed the plaintiff client a duty of due care arising from an attorney-client relationship, (2) the attorney breached that duty, (3) the client suffered an injury in the form of actual damages, and (4) the actual damages resulted as a proximate cause of the breach." Nelson v. Quarles & Grady, 2013 IL App (1st) 123122 at [*P28], citing Fox v. Seiden, 382 Ill. App. 3d 288, 294 (1st Dist. 2008). A legal malpractice suit is by its nature dependent upon a predicate lawsuit. Claire Associates v. Pontikes, 151 Ill. App. 3d 116, 122 (1st Dist. 1986). Thus, a legal malpractice claim presents a "case within a case." Id. "[N]o malpractice exists unless counsel's negligence has resulted in the loss of an underlying cause of action, or the loss of a meritorious defense if the attorney was defending in the underlying suit."

The two-year statute of limitations for legal malpractice under 735 ILCS 5/13-214.3(b) incorporates the discovery rule which delays commencement of the statute of limitations until the plaintiff knows or reasonably should have known of the injury or that it may have been wrongfully caused. Scheinblum v. Schain Banks Kenny & Schwartz, Ltd., 2021 IL App. (1st) 200798 at [*P24], quoting Dancor International, Ltd. v. Friedman, Goldberg & Mintz, 288 Ill. App. 3d 666 (1st Dist. 1997). Under this rule, the statute of limitations begins to run when the injured party "has a reasonable belief that the injury was caused by wrongful conduct, thereby creating an obligation to inquire further on that issue." Scheinblum at [*P24] citing Janousek v. Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, 2015 IL App (1st) 142989. Under the discovery rule, "a statute of limitations may run despite the lack of actual knowledge of negligent conduct." SK Partners I, LP, 408 Ill. App. 3d at 130 (1st Dist. 2011). A "person knows or reasonably should know an injury is 'wrongfully caused' when he or she possesses sufficient information concerning an injury and its cause to put a reasonable person on inquiry to determine whether actionable conduct had occurred." Janousek at [*p13]. Under Illinois law, the burden is on the injured party to inquire further as to the existence of a cause of action. "When a plaintiff uses the discovery rule to delay the commencement of the statute of limitations, the burden is on the plaintiff to prove the date of discovery." Dancor at 673. Identification of one wrongful cause of the plaintiff's injuries initiates his limitations period as to all other causes. Carlson v. Fish, 2015 IL App (1st) 140526 at ¶39.

In Blue Water Partners, Inc. v. Mason, 2012 IL App (1st) 102165, the Appellate Court again had the occasion to examine the discovery rule under the two-year legal malpractice statute of limitations. The court ruled that the statute of limitations begins to run when the purportedly injured party "has a reasonable belief that the injury was caused by wrongful conduct, thereby creating an obligation to inquire further on that issue." Blue Water Partners at [*P51]. In that case, the court found little dispute that the plaintiff acted on its obligation to inquire further on possible wrongful conduct when consulting with an attorney about potential claims, albeit the Plaintiff lacked diligence in filing the suit.

In the recent Illinois Supreme Court case Suburban Real Estate Servs. v. Carlson, 2022 IL 126935, the court distinguished between transactional malpractice and legal malpractice arising out of litigation. The court explained that when the attorney's negligence arises out of underlying litigation, no injury exists, and therefore no actionable claim arises, unless and until the attorney's negligence results in a loss of the underlying cause of action. The court explained that in "this type of legal malpractice claim, commonly referred to as a 'case within a case,' the allegation is that the client suffered a monetary loss and but for the attorney's negligence the client would have recovered in the underlying litigation." Suburban Real Estate at [*P19] and [citing Tri-G, Inc. v. Burke, Bosselman & Weaver, 222 Ill. 2d 218 (2006). In Fox v. Seiden, 382 Ill. App. 3d 288 (1st Dist. 2008), the appellate court analyzed the requirement of actual damages and held that where malpractice was alleged in the prosecution of a case, the entry of judgment in that underlying case, as opposed to the payment of judgment, is sufficient to establish the element of damages in order to state a legal malpractice claim. Fox at 297, 299. Here, the settlement with the McGuires was executed by January 29, 2014, and they were dismissed with prejudice in January 2014. (Dismissal Order, Exhibit H).

On its face, Dulberg's legal malpractice complaint is time barred. He bears the burden of proving a date of discovery that can salvage his claim, but Dulberg has not and can never meet that burden. Dulberg's deposition testimony and pleadings are vague and inconsistent with respect to how Popovich breached the standard of care, and when and how he became aware that his injury was wrongfully caused. As discussed, Dulberg's own testimony refutes many of his allegations of concealment, undue influence and coercion.

Dulberg has fiddled with his "discovery" allegations, going back and forth as to when and how he became aware of his malpractice claim and damages. First, he plead that he sought a legal opinion, and received that opinion on December 16, 2016. The legal opinion was supplied by the same attorney who filed his first two pleadings in this case. Then he changed his pleading and theory and attempted to rely on discovery by virtue of the report of a "chainsaw expert" he read in connection with the December 2016 mediation. However, he actually received the opinion (Exhibit I) in July 2016 but "you don't catch everything the first time you read it." (Exhibit D, p.141). Notably the report from Dr. Lanford is dated much earlier, February 27, 2016 and was addressed to Dulberg's then attorney, Randy Baudin.

Here defendants painstakingly attempted to seek discovery as to how Popovich allegedly breached the standard of care, and when and how Dulberg became aware of any damages. Dulberg's discovery responses and deposition testimony were repeatedly evasive. See Dulberg testimony, Exhibit D, pages 106 to 141. This behavior continued and caused the need for a motion to compel (See Group Exhibit J, Motion to Compel, Motion to Supplement Motion to Compel, and July 19, 2021 transcript from hearing).

Moreover, Dulberg's dissatisfaction with Popovich's representation surfaced much earlier, and he even threatened in writing to sue Mast as early as February 22, 2015. Dulberg, no "babe in the woods" when it comes to experience with litigation retention, met with "hundreds" of attorneys and had opportunity after opportunity to investigate and inquire as to whether Popovich breached the standard of care and caused him any damage in connection with the case (including prosecution of the case against Gagnon and the McGuires). The many cases cited above establish the Plaintiff's duty to inquire, and here Dulberg had the tools, the information, and opportunity to inquire. His contrived late discovery of his claims and damages should not be countenanced by this court. He was clearly questioning whether he should agree to accept the McGuires' offer, and he deliberated on it extensively. Nothing prevented him from seeking a second opinion. Likewise, nothing prevented him from inquiring of Mr. Balke or the Baudin firm whether his injury was wrongfully caused. Summary Judgment must be entered as his claims are barred by the two-year statute of limitations.

COMES NOW your Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG (hereinafter also referred to as "DULBERG"), by and through his attorneys, THE GOOCH FIRM, and as and for his Complaint against THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. 4. That due to the actions and status of MAST in relation to POPOVICH, the actions and inactions of MAST are directly attributable to his employer, partnership, or principal, being THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPVICH, P.C.

5. Venue is therefore claimed proper in McHenry County, Illinois, as the Defendants transact substantial and regular business in and about McHenry County in the practice of law, where their office is located.

6. On or about June 28, 2011, your Plaintiff, DULBERG was involved in a horrendous accident, having been asked by his neighbors Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, in assisting a David Gagnon in the cutting down of a tree on the McGuire property. DULBERG lived in the neighborhood.

7. At this time, Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw he was using causing it to strike DULBERG. This caused substantial and catastrophic injuries to DULBERG, including but not limited to great pain and suffering, current as well as future medical expenses, in an amount in excess of $260,000.00, along with lost wages in excess of $250,000.00, and various other damages.

8. In May of 2012, DULBERG retained THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C., pursuant to a written retainer agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. A copy of the Complaint filed by MAST on his own behalf, and on behalf of DULBERG, is attached hereto as Exhibit B, and the allegations of that Complaint are fully incorporated into this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

10. An implied term of the retainer agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, was that at all times, the Defendants would exercise their duty of due care towards their client and conform their acts and actions within the standard of care every attorney owes his client.

11. That as Exhibit B reveals, Defendants property filed suit against not only the operator of the chain saw, but also his principals, Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, who purportedly were supervising him in his work on the premises.

12. At the time of filing of the aforesaid Complaint, MAST certified pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 137, that he had made a diligent investigation of the facts and circumstances around the Complaint he filed, and further had ascertained the appropriate law. MAST evidently believed a very good and valid cause of action existed against Caroline McGuire and William McGuire.

13. The matter proceeded through the normal stages of litigation until sometime in late 2013 or early 2014, when MAST met with DULBERG and other family members and advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and told DULBERG he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuire's for the sum of $5,000.00. DULBERG, having no choice in the matter, reluctantly agreed with MAST and to accept the sum of $5,000.00 releasing not only William and Caroline McGuire, but also Auto-Owners Insurance Company from any further responsibility or liability in the matter. A copy of the aforesaid general release and settlement agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

14. MAST and POPOVICH continued to represent DULBERG through to and including March of 2015, following which DULBERG and the Defendants terminated their relationship.

15. Continuously throughout the period of representation, MAST and POPOVICH represented repeatedly to DULBERG there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and lulled DULBERG into believing that the matter was being properly handled. Then, due to a claimed failure of communication, MAST and POPOVICH withdrew from the representation of DULBERG.

16. Thereafter, DULBERG retained other attorneys and proceeded to a binding mediation before a retired Circuit Judge, where DULBERG received a binding mediation award of $660,000.00 in gross, and a net award of $561,000.00. Unfortunately, a "high-low agreement" had been executed by DULBERG, reducing the maximum amount he could recover to $300,000.00 based upon the insurance policy available. The award was substantially more than that sum of money, and could have been recovered from McGuire's had they not been dismissed from the Complaint. A copy of the aforesaid Mediation Award is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

17. The McGuire's were property owners and had property insurance covering injuries or losses on their property, as well as substantial personal assets, including the property location where the accident took place at 1016 West Elder Avenue, in the City of McHenry, Illinois. McGuire's were well able to pay all, or a portion of the binding mediation award had they still remained parties.

18. DULBURG, in his relationship with POPOVICH and MAST, cooperated in all ways with them, furnishing all necessary information as required, and frequently conferred with them.

19. Until the time of the mediation award, DULBURG had no reason to believe he could not recover the full amount of his injuries, based on POPOVICH'S and MAST'S representations to DULBERG that he could recover the full amount of his injuries from Gagnon, and that the inclusion of the McGuire's would only complicate the case.

20. Following the execution of the mediation agreement with the "high-low agreement" contained therein, and the final mediation award, DULBURG realized for the first time that the information MAST and POPOVICH had given DULBERG was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuire's was a serious and substantial mistake. Following the mediation, DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling Legal Malpractice matters, and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

21. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBURG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:

a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuire's) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG;

b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG;

d) Failed to understand the law pertaining to a property owner's rights, duties and responsibilities to someone invited onto their property;

e) Improperly urged DULBURG to accept a nonsensical settlement from the property owners, and dismissed them from all further responsibility;

f) Failed to appreciate and understand further moneys could not be received as against Gagnon, and that the McGuire's and their obvious liability were a very necessary party to the litigation;

g) Falsely advised DULBURG throughout the period of their representation, that the actions taken regarding the McGuire's was proper in all ways and respects, and that DULBURG had no choice but to accept the settlement;

h) Failed to properly explain to DULBURG all ramifications of accepting the McGuire settlement, and giving him the option of retaining alternative counsel to review the matter;

i) Continually reassured DULBURG that the course of action as to the property owners was proper and appropriate;

j) Were otherwise negligent in their representation of DULBERG, concealing from him necessary facts for DULBURG to make an informed decision as to the McGuire's, instead coercing him into signing a release and settlement agreement and accept a paltry sum of $5,000.00 for what was a grievous injury.

22. That DULBERG suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of MAST and POPOVICH in urging DULBURG to release the McGuire's, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of MAST and THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

4. That due to the actions and status of MAST in relation to POPOVICH, the actions and inactions of MAST are directly attributable to his employer, partnership, or principal, being THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPVICH, P.C.

5. Venue is therefore claimed proper in McHenry County, Illinois, as the Defendants transact substantial and regular business in and about McHenry County in the practice of law, where their office is located.

6. On or about June 28, 2011, your Plaintiff, DULBERG was involved in a horrendous accident, having been asked by his neighbors Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, in assisting a David Gagnon in the cutting down of a tree on the McGuire property. DULBERG lived in the same area.

7. At this time, Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw he was using causing it to strike and cut DULBERG's arm. This caused substantial and catastrophic injuries to DULBERG, including but not limited to great pain and suffering, current as well as future medical expenses, in an amount in excess of $260,000.00, along with lost wages in excess of $250,000.00, and various other damages.

8. In May of 2012, DULBERG retained THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C., pursuant to a written retainer agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. A copy of the Complaint filed by MAST on his own behalf, and on behalf of DULBERG, is attached hereto as Exhibit B, and the allegations of that Complaint are fully incorporated into this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

10. An implied term of the retainer agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, was that at all times, the Defendants would exercise their duty of due care towards their client and conform their acts and actions within the standard of care every attorney owes his client.

11. That as Exhibit B reveals, Defendants properly filed suit against not only the operator of the chain saw, but also his principals, Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, who purportedly were supervising him in his work on the premises.

12. At the time of filing of the aforesaid Complaint, MAST certified pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 137, that he had made a diligent investigation of the facts and circumstances around the Complaint he filed, and further had ascertained the appropriate law. MAST evidently believed a very good and valid cause of action existed against Caroline McGuire and William McGuire.

13. Also MAST incorrectly informed DULBERG that the insurance policy limit for the Gagnon was only $100,000.00, when in reality the policy was $300,000.00.

14. The matter proceeded through the normal stages of litigation until sometime in late 2013 or early 2014, when MAST began urging DULBERG to settle the matter against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire for $5,000.00.

15. On November 18, 2013, MAST wrote two emails to DULBERG urging DULBERG to accept the $5,000.00, "the McGuire's atty has offered us (you) $5,000 in full settlement of the claim against the McGuires only. As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery...." * * * "So if we do not accept their 5000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case". (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

16. Similarly, on November 20, 2013 MAST emailed DULBERG urging him to accept the $5,000.00 otherwise "the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion." (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

17. On or around December 2013 or January 2014, MAST met with DULBERG and other family members and again advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and verbally told DULBERG that he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuires for the sum of $5,000.00 and if he did not, he would get nothing.

18. DULBERG, having no choice in the matter, reluctantly agreed with MAST to accept the sum of $5,000.00 releasing not only William and Caroline McGuire, but also Auto-Owners Insurance Company from any further responsibility or liability in the matter. A copy of the aforesaid general release and settlement agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

19. Continuously throughout the period of representation, MAST and POPOVICH represented repeatedly to DULBERG there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and lulled DULBERG into believing that the matter was being properly handled

20. After accepting the $5,000 settlement, DULBERG wrote MAST an email on January 29, 2014 stating "I trust your judgment." (See Email attached as Exhibit E.)

21. MAST and POPOVICH continued to represent DULBERG into 2015 and continuously assured him that his case was being handled properly.

22. On February 22, 2015, as to any chance of settling the remainder of his case against Gagnon MAST wrote to DULBERG that, "There's only $100,000 in coverage. Allstate will never offer anything near the policy limits therefore there's no chance to settle the case. The only alternative is to take the case to trial and I am not interested in doing that." (See Email attached as Exhibit F.)

23. MAST and POPOVICH represented DULBERG through to and including March of 2015, following which DULBERG and the Defendants terminated their relationship due to a claimed failure of communication. MAST and POPOVICH withdrew from the representation of DULBERG.

24. Thereafter, DULBERG retained other attorneys and proceeded to a Court ordered binding mediation before a retired Circuit Judge, where DULBERG received a binding mediation award of $660,000.00 in gross, and a net award of $561,000.00. However, due to the settlement with the McGuires, DULBERG was only able to collect $300,000.00 based upon the insurance policy available. A copy of the aforesaid Mediation Award is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

25. The McGuires were property owners and had property insurance covering injuries or losses on their property, as well as substantial personal assets, including the property location where the accident took place at 1016 West Elder Avenue, in the City of McHenry, Illinois. McGuires were well able to pay all, or a portion of the binding mediation award had they still remained parties.

26. DULBERG, in his relationship with POPOVICH and MAST, cooperated in all ways with them, furnishing all necessary information as required, and frequently conferred with them.

27. Until the time of the mediation award, DULBERG had no reason to believe he could not recover the full amount of his injuries, based on POPOVICH'S and MAST'S representations to DULBERG that he could recover the full amount of his injuries from Gagnon, and that the inclusion of the McGuires would only complicate the case.

28. Following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, DULBERG realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information MAST and POPOVICH had given DULBERG was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake.

29. It was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinions that DULBERG retained for the mediation, that DULBERG became reasonably aware that MAST and POPOVICH did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000.00 on an "all or nothing" basis.

30. DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from a legal malpractice attorney and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

31. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBERG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:

a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG, for example hiring a liability expert;

b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG, for example hiring a liability expert;

d.) Failed to investigate the insurance policy amounts of the McGuires and Gagnon;

e.) Incorrectly informed DULBERG that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000.00" and no insurance company would pay close to that;

f) Failed to understand the law pertaining to a property owner's rights, duties and responsibilities to someone invited onto their property by consulting an expert regarding these issues;

g) Improperly urged DULBERG to accept a nonsensical settlement from the property owners, and dismissed them from all further responsibility;

h) Failed to appreciate and understand further moneys could not be received as against Gagnon, and that the McGuires and their obvious liability were a very necessary party to the litigation;

i) Falsely advised DULBERG throughout the period of their representation, that the actions taken regarding the McGuires was proper in all ways and respects, and that DULBERG had no choice but to accept the settlement;

j) Coerced DULBERG, verbally and through emails. into accepting the settlement with the McGuires for $5,000.00 by misleading him into believing that had no other choice but to accept the settlement or else "the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion".

k) Concealed from DULBERG the necessary facts for him to make an informed decision as to the McGuires, instead coercing him verbally and through emails into signing a release and settlement agreement and accept a paltry sum of $5,000.00 for what was a grievous injury;

l) Failed to properly explain to DULBERG all ramifications of accepting the McGuire settlement, and giving him the option of retaining alternative counsel to review the matter;

m) Continually reassured DULBERG that the course of action as to the property owners was proper and appropriate;

n) Failed to retain a liability expert to prove DULBERG's damages;

o) Were otherwise negligent in their representation of DULBERG.

32. That DULBERG suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of MAST and POPOVICH in urging DULBERG to release the McGuires, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of MAST and THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

Morning Hans,
Ok we can meet. I will call Sheila today and set up a time.
Please send me a link to the current Illinois statute citing that the property owner is not liable for work done on their property resulting in injury to a neighbor.
I need to read it myself and any links to recent case law in this area would be helpful as well.
Thanks,
Paul

The legality of it all is that a property owner does not have legal liability for a worker (whether friend, son or otherwise) who does the work on his time, using his own independent skills. Here, I deposed the McGuires, and they had nothing to do with how Dave did the work other than to request the work to be done. They had no control on how Dave wielded the chain saw and cut you. Its that simple. We don't have to accept the $5,000, but if we do not, the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion. So that's the situation.

Just because Dave was doing the work doesn't mean they were not trying to tell their kid what to do. They told him plenty of times throughout the day what to do. How is that not supervising?

So if we do not accept their 5000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case

They all left me out in the yard screaming for help while they were busy making sure they were covered.

She even went as far as to finally call the Emergency Room after I was already there just to tell me she was covered.

How selfish are people when they worry about if their insured over helping the person who was hurt and bleeding badly in their yard.

I'm glad she got her answer and had to share it with me only to find out her coverage won't even pay the medical bills.

I'm not happy with the offer.

As far as John Choyinski, he knows he has to call you and said he will tomorrow.

As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery....

Ok, it's signed and in the mail.
Hope that some yahoo in the govt. doesn't someday decide to go after everyone they think they might get a dollar out of and end up holding me responsible for the McGuires fees incurred while they fight it out.
I'm not in the business of warranting, insuring or protecting the McGuires from government. Especially for only 5 grand. For that kind of protection it could cost millions but I trust your judgement.

Subject: Re: Memo

To believe David's version of events you must believe I was committing suicide.
Who in their right mind puts his arm into a chainsaw?

I figured you would cop out again...

Now I'm left wondering...
How hard is it to sue an atty?

And yes I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case...

The issue of my word vs David Gagnons... Did he cut me or did I cut myself?

Of coarse he cut me.

Next issue please?

I've been telling you over a year now the problems with the case and you just don't see them. You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear - it is not. My guess is that seven out of 10 times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I have been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to. There's only $100,000 in coverage. Allstate will never offer anything near the policy limits therefore there's no chance to settle the case. The only alternative is to take the case to trial and I am not interested in doing that. I will wait for you to find a new attorney. I can't assist you any further in this case. Just let me know.

4. As an agent, employee, or principal in Popovich, Popovich is liable for Mast's actions alleged herein.

5. Venue is proper in McHenry County, Illinois, as the Defendants transact substantial and regular business in and about McHenry County in the practice of law, where their office is located.

B. Relevant Facts

6. On or about June 28, 2011, Dulberg assisted Caroline McGuire ("Caroline"), William McGuire ("Williams") (Caroline and William collectively referred to herein as "the McGuires"), and David Gagnon ("Gagnon") in cutting down a tree on the McGuire's property.

7. Dulberg lives in the next neighborhood over from the McGuire family.

8. Caroline McGuire and William McGuire are a married couple, who own real property in McHenry, McHenry County, Illinois ("the Property").

9. David Gagon is Caroline's son and William's stepson.

10. On June 28, 2011, at the Property, Gagnon was operating a chainsaw to remove branches from a tree and cut it down on the Property.

11. The McGuire's purchased and owned the chainsaw that was being utilized to trim, remove branches, and cut down the tree.

12. Dulberg was invited to the McGuire's property to see if he wanted any of the wood from the tree.

15. Gagnon and the McGuires asked Dulberg to assist with trimming and removal of the tree.

16. Gagnon was acting on behalf of Caroline and William and at their direction.

17. Caroline, William, and Gagnon all knew or show have known that a chainsaw was dangerous and to take appropriate precautions when utilizing the chain saw.

18. The safety information was readily available to Caroline and William as the safety instructions are included with the purchase of the chainsaw.

19. It is reasonably foreseeable that the failure to take appropriate caution and safety measures could result in serious injury.

20. The likelihood of injury when not properly utilizing the chainsaw or not following the safety precautions is very high.

21. The safety instructions outlined are easy to follow and do not place a large burden on the operator of the chainsaw or the owner of the property.

22. Caroline, William, and Gagnon had a duty to exercise appropriate caution and follow the safety instructions for the chainsaw.

23. Caroline, William, and Gagnon breached that duty by either not exercising appropriate care, failing to follow the safety instructions, or failing to instruct Gagnon to exercise appropriate care and/or follow the safety instructions.

24. Caroline and William, owners of the property and the chainsaw, instructed Gagnon to use the chain saw despite Gagnon not being a trained in operating the chainsaw.

25. Gagnon was operating the chain saw in close proximity to Dulberg.

26. Neither Gagnon nor Dulberg were provided protective equipment when operating or assisting with operating the chainsaw.

27. Gagnon failed to utilize the chainsaw in compliance with the safety measures outlined in the owner's manual.

28. Caroline and William failed to instruct and require that Gagnon utilize the chainsaw only in compliance with the safety measures outlined in the owner's manual.

29. Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw that he was using and it struck Dulberg in the right arm, cutting him severely.

30. Dulberg incurred substantial and catastrophic injuries, including, but not limited to, pain and suffering, loss of use of his right arm, current and future medical expenses in amount in excess of $260,000, lost wages in excess of $250,000, and other damages.

31. In May 2012, Dulberg hired Mast and Popovich to represent him in prosecuting his claims against Gagnon and the McGuires. Exhibit A.

32. Mast and Popovich, on behalf of Dulberg filed a complaint against Gagnon and the McGuires. Exhibit B.

33. Mast and Popovich entered into an attorney client relationship with Dulberg.

34. Based upon the attorney client relationship, Mast and Popovich owed professional duties to Dulberg, including to a duty of care.

35. On behalf of Dulberg, Mast and Popovich prosecuted claims against both Gagnon and the McGuire's.

36. The claims against Gagnon were resolved later through binding mediation with new counsel.

37. The claims against the McGuires included (a) common law premises liability, (b) statutory premises liability, (c) common law negligence, and (d) vicarious liability for the acts of their son and agent.

38. In late 2013 or early, Mast urged Dulberg to settle the claims against the McGuire's for $5,000.

39. On November 18, 2013, Mast wrote two emails to Dulberg urging Dulberg to accept the $5,000.00, "the McGuire's atty has offered us (you) $5,000 in full settlement of the claim against the McGuires only. As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery...." * * * "So if we do not accept their $5,000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case". (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

40. Similarly, on November 20, 2013, Mast emailed Dulberg urging him to accept the $5,000.00 otherwise "the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion." (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

41. On or around December 2013 or January 2014, Mast met with Dulberg and again advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and verbally told Dulberg that he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuires for the sum of $5,000.00 and if he did not, he would get nothing.

42. During that same time frame, Mast advised Dulberg that the Restatement of Torts 318 was the only mechanism to recover from the McGuires and that Illinois did not recognize the Restate of Torts 318, thus Dulberg did not have any viable claims against the McGuires.

43. Mast failed to advise or inform Dulberg of other basis for recovery against the McGuires.

44. Based upon Mast's erroneously advice that Dulberg's claims against the McGuire's were not viable and that Dulberg would not recover if he pursued the claims, Dulberg settled with the McGuire's and their insurance company, Auto-Owners Insurance Company, for $5,000, which included a release of all claims against the McGuire's and claim for indemnification under the McGuire's insurance policy. Exhibit D (Settlement).

45. Mast also told Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was limited to $100,000.

46. From 2013 forward, Mast and Popovich represented repeatedly to Dulberg that there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and led Dulberg to believe that the matter was being properly handled.

47. Mast also reassured Dulberg that Dulberg would be able to receive the full amount of any eventual recovery from Gagnon.

48. After accepting the $5,000 settlement, Dulberg wrote Mast an email on January 29, 2014 stating "I trust your judgment." (See Email attached as Exhibit E.)

49. Mast and Popovich continued to represent Dulberg into 2015 and continuously assured him that his case was being handled properly.

50. The McGuires owned their home, had homeowner's insurance, and had other property that could have been utilized to pay a judgment against them and in favor of Dulberg.

51. Dulberg cooperated with and appropriately assisted Mast and Popovich in prosecuting the claims against Gagnon and the McGuires.

52. In December of 2016, Dulberg participated in binding mediation related to his claims against Gagnon.

53. In December of 2016, Dulberg was awarded a gross amount of $660,000 and a net award of $561,000 after his contributory negligence was considered.

54. Dulberg was only able to recovery approximately $300,000 of the award from Gagnon's insurance and was unable to collect from Gagnon personally.

55. Only after Dulberg obtained an award against Gagnon did he discover that his claims against the McGuires were viable and valuable.

56. Following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, Dulberg realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information Mast and Popovich had given Dulberg was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake.

57. It was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinions that Dulberg retained for the mediation, that Dulberg became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000.00 on an "all or nothing" basis.

58. Mast and Popovich, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed Dulberg by violating the standard of care owed Dulberg in the following ways and respects:

a) failed to fully and properly investigate the claims and/or basis for liability against the McGuires;

b) failed to properly obtain information through discovery regarding McGuires assets, insurance coverages, and/or ability to pay a judgement and/or settlement against them;

c) failed to accurately advise Dulberg of the McGuires' and Gagnon's insurance coverage related to the claims against them and/or Dulberg's ability to recover through McGuires'and Gagnon's insurance policies, including, but not limited to, incorrectly informing

Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000" and no insurance compnay would pay close to that;

d) failed to take such actions as were necessary during their respective representation of Dulberg to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed and/or were principals of Gagnon, and who sought the assistance Dulberg by for example failing to obtain an expert;

e) failed to accurately advise Dulberg regarding the McGuires' liability, likelihood of success of claims against the McGuires, the McGuires' ability pay any judgment or settlement against them through insurance or other assets, and/or necessity of prosecuting the all the claims against both the McGuires and Gagnon in order to obtain a full recovery;

f) Coerced Dulberg, verbally and though emails, into accepting a settlement with the McGuires for $5,000 by misleading Dulberg into believing that he had no other choice but to accept the settlement or else "The McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion."

59. As a direct result of Mast and Popovich's wrongful actions, Dulberg suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of Mast and Popovich in urging Dulberg to release the McGuires, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of Mast and The Law Offices of Thomas Popovich, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, Paul Dulberg prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

8. On June 28, 2011, and while the Defendant, DAVID GAGNON, was working in the course and scope of his agency for Defendants, CAROLINE McGUIRE and BILL McGUIRE, and was under their supervision and control, Defendant, DAVID GAGNON was in use of a chainsaw while trimming a tree and branch.

9. On June 28, 2011, and while Defendant, DAVID GAGNON, was in use of a chainsaw while trimming a tree and branch, Defendant, DAVID GAGNON, asked for and/or requested the assistance of the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, to hold the tree branch while Defendant, DAVID GAGNON, trimmed the branch with the chainsaw.

10. On June 28, 2011, and while Defendant, DAVID GAGNON, was in sole control, use and operation of the subject chainsaw, the chainsaw was caused to strike and injure the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG.

11. At all relevant times, Defendants, CAROLINE McGUIRE and BILL McGUIRE, knew of Defendant, DAVID GAGNON's use of the chainsaw in the presence of the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, and knew that such created a danger to the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG's safety.

12. That at all relevant times, the Defendants, DAVID GAGNON, as agent of CAROLINE McGUIRE and BILL McGUIRE, owed a duty to use care and caution in his operation of a known dangerous instrumentality.

a. Failed to maintain control over the operating of the chainsaw;

b. Failed to take precaution not to allow the chainsaw to move toward the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, so as to cause injury;

c. Failed to warn the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, of the dangers existing from the Defendant, DAVID GAGNON's inability to control the chainsaw;

d. Failed to keep a proper distance from the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, while operating the chainsaw;

Morning Hans,
Ok we can meet. I will call Shelia today and set up a time.
Please send me a link to the current Illinois statute citing that the property owner is not liable for work done on their property resulting in injury to a neighbor.
I need to read it myself and any links to recent case law in this area would be helpful as well.
Thanks,
Paul

The legality of it all is that a property owner does not have legal liability for a worker (whether friend, son or otherwise) who does the work on his time, using his own independent skills. Here, I deposed the McGuires, and they had nothing to do with how Dave did the work other than to request the work to be done. They had no control on how Dave wielded the chain saw and cut you. Its that simple. We don't have to accept the $5,000, but if we do not, the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion. So that's the situation.

Just because Dave was doing the work doesn't mean they were not trying to tell their kid what to do. They told him plenty of times throughout the day what to do. How is that not supervising?

So if we do not accept their 5000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case

They all left me out in the yard screaming for help while they were busy making sure they were covered.

She even went as far as to finally call the Emergency Room after I was already there just to tell me she was covered.

How selfish are people when they worry about if their insured over helping the person who was hurt and bleeding badly in their yard.

I'm glad she got her answer and had to share it with me only to find out her coverage won't even pay the medical bills.

I'm not happy with the offer.

As far as John Choyinski, he knows he has to call you and said he will tomorrow.

As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery....

Ok, it's signed and in the mail.
Hope that some yahoo in the govt. doesn't someday decide to go after everyone they think they might get a dollar out of and end up holding me responsible for the McGuires fees incurred while they fight it out.
I'm not in the business of warranting, insuring or protecting the McGuires from government. Especially for only 5 grand. For that kind of protection it could cost millions but I trust your judgement.

Who in their right mind puts his arm into a chainsaw?

I figured you would cop out again...

Now I'm left wondering...
How hard is it to sue an atty?

And yes I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case...

The issue of my word vs David Gagnons... Did he cut me or did I cut myself?

Of coarse he cut me.

I've been telling you over a year now the problems with the case and you just don't see them. You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear - it is not. My guess is that seven out of 10 times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I have been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to. There's only $100,000 in coverage. Allstate will never offer anything near the policy limits therefore there's no chance to settle the case. The only alternative is to take the case to trial and I am not interested in doing that. I will wait for you to find a new attorney. I can't assist you any further in this case. Just let me know.

PAUL DULBERG'S ANSWERS TO DEFENDANTS' AFFIRMATIIVE DEFENSES

Paul Dulberg, by and through his attorneys, The Clinton Law Firm, LLC, answers Paul Dulberg's Affirmative Defenses as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES
FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: CONTRIBUTION NEGLIGENCE

1. Plaintiff filed a one count Complaint, sounding in negligence, alleging that Defendants failed to properly represent him in the prosecution of a personal injury case, as more fully stated in the Second Amended Complaint, which is incorporated herein.

ANSWER: Plaintiff admits the allegations of this Paragraph #1.

2. Plaintiffs damages, if any, were due to Plaintiffs own fault. In the event Defendants are held liable, any damages awarded to Plaintiff must be reduced by Plaintiffs proximate share of liability. The Plaintiff was negligent and caused his injuries in the following ways:
   (a) Failed to seek outside counsel if he was reluctant to settle the underlying case with the McGuires.
   (b) Provided Mast and Popovich with authority to make a settlement demand against the McGuires for less than $100,000.
   (c) Received a written settlement agreement from the McGuires, forwarded by U.S. Mail from Mast, examined it, deliberated upon it, accepted it, signed it, and mailed it back to Mast.
   (d) Retained successor counsel after Mast and Popovich withdrew, and agreed to a "high-low" agreement at a binding mediation which limited Dulberg's potential recovery against the remaining Defendant, Gagnon.

ANSWER: Plaintiff denies the allegations of this Paragraph #2.

EXHIBIT D

Received 09-16-2022 04:17 PM / Circuit Clerk Accepted on 09-16-2022 04:18 PM / Transaction #19526335 / Case #2017LA000377
Purchased from re:SearchIL

3. If Plaintiff's contributing fault is found to be more than 50% of the proximate cause of the injury or damage, then Plaintiff shall be barred from recovering any damages whatsoever.

ANSWER: Plaintiff denies the allegations of this Paragraph #3.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, respectfully requests that Defendants' Affirmative Defenses be denied and that Plaintiff be awrded damages as requested in his Second Amended Complaint.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE
STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

1. In Plaintiffs Complaint, it alleges that The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. and Hans Mast failed to adequately represent him in the action captioned, Paul Dulberg, Plaintiffv. David Gagnon, et al., Defendants, Case No. 12 LA 178, McHenry County, Illinois (the 'Underlying Action").

ANSWER: Plaintiff admits the allegations of this Paragraph #1.

2. Plaintiffs damages, if any, were due to Plaintiff's own fault. In the event Defendants are held liable, any damages awarded to Plaintiff must be reduced by Plaintiffs proximate share of liability. The Plaintiff was negligent and caused his injuries in the following ways:
   (a) Failed to seek outside counsel if he was reluctant to settle the underlying case with the McGuires.
   (b) Provided Mast and Popovich with authority to make a settlement demand against the McGuires for less than $100,000.
   (c) Received a written settlement agreement from the McGuires, forwarded by U.S. Mail from Mast, examined it, deliberated upon it, accepted it, signed it, and mailed it back to Mast.
   (d) Retained successor counsel after Mast and Popovich withdrew, and agreed to a "high-low" agreement at a binding mediation which limited Dulberg's potential recovery against the remaining Defendant, Gagnon.

ANSWER: Plaintiff denies the allegations of this Paragraph #2, subparts a-d.

3. Plaintiff, however, did not file this action until November 28, 2017, more than two years after the applicable statute of limitations had run.

ANSWER: Plaintiff denies the allegations of this Paragraph #3.

4. Accordingly, this matter is time-barred.

ANSWER: Plaintiff denies the allegations of this Paragraph #4.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, respectfully requests that Defendants' Affirmative Defenses be denied and that Plaintiff be awrded damages as requested in his Second Amended Complaint.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES
THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE: PROXIMATE CAUSE

1. Plaintiff filed a one count Complaint, sounding in negligence, alleging that Defendants failed to properly represent him in the prosecution of a personal injury case, as more fully stated in the Second Amended Complaint, which is incorporated herein.

ANSWER: Plaintiff admits the allegations of this Paragraph #1.

2. Plaintiff retained successor counsel after Popovich and Mast withdrew. To the extent that any malpractice occurred during Dulberg's representation by the Popovich firm or its agents, which is expressly denied, and to the extent that any malpractice or proximately caused damages could have been remedied by Dulberg and his successor counsel, then Mast and Popovich can never be found to be the proximate cause ofDulberg's damages.

ANSWER: Plaintiff denies the allegations of this Paragraph #2.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, respectfully requests that Defendants' Affirmative Defenses be denied and that Plaintiff be awrded damages as requested in his Second Amended Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

PAUL DULBERG,

EXAMINATION

BY MR. FLYNN:

Q. Let the record reflect that this is the discovery deposition of Paul Dulberg taken by agreement of the parties and pursuant to notice.

This deposition is being taken pursuant to the Rules of the Illinois Supreme Court, the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules in McHenry County.

Sir, could you state your name and spell your last name for the record.

A. Palm Dulberg, D-u-l-b-e-r-g.

Q. What is your address?

A. 4606 Hayden Court, McHenry, Illinois 60051.

Q. How long have you lived there?

A. Forty-nine years.

Q. Who do you live there with now?

Q. Did your mother live there at some point throughout the history of this case?

A. Yes.

Q. I'm just going to go over a few rules for the deposition. I know you've testified at least one time in a deposition before because you testified in the underlying personal injury case, correct?

A. Correct.

Q. Have you testified in any other depositions before?

A. No.

Q. I'll just remind you of a few rules that I'm sure you were aware of back then when you gave your deposition.

The court reporter is here to take down everything that you and I say. She can only take down one at a time so I'd ask that before you answer a question, let me finish the entire question. Okay?

A. Yes.

Q. I'll try to do the same. I'll try to let you respond before I ask a follow-up question.

You just nodded your head. That's another good point to make. She can't take down nods of the head, shrugs of the shoulders or other hand gestures. Your answers need to be verbal.

From time to time we forget those rules and I may just point to the court reporter as a reminder, if that's okay.

A. Yes.

Q. If you need to take a break at any time, feel free to stop me. I just ask that it's not while a question is pending that has not been answered. Fair enough?

A. I'll try to do that.

Q. If you've answered a question, I will assume you understood it. Okay?

A. Yes.

Q. I was asking you about your mother. She lived at the house during the pendency of the underlying case?

A. Yes.

Q. Is she still alive?

A. Yes.

MS. WILLIAMS: Can we define "underlying case"?

BY MR. FLYNN:

Q. The underlying case is a personal injury

case that you filed against Bill and Caroline McGuire and David Gagnon.

A. That sounds correct.

Q. We'll get into the dates of the filing a little bit later. We'll call that, generally, the underlying case.

Your mother lived at the house at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. Did she own the house?

A. No.

Q. Do you own the house currently?

A. Yes.

Q. Does anyone else own the house?

A. No.

Q. How long have you owned it?

A. I think I first purchased it off my parents in '97, '98, something like that.

Q. Did you hire a lawyer in connection with that transaction?

A. No.

Q. Were your parents represented by a lawyer?

A. No.

Q. The building, as I understand it, is a duplex; is that right?

A. No.

Q. Were there two apartments in the building at one time?

A. No.

Q. Was there a point in time where you and your mother lived in one half of the house and Mike McArtor lived in the other half?

A. Yes.

Q. How was that arrangement with respect to the location of the living spaces, if you can describe it?

A. It has a walkout basement. He had the downstairs with an exit out the back. We had the upstairs with an exit out the front.

Q. Have you ever been convicted of a crime of fraud, dishonesty or deceit?

A. No.

Q. Besides the hiring of the Popovich firm in connection with the underlying personal injury case, up to that point in time had you ever had an occasion to hire a lawyer?

A. I did during a traffic accident, and I don't remember the year.

Q. Were you injured in about 2002? Does that sound right?

A. Roughly.

Q. Who did you hire?

A. I might get the name wrong because it's been a long time. I think it was Weiss and Michling and something else. It was a lawyer right outside the courthouse in Woodstock.

Q. A McHenry County lawyer?

A. Yeah.

Q. It was a personal injury case?

A. Yeah. It was a car accident.

Q. Did you file a lawsuit in that case?

A. I don't think we needed to.

Q. You just filed an insurance claim?

A. They did, yes.

Q. You settled it?

A. Yes.

Q. Any other occasions to hire a lawyer between that time and the time you hired the Popovich firm?

A. May I consult for a minute because I'm not sure how to answer that.

Q. Why don't you just tell me why you can't answer it.
A. Because I've hired lawyers, but they were for the company that I had. That's different.
Q. I'm asking general questions about any interaction you've had with hiring lawyers. Any experience you've had with hiring lawyers.
A. I had a corporate lawyer. My mom and dad hired a lawyer for me when I was a kid. It was something. And myself, just the corporate lawyer, the car accident lawyer and the Popovich firm.
Q. Have you ever been married?
A. No.
Q. So you never hired a divorce lawyer. Good. How old are you now?
A. Forty-nine.
Q. The underlying case arose out of an injury that occurred on June 28, 2011, correct?
A. That sounds correct.
Q. How old were you at that time?
A. Forty-one.
Q. Besides the underlying lawsuit against the McGuires and Mr. Gagnon, had you ever filed any other lawsuit up until that point in time?

Page 10

A. No.
Q. Have you filed any lawsuits since that time besides the lawsuit against Popovich and Mast?
A. No.
Q. Do you have any military experience?
A. Yes.
Q. Please tell me about that.
A. Army National Guard. Illinois Army National Guard.
Q. How long have you been in the National Guard?
A. I'm not currently in it.
Q. When were you, from when to when?
A. I may not get the year correct. '88 or '89 to '92 or '93, somewhere in there.
Q. What was your highest rank when you were discharged from the National Guard?
A. When I was discharged?
Q. Correct.
A. I don't know. I've gotten moved up and moved down. I don't know where I ended up.
Q. How was it that you were discharged?
A. Less than honorable.
Q. What was the cause?

Page 11

A. I missed morning call, roll call. If you're not there, you're AWOL.
Q. Absent without leave?
A. Yes.
Q. What is the highest level of education that you've attained?
A. I do not have a degree. Two years of college.
Q. You graduated from high school?
A. Yes.
Q. Was that in Johnsburg in 1988?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you know Mr. Gagnon from Johnsburg High School?
A. Not from high school but just after high school.
Q. Just coincidentally you attended the same high school?
A. He was three years older than I was. I didn't know who he was until after high school.
Q. You had some education after high school but did not receive a degree, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Where did you study?

Page 12

A. I had a couple classes at McHenry County College and McMurray College.
Q. What did you study?
A. The first two years. The basics.
Q. General studies?
A. Yeah. I did a criminal justice course. I did a macro/microeconomics. I did psychology, sociology. The normal stuff.
Q. How did you meet David Gagnon?
A. Through a mutual friend.
Q. When was that?
A. I want to say, roughly, 1990.
Q. Was your home located somewhere fairly close to his parents' home or his mom and stepdad's home?
A. Two streets away.
Q. That's where you were injured on June 28, 2011, was at David Gagnon's mom's house and his stepdad's house?
A. Yes.
Q. And their name is McGuire?
A. Yes.

A. He was cutting a branch.
Q. Cutting branches off a tree, correct?
A. Cutting up the branches after they were off the tree.
Q. Could you tell me a little bit about your work history. Do you have any licenses or certifications?
A. I'm certified to run printing presses. Or at least I was.
Q. You worked for Sharp Printing, Inc. from '91 to 2011; is that right?
A. Ninety-one? No. I would say 1999.
Q. Did you own that corporation?
A. Yes. Well, partner. I was a partner. I didn't own like...
Q. It was an Illinois corporation?
A. Yes.
Q. Were you –
A. A stockholder.
Q. Let me just finish my question so she can take us down.
You were a stockholder in Sharp Printing, Inc.?

Page 14

A. Yes.
Q. Who else were the stockholders?
A. Mike McArtor and Scott Dulberg and at that time it was Herbert Dulberg.
Q. What does that mean? Do you mean Scott's name was Herbert?
A. No. Scott Dulberg was an owner and Herbert Dulberg was an owner. Three different Dulbergs: me, my brother, my dad.
Q. And Mike McArtor?
A. Yes.
Q. There were four owners at what time?
A. Until my dad died and then it went to three.
Q. Was that business incorporated?
A. Yes.
Q. Did a lawyer assist the corporation with setting up the corporation?
A. Yes.
Q. When did that happen?
A. 1999.
Q. Did you hire the lawyer yourself?
A. All three of us did. All four of us. Sorry.

Q. What was the name of that attorney?
A. McAndrews, and I don't remember the rest of it. It was McAndrews in McHenry. I can get you the rest of that information.
Q. They are based in Crystal Lake, Illinois?
A. It used to be in McHenry when we did that.
Q. Patrick McAndrews, he was also identified as the registered agent of that corporation?
A. Yes.
Q. It was voluntarily dissolved on April 8, 2011; is that right?
A. That's what the Secretary of State's Office has, yes.
Q. Is that your understanding as well?
A. I was corrected. My partners – I was corrected. It was actually after the accident. How it got to end up with that date, I'm not sure.
Q. What was corrected, exactly?
A. Well, do you want me to – Mike read my deposition and he said, "You got that wrong." I said, "What do you mean?" because I answered it twice in that deposition.
I was thinking that Juskie happened before the accident. Sharp Printing wasn't actually dissolved until after the accident when we decided to sell off the equipment and end it all. That's the honest truth.

Q. I will represent to you that the Illinois Secretary of State's Website as of today shows that the company was involuntarily dissolved on April 8, 2011. So it's your testimony that that is not true?
A. I don't know how they come up with that.
Q. Why don't we break it down and start with why the corporation was involuntarily dissolved. Do you know that?
A. Involuntarily? I don't know. It may be that I was late on paying the corporate licensing thing, which we just pay a fine and did it. We didn't renew it because we decided to end it.
We had a ten-year thing, I think, on it. I may be wrong. I've got to go back and look at the records.
Q. Is it possible that the corporation was actually involuntarily dissolved by the Illinois Secretary of State on April 8, 2011?
A. Sure.
Q. Did Sharp Printing, Inc. file corporate tax returns while it was a going concern?

A. We had a problem the couple of years before the accident because I was not up in Illinois and I usually did that with the lawyer and the accountant and things got screwed up while I was taking care of a loved one who was dying down in Florida.
Q. Did the corporation ever file tax returns?
A. Oh, yes.
Q. When did they file?
A. Quarterly and annually.
Q. Until what year?
A. Roughly somewhere in 2008. I was missing things because I was not here. I know we missed a few.
Q. I believe you testified in your underlying deposition that Sharp Printing, Inc. was not dissolved as a result of your June 28, 2011 chainsaw accident, correct?
A. Yes, I did. I stood corrected by my partners.
Q. So is it your testimony that the corporation was dissolved because of your personal injury?

A. I don't know how to answer that without going back and looking at records.
Q. Was the company winding down up until about the time you were hurt?
A. The company books got screwed up when I was down in Florida and I was back up in Illinois in 2010 getting back on my feet and I was going to pick things back up, get everything paid up, the fines and everything.
Q. Who were you taking care of in Florida?
A. My grandmother.
Q. You were gone from when until when?
A. I want to say from the mid to end of 2007 until somewhere in the beginning of 2010.
Q. Was anyone running Sharp Printing during that period of time?
A. Mike McArtor.
Q. Did Sharp Printing have any customers for that three-year period?
A. Yes, they did.
Q. How many?
A. I'm not sure, without looking at the books.

Q. Can you estimate what the yearly revenues were for Sharp Printing in the year 2007?
A. In 2007? I'd have to look at the books, to be honest with you.
Q. Was it more than $5,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Was it more than $100,000?
A. No.
Q. Was it more than $20,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Same line of questioning with respect to 2008. Do you know what the revenues were for Sharp Printing in '08?
A. Are you asking me what we reported or what we made and put into accounts for equipment?
Q. I'm asking you about revenues.
A. Total sales?
Q. Total revenues.
A. In two thousand...?
Q. 2008.
A. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Can you estimate what they were?
A. No, because I wasn't there.
Q. Do you know how many customers the company had in 2008?

A. We had a few, I know that. I don't know how many. Mike was handling it and it got messed up.
Q. What types of customers did Sharp Printing have in 2007 and 2008?
A. What kind of customers?
Q. Right. What did you do?
A. We printed on t-shirts. We printed on CDs. We printed on anything that wasn't wet. We printed on glass, all different stuff.
Q. Were there any full-time employees of Sharp Printing in '07 and '08?
A. In '07 and '08, no.
Q. Just the owners?
A. Just the owners.
Q. Did all the owners operate the business?
A. Yes.
Q. Including your brother?
A. Yes.
Q. What were the yearly revenues of Sharp Printing in 2009?
A. I don't know.
Q. What about 2010, do you know?

A. No.
Q. When did Sharp Printing start selling its equipment?
A. I put up the ad in August. I think August. I might be off by a month or two. August of 2011.
Q. Did you sell any equipment prior to August 2011?
A. No.
Q. What type of equipment did Sharp Printing, Inc. have or own?
A. Mostly textile screen printing equipment, but we had other screen printing stuff too. Paper.
Q. Where was the equipment located?
A. My home.
Q. Did you require a license to conduct this business out of your home?
A. We had what was called a temporary -- we're in a rural area so we didn't have to have that.
Q. In any event, you didn't have a license, correct?
A. We had a license to do business there, yes.

Q. In that location?
A. Yes.
Q. Did customers ever come to the shop?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall how many customers the business had in 2010?
A. Not in 2010.
Q. Was it more than five?
A. Yes.
Q. Was it more than 100?
A. It might be around that. I don't know, specifically.
Q. In 2010 you may have had 100 customers that you did t-shirt screen prints for?
A. Possibly. I'm not saying that is the number, but it's possible.
Q. Did Sharp Printing have any customers in 2011?
A. Mike was finishing up one customer's thing in the spring of 2011, yes. We don't -- I'll give you -- we don't typically get much work between January 1st and the first warm days of Spring. We sell t-shirts and not a lot of people buy during that period. They just don't.

Q. You did not earn a salary from Sharp Printing, correct?
A. No.
Q. You did not earn an hourly wage, correct?
A. No.
Q. I think your interrogatory answers indicate you didn't take a profit or a draw, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. How much, if any, money did you earn from Sharp Printing in 2011?
A. Can I ask how to define that? In 2011 I didn't pull any.
Q. Did you earn any income whatsoever from Sharp Printing in 2010?
A. I don't think so.
Q. You were down in Florida for '07 to 2010?
A. Sometime in early 2010, yes.
Q. Did you earn any income from Sharp Printing from 2007 to 2010?
A. No.
Q. Were you working in Florida?
A. No.
Q. Is it fair to say you were unemployed

from 2007 to 2010?
A. Yes. I was not officially collecting unemployment.
Q. You weren't an employee of any business or working for any individual, correct?
A. I did do some work for Mark. I did some traveling back and forth from Florida to Illinois back and forth during that time. When I was up here, I did do some work for Juskie Printing. Not much, though.
Q. What is Juskie Printing?
A. Juskie Printing is another one that I had listed as an employer in the underlying case.
Q. What are they?
A. Another print broker.
Q. Where are they located?
A. I don't know the exact address, but it's off of Chicago Avenue off of 355 going south.
MS. WILLIAMS: I think he's asking what city.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. I don't know how the cities break up down there.

Chicago?
A. Yes.
Q. How long did you have a relationship with Juskie Printing?
A. Since the early 2000s.
Q. What type of printing did Juskie do?
A. Offset, mostly.
Q. What does that mean?
A. Prints on paper.
Q. Did you have a set schedule at any time working for Juskie?
A. I don't know what you mean by "a set schedule."
Q. Did you have a particular number of hours per week?
A. No. The jobs I got were project based.
Q. How many projects did you have from 2007 to 2011 for Juskie?
A. Probably a few hundred quick little things, yeah. At least.
Q. Do you know what you earned from working at Juskie in 2007?
A. Not without looking at the returns, I don't know offhand.

Q. How often were you in the Chicago area in 2007?
A. I didn't leave here until, I want to say, August or September of '07.
Q. And then thereafter?
A. I was not back that year.
Q. You didn't work for Juskie in 2008, correct?
A. I might have done some stuff.
Q. You're not sure?
A. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Were you in Florida?
A. Part of the time, yeah.
Q. How often did you come back and forth between –
A. About every three months I tried to get back up here.
Q. For how long?
A. Sometimes a few weeks. Sometimes a month.
Q. Did you come back and work or did you take care of other things?
A. If I'd let Mark know I was back, "I've got something for you or I don't."

Q. Who is Mark?
A. Mark owns Juskie Printing.
Q. I think your interrogatory answers indicated from 1999 through 2006 you were employed in a barter situation; is that right?
A. With Mark, yes.
Q. What does that mean, exactly?
A. Well, he would owe me money and he would give me printing equipment instead of cash.
Q. He owed you money for working for him?
A. Well, he owed both Sharp Printing and me, personally, money. They are two different things. But he would just pay by saying, hey, I've got this or I've got this paper cutter or this or that. It was a barter.
Q. So you worked for him from 1999 to 2006 but did not earn any income in the traditional sense?
A. No money changed hands.
Q. He gave you things to pay you for projects?
A. Correct.
Q. You gave a deposition in the underlying case on January 24, 2013. Does that sound right?

Page 28

A. If it says it on there, yes.
Q. You took an oath that day?
A. Yes.
Q. You told the truth?
A. I tried to, to the best of my knowledge, on that day, yes.
Q. You told the truth in response to all of the questions that day, correct?
A. I tried to, yes.
Q. You testified you were last employed prior to the accident in May of 2011?
A. That would be with Juskie, yes.
Q. It's accurate –
A. Actually, I wasn't employed. I was a 1099 so I was self-employment.
Q. When in May did you stop working for Juskie, whether it be as an employee or an independent contractor?
A. I believe it was the end of May.
Q. Then from the beginning of June until your accident on June 28, 2011, you were not employed; is that an accurate statement?
A. Correct.
Q. You were not even acting as an independent contractor for any business from that period of time, correct?

A. Not during that month, no.
Q. Your deposition testimony from 2013 is typed up on 175 pages. I don't intend to go back over each of those details.
A. Okay.
Q. It's fair to say you were injured, your arm was injured on June 28, 2011, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Which arm was that?
A. My right arm.
Q. As a result of the injury, you hired the Popovich law firm to explore a recovery in the case?
A. I hired them to represent me, yes.
Q. You hired them to represent you and file a lawsuit against David Gagnon who was operating the chainsaw that injured you, correct?
A. He was one of them, yes.
Q. I'm asking you if you hired him to – listen to the question, please.
David Gagnon was operating the chainsaw, correct?
A. Correct.

Q. No one else was operating the chainsaw?
A. Correct.
Q. You also hired Popovich to sue Bill and Caroline McGuire, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. They were the land owners where your accident occurred?
A. They did own the land, yes.
Q. The accident occurred at their house, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. This was in the backyard, so to speak?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans Mast was the primary handling attorney at the Popovich firm for your case?
A. That's who I met with, yes.
Q. Did any other lawyer communicate with you while Popovich was handling your case?
A. The lady who sat in on my deposition. Ms. Freeman I think it is. I'm not sure about that.
Q. Generally speaking, Hans Mast, though, was the primary handling attorney?
A. Yes.
Q. Before you hired the Popovich firm in May of 2012, is that the correct time period?

A. I don't think so. I don't think they filed it until then, but I might be wrong. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Was there a retainer agreement executed in May 2012?
A. I don't think I paid a retainer.
Q. Did you execute an attorney engagement agreement in May 2012?
A. I believe it was much earlier than that.
Q. You only executed one engagement letter or engagement agreement with Popovich, correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. Before you executed or came to an arrangement with Popovich, had you talked to any other lawyers about investigating –
A. One.
Q. Let me finish the question.
– investigating or filing the lawsuit?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was that?
A. I went back to the same firm that handled the car accident for me years earlier.
Q. What was the name of that firm?

A. They changed names when I went back there. It was Weiss – I have to go back through paperwork and get you the actual name.
Q. They are known as a personal injury firm; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. Why did you not hire them to take your case?
A. The man who handled my case previously with the car accident was no longer with the firm and they said go find somebody else.
Q. I'm not sure what one has to do with the other.
A. I don't either. I just said okay and I went and found somebody else.
Q. Did you meet with an attorney at that firm?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you tell them what happened with your incident?
A. Yes.
Q. They told you that they did not want to take the case; is that right?
A. Yes.

Q. They declined the case?
A. They declined the case.
Q. Did they tell you why they declined the case?
A. No.
Q. You next went to the Popovich firm?
A. Yes.
Q. They took the case?
A. Yes.
Q. They, ultimately, filed a lawsuit against Gagnon and the McGuires on May 15, 2012; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. You reviewed the lawsuit and approved it, correct?
A. I didn't – I never got anything to review.
Q. Did you ever read the lawsuit?
A. No. I was never given any paperwork.
Q. Back to the incorporation of Sharp. What interaction did you have with corporate lawyers when they were first retained?
A. McAndrews?
Q. Correct.

Page 34

A. What relationship?
Q. What experience did you have with McAndrews when you first retained them?
A. He was good.
Q. How often did you meet with him or speak to him?
A. Once a year.
Q. Did he file corporate returns or other documents for the company?
A. No. I had to file them. He just made sure they were all done right, I believe.
Q. Have you ever had occasion to hire a criminal lawyer?
A. I did in 1990. My mom and dad had to hire one. Not me.
Q. Did you hire a criminal lawyer for your mom and dad?
A. No. They hired one for me.
Q. Who was that?
A. Give me a second. You're digging back far in my memory. Driscoll was the last name.
Q. This was a McHenry County-based criminal lawyer?
A. No. Des Plaines.

Page 35

Q. What was the general nature of the reason for the need for a lawyer?
A. Drug possession.
Q. Were you convicted of it?
A. Yes. I pled guilty.
Q. That was a Cook County case, then?
A. No. It was a McHenry County case.
Q. The lawyer was in Des Plaines, though?
A. Yes.
Q. But he represented you in McHenry County in criminal court?
A. Yes.
Q. Throughout the case you met with the lawyer?
A. A few times.
Q. While Popovich represented you in the underlying personal injury case, did you ever communicate with any other lawyers about your case?
A. At the end, yes.
Q. Popovich withdrew sometime in March 2015?
A. Correct.
Q. And Brad Balke entered his appearance on March 19, 2015. Does that sound correct?
A. That is correct.

Page 36

Q. Popovich also withdrew that day, right?
A. I don't know if it was on the same day. I'd have to look at the paperwork.
Q. Besides Mr. Balke, had you talked to any other lawyers towards the end of the relationship with Popovich?
A. Yes.
Q. How many?
A. Hundreds.
Q. Hundreds of lawyers?
A. I'm not kidding. Yes.
Q. Did you ask those lawyers to take your case?
A. I asked them to review it.
Q. Did any of them take the case?
A. No.
Q. They all reviewed it, though?
A. Yes. Most took the time to review it.
Q. Did any of them tell you why they didn't want to take the case?
A. There were different reasons I got from various. Some people just didn't get back to me and some people wrote me letters. I think I gave you some of those. But I got various reasons back from attorneys.

Q. I don't recall seeing any lawyers, but I would ask you to search for those.
MS. WILLIAMS: We'll search for those. I'll make a note.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. As you sit here, do you recall the basis for any attorney declining to take your personal injury case over from Popovich?
A. Say that again.
Q. As you sit here today, do you recall any of the reasons why any attorney declined to take your personal injury case over from the Popovich firm?
A. Yes.
Q. What were those reasons?
A. I remember a few. One I was looking at local lawyers in McHenry County and I was told like -- I can name them. My sister was married to him.
Anyway, I was told if Tom Popovich says you don't have a case, you don't have a case and we're not even going to look at it. That I got a lot of it.

Q. That's one reason. Any others?
A. That I got locally a lot of. As I started to work away from local further out finding attorneys, the thing was your decision to settle with the McGuires was a mistake and we don't take it because of that.
Q. Who said that?
A. Sal Ferris.
Q. When did you speak to Sal Ferris?
A. I don't know the exact date.
Q. When did he --
A. He wasn't the only one.
Q. When did he say that to you, that you just described?
A. He said it in a letter and he said it on the phone and he sent me an e-mail, I think. I don't remember the ways that he contacted me. I'd have to go back and look.
MS. WILLIAMS: We'll find it.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Besides Sal Ferris, can you recall any other attorney, specifically, that told you they wouldn't take the case because of your settlement with the McGuires?

Page 39

A. Yes.
Q. Who was that?
A. There was at least three firms downtown here right near the Daley Center that I came down to see and I don't remember their names, but they -- I got the same thing out of all three of them.
Q. Did any of the lawyers give you any other reason for declining your case?
A. Mostly it was because they knew Popovich or it was the McGuire settlement.
Q. Did any lawyer tell you that they didn't want to take your case because there was questionable liability against David Gagnon?
A. No.
Q. Did any lawyer tell you that there was questionable liability against the property owners, the McGuires?
A. No.
Q. We're jumping ahead, but did you have different lawyers that handled a binding arbitration or binding mediation for you in the underlying case?
A. Yes.
Q. Their name was Baudin?
A. Yes.

Page 40

Q. Why did Brad Balke not handle the binding arbitration?
A. I fired him.
Q. When did you fire Brad Balke?
A. I'd have to look at the dates. I'm not sure, exactly.
Q. Why did you fire him?
A. Because he forced me to undergo the exact mediation at the McHenry County court in front of Judge Meyer that Hans Mast set up that I specifically said no to.
Q. When was this mediation?
A. I'd have to look at the dates again.
Q. Was it a pretrial conference?
A. Yes.
Q. You actually attended this pretrial conference?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. What happened?
A. I said no.
Q. You said no about what?
A. They offered an amount of money and I said no.
Q. The defendants offered an amount of money?

A. Yes.
Q. Was this before or after the McGuires settled out of the case?
A. They were settled.
Q. So there was an offer of settlement from David Gagnon or his insurer?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall what that amount of money was?
A. $50,000.
Q. You refused the offer?
A. Yes.
Q. Why did that cause you to fire Brad Balke?
A. He wouldn't take it any further than that and he agreed to when I hired him. He agreed that that was not going to be the end of it and then he changed his tune, and I said, you know what – and the other thing was, I finally got through to the Baudins who I wanted to take the case because they had helped my family – his dad helped my family many eons earlier.
Q. Did you ever talk to Brad Balke about the liability or lack of liability by the McGuires, the property owners in the case?

A. I don't think so. We were on the Gagnon case.
Q. You didn't discuss the McGuires?
A. There may have been a word or something, but that's not what he was there for.
Q. He never gave you an opinion one way or the other whether the settlement was appropriate?
A. I don't believe Brad did, no. Like I said – I don't think he did.
Q. At some point after your accident did you hire the Daley Disability Law Firm?
A. Yes.
Q. Was that for --
A. I didn't hire.
Q. I know you're anticipating what I'm saying.
A. I was trying to correct myself. I did not hire.
Q. Either way, let me try to get out my question before you raise any kind of response, just so she can take down –
A. Count before I answer.

Page 43

Q. That's a good idea.
Did you ever retain the Daley Disability Law Firm?
A. NO.
Q. Did you have any relationship with Daley Disability –
A. Yes.
Q. – Law? Let me finish it before you answer. I know you're anticipating what you think I'm going to say, but it might not come out the way you think. Either way, she can't take down both of us talking over each other.
What relationship did you ever have with the Daley Disability Law Firm?
A. They stepped in as a substitute counsel for the law firm that I did hire.
Q. You originally hired some other law firm to represent you in connection with social security disability?
A. Yes.
Q. What was the name of that original law --
A. The lady's ladies name was Margaret Bradshaw.
Q. You terminated your relationship with her

Page 44

one way or another?
A. No.
Q. Why did Daley Disability Law substitute in for her?
A. I was told by – I have to go back and look at the communications exactly how it happened, but I was told that, basically, they are going to be taking over the hearing part of it. I don't know why. I don't know whether they sub out work. I don't know how it works.
Q. Would it be fair to say that you first retained Ms. Bradshaw in 2012 sometime?
A. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Is that approximately when you applied for social security?
A. It sounds like it.
Q. The Daley Disability Law Firm came in sometime in 2012 as well?
A. I don't know exactly when. I don't know.
Q. Would it be 2012 or 2013?
A. I know that they were there and – I know that something had to be signed when we went in for the hearings. Margaret Bradshaw had to sign something for the judge allowing Daley Disability to

Q. Did you file for bankruptcy while your personal injury case was pending?
A. Yes.
Q. When did you file for bankruptcy?
A. I'd have to look at the paperwork again, but I don't believe that was until, I want to say, about eight or nine months, but I'm guessing, after the McGuire settlement.
MS. WILLIAMS: The question was what month and year.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. I don't know exactly. I'd have to go back and look at the paperwork.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Did you hire a lawyer to represent you in a bankruptcy?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was that lawyer?
A. David Stretch.
MS. WILLIAMS: If it helps, we can stipulate to the date the bankruptcy was filed.

Page 46

MR. FLYNN: That's fine. I think we've got some e-mails that may reflect when it was. I just wondered if he knew offhand.
MS. WILLIAMS: I can stipulate, at least, that it was 2014.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. You filed for bankruptcy while the Popovich firm was still representing you —
A. Yes.
Q. — in the underlying case, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Sometimes I'll still pause in my question so if you could please pause before you answer.
In the underlying case you answered written discovery; is that true?
A. I believe so.
Q. Then you later testified at your deposition January 24, 2013, correct?
A. If that's the date, yes.
Q. Ultimately, David Gagnon was also deposed, true?
A. Yes.
Q. Were you present for his deposition?
A. No.

Page 47

Q. Did Caroline McGuire give a deposition in that case?
A. I believe so, yes.
Q. Were you present for that dep?
A. No.
Q. What about Bill McGuire's deposition?
A. I was not present.
Q. Did you e-mail back and forth with Hans Mast a fair amount during the Popovich firm's representation of you?
A. By "fair amount," what do you mean?
Q. Did you regularly e-mail with Hans Mast?
A. Yes.
Q. Those e-mail communications have all been produced in this case?
A. Yes.
Q. On to the exhibits. This will be 1.

A. Yes.
Q. We've been providing you with various copies of the signature page in the case that's been back and forth between me and your counsel.
I don't, frankly, know if this verification that's attached is the one that went with this document, but I'll just ask you, for the record, if these are your answers, that's your signature, and that this verification is accurate?
A. That is my signature on there, yes.
Q. What was the e-mail address you used in the communication with Hans Mast?
A. Primarily it was pdulberg@comcast.net.
Q. His address was hansmast@comcast.net?
A. And he switched it to at&t.net.
Q. Did you use some other e-mail address as well?
A. I may have accidentally e-mailed him a couple of times from a Yahoo account.

of those e-mail accounts of yours?
A. I no longer have the Yahoo account.
Q. Did you search through the Comcast account?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you search for PDFs or attachments to those e-mails that you produced?
A. Everything that I got, I turned over. I had converted the e-mails to PDFs because Comcast started purging the e-mails after so many years, so I turned them all into PDFs.
MS. WILLIAMS: The question was what did you search in your in box.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. What did I search?
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me ask you a different question. You produced e-mails in this case?
A. Yes.
Q. You turned e-mails into PDFs and sent them to your lawyer; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. Some of the e-mails I reviewed have an icon that indicates there was a PDF or some other attachment to the e-mail. Do you understand that?

A. Yes.
Q. Did you produce the attachments to each of the e-mails in this case?
A. We went through that. I produced the attachments that I still had.
Q. There were some that were not available, correct?
A. Yeah. When I looked at them, 99 percent of them were already part of some other document that we turned over. I think 100 percent of them.
Q. At some point in time while Hans was handling your case, did he start to communicate with you relative to his analysis of the McGuires' liability in the case?
A. Yes.
Q. Did he start to generally advise you that he didn't believe that there was a strong case for liability against the McGuires?
A. Yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that Hans' opinion was that the McGuires did not have liability in the case because they did not control the work that David Gagnon was doing?

Page 51

A. Yes.
Q. That's generally a fair summary of Hans' opinion?
A. Not quite exactly those words, but yeah.
Q. The McGuires' liability as property owners was questionable because based on Hans' analysis of the evidence, they did not control the work or the manner of work of David Gagnon on the date of the accident; is that a fair summary?
A. Depends on which time he said that.
Q. Did he say things like that over and over again?
A. He did say things like that, yes.
Q. Again, I don't want to go over the facts you already testified to with regards to the date of the accident. At some point in time was William McGuire swimming in the swimming pool?
A. Yes.
Q. Was that an above ground pool or —
A. Above ground.
Q. Was there a fair amount of time during the day that Mr. McGuire was inside the house watching television?
A. Maybe — he went inside the house for probably about 45 minutes before the accident happened. I don't know that he was watching television.

MR. FLYNN: Let's mark the next exhibit as 2.

Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 2, which is an e-mail chain including e-mails from November 18, 2013, are these e-mails between you and Hans Mast?
A. It looks like it, yes.
Q. I think the time stamps on these e-mails go from the bottom, which would be page 2, to the top of the first page, correct?
A. It's backwards, yes.
Q. In the original e-mail at 1:28 p.m., did Hans Mast relay to you a $5,000 settlement offer from the McGuires?
A. Which — where are you at?
Q. We're on Exhibit 2, which is also labeled as Bates label POP 181. At the bottom of the page, does Hans relay to you a settlement offer for $5,000?

A. Yes.
Q. He was telling you that the McGuires' attorney offered to settle the case for $5,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have an understanding that that was a settlement just for the McGuires, not including David Gagnon?
A. Yes.
Q. In the e-mail Hans says, quote, "As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now."
Is that an accurate reading?
A. Of that sentence, yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that he suggested that you take the $5,000 but didn't force you to take it?
A. It says, "So my suggestion is..."
Q. Then did you respond to the e-mail?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans replied again at 8:07 p.m. that same day, right?
A. Yes.

Page 54

Q. He said, "Paul, whether you like it or not, they don't have a legal liability for your injury because they were not directing the work."
Is that right?
A. Part of it, yes.
Q. Was my prior summary of Hans' legal analysis a fair summary in view of these e-mails and his opinion that he relayed to you?
A. I think it went further than this, and other things, but yes.
Q. As far as these e-mails, I've accurately –
A. This e-mail, yes.
Q. What else did he tell you about the McGuires and why he didn't think they would be found liable in the case?
A. I'm pulling out of memory because I can't quote which document it's off of.
Q. That's what we're here for.
A. I can only give you the gist.
Q. I'll ask you for the exact language, but if you don't have it –
A. At one point he defined what an independent contractor is for me and he said that

Page 55

David was an independent contractor and that the McGuires weren't liable because they had hired somebody outside even though it's their own son, he's an adult, outside to do the work and that they weren't responsible.
Q. By the way, how old was David at the time that this accident occurred?
A. I'm adding. If I was 41 – I don't know what his birthday is, but I'm assuming he would be 44, 45.
Q. Is it fair to say that there were two 40-plus-year-olds, a 41- and a 44-year-old trimming trees with a chainsaw in David's parent's backyard that day, correct?
A. I was not using it. There was one 44-year-old using a chainsaw.
Q. You, the 41-year-old was holding some branches for him?
A. Yes. Just before the accident, yes.
Q. Up until this point in time when Hans is providing this legal analysis to you, you had a fair number of occasions to interact with lawyers, as we've discussed today, correct?
A. At this point, the only lawyer that I interacted with was the first one.

Q. I'm talking about in your lifetime. You had a corporate lawyer, you had a criminal lawyer, another personal injury lawyer –
A. I didn't hire –
Q. Let me finish. You had experience with lawyers representing you up to this point in time?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have an understanding that lawyers evaluate cases differently?
A. Yes.
Q. And judges evaluate cases differently?
A. Sure. That's fair.
Q. Would it be fair to say that some laws in our country are clearer and some are open to interpretation?
A. I think all of them are.
MS. WILLIAMS: Objection. Calls for speculation.
If you understand the question, you can answer it.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Would you say, for example, that the tax code is a little more clearcut than common law that's created by cases and case precedent?

A. I'm not real familiar with tax law. I have accountants for that.
Q. How about an easier question. The stop sign means that you stop, and if you go through it, it's pretty clear that you're liable for a traffic violation?
A. I'll agree with that.
Q. The legal liability for a property owner in Illinois might be a little more complicated; is that a fair statement?
A. I don't know.
Q. Would it be fair to say, in your opinion or your knowledge of the law, the property owner isn't necessarily liable because somebody is injured on their property?
A. Are you talking about what I know now or what I knew back when this was?
Q. At any time.
A. What I know now is in the circumstances that we were in, they were very liable.
Q. I'm just asking if – just because somebody is injured on a property owner's property, they are not necessarily liable, correct? Other factors are required too.

MS. WILLIAMS: I'm going to object for – he's not an expert and can't testify to legal analysis.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. As you sit here today, do you know whether a premises liability case involves multiple factors to prove liability against the property owner?
A. I don't know. I'd say that's fair. You're asking the wrong person for that.
Q. It was Hans' opinion that the McGuires did not control the work based on the evidence, correct?
A. In my opinion?
Q. That's not what I'm asking.
Was it Hans' opinion –
A. I can't –
Q. Let me just finish.
Did Hans tell you that it was his opinion that the McGuires were not liable because they did not control the work?
A. He said that right there, yes.
Q. Do you believe that he truly felt that way? That was his legal opinion?

Page 59

A. Do you want the Monday morning quarterbacking version or at the time?
Q. I'm asking if at that time you felt that he truly believed that the McGuires did not have liability?
A. At the time I trusted him, yes. I hired him to represent me, and yeah.
Q. You believed that he was relying his honest legal opinion to you at that time?
A. Yes.
Q. Including on November 18, 2013?
A. Yes.
Q. You did not accept the settlement offer of $5,000 that he relayed to you on that day, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you ultimately meet with Hans to discuss the settlement offer?
A. I think it was the day before this, but I'm not sure. It was either the day before or the day after.
MS. WILLIAMS: I think the question was, did you meet with him, at all, not the date.

Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 3. Do you recognize this memorandum?
A. Yes.
Q. You may have seen it from the document production that we made in this case. This is a memorandum drafted by Hans Mast, which purportedly memorializes a meeting that he had with you on November 20, 2013.
Does this refresh your memory as to when you met with him or if you met with him?
A. If he took the memorandum on the same day, then sure.
Q. In the memo Hans says, "I met with Paul and his friend."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you meet with Hans and some third person —
A. Yes.
Q. — at or about this time regarding the case?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was that friend?
A. Tom Kost.
Q. Who is Tom Kost?
A. My brother.
Q. Not that it matters necessarily for privilege purposes, but can you tell me how Tom Kost is your brother?
A. We have the same mom.
Q. He was with you and observed the meeting between you and Hans?
A. Yes.
Q. The $5,000 settlement offer was discussed, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. At that time did Hans, again, relay his opinion as to the questionable liability about the McGuires — strike that.
Did he relay to you his opinion about the

questionable nature of the McGuires' liability?
A. At the meeting with Tom, yes.
Q. He advised you they maintain they were not directing Dave's work. That was the McGuires' position, correct?
A. I don't know that he stayed on that at that meeting. At different times he gave different reasons.
Q. The next line says, "Paul maintains the McGuires controlled everything that Dave was doing."
Is that an accurate reflection of your opinion?
A. Yes.
Q. As you sit here today, do you know if that statement is consistent with your own deposition testimony from the underlying case?
A. Yes.
Q. We'll come back to that. Did you tell Hans that you wanted to read the depositions of the McGuires and David Gagnon's depositions?
A. Say that again.
Q. Did you tell Paul that you wanted to read the depositions of the McGuires and Dave Gagnon's depositions?

Page 63

A. Did I tell Paul?
Q. I'm sorry. Did you tell Hans that?
A. That I wanted to read the McGuires and David Gagnon's depositions?
Q. Yes.
A. Yes, I did.
Q. What was the purpose of your wanting to review those depositions?
A. Hans had told me that what they said in their depositions meant that they had no liability.
Q. You wanted to review the testimony to determine whether you wanted to consider the $5,000 settlement offer; is that correct?
A. Right.
Q. Did you do that?
A. Eventually, yes.
Q. Before you accepted the offer?
A. I think so.
Q. So sometime after this meeting on November 20, 2013 and before you accepted the settlement offer on January 29, 2014, did you review those three deposition transcripts?
A. I'll correct you. I did not accept the offer on January 20th. I signed a release on

January 29th.
Q. Fair point. Did you read the depositions between those two dates, November 20, 2013 and January 29, 2014?
A. Yes.
Q. Those are —
A. I believe I asked him -- I don't know — it may be a little earlier because I don't know that I asked him before or after the meeting. I don't remember. I'd have to go back in the e-mails to give the date.
Q. Some point in time between those two dates you read the deps?
A. I may have asked for them before. I don't know without seeing the e-mail. It was, roughly, in the last quarter of that year, yes. Or the first month. I don't remember the first time that I asked to read them. I don't remember off the top of my head.
Q. At any point in time did you ever grant Hans authority to make a settlement demand in the case?
A. No.

Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 4. This is a copy of the original complaint in this instant case. It reflects a filing date of November 28, 2017.

Is this your original legal malpractice complaint against the Popovich firm and Hans Mast?

A. I believe so.

Q. Did you review and approve the allegations in this complaint?

A. For the most part. I wanted to reword some things, but the lawyer, they do their thing.

Q. At the time you were represented by the Gooch firm is when you filed this lawsuit, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Directing your attention back to Exhibit 1, if you still have it. If you could turn to page 10.

The answer to Interrogatory No. 24 indicates that on November 4, 2013, Mast was granted authority to investigate a settlement but a specific dollar amount was never provided. Do you see that?

A. He was verbally granted authority to investigate, yes.

Q. Who did you want him to investigate a settlement with?

A. The McGuires.

Q. Just the McGuires or the McGuires and —

A. He wanted to do it. I didn't. I said, "If you want to look at that, go ahead."

Q. Did you grant him authority to investigate a settlement with David Gagnon as well?

A. I don't know if I did or not, off the top of my head, but that would have been much later.

Q. Eventually did you tell Hans that you would agree to accept the $5,000 settlement offer from the McGuires?

A. Eventually did I tell him that?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. When did you tell him that?

A. I want to say just before Christmas in December of 2013.

Q. There's no doubt in your mind that you relayed your acceptance of the $5,000 settlement offer to Hans Mast before Christmas Day, which would be December 25, 2013?

A. Right.

Q. Then did Hans mail to you a settlement release by letter dated January 24, 2014?

A. I'd like to see the letter, but yeah, I believe so.

Q. I believe it's —

A. I believe he had to mail it a couple times because I didn't get it.

Is Exhibit D a January 24, 2014 cover letter from Hans Mast to you enclosing the general release and settlement agreement from defense counsel for Caroline and Bill McGuire?

A. That's what it says.

Q. In the letter did he ask you to — it looks like it might be a typo. It says, "Please release and return it to me in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope at your earliest convenience."

A. Right, but I believe it was just a release — it was all tied into one.

Q. This letter is unsigned. Did you receive the letter unsigned?

A. Did I receive this unsigned?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. Have you ever seen a signed copy of this letter?

A. No.

A. Exhibit D?

Q. Correct.

Q. Is this what you received attached to the cover letter?
A. I don't think so. Let me see. Yes, this looks like it because it's got these things I remember.
Q. When did you receive this letter and the attachment?
A. I would say I wrote back on January 29th and I probably got it that day, signed it and sent it back.
Q. The copy of the release is also unsigned. It's attached as exhibit -- part of Exhibit D to your second amended complaint.
Do you see the signature lines and the notary signature here that's missing?
A. Yes.
Q. Is this the document that you signed and sent back to Hans Mast?
A. The document that I signed had my signature.
Q. I'm asking if this is the same document that you signed and sent back to him?
A. Yes.

Page 70

Q. Right now we don't have a signed copy. I don't know that I've seen one in the case.

MR. FLYNN: Sure.
(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Is there any doubt, in your mind, that Exhibit D is the letter and attachment that you received from Hans Mast?
A. No. I believe that this is it.
Q. You signed some copy of this release and sent it back to Hans on January 29; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You accepted the settlement offer prior to Christmas and presumably defense counsel or Hans drafted the settlement release and then Hans mailed it to you, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. At any point in time from December 25th until you received this settlement release, did you contact any lawyer to discuss whether it would be appropriate to let the McGuires out for 5,000?

Page 71

A. I believe I contacted Hans again.
Q. Besides Hans, did you talk to anyone else?
A. No.
Q. Was there anything preventing you from seeking a second opinion from some other lawyer at that time?
A. No.
Q. Directing your attention to Exhibit E attached to the second amended complaint, the second amended complaint, again, being Exhibit 5. Is this an e-mail from you to Hans on January 29, 2014?
A. This is the e-mail chain between me and Hans, yes.
Q. Down below at the bottom of the page, January 29 at 10:51 a.m., it appears that you were questioning Hans regarding some of the language in the release, including social security disability check boxes. Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans responded to you and then at the top of the page here at 1:59 p.m. it says, "Okay, it's signed and in the mail."
A. Correct.

Page 72

Q. What did you mean by that?
A. I signed it and mailed it.
Q. Did you -- where did you mail it from?
A. My home.
Q. How did you do that?
A. Put a stamp on the envelope and put it in the mailbox, put the flag up and waited for the mailman.
Q. Is the mailbox attached to your home or is it --
A. It's out on the street.
Q. You walked down there and you put the mail -- the envelope in the mailbox, put the flag up and --
A. That is correct.
Q. Your understanding of signing that release and sending it back to your lawyer was that you would agree to take the $5,000 settlement, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans didn't deliver the letter to you personally. He mailed it to you, correct?
A. He mailed it to me?

Q. Do you recall an allegation in your complaint or amended complaint or second amended complaint in this case alleging that you were pressured or alleging undue influence by Hans in urging you to accept the $5,000 settlement from the McGuires?
A. Yes.
Q. How is it, as you sit here today, can you tell me how Hans unduly influenced you to accept the $5,000 settlement offer?
A. I don't know what Hans was thinking. How did I feel influenced?
Q. Unduly influenced.
Let me put it this way. He didn't put a gun to your head?
A. No.
Q. He suggested that you take the settlement?
A. Correct.
Q. He didn't force you to take the settlement?
A. Correct.
Q. It was your decision?

Page 74

A. Correct.
Q. You signed it and you sent it back to him in the mail?
A. Yes.
Q. Aside from your e-mails with Hans on January 29, did you call him that day?
A. I believe so.
Q. Did you also discuss whether it was appropriate to accept the McGuires' $5,000 settlement offer at that time?
A. Yes.
Q. You deliberated on it and decided to take it, correct?
A. There wasn't much – it was take it or get nothing.
Q. You had the opportunity to deliberate on it, correct?
A. For that day, yeah.
Q. You had reviewed the transcripts of the McGuire depositions and David Gagnon's depositions in order to provide you with some information in order to determine whether to accept the settlement offer, correct?
A. I believe I did try to read those, yes.

Q. Did you call Hans or e-mail him and question him with respect to the evidence, the testimony contained in those deposition transcripts?
A. Yes.
Q. What did you say to him and what did he say to you?
A. There were many conversations over the phone and I'm sure some through e-mails.
Q. He continued to tell you that it was his opinion that the liability on the McGuires is questionable because they did not control David Gagnon's work that day, correct?
A. It depends on which time. Sometimes he said because they didn't tell them how to squeeze the trigger. It depends which time you are talking about.
Q. Again, there was nothing preventing you from seeking a second opinion from some other lawyer at the time you signed the settlement release and sent it back to Hans, correct?
A. From the time I received it, signed it and sent it back?
Q. Right.
A. No. It was a matter of hours. I got it

that morning.
Q. You decided to mail it that day, right?
A. He needed it. He said now or you're not going to get anything.
Q. There was nothing preventing you from seeking the advice of another attorney at that time?
A. At that time it was time. It was now or nothing.
Q. You were in the comfort of your own house when you received the letter, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You had the ability to go find another lawyer and ask them to discuss the case at that time. You had done it hundreds of times earlier – strike that.
After the settlement with the McGuires, you continued to prosecute the case against Gagnon, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have an understanding as to what, if any, insurance coverage he had?
A. Yes.

A. Hans Mast told me he had $100,000.
Q. Was that in an e-mail?
A. There were – not initially, no, but later on he reiterated that in e-mails, yes.
Q. Did you, ultimately, learn that there was some additional amount of coverage with respect to Gagnon's policy?
A. Long after Hans Mast was gone, not part of the case.
Q. How much was the coverage?
A. The Allstate coverage, I believe, was 300,000.
Q. We'll talk about the settlement later, but did you ultimately settle the case again Gagnon for 300,000?
A. I believe it went to binding mediation.
Q. Was there an award of $300,000 based on a high/low agreement?
A. Yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that if Hans made a mistake about the $100,000 in coverage, that that was corrected and there was never any harm done as a result of his –

A. No.
Q. Explain to me how you were harmed by the representation that there was $100,000 in coverage.
A. You want me to explain?
Q. Yes.
A. Had I known the value of the case, I would have not filed for bankruptcy.
Q. Explain to me why one has something to do with the other.
A. Is my family and me going to dump money into a black hole that we can't recover or is there a light at the end of the tunnel where I can pay them back.
Q. At the time that you filed for bankruptcy, had any settlement offer been made from David Gagnon or his lawyers to you?
A. At the time of when?
Q. When you filed for bankruptcy.
A. I don't think so. I'd have to check the dates, but I don't think so.
Q. As the case was progressing against David Gagnon, were your doctors deposed?
A. As the case progressed with David Gagnon,

Page 79

I believe they were deposed. I don't remember. I'd have to look at the dates.
Q. Discovery continued on in the case?
A. I believe one doctor was deposed after the McGuire settlement. I'm not sure, though.
Q. Did Hans continue to represent you for some period of time?
A. Yes.

Q. This is from September 23, 2014. If we go from the bottom up, it appears that Hans said to you that he wanted to give you the option of finding other counsel at this point if you really want to take the case to trial, which I think ultimately will be necessary. Correct?
A. Are we at "before I proceed" or "that's the very reason"?

Q. "That's the very reason."
Is it fair to say he was suggesting you find another counsel in the case at that point?
A. Yes.
Q. He also said, "I just do not believe strongly that defense counsel will offer much in the way of settlement."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. That's his opinion regardless of what he believed the coverage limits to be; is that a fair statement?
A. Yes.
Q. You responded to him, he responded to you and then you wrote an e-mail to him at 8:25 p.m. that night?
A. Okay.
Q. Do you see that? Did you say, "First, I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to help prove David cut me with a chainsaw"?

point in time?
A. I believe I did, that summer. This is fall, September.
Q. You had already started looking for new lawyers?
A. I believe that Hans had told me to start looking for a new lawyer in April of that year.
Q. Did he say why?
A. We'd have to read his thing. He says why.
Q. Do you recall why he said that to you?
A. He did not feel that the case was provable against David. He did not feel the value of the case was worth it. He did not feel -- actually, this is 2014. The dates are rough.
Q. He thought the case against David was difficult, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Have you ever described the case as a he said, she said with respect to the facts of the accident?
A. He described that to me many times.
Q. Have you also --
A. And I used that back, yes.

Q. Have you ever described this case as a he said, she said case?
A. I may have. I don't know.
Q. It is your word against David Gagnon's as to what happened and whose fault it was that day?
A. That's what Hans explained to me as what the problem was.
Q. Did you ever describe the accident as a he said, she said?
A. I don't think I called David a "she said" or me a "she said." I don't know. Right here I do.
Q. What do you say there?
A. I said, "I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to help prove David cut me with a chainsaw."
Q. He was denying that he even cut you, correct?
A. No, he never denied that.
Q. What was your reason for writing this sentence in that way?
A. Because Hans said that he believed David over me.
Q. With respect to what fact at issue?
A. His deposition versus mine. He said that I didn't make a good witness.

Page 83

Q. With respect to what points?
A. All of it. He was dumping me and he was coming up with his own excuses.
Q. You and David were the only ones that witnessed this accident?
A. Correct.
Q. Based on your understanding of how the evidence came out in the case, would you agree that there were differences with respect to the version of events?
A. Oh, yeah.
Q. There were differences between what he said happened and what you said happened?
A. Oh, definitely.
Q. Would it be fair to say, then, it would be up to the trier of fact, whether it be a judge or a jury, to determine who they believed?

A. He wanted to settle, and I can tell you right now this letter was written after a very traumatic experience and – let me read it and refresh myself. I'm melting down in this letter.
Q. You said after a traumatic experience. Are you referring to the bankruptcy filing from that day?
A. That, in combination with migraines, yes.
Q. David Stretch was your lawyer that filed bankruptcy for you?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you meet with Mr. Stretch and discuss the bankruptcy process before you hired him?
A. Yes.
Q. How long did you meet with him?
A. I think I asked about it. I don't know. It may have been a couple of months or a couple weeks before it got filed. I wanted to learn about it.
Q. Did you, ultimately, list the case against David Gagnon as an asset in your bankrupt filing?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. Is that why the bankruptcy trustee became involved with the binding mediation?

A. Yes.
Q. Did you ever meet the bankruptcy trustee?
A. Yes. The first one.
Q. What was the name of that person?
A. The first one was Heeg was her last name. H-e-e-g, I think.
Q. Again, we established that Brad Balke became your lawyer in the case on March 19, 2015, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that your relationship with Hans Mast was deteriorating over the fall and beginning of the winter of 2015?
A. I would say it had been deteriorating long before that. You can see from the last exhibit I'm melting down and it was already started deteriorating.
Q. By the time you drafted Exhibit 7, had you talked to other lawyers about taking your case?
A. I have to go back and look, but probably. If he told me to look at other lawyers in April before this, yes.
Q. How many lawyers would you say you talked to between April and the time you drafted this e-mail on September 26?

A. I couldn't count that high, probably.
Q. Quite a few?
A. Yeah.
Q. Did any of them take your case?
A. No.
MR. FLYNN: Mark this as Exhibit 8.
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 8, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 8. Is this an e-mail from you to Hans Mast?
A. Yes. It's an e-mail chain, yes.
Q. On February 22, 2015 at 7:42 p.m. you wrote to Hans, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Halfway down in that e-mail message you said, quote, "Now I'm left wondering... how hard it is to sue an attorney?"
A. That is true.
Q. You wrote that?
A. Yes.

Q. The next line you wrote, "And yes, I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case..."
A. That is not in reference to suing the attorney. That was in reference to the Gagnon case.
Q. What did the reference to suing an attorney mean?
A. That was me being angry.
Q. With Hans?
A. Yes. I was seeing red.
Q. You're suggesting that you may sue him?
A. Yeah. I didn't know that I could. I'm wondering about it.
Q. You, basically, made a threat, whether it be a veiled threat or an overt threat to sue him, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You, ultimately, sued him for legal malpractice, right?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that what you had in mind when you wrote this?
A. No. This was about dropping Gagnon. The malpractice is about dropping the McGuires.

Q. This —
A. We're talking — this is 2015.
Q. In this 2015 e-mail you are suggesting to Hans that you may sue him because of the McGuire settlement; is that right?
A. No.
Q. Then what is it that you're saying to him?
A. That if he damaged the Gagnon case, I didn't know if he did or didn't, and I'm threatening because I'm angry. You can see, again, I'm melting down here. These are emotional outbursts, I guess.
Q. Moving up the page a little bit also on February 22, 2015 at 8:14 p.m., you say, "To be honest, you took this case knowing it was my word versus his."
A. Yes.
Q. He said, he said, right?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that a fair characterization of the case, your word against David's?
A. That's how Hans kept describing it. That's the way I put it back to him, yes.
Q. You didn't correct him or dispute his characterization, did you?

A. No. I used his characterization.
Q. You agreed with it?
A. He said — how did it go? We had conversations between these e-mails on the phone. Then we would hang up and I would get angry and type it in an e-mail, type whatever it was that bothered me so he had it.
Q. Let me ask another question, if that's okay.
Did you ever correct Hans if he called this a he said, he said case? Did you ever say it's more than that?
A. Do I ever say it's more than that?
Q. Did you ever correct him? If he said it's a he said, he said case, did you say no, that's not right?
A. He said there's no witnesses. I said, "I'm a witness."
Q. You're one of the hes. It's your word against David Gagnon's, as you said in this e-mail?
A. Yes.
MR. FLYNN: If I could have you mark that as Exhibit 9.

Page 91

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 9, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Exhibit 9, is that Brad Balke's substitute appearance that was filed on March 19, 2015 in the case against Gagnon?
A. It looks like it, yes.
Q. Back to Exhibit 5, which is the second amended complaint. If I could direct your attention to Exhibit F. This appears to be a more complete copy of another e-mail we just talked about. Is Exhibit F more of the February 22, 2015 e-mail chain?
A. I'm not sure if that's separate or the same. Oh, it looks like it.
Q. At 7:20 p.m. Hans wrote to you and said, "Paul, I can no longer represent you in the case. We obviously have differences of opinion as to the value of the case."
Right?
A. Yes.
Q. He says, "I've been telling you over a year now the problems with the case and you just don't see them."

Page 92

Correct?
A. That's what it says.
Q. Obviously, a difference of opinion, right?
A. Yes. Are you talking about difference of opinion as to the value or difference of opinion of the problems within the case?
Q. Let's go on. He says, "You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear, it is not. My guess is that seven out of ten times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I've been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to."
Did I accurately read that?
A. Just that part of that paragraph, yes.
Q. So Hans is telling you that in his opinion your case against Gagnon you're going to lose it seven out of ten times, correct?
A. In this one, yes.
Q. He's acknowledging that you may have a chance.

A. I think later on he says nine out of ten.
Q. In this e-mail he says seven out of ten you will lose.
A. Yes.
Q. He's recognizing three times out of ten you may win, right?
A. I don't know what Hans is thinking.
Q. Is that what he said?
A. He says seven out of ten times you lose.
Q. You understood that there are risks in taking the case to trial that you could lose?
A. There are unforeseen risks, yes.
Q. There are always risks, period, in taking a case to trial?
A. Yes.
Q. Before you hired Brad Balke and after Hans told you he couldn't represent you, did you talk to any other lawyers about taking your case?
A. Yes.
Q. How many?
A. I can't tell you. A lot.
Q. Did any of them tell you that they wouldn't take the case because they didn't think you could prevail against Gagnon?

A. No.
Q. Not one?
A. No.
Q. What are the names of any of the lawyers you talked to about taking your case over from Popovich?
A. I can't tell you without looking at documents who it was and what date it was, what it was between these two.
Q. I don't think documents I produced would help you in that regard.
I'll just ask you based on your memory the names of any lawyers you met with from the time Hans wrote this February 22 e-mail —
A. I believe —
Q. Let me finish.
A. I believe —
MS. WILLIAMS: He has not finished his question.
THE WITNESS: Sorry.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. From the time that Hans wrote this February 22 e-mail and the time that Brad Balke enters an appearance on March 19. Just the name of any lawyer you —

A. I believe that Sal Ferris that I was talking about was one of the lawyers that I talked to.
Q. You're not sure? You believe that he was?
A. In between this time and this time?
Q. Yes.
A. I believe it's right around then.
Q. What type of law practice does Sal Ferris have?
A. I believe personal injury.
Q. Did you ever talk to him about taking your case before that date?
A. Before the date of this e-mail?
Q. Yes.
A. I'd have to look at it.
Q. He wasn't one of the original attorneys that you spoke with at the beginning of the case?
A. No.
Q. Fair to say once Balke entered his appearance on March 19, 2015 that Mast and Popovich were no longer your attorneys, correct?

Page 96

A. When Balke enters his appearance?
Q. Yes.
A. I would believe that, yes.
Q. They were terminated and Balke stepped in?
A. Yes.
Q. Can you tell me how the binding mediation which proceeded on December 8, 2015 evolved and came to be.
A. I was ordered into it from a bankruptcy court.
Q. Why is that?
A. I believe that the trustee put a motion up. I don't know who did it. I assume it was the trustee and the court ordered that it be put into binding mediation.
Q. Did you appear at the mediation?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall the name of the mediator?
A. Not off the top of my head, no.
Q. One of the exhibits to your second amended complaint indicates it was retired Judge James Etchingham.
A. That sounds familiar.

Q. Do you recall how long the mediation lasted?
A. All day.
Q. Do you know if the parties submitted mediation briefs or statements to the judge?
A. I believe both sides submitted a whole bunch of things.
Q. The Boudins represented you in this mediation?
A. Yes.
Q. Because you had fired Balke by this point?
A. Oh, yes.
Q. Directing your attention, again, to Exhibit 5, the second amended complaint and Exhibit G. Exhibit G is, apparently, a memorialization of the mediation award. Do you see that?
A. It's how the judge decided to break it down, yes.
Q. Do you see that there's an award for future medical expenses of $200,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Since that date of December 8, 2015, have you received any medical treatment relative to your injuries —

A. Yes.
Q. Let me finish. Strike the question.
Since that date, December 8, 2015, have you received any medical treatment for your injuries incurred on January 28, 2011?
A. You're asking since the date of the binding mediation?
Q. That's right.
A. Yes.
Q. What medical treatment have you received?
A. I do an ongoing with the neurologist for the dystonia.
Q. That's in your right arm?
A. Yes.
Q. Have you calculated the medical bills that you've incurred since that day?
A. No, I have not.
Q. Are they anywhere near $200,000?
A. It depends if you calculate with or without insurance. I know what I pay, but then I have to pay for the insurance that pays for that.
Q. How much have you paid out of pocket since that date for medical treatment on your arm?

Page 99

A. I don't know, offhand.
Q. Was there any doctor that opined that you would require $200,000 in future medical expenses?
A. I believe so.
Q. Who was that?
A. I believe that was Dr. Patel. I don't know that she said $200,000. She was the doctor that was handling it at the time.
Q. Did you discuss your injury with the mediator at the mediation?
A. He did ask me a few questions.
Q. How much time did you spend with him?
A. On and off. He would come in and ask me questions and then go away and then come in and would ask me questions and then go away.
I don't remember which one was the mediator, which one was the Allstate adjuster, which one was the — I don't remember.
Q. You're not sure which one was the mediator?
A. They came in and they said they are going to ask you some questions and I answered them.
Q. As you sit here today, you don't know how much face time you had with the mediator that day?

Page 100

A. I don't remember the face of which one is which.
Q. Did the issue of lost wages ever come up?
A. At the mediation with me?
Q. Yes.
A. I don't remember.
Q. Did you ever make a claim of lost wages of $250,000?
A. I may have.
Q. Do you know what that was based on?
A. Yeah.
Q. What is that based on?
A. Past and future.
Q. What past wages had you ever earned that could lead to an award of $250,000?
A. To me, that's not a very high number. I think I asked for more than that. It would be an average over a certain number of years plus benefits and that's all lost.
Q. Would it be fair to say that your income would be accurately reflected in the tax returns you've produced in this case, so I don't want to ask you about each one of them?
A. I would say my personal income, yeah.

MR. FLYNN: I believe the next exhibit is 10.
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 10, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I'm handing you what's been marked as Exhibit 10. This is a six-page binding mediation agreement. The copy I have is unsigned.
Do you recognize this as the mediation agreement that governed your December 8, 2016 mediation?
A. Yes.
Q. If I could direct your attention to — first, let me ask you.
Do you know why the bankruptcy trustee or the bankruptcy court ordered binding mediation as opposed to nonbinding?
A. I have no idea.

Q. On page 4, section F, subsection B — I'm sorry, 1B. It says, "The parties agree that for this mediation the minimum award to Paul Dulberg will be $50,000. Also, the maximum award to Paul Dulberg will be $300,000."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you know why the parties agreed to this high/low agreement?
A. No.
Q. Do you recall alleging in your original complaint against Popovich that there was a high/low agreement?
A. There is. There was.
MS. WILLIAMS: Can you repeat the question, please.
(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)
BY THE WITNESS:
A. I don't know. I'd have to read it.
MS. WILLIAMS: I asked her to read it. And you had answered it previously.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Directing your attention back to

Page 103

Exhibit 4, which is the original complaint in this case. Page 4, paragraph 16.
A. Okay.
Q. There's a sentence that begins with, "Unfortunately, a high/low agreement had been executed by Dulberg reducing the maximum account he could recover to $300,000 based upon the insurance policy available."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. It's not your position or testimony that Popovich had anything to do with the high/low agreement?
A. That was a mistake in there. No.
Q. You would agree that Popovich had nothing to do with the high/low agreement?
A. I believe that events that unfolded the way they did was due to Hans Mast's initial assessment of the value of the case.
Q. Let me ask it a different way.
Did Popovich have any idea that this high/low agreement existed when it was entered into?
A. I don't know.
Q. Do you have any reason to believe that he did?

A. I don't know. I don't know how much the Boudins were in contact with them because they worked together. I don't know.
Q. What do you mean, "they worked together"?
A. They worked together on all different cases. That's a small county out there.
Q. Did you ever write to Hans and accuse Popovich of having a conflict of interest because he may have gone to high school with David Gagnon?
A. I did learn that.
Q. Do you believe the fact that someone went to high school with another person may give rise to a conflict of interest in a lawsuit?
A. I was shooting in the dark and guessing why they didn't see this as a viable case.
Q. Do you think that was appropriate to send to your lawyer at the time?
A. When you're wondering why they are doing what they are doing and you learn that and they were pretty much in the same class and they all knew each other and it's a small town, let me ask you, are you friends with the guy I'm suing? That's an appropriate question.

Q. You didn't say that. You asked if they went to school together.
A. Correct.
Q. Popovich did not enter into this high/low agreement on your behalf, correct?
A. Popovich, no.
Q. When I say "Popovich," I mean generally the Popovich firm and your lawyers.
A. This was years later. No.
Q. They had nothing to do with it, right?
A. I wouldn't say anything to do with it.
Q. Withdrawn.
Who drafted this high/low agreement that's contained in the mediation agreement?
A. I'm not sure who drafted it.
Q. Would it have been either the mediator, the bankruptcy trustee, your lawyers or the defense attorneys?
A. I assume that this would have been an agreement of all of them.
Q. You don't think Popovich had anything to do with drafting this high/low agreement, do you?
A. I don't know that he did or didn't.
Q. Do you have any reason to believe that he did?

A. At this point, no.
Q. Continuing on in Exhibit 4. Directing your attention to the bottom of page 4, paragraph 10.
A. Exhibit 4. Say it again.
Q. The bottom of page 4, paragraph 20. This is your complaint against Popovich and Mast.
A. This has been amended since then.
Q. I understand. Paragraph 20 reads, "Following the execution of the mediation agreement with the high/low agreement contained therein and the final mediation award, Dulberg realized for the first time that the information Mast and Popovich had given Dulberg was false and misleading and that, in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. Can you tell me, as you sit here today, what false and misleading information did Mast and Popovich give you?
A. That I realized on the day of the — following the execution of the mediation agreement?

Page 107

Q. Correct.
A. The liability of the McGuires.
Q. What was false about it?
A. What made them liable and what didn't.
Q. What is it you learned to dispute what you were told?
A. I learned from a reliability expert that had the report there that day that the McGuires provided the tools which made Gagnon an agent of the McGuires. He was working at their behest.
Q. Who was this liability expert?
A. What's his name?
Q. He's a doctor?
A. Yes.
Q. Continue on with that paragraph. "Following mediation, Dulberg was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016."
Do you see that allegation?
A. Yeah.
Q. Who advised you to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters?

Page 108

A. I believe that was Boudin.
Q. You believe that or you know that?
A. I know that.
Q. You alleged it in this complaint so it's important that we know who that was.
A. Yes, that was Boudin.
Q. Boudin told you to seek an independent opinion from an attorney that handles malpractice matters?
A. Yes.
Q. It says you received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.
A. Yes.
Q. That's separate and apart from any opinion you may have received from a liability expert, a doctor, an expert on chainsaws?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was the lawyer that you received a legal opinion from on December 16, 2016?
A. I believe that would be Thomas Gooch.
Q. The drafter of this complaint?
A. I'd have to look at the dates because I think — December 8th was the mediation; is that right?

Q. Correct.
A. So the 16th would sound about right to be meeting with Gooch, but I can get that date.
Q. You met with Gooch –
A. Soon, within weeks. It was quick.
Q. Now that the door has been opened, you fired Gooch in this case, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. He drafted this complaint and he's also the one that gave you an opinion about legal malpractice liability on the part of my clients?
A. Yes.
Q. What is it that he told you on December 16, 2016?
MS. WILLIAMS: Objection. I don't think we've waived that privilege, but – can we go off the record for a second?
MR. FLYNN: I don't want to go off the record. I've asked this interrogatory in about five different ways and it hasn't been answered appropriately.
The allegation was made in the complaint. That's why I drafted the interrogatory the way I did. I don't think that there's been a square answer to it. This is clear that you're talking about a legal opinion.

BY THE WITNESS:
Q. Is this the same wording as we have in the current complaint?
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. It's not exactly.
A. What would this be valid for, then?
Q. You've raised a response to a statute of limitations defense in this case and placed your knowledge of the malpractice and the date of incurring of an injury at issue.
Because your discovery of malpractice has been placed at issue, it's our position that you've waived privilege anyhow with respect to this conversation on December 16, 2016.
A. I'm not sure –
MS. WILLIAMS: There's not a question pending. I'm going to make a standing objection as to privilege with Gooch.

admissible. Are you agreeable to that?
MR. FLYNN: I'm agreeable to continuing on for a few minutes. I want to explore. I'll try to lay foundation for – to confirm this wasn't anyone else, for starters. Why don't we continue on and if you need to raise it again, we can talk.
MS. WILLIAMS: Otherwise, I'm just going to raise it to every single question you ask. I just don't want to have to continue to make the objection as to – if questions are asked about advice given by a legal malpractice attorney, I'm going to raise an objection as to that.
MR. FLYNN: Okay. But this is why we had the 201K conferences, multiple 201K conferences. It was made clear, to me, that there was a waiver with respect to subsequent counsel.
MS. WILLIAMS: Tom Gooch isn't subsequent counsel.
MR. FLYNN: The allegation has been made in this complaint and apparently this is subsequent counsel subsequent to my client's representation.
MS. WILLIAMS: It is a different case. It's not subsequent counsel in the underlying case. It's a new case.

MR. FLYNN: We'll get to the interrogatory in a few minutes. I'll pull that out.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me ask you. Is there any other attorney besides Mr. Gooch that gave you an opinion that's referenced here on December 16?
A. No one that isn't privileged.
Q. Could it have been anyone else?
A. No.
Q. So Gooch is the only person that's being referenced here in this allegation that's in your complaint that's a public record?
I'm not asking you right now what the opinion is. I'm going to do that later. I'm asking you who gave it to you. It's not anyone besides Mr. Gooch, correct?
A. Yes. It was Thomas Gooch.
Q. He drafted the very complaint that that allegation is contained in?
A. Yes.
Q. Dr. Landford was the liability expert that you referenced earlier, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Back to the allegation that Gooch and – that Popovich and Mast provided you false and misleading information. That information was simply their legal opinion on the McGuires' liability; isn't that correct?

A. No. There was nothing simple about that. That's a very complex series of things that go all the way back to before the McGuire settlement.
Q. They didn't lie to you, did they?
A. It depends on how you define lie.
Q. How do you define lie?
A. If you know better and you say something else, that's a lie. Omission is a lie.
Q. Did they provide you with anything other than a legal opinion as to the McGuires' liability?
A. Yes. They provided me with case laws. They provided me with all different stuff. Yes.
Q. Whatever the advice that was given to you on December 16, 2016, you felt that you were mislead by Popovich and Mast at that point in time, correct?
A. At that point in time it was confirmed to me that I had a valid case against Popovich.
Q. You had a valid malpractice case against Popovich?
A. Yes. I did not know before that.

Page 114

Q. As of December 16, 2016?
A. Yes.
Q. Why is it that you didn't file that lawsuit until nearly a year later on November 28, 2017?
A. I believe because Thomas Gooch had some health issues and then his wife had some health issues. It took a while.

Q. I'm handing you what has been marked as Exhibit 11. This is one set of your supplemental Answers to Interrogatories.
First, I'll ask you if that is your verification and signature at the end?
A. That is my signature.
Q. Again, I don't know if that verification was attached to this original document. It may have been. But there's been some confusion with respect to these verification pages. This is your signature and you answered these interrogatories, correct?
A. Yeah.

Q. So this is a valid verification page with respect to this discovery document; is that a fair statement?
A. This is supplemental to original answers.
Q. That's your signature and you agree these are your answers?
A. I've reviewed them and we went over them and yes, I agree.
Q. And they are accurate?
A. As accurate as we can be.
Q. If I could direct your attention to Interrogatory No. 26. Do you see that?
A. Okay. Yes, I see it.
Q. This is similar to what we just talked about a few minutes ago. I'll read the interrogatory to you. "Identify and describe the false and misleading information Mast and Popovich provided to you and explain how you realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information was false and misleading and the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake as alleged in paragraph 56 of your second amended complaint."
Do you see your supplemental answer here?

A. I see it, yes.
Q. You reference the mediation award and then you state, quote, "At that time Dulberg realized that Mast's advice to settle with the McGuires for $5,000 was incorrect because Mast had cited Dulberg being able to recover in full from Gagnon as his reasoning."
A. I do.
Q. Can you explain what that means because I don't quite understand it.
A. Hans Mast assured me — I want to go back to 2013, the Fall between October and the signature of the final release for the McGuires.
He assured me that, he said -- at that time he didn't tell me what anybody's policies were. He assured me that if we let the McGuires out of the case, Gagnon has enough insurance, you're going to get everything from him, so it doesn't matter that you're carrying the McGuires in the case.
Q. The next interrogatory is 27. "Identify and describe the expert opinions provided to you in December 2016 as alleged in paragraph 57 of your second amended complaint including the identity of the expert, any opinions and any other information provided by the expert which caused you to learn in the summer of 2016 and became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent you."

What does the summer of 2016 have to do with your discovery of malpractice?

A. Technically, I was sent Dr. Landford's report — I might be off a little by a couple months here, but I think in July of that year. And I read it, but I didn't — you don't catch everything the first time you read it.

It was not until later that I caught the part of the report that was brought to the attention — it caught my eye when I was sitting there and reading it.

Q. You didn't read any of this interrogatory or the original interrogatory as requesting legal opinions that you had alleged that gave you notice that there was a malpractice claim against Mast and Popovich?

A. Excuse me?

MR. FLYNN: Can you read that back.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)

BY THE WITNESS:

A. The way she said it, I don't understand.

BY MR. FLYNN:

Q. I'll rephrase it.

We've known about this allegation in the original complaint since it was filed. You received some legal opinion in 2016. That's why you didn't know you had a malpractice case against Mast and Popovich.

We asked you in discovery answers a couple different ways what those legal opinions are. You didn't read 26 and 27 as requesting information about legal opinions?

A. I don't know that an expert witness would be considered a legal opinion. Wouldn't that be more like an attorney?

Q. I'll ask you again. Why is it that you first became aware of a legal malpractice matter against Mast and Popovich on or about December 16, 2016?

A. December 16th I was talking to a legal malpractice attorney.

Q. You were told that there was a case against —

Page 119

A. A valid case, yes.

Q. — Mast and Popovich?

A. Yes.

Q. Why is it you didn't know about this valid case prior to that date?

A. Because I hadn't talked to anybody that was a lawyer that specialized in that area.

Q. Whatever it is that he said to you gave you the basis for believing you had a valid case against Mast and Popovich?

A. Very much so, yes.

Q. You're withholding that information from me right now, as we sit here. You won't tell me what that expert said, correct?

MS. WILLIAMS: Repeat the question.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)

MS. WILLIAMS: I'm asserting attorney-client privilege on behalf of my client for Gooch's advice on December — in December of 2016.

However, because I want to move forward with this deposition, if he can answer the question, I believe we should go ahead and move forward and have him answer the question.

I'll assert the privilege with the understanding that this may have to be briefed later.

MR. FLYNN: To be stricken later?

MS. WILLIAMS: Right.

MR. FLYNN: The substance of the answer he can put on the record. You're just saying you may move to strike it later?

MS. WILLIAMS: Right. I want to maintain the privilege with the objection, but I don't want to have to call the judge right now. I don't think it's something we should have to call the judge about right now.

MR. FLYNN: Just for the record, I believe it's been placed at issue by virtue of the first amended complaint. The responses to the statute of limitation defenses that were raised in very dispositive motions before Gooch withdrew from the case, the gist of that is the discovery rule has been raised and, therefore, it's our position that the date of discovery has been placed at issue and, accordingly, any legal opinions that were provided to this plaintiff have been exposed and that we're entitled to know what those are.

MS. WILLIAMS: Can I also note one more thing?
MR. FLYNN: Sure.
MS. WILLIAMS: In the supplemental -- in the request it specifically refers to paragraph 57 of the second amended complaint, which is different.
MR. FLYNN: It is different. I'll acknowledge that. I believe that the prior original interrogatories asked for any opinions relative to the discovery of the malpractice. I could be wrong. There was a reason I asked this and that's why I believe that's what it was about.
MS. WILLIAMS: So --
MR. FLYNN: That particular one I agree with you is not phrased as calling for --
MS. WILLIAMS: Right. That's the question that was asked. We answered the question that was asked, which that particular paragraph does not refer to a legal expert. It just merely -- I'll read it out loud. "It was not until the mediation in December of 2016 based on the expert's opinion that Dulberg retain for mediation that Dulberg became reasonably aware."
I just want it clear that he did answer the question that was asked. I understand your line of questioning and we'll agree to move forward.

MR. FLYNN: I believe there were other discovery requests that did point to that and I think we can take a break here and I can find them fairly quickly because I think we're getting close to the end anyway.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Did you ever receive any money from the mediation award?
A. No. I received money from the bankruptcy itself. It was a surplus bankruptcy.
Q. There was a $300,000 award given in the mediation.
A. That did not go to me. That went to bankruptcy.
Q. It was collected on your behalf and paid to the bankruptcy trustee, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. All $300,000?
A. I don't know that because I think -- I don't know how exactly it works. I heard attorneys have a lien that's special. I don't know how they break it up. I assume it goes to the trustee.

Page 123

Q. The Boudins weren't working for free. They got something out of it, right?
A. Yes.
Q. The trustee took the remainder and paid off some of your creditors, correct?
A. Correct. All of them.
Q. But the award was paid to the trustee on your behalf?
A. I believe so. I don't know how it worked.
Q. How much was the surplus after your creditors were paid?
A. After just the creditors?
Q. How much did you get?
A. How much did I get?
Q. Yes.
A. A third.
Q. I'm asking how much money did you get?
A. A third of the award.
Q. Dollars. How much money did you get?
A. Roughly a hundred.
Q. $100,000?
A. I don't know the exact number. It's roughly a hundred.

Page 124

Q. Was there a check that was issued to you?
A. By the trustee, yes.
Q. Did you cash it?
A. Yes.
Q. At what bank?
A. McHenry Bank & Trust.
Q. Do you still have an account there?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you have a copy of the canceled check?
A. I'm sure the bank has a photo thing.
Q. You can request a copy of the check, correct?
A. I could. I could see if they got it.
Q. I would ask you to do that. If you have any other documentation relative to the payouts that were made by the bankruptcy trustee on your behalf, we are requesting that information.
MR. FLYNN: Why don't we take a break and I'm going to look for one document and then we're just about done here.
(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)
MR. FLYNN: Mark these as the next two.

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 13, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked as Exhibits 12 and 13. Twelve are your answers to Hans Mast's interrogatories. Thirteen is your responses to Popovich's request for production.
Interrogatory No. 1 from Mast asks, "Identify and describe each and every way that Popovich or Mast breached any duty of care to you, the date of the breach, and when and how you became aware of the breach."
Do you understand that?
A. Yes.
Q. So how is it they committed malpractice?
A. May I see it?
Q. I'm going to show it to you in a second. I only have one copy.
This is basically, how did you first become aware that they committed malpractice?

Page 126

That's the essence of that interrogatory.
Here is your response. I can show that to you. It doesn't reflect any discussion with any malpractice lawyer in December of 2016.
Tell me –
A. Let me read it again. We're talking about No. 1 on this?
Q. Correct.
A. Okay.
Q. You understand it?
A. Yes.
Q. Would you agree that the legal opinion you received on December 16, 2016 is responsive to that interrogatory, whatever it is that you were told?
A. Yes.
Q. You didn't identify this December 16, 2016 discussion in the answer to that interrogatory, correct?
A. Say that again.
Q. Your discussion with Mr. Gooch on December 16, 2016, that's referenced in your original complaint, you didn't respond and identify it in this answer to the interrogatory, correct?

Page 127

A. This asks for every way Popovich or Mast breached the duty of care. It didn't ask for Gooch's opinion.
Q. How did you find out that Mast and Popovich breached the duty of care to you? Because Gooch told you, right?
A. Yes.
Q. That's what you've alleged here in this complaint.
A. Yes.
Q. Here I'm asking you, each and every way that they ever breached a duty of care to you. I covered the waterfront. You didn't answer --
A. On the McGuire case it was between October 2013 and January 2014. Yes. There's a multitude of things and that's why I listed a range.
Q. I'm asking when you became aware of it, in that interrogatory. Do you see that?
A. I became aware of that when Thomas Gooch read them and said there's a problem here.
Q. That's not the way you answered the interrogatory, correct?
A. I answered the first part. I did not answer after the comma and the and.

Page 128

Q. There's no objection and indication that any information is being withheld, correct?
A. Excuse me?
Q. There's no objection and an indication that you're withholding –
A. I was not withholding.
Q. I'll show you Exhibit 13. It asks – Exhibit 13 are the production requests to you. Number 8 asks for you to produce a privilege log identifying the creator and recipient of any document withheld, the basis for any claimed privilege, the date the document was created and the date the recipient received the document.
The answer is, "The plaintiff is only withholding attorney-client communication between his successor counsel."
Is that your answer to the production request and did I accurately read No. 8?
A. May I consult with her for a minute?
Q. Sure.
THE WITNESS: Can we go off the record?
MS. WILLIAMS: If you can answer the question, answer the question first.

BY THE WITNESS:
A. It's been a while since I've done this, so I'm not sure who the successor counsel is. Is it her or is it the Boudins or Balke?
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I think successor counsel, we can both agree, the successor counsel in the underlying case which would be Balke and then Boudin.
You didn't identify any documents withheld other than documents between you and successor counsel, correct?
THE WITNESS: I believe we waived those, didn't we, for Balke and Boudin?
MS. WILLIAMS: For Balke and Boudin we can represent that we waived those.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me ask a different question.
Did Gooch communicate with you in writing relative to his opinion that you had a legal malpractice case against Mast and Popovich?
A. In writing?
Q. Yes.
A. I suppose the agreement between us that he would represent me because I had the case is a document in writing.

Q. Did he tell you -- strike that.
The discussion that you reference in the complaint, paragraph 20 of December 16, 2016, was that a face-to-face communication with Gooch?
A. What number is that?
Q. Exhibit 4, paragraph 20. The legal opinion you received, was it verbal, was it written?
A. I believe it was verbal.
Q. Now, I'm going to ask you what he said. There was an objection and that will be addressed by the Court later. Please tell me what Gooch told you.
A. He read what I brought him, looked through some things, and I don't remember if it was the same day that we talked to him or he took a day or two. I don't remember. He got back to me and he said, "You have a case here. You have a valid case."
Q. Did he say why?
A. On the basis of what I brought to him. Yes.
Q. Specifics, though. I don't want to talk about generalities. Did he tell you what Mast and

Page 131

Popovich did wrong and how it injured you?
A. How it injured me? Yeah.
Q. The first part of my question was, did he tell you exactly what they did wrong in connection with your -- their representation of you?
A. He probably did. I'm not recalling it right now. I'm pulling a blank.
The parts of the conversation I'm remembering, and for some reason I'm not pulling it. We've been at this a while and this is a long thing. Yes, he said based on what he saw, he saw reason for malpractice.
Q. You don't remember any details, as you sit here? Did you discuss the liability of property owners in Illinois?
A. Well, if they were just property owners in the case, that would be one thing, but they weren't just property owners.
Q. That wasn't my question. I'm asking if you discussed it?
A. Certainly.
Q. You and Gooch discussed the liability of the McGuires in the case?
A. Yes.

Q. What did you say to him and what did he say to you?
A. I showed him the expert opinion.
Q. The chainsaw expert?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you show him any deposition transcripts?
A. Yes.
Q. Which ones?
A. All of them.
Q. And he read them before you talked?
A. I don't remember. Like I said, it may have been a few days between our initial meeting and bringing the whole file that I had and trying to get what the Boudins had and letting him go through it. I don't remember how long that took.
Q. How did you transmit the documents to him --
A. My brother carried them.
Q. Let me finish.
How did you transmit the documents to Mr. Gooch, including the deposition transcripts?
A. I believe we brought him a box.
Q. So you physically handed the documents to him?

A. I didn't physically hand them. My brother did.
Q. Did you communicate with Mr. Gooch by e-mail, at all, leading up to this meeting?
A. No.
Q. Did he ever write you any letters?
A. An e-mail or regular mail or what are you talking about?
Q. Any letters whatsoever.
A. Throughout the course of his representation, yes.
Q. What about in December of 2016?
A. I believe we started communicating in December, yes.
Q. But in writing?
A. In e-mails, sure.
Q. Did he discuss —
A. We may have. I'm not — whenever we started — whenever he started sending me things and going back and forth, I don't remember the exact date, but it was right after he started representing me, sure, we exchanged e-mails and started, yes.
Q. When did Gooch begin representing you?

A. The day that he agreed to represent me. I believe it would have been the day that he decided that he had a case.
Q. On or about December 16?
A. Yes.
Q. At that point in time, or shortly thereafter, he communicated with you in writing the details of the breach of the standard of care committed by Popovich and Mast; is that correct?
A. I believe he started to detail those out in the complaint and we were working it back and forth trying to get it right.
Q. When did you first exchange drafts of the complaint?
A. I'd have to look back in the e-mails. I don't remember the dates.
Q. Did you look for any of these e-mails in connection with my discovery requests in this case?
A. At the time I think we thought they were privileged.
Q. That privilege objection wasn't exactly made. My question is, did you look for them?
A. Did I look for them? I have them.
Q. I would ask that you preserve each and every communication between you and Mr. Gooch, all written communications, even phone records that might reflect the dates and times of your phone communications, if any. Did you use a cell phone back then?

A. I used VOIP over a data line.
Q. Who was your carrier?
A. Comcast.
Q. Is that still your carrier?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you have the same phone that you utilized?
A. Same phone number for 50 years, yes.
Q. What else could you remember that Gooch told you on or about the 16th of December 2016 about Mast and Popovich breaching the standard of care and how it damaged you?
A. Say that again.
Q. What, if anything, else do you recall about your discussions with Gooch on December 16 regarding the breach of the standard of care by Popovich and Mast and how it injured you?
A. We discussed the whole scenario between October and January and what happened. It was pretty detailed. We discussed everything that you see that's been communicated in the e-mails. He didn't have much else to go on other than the documents and the e-mails.

Q. You're talking about the e-mails between you and Hans from the fall of 2013?
A. Yes.
Q. Ultimately leading to the $5,000 settlement?
A. Yes.
Q. Other than you have a case, what did Gooch say to you?
A. He said that they definitely committed malpractice.
Q. Did he ever put this in writing?
A. Did he ever put it in writing? I think he backed it up by filing a suit. That's documented.
Q. Again, the suit wasn't filed until November of 2017.
A. Yes, he had some health problems and then his wife had some health problems. Believe me, I was pushing for him to get that done.
Q. From December of 2016 until the complaint was filed, you exchanged some drafts of complaints with him?

A. I believe he let me see what he wanted to put in the complaint. I got to review some things. Of course I had, do this or that's not right. In fact, a couple of these things in here we had to definitely – you caught one. He totally worded it wrong. It was wrong. We had to amend.
MS. WILLIAMS: His question was, did he give you drafts for you to review?
THE WITNESS: Yes.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. These were exchanged by e-mail?
A. I believe so, yes.
Q. So you would have records of them?
A. Yes.
Q. Any comments with respect to the pleadings, as well, did you ever ask him questions? Did he explain to you the basis for the allegations in the draft complaints, similar to what you did with Hans?
A. Over many times, yes.
Q. This is all reflected in e-mails?
A. Yes.

Page 138

Q. Ultimately, you didn't file until November of 2017?
A. Correct.
Q. Popovich ceased being your lawyer March 19 of 2015, correct?
A. That sounds about right.
Q. Until December 16, 2016, you didn't have any reason to believe there was a malpractice case against –
A. Say the date again.
Q. Until December 16, 2016, you didn't have any other reason to believe there was a malpractice case against Popovich and Mast?
A. I did not know that I had a case, no.
Q. You threatened one with respect to the Gagnon case –
A. Yes.
Q. – at another point in time, correct?
A. I think I threatened him a few times in there. Yeah. I was actually nice to what I really wanted to say.
Q. Subject to the ruling on these objections, you don't recall any other specific details that you discussed with Popovich – I'm sorry – Gooch on December 16, other than what we already talked about?

A. I discussed the exact same things that you – the same documents that you already have. We went over the case that Mast and Popovich had against the McGuires. He followed through all the way to the end. We went over the whole case. You see as much as he did.
Q. Did Gooch ever explain to you why the McGuires would have been liable any more than Mast explained to you that they wouldn't be liable?
A. He said he agreed right away. He said that's obvious.
Q. Did Gooch ever provide you with any cases or statutes?
A. Provide to me, maybe. Maybe. I don't know.
Q. Would that be by e-mail?
A. It could be. I was in his office quite a few times. He may have.
Q. As you sit here today, other than you have a case against Popovich and Mast, what did Gooch tell you specifically that was any different than what Mast and Popovich told you with respect to the McGuires' liability?

A. That they were definitely liable. He tried to say that – like Popovich and Mast were first- or second-year lawyers and that they may have made a mistake here.
I said they've got 20 years in this. You think they'd know the difference. That's the kind of thing. He agreed with me. Twenty years, yeah, they should have known better.
Q. Did you ever discuss the specifics of the McGuires' potential liability with Gooch?
A. Liability with Gooch?
Q. With Gooch, did you ever discuss the specifics of the McGuires' liability other than he thinks you have a case?
A. Yes.
Q. Did he ever tell you why? What was it?
A. Because he agreed with the expert's opinion.
Q. The expert on the chainsaw?
A. Yes. The liability expert.
Q. The expert said you should use safety goggles and gloves and things like that?
A. He said more than that, but yes.

Q. Do you know who commissioned that expert report?
A. Boudins.
Q. Do you know when the first draft of that doctor's expert report was circulated?
A. I heard that Boudin got it in February, maybe. I don't think I got it until July, but I'm not sure about that.
Q. July of what year?
A. The same year as the mediation.
Q. Of 2016?
A. Yeah.
Q. So you actually read it in advance of the mediation?
A. I talked about this earlier. I said yes. You don't catch everything the first time you read it. I was sitting there at the mediating table and I was reading it and I caught it and I turned to Randy and I said, after it was over, does this mean — that means.
Q. Means what?
A. Does this mean the McGuires are liable? Yeah, that means they are liable. He said, call my office after everything and I'll give you a name for an attorney you should go see.

MR. FLYNN: Any follow-up, Julia?
MS. WILLIAMS: I have two follow-up questions.
EXAMINATION
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Did you ever give Hans authority to make a settlement demand regarding Mr. Gagnon?
A. I think at one time in one of my meltdown letters I said get whatever you can, but no, I never actually signed anything saying you have the right to offer a settlement.
Q. Did you ever give Hans authority to make a settlement demand with regard to the McGuires?
A. A demand, no. He said he was going to probe and see what was out there, and I said, if you want to do that, that's fine.
MS. WILLIAMS: I have no further questions.

Dulberg's home is located at 4606 Hayden Ct., McHenry IL 60051

4. Identify and describe how you were invited to the McGuires' property to see if you wanted any of the wood from the tree, as alleged in paragraph 12 of your second amended complaint.

ANSWER: Dulberg received a call from Gagnon on June 27, 2011. Over the phone, Gagnon asked Dulberg if he wanted wood from the tree that the McGuires were removing and invited Dulberg to come see the wood.

5. Identify how William McGuire physically assisted in cutting down the tree, including the date, time, and location of his assistance, and describe how and when he supervised David Gagnon's actions in cutting down the tree, as alleged in paragraph 13 of your second amended complaint.

ANSWER: On June 28, 2011, Dulberg went to the McGuires' home and arrived between 8:30-9:00 am. He observed William McGuire working with Gagnon between that time and approximately noon that same day to remove tree branches from the tree. Gagnon continued to work throughout the day, after William stopped working. Caroline was present observing the work and supervising the work.

William and Caroline McGuire purchased and provided the chainsaw that was used to cut the branches. William and Caroline McGuire provided the ropes and straps that Gagnon used to climb the tree. Caroline had the chain saw owner's manual in her possession and instructed Gagnon what fuel/oil ratio to use for the chain saw.

William and Caroline McGuire instructed Gagnon as to which trees and branches that they wanted removed and where they wanted the trees and branches to fall during the removal process. Gagnon climbed into the tree and cut the branches utilizing the chain saw that the McGuire's provided. The branches would fall to the ground and William would pile the branches in the yard. He also started a fire and burnt some of the branches. At times, William started the chainsaw for Gagnon.

Throughout the entire day, Caroline observed the work and instructed Gagnon to "be careful" on several occasions. She also provided water to both William and Gagnon.

William, Caroline, and Gagnon had several conversations throughout the morning as to which trees and branches to cut, how to best remove the trees and branches, where the trees and branches would fall, and how to clean them up. William and Caroline instructed Gagnon regarding those matters.

At approximately noon on that same date, William stopped working on cutting down the tree and went into the house. He then came out of the house and entered the McGuires' pool that is located on the same property.

Gagnon continued to work through the afternoon and early in the afternoon complained to Caroline that he was "working alone" and couldn't complete the work that day without help. Caroline and Gagnon then asked Dulberg to assist. Dulberg agreed to assist.

Dulberg assisted William McGuire by moving branches to the garden and started the chainsaw for Gagnon once while Gagnon was in the tree.

Dulberg then assisted Gagnon by moving the large branches that had already been cut and holding the large limbs steady so that Gagnon could cut them. Dulberg would hold the large branch while Gagnon would cut the smaller branches off the larger branch with the chain saw.

Gagnon would tell Dulberg which branches to pick up and move to the location where Gagnon was cutting them into smaller pieces by cutting off smaller limbs with the chain saw. Gagnon would also instruct Dulberg as to how and where to hold the limbs so that he could cut the branch with the chain saw. Gagnon placed the larger limb, which was now stripped of the smaller branches in a pile and instructed Dulberg to grab the next limb, which still had the smaller branches, to start the process again.

The chain saw was very loud and little conversation occurred during the time the chain saw was on. Instead, Gagnon would gesture to communicate with Dulberg as to how he wanted the branch held or moved.

No one cut down the entire tree that day, instead branches were removed from the tree and cut down into smaller pieces.

6. Identify and describe how Caroline McGuire supervised David Gagnon and William McGuire's actions, as alleged in paragraph 14 of the second amended complaint.

ANSWER: See answer to 5.

7. Identify the date, time, the location, and the exact words exchanged between Gagnon and the McGuires on the one hand and you on the other as alleged in paragraph 15 of your second amended complaint, in which it is alleged that were asked to assist the trimming and removal of the tree.

ANSWER: See answer to 5. Dulberg does not recall the "exact words exchanged" but does recall the incident as outlined in his answer to 5.

8. Identify what safety information was readily available to Caroline and William McGuire as alleged in paragraph 18 of your second amended complaint, and how you know this information.

ANSWER: Caroline and William McGuire had the owner's manual to the chain saw. Caroline was reading parts of it aloud to Gagnon in the morning of June 28, 2011. Dulberg observed Caroline in possession of the owner's manual and saw her reading it in the morning of June 28, 2011.

The owner's manual had safety instructions and warnings that would have prevented the accident.

9. Did you request any protective equipment or other safety devices from the McGuires or Gagnon while you provided assistance to Gagnon in operating the chainsaw?

ANSWER: No, Gagnon instructed Dulberg as to what to do and Dulberg never operated the chain saw or read the owner's manual.

MEMORANDUM

TO: File

FROM: Hans

DATE: November 20, 2013

SUBJECT: PAUL DULBERG

On November 20, 2013, I met with Paul and his friend to discuss the McGuire's $5,000 settlement offer and other issues with regard to this case. I also told them there is a dispute as to McGuire's liability, as they maintain that they were not directing Dave's work. Paul maintains that the McGuire's controlled everything that Dave was doing. I told him that that's not what the evidence seems to show. I told them the McGuire's could possibly get out of the case on motion, and the alternative is to accept the $5,000 offer. Paul wants to read the deps of the McGuire's and also wants us to order his and Dave's dep to review. I agreed to do so.

By copy of this memo, I ask Sheila to order copies of Paul and Dave's deps. I think defense counsel ordered them, so all we need to do is get copies. Please let me know if the copies have not been already ordered so we don't have to order the originals.

Thanks,

Hans

4. That due to the actions and status of MAST in relation to POPOVICH, the actions and inactions of MAST are directly attributable to his employer, partnership, or principal, being THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPVICH, P.C.

5. Venue is therefore claimed proper in McHenry County, Illinois, as the Defendants transact substantial and regular business in and about McHenry County in the practice of law, where their office is located.

6. On or about June 28, 2011, your Plaintiff, DULBERG was involved in a horrendous accident, having been asked by his neighbors Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, in assisting a David Gagnon in the cutting down of a tree on the McGuire property. DULBERG lived in the neighborhood.

7. At this time, Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw he was using causing it to strike DULBERG. This caused substantial and catastrophic injuries to DULBERG, including but not limited to great pain and suffering, current as well as future medical expenses, in an amount in excess of $260,000.00, along with lost wages in excess of $250,000.00, and various other damages.

11. That as Exhibit B reveals, Defendants property filed suit against not only the operator of the chain saw, but also his principals, Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, who purportedly were supervising him in his work on the premises.

12. At the time of filing of the aforesaid Complaint, MAST certified pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 137, that he had made a diligent investigation of the facts and circumstances around the Complaint he filed, and further had ascertained the appropriate law. MAST evidently believed a very good and valid cause of action existed against Caroline McGuire and William McGuire.

13. The matter proceeded through the normal stages of litigation until sometime in late 2013 or early 2014, when MAST met with DULBERG and other family members and advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and told DULBERG he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuire's for the sum of $5,000.00. DULBERG, having no choice in the matter, reluctantly agreed with MAST and to accept the sum of $5,000.00 releasing not only William and Caroline McGuire, but also Auto-Owners Insurance Company from any further responsibility or liability in the matter. A copy of the aforesaid general release and settlement agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

14. MAST and POPOVICH continued to represent DULBERG through to and including March of 2015, following which DULBERG and the Defendants terminated their relationship.

15. Continuously throughout the period of representation, MAST and POPOVICH represented repeatedly to DULBERG there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and lulled DULBERG into believing that the matter was being properly handled. Then, due to a claimed failure of communication, MAST and POPOVICH withdrew from the representation of DULBERG.

16. Thereafter, DULBERG retained other attorneys and proceeded to a binding mediation before a retired Circuit Judge, where DULBERG received a binding mediation award of $660,000.00 in gross, and a net award of $561,000.00. Unfortunately, a "high-low agreement" had been executed by DULBERG, reducing the maximum amount he could recover to $300,000.00 based upon the insurance policy available. The award was substantially more than that sum of money, and could have been recovered from McGuire's had they not been dismissed from the Complaint. A copy of the aforesaid Mediation Award is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

17. The McGuire's were property owners and had property insurance covering injuries or losses on their property, as well as substantial personal assets, including the property location where the accident took place at 1016 West Elder Avenue, in the City of McHenry, Illinois. McGuire's were well able to pay all, or a portion of the binding mediation award had they still remained parties.

18. DULBURG, in his relationship with POPOVICH and MAST, cooperated in all ways with them, furnishing all necessary information as required, and frequently conferred with them.

19. Until the time of the mediation award, DULBURG had no reason to believe he could not recover the full amount of his injuries, based on POPOVICH'S and MAST'S representations to DULBERG that he could recover the full amount of his injuries from Gagnon, and that the inclusion of the McGuire's would only complicate the case.

20. Following the execution of the mediation agreement with the "high-low agreement" contained therein, and the final mediation award, DULBURG realized for the first time that the information MAST and POPOVICH had given DULBERG was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuire's was a serious and substantial mistake. Following the mediation, DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling Legal Malpractice matters, and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

21. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBURG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:

a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuire's) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG;

b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG;

d) Failed to understand the law pertaining to a property owner's rights, duties and responsibilities to someone invited onto their property;

e) Improperly urged DULBURG to accept a nonsensical settlement from the property owners, and dismissed them from all further responsibility;

f) Failed to appreciate and understand further moneys could not be received as against Gagnon, and that the McGuire's and their obvious liability were a very necessary party to the litigation;

g) Falsely advised DULBURG throughout the period of their representation, that the actions taken regarding the McGuire's was proper in all ways and respects, and that DULBURG had no choice but to accept the settlement;

h) Failed to properly explain to DULBURG all ramifications of accepting the McGuire settlement, and giving him the option of retaining alternative counsel to review the matter;

i) Continually reassured DULBURG that the course of action as to the property owners was proper and appropriate;

j) Were otherwise negligent in their representation of DULBERG, concealing from him necessary facts for DULBURG to make an informed decision as to the McGuire's, instead coercing him into signing a release and settlement agreement and accept a paltry sum of $5,000.00 for what was a grievous injury.

22. That DULBERG suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of MAST and POPOVICH in urging DULBURG to release the McGuire's, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of MAST and THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

B. Relevant Facts

6. On or about June 28, 2011, Dulberg assisted Caroline McGuire ("Caroline"), William McGuire ("Williams") (Caroline and William collectively referred to herein as "the McGuires"), and David Gagnon ("Gagnon") in cutting down a tree on the McGuire's property.

7. Dulberg lives in the next neighborhood over from the McGuire family.

8. Caroline McGuire and William McGuire are a married couple, who own real property in McHenry, McHenry County, Illinois ("the Property").

9. David Gagon is Caroline's son and William's stepson.

10. On June 28, 2011, at the Property, Gagnon was operating a chainsaw to remove branches from a tree and cut it down on the Property.

11. The McGuire's purchased and owned the chainsaw that was being utilized to trim, remove branches, and cut down the tree.

12. Dulberg was invited to the McGuire's property to see if he wanted any of the wood from the tree.

15. Gagnon and the McGuires asked Dulberg to assist with trimming and removal of the tree.

16. Gagnon was acting on behalf of Caroline and William and at their direction.

17. Caroline, William, and Gagnon all knew or show have known that a chainsaw was dangerous and to take appropriate precautions when utilizing the chain saw.

18. The safety information was readily available to Caroline and William as the safety instructions are included with the purchase of the chainsaw.

19. It is reasonably foreseeable that the failure to take appropriate caution and safety measures could result in serious injury.

20. The likelihood of injury when not properly utilizing the chainsaw or not following the safety precautions is very high.

21. The safety instructions outlined are easy to follow and do not place a large burden on the operator of the chainsaw or the owner of the property.

22. Caroline, William, and Gagnon had a duty to exercise appropriate caution and follow the safety instructions for the chainsaw.

23. Caroline, William, and Gagnon breached that duty by either not exercising appropriate care, failing to follow the safety instructions, or failing to instruct Gagnon to exercise appropriate care and/or follow the safety instructions.

24. Caroline and William, owners of the property and the chainsaw, instructed Gagnon to use the chain saw despite Gagnon not being a trained in operating the chainsaw.

25. Gagnon was operating the chain saw in close proximity to Dulberg.

26. Neither Gagnon nor Dulberg were provided protective equipment when operating or assisting with operating the chainsaw.

27. Gagnon failed to utilize the chainsaw in compliance with the safety measures outlined in the owner's manual.

28. Caroline and William failed to instruct and require that Gagnon utilize the chainsaw only in compliance with the safety measures outlined in the owner's manual.

29. Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw that he was using and it struck Dulberg in the right arm, cutting him severely.

30. Dulberg incurred substantial and catastrophic injuries, including, but not limited to, pain and suffering, loss of use of his right arm, current and future medical expenses in amount in excess of $260,000, lost wages in excess of $250,000, and other damages.

31. In May 2012, Dulberg hired Mast and Popovich to represent him in prosecuting his claims against Gagnon and the McGuires. Exhibit A.

32. Mast and Popovich, on behalf of Dulberg filed a complaint against Gagnon and the McGuires. Exhibit B.

33. Mast and Popovich entered into an attorney client relationship with Dulberg.

34. Based upon the attorney client relationship, Mast and Popovich owed professional duties to Dulberg, including to a duty of care.

35. On behalf of Dulberg, Mast and Popovich prosecuted claims against both Gagnon and the McGuire's.

36. The claims against Gagnon were resolved later through binding mediation with new counsel.

37. The claims against the McGuires included (a) common law premises liability, (b) statutory premises liability, (c) common law negligence, and (d) vicarious liability for the acts of their son and agent.

38. In late 2013 or early, Mast urged Dulberg to settle the claims against the McGuire's for $5,000.

39. On November 18, 2013, Mast wrote two emails to Dulberg urging Dulberg to accept the $5,000.00, "the McGuire's atty has offered us (you) $5,000 in full settlement of the claim against the McGuires only. As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery...." * * * "So if we do not accept their $5,000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case". (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

40. Similarly, on November 20, 2013, Mast emailed Dulberg urging him to accept the $5,000.00 otherwise "the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion." (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

41. On or around December 2013 or January 2014, Mast met with Dulberg and again advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and verbally told Dulberg that he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuires for the sum of $5,000.00 and if he did not, he would get nothing.

42. During that same time frame, Mast advised Dulberg that the Restatement of Torts 318 was the only mechanism to recover from the McGuires and that Illinois did not recognize the Restate of Torts 318, thus Dulberg did not have any viable claims against the McGuires.

43. Mast failed to advise or inform Dulberg of other basis for recovery against the McGuires.

44. Based upon Mast's erroneously advice that Dulberg's claims against the McGuire's were not viable and that Dulberg would not recover if he pursued the claims, Dulberg settled with the McGuire's and their insurance company, Auto-Owners Insurance Company, for $5,000, which included a release of all claims against the McGuire's and claim for indemnification under the McGuire's insurance policy. Exhibit D (Settlement).

45. Mast also told Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was limited to $100,000.

46. From 2013 forward, Mast and Popovich represented repeatedly to Dulberg that there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and led Dulberg to believe that the matter was being properly handled.

47. Mast also reassured Dulberg that Dulberg would be able to receive the full amount of any eventual recovery from Gagnon.

48. After accepting the $5,000 settlement, Dulberg wrote Mast an email on January 29, 2014 stating "I trust your judgment." (See Email attached as Exhibit E.)

49. Mast and Popovich continued to represent Dulberg into 2015 and continuously assured him that his case was being handled properly.

50. The McGuires owned their home, had homeowner's insurance, and had other property that could have been utilized to pay a judgment against them and in favor of Dulberg.

51. Dulberg cooperated with and appropriately assisted Mast and Popovich in prosecuting the claims against Gagnon and the McGuires.

52. In December of 2016, Dulberg participated in binding mediation related to his claims against Gagnon.

53. In December of 2016, Dulberg was awarded a gross amount of $660,000 and a net award of $561,000 after his contributory negligence was considered.

54. Dulberg was only able to recovery approximately $300,000 of the award from Gagnon's insurance and was unable to collect from Gagnon personally.

55. Only after Dulberg obtained an award against Gagnon did he discover that his claims against the McGuires were viable and valuable.

56. Following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, Dulberg realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information Mast and Popovich had given Dulberg was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake.

57. It was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinions that Dulberg retained for the mediation, that Dulberg became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000.00 on an "all or nothing" basis.

58. Mast and Popovich, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed Dulberg by violating the standard of care owed Dulberg in the following ways and respects:

a) failed to fully and properly investigate the claims and/or basis for liability against the McGuires;

b) failed to properly obtain information through discovery regarding McGuires assets, insurance coverages, and/or ability to pay a judgement and/or settlement against them;

c) failed to accurately advise Dulberg of the McGuires' and Gagnon's insurance coverage related to the claims against them and/or Dulberg's ability to recover through McGuires'and Gagnon's insurance policies, including, but not limited to, incorrectly informing

Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000" and no insurance compnay would pay close to that;

d) failed to take such actions as were necessary during their respective representation of Dulberg to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed and/or were principals of Gagnon, and who sought the assistance Dulberg by for example failing to obtain an expert;

e) failed to accurately advise Dulberg regarding the McGuires' liability, likelihood of success of claims against the McGuires, the McGuires' ability pay any judgment or settlement against them through insurance or other assets, and/or necessity of prosecuting the all the claims against both the McGuires and Gagnon in order to obtain a full recovery;

f) Coerced Dulberg, verbally and though emails, into accepting a settlement with the McGuires for $5,000 by misleading Dulberg into believing that he had no other choice but to accept the settlement or else "The McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion."

59. As a direct result of Mast and Popovich's wrongful actions, Dulberg suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of Mast and Popovich in urging Dulberg to release the McGuires, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of Mast and The Law Offices of Thomas Popovich, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, Paul Dulberg prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

a. Failed to maintain control over the operating of the chainsaw;

b. Failed to take precaution not to allow the chainsaw to move toward the Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG, so as to cause injury;

Morning Hans,
Ok we can meet. I will call Sheila today and set up a time.
Please send me a link to the current Illinois statute citing that the property owner is not liable for work done on their property resulting in injury to a neighbor.
I need to read it myself and any links to recent case law in this area would be helpful as well.
Thanks,
Paul

The legality of it all is that a property owner does not have legal liability for a worker (whether friend, son or otherwise) who does the work on his time, using his own independent skills. Here, I deposed the McGuires, and they had nothing to do with how Dave did the work other than to request the work to be done. They had no control on how Dave wielded the chain saw and cut you. its that simple. We don't have to accept the $5,000, but if we do not, the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion. So that's the situation.

Just because Dave was doing the work doesn't mean they were not trying to tell their kid what to do. They told him plenty of times throughout the day what to do. How is that not supervising?

So if we do not accept their 5000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case

They all left me out in the yard screaming for help while they were busy making sure they were covered.

She even went as far as to finally call the Emergency Room after I was already there just to tell me she was covered.

How selfish are people when they worry about if their insured over helping the person who was hurt and bleeding badly in their yard.

I'm glad she got her answer and had to share it with me only to find out her coverage won't even pay the medical bills.

I'm not happy with the offer.

As far as John Choyinski, he knows he has to call you and said he will tomorrow.

As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery....

Ok, it's signed and in the mail.
Hope that some yahoo in the govt. doesn't someday decide to go after everyone they think they might get a dollar out of and end up holding me responsible for the McGuires fees incurred while they fight it out.
I'm not in the business of warranting, insuring or protecting the McGuires from government. Especially for only 5 grand. For that kind of protection it could cost millions but I trust your judgement.

How hard is it to sue an atty?

And yes I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case...

The issue of my word vs David Gagnons... Did he cut me or did I cut myself?

Of coarse he cut me.

You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear - it is not. My guess is that seven out of 10 times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I have been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to. There's only $100,000 in coverage. Allstate will never offer anything near the policy limits therefore there's no chance to settle the case. The only alternative is to take the case to trial and I am not interested in doing that. I will wait for you to find a new attorney. I can't assist you any further in this case. Just let me know.

Hans,
if I use a chainsaw and cut you badly who is going to believe me when I say it's not my fault, Hans just fell into it?

Who in their right mind is going to believe me when your pointing your finger at me saying I did it?

Who?

First, I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to help prove David cut me with a chainsaw. I was but a lowly printer/graphic designer my whole life and never asked for anyone's sympathy till now.

Secondly, I'm sorry I must live among a bunch of potential jurors that you don't trust to just do the right thing.

Thirdly, I'm most sorry for agreeing to lend David Gagnon a hand when he needed some help, I had no idea he was going to try and lop it off.

Fourth, I'm sorry you don't feel good about pushing for a trial. I wish whatever mysterious evidence you seek would be shared with me because without a video camera I can only say what I've seen from direct experience. And I guess in this case "me" the victim isn't credible enough but the one wielding a chainsaw that hurt me is.

A few questions from a layman,

How much could a trial actually cost?
What,
$50,000
$150,000
Does it even cost as much as a car?
What number?

How much would you hope to get for us in a settlement?

How much could be expected if the trial does proceed and we have a favorable outcome?

Hans, if your heart is not in this I'm sorry case to trial. I just don't think we have enough evidence to prove our case and to invest the time and cost and preparing for trial and moving to trial just in my mind does not make sense to me. I have to be very realistic about things and honest with my opinion. It doesn't do you any good if I do not feel strongly about the case.

That's the very reason why I wanted to have this discussion. I want to give you the option of finding other counsel at this point if you really want to take the case to trial which I think ultimately will be necessary. I just do not believe strongly that defense counsel will offer much in the way of a settlement. Although I will ask him if he is going to make an offer and maybe that will allow you to make a better judgment on this.

Subject: Bad night

Hans,

Last evening I was in the hospital with the most severe migraine I've ever had.

This morning I filed for bankruptcy with David Stretch.

This afternoon I spent with my regular physician Dr Zaide doing a follow up from yesterday.

And right now, I have to email you. All when I still have a slight residual headache and should be in bed.

At first I thought the migraine was brought on by the medications I'm taking but it wasn't, it was brought on after our discussions. Now I can't prove that but it seems pretty obvious to me. Joke no pun intended there!

That migraine made me realize I need the stress of this situation over with. All the stress on top of losing everything is too much and I'd rather live than die from it all before my body does something worse.

My body is not reacting well and the migraines are getting more frequent and worse. Have you ever vomited at the same time as deficating while being in some of the most excruciating pain in your life?

If not, neither did I till the chainsaw went through my arm. That's when the migraines became more frequent, stronger and faster coming on. And now for the first time during the day.

Ever since I awoke this morning, all I can I think is the stress of it all is killing me more and more as the reality sets in and I just can't afford to care about it anymore.

My health means more than some lawsuits and the lure of money.

All because some idiot named David Gagnon forgot to tell me to move out of the way and he can't seem to admit it.

Yes, after reading his deposition and hearing it was my fault I was pissed.

In my anger I suspected all sorts of things. Including it being intentional especially after my discussions at his home only trying to get his homeowners policy number and him wanting money and threatening me for it.

Yes, my arm and elbow were hurt from his stupidity irregardless if some dr can link the two together or not.

Yes, there will be ongoing medical as a result of all this because it still hurts and doesn't work right.

Yes, I am now disabled irregardless of what SSDI appeal goes because of this.

Yes. I understand I'm screwed because of a system that allows one person to hurt another and even after a trial and judgement entered all they have to do is go file for bankruptcy in the same courthouse on the same day.

Yes, it just took me almost an hour just to type this.

Yes, yes, yes...

but none of it matters anymore!

Bottom line Hans... Do the best you can with what you got, I've got nothing more to lose or give. I need it all to just go away.

a. Violation of this rule set forth in (D)(2) shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement. The non-disclosing Party must formally object to the Mediator upon learning of the breach, or the breach will be considered waived. The non-disclosing Party shall then have the option to continue the Mediation from the point of objection to its completion; or to terminate the Mediation at the point of objection as null and void. The ADR Systems case manager must be made aware of this breach at the time of the objection, so the objection is addressed in accordance with the Agreement; and

b. If the Mediation is terminated as null and void, all costs of the Mediation will be charged entirely to the disclosing Party. A new Mediation shall then take place with a new Mediator on a new date. If the Mediation is not terminated, the costs of the Mediation shall remain the responsibility of each Party or in accordance with the Agreement.

3. The Parties agree if a Party has an objection to the evidence or material submitted by any other Party pursuant to Paragraph (D)(1), notice of the objection shall be given to the ADR Systems case manager and opposing counsel by telephone and in writing at least seven days prior to the Mediation. If resolution cannot be obtained, the case manager will forward the objection to the Mediator to be ruled upon before or at the Mediation. The case manager will notify each of the Parties of the objection. The objection may result in a postponement of the proceedings. If the objection is because of new material being disclosed with the submission for the first time (for example, new or additional reports, additional medical/wage loss claims, etc.) then the disclosing party shall be charged for the total cost associated with the continuance.

4. The Parties agree that any Party desiring to introduce any of the items described in Paragraph (D)(1) without foundation or other proof, must deliver said items to the Mediator and to the other Parties no later than Monday, November 21, 2016.

E. Conference Procedure

1. The Parties may present opening statements but there will be no live testimony.
2. The Parties will attempt to reach a voluntary settlement through negotiation with the assistance of the Mediator.
3. If the Parties cannot voluntarily reach a settlement, the Mediator will advise the Parties that settlement cannot be reached. The Mediator will then take the matter under advisement and render an award that will be binding to all Parties, (the "Award"), subject to the terms of any high/low agreement that the Parties may have as described below in Paragraph (F)(1).

F. Award Limits

1. The Parties may agree prior to the Mediation that a minimum and maximum amount will serve as parameters for the Award (sometimes referred to as a "high/low agreement"), such that the actual amount that must be paid to the plaintiff or claimant shall not exceed a certain amount (the "high" or "maximum award") and shall not be less than a certain amount (the "low" or "minimum award").

   a. If liability is disputed and comparative fault or negligence is asserted as an affirmative defense, the Mediator shall make a finding regarding comparative fault or negligence, if any. In the event that there is a finding of comparative fault or negligence of the plaintiff that is greater than 50% (fifty percent), the plaintiff shall receive the negotiated minimum award. In the event that there is a finding of comparative fault or negligence of 50% (fifty percent) or less against the plaintiff, then any damages awarded in favor of the plaintiff shall be reduced by the amount of the plaintiff's comparative fault or negligence, but shall be no less than the minimum parameter or more than the maximum parameter.

   b. All award minimum and maximum parameters are subject to applicable set-offs if any, as governed by policy provisions if not specified in the Agreement.

      The Parties agree that for this Mediation the minimum award to Paul Dulberg will be $50,000.00. Also, the maximum award to Paul Dulberg will be $300,000.00. These amounts reflect the minimum and maximum amounts of money that David Gagnon shall be liable to pay to Paul Dulberg.

IV. Effect of this Agreement

A. After the commencement of the Mediation, no Party shall be permitted to cancel this Agreement or the Mediation and the Mediator shall render a decision that shall be in accordance with the terms set forth in this Agreement. When the Award is rendered, the Mediation is resolved, and any Award arising from this Mediation shall operate as a bar and complete defense to any action or proceeding in any court or tribunal that may arise from the same incident upon which the Mediation is based.

B. The Parties further agree that any pending litigation will be dismissed, with prejudice, as to those Parties participating in this Mediation upon the conclusion thereof. Any and all liens, including contractual rights of subrogation owed are subject to existing Illinois law. By agreement of the Parties, the Mediator's Award will be final and binding and not subject to appeal or motion for reconsideration by any Party.

V. Mediation Costs

A. ADR Systems Fee Schedule

1. A deposit is required for the Administrative Fee, Mediator's estimated review, session, and follow-up time ("Mediation Costs"). Binding-Mediations are billed at a four hour per day minimum. The required deposit amount is $2,590.00 from Party B and is due by November 21, 2016. Any unused portion of the deposit will be refunded based on the four hour minimum. If the Mediator's review, session and follow-up time go over the estimated amount, each Party will be invoiced for the additional time.
2. Mediation Costs are usually divided equally among all Parties, unless otherwise agreed upon by the Parties. ADR Systems must be notified of special fee arrangements.
3. All deposits are due two weeks prior to the session. ADR Systems reserves the right to cancel a session if deposits are not received from all Parties two weeks prior to the session.
4. ADR Systems requires 14-day notice in writing or via electronic transmission of cancellation or continuance. For Binding-Mediations cancelled or continued within 14 days of the session, the Party causing the cancellation will be billed for the Mediation Costs of all the Parties involved, which includes the four hour per day minimum, additional review time, and any other expenses incurred("cancellation fees"). If the cancellation is by agreement of all Parties, or if the case has settled, the cancellation fees will be split equally among all Parties, unless ADR Systems is instructed otherwise. The cancellation fees may be waived if the Mediator's lost time can be filled by another matter.

Administrative Fee	$390.00 (Non-refundable)
Mediator's Review Time	$450.00 per hour
Session Time	$450.00 per hour
Mediator's Decision Writing Time	$450.00 per hour
Mediator's Travel Time (if any)	$75.00 per hour

2. All expenses and disbursements made by ADR Systems in connection with the Mediation, including, but not limited to, outside room rental fee, meals, express mail and messenger charges, and any other charges associated with the Mediation, will be billed equally to the Parties at the time of the invoice.

In the event that a Party and/or its counsel fails to pay ADR Systems in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, then that Party and/or its counsel shall be responsible for all costs, including attorney's fees, incurred by ADR Systems in connection with the collection of any amount due and owing. Payment of additional costs incurred by ADR Systems in connection with the collection of any amount due and owing shall be made within 15 days of invoice.

4. In the event ADR Systems' session rooms are completely booked on your selected session date, ADR Systems will attempt to find another complimentary venue for your session. If ADR Systems cannot find a complimentary venue or the parties cannot agree on the complimentary venue, ADR Systems reserves the right to schedule your case in a location that may involve a facilities charge. The facilities charge will be split equally among the parties unless ADR Systems is instructed otherwise.

5. *Defendant agrees to pay up to $3,500.00 of Plaintiff's Binding Mediation Costs.

VI. Acknowledgment of Agreement

A. By signing this Agreement, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to all the provisions as set forth above.

DULBERG'S SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWERS TO DEFENDANTS THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C.'S INTERROGATORIESTO PLAINTIFF PAUL DULBERG

Paul Dulberg, by and through his attorneys, The Clinton Law Firm, LLC, pursuant to the provisions of Illinois Supreme Court Rule 213, responds, in supplement, to Defendant, The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C.'s Interrogatories To Plaintiff Paul Dulberg as follows:

INTERROGATORIES

12. Identify and describe each of your employers in the ten year period prior to the accident of June 28, 2011, including any self-employment. For each employer, identify your wage rate or salary, your title, your job description, your required duties, and your income for the ten year period prior to the accident in question.

SUPPLEMENT TO ORIGINAL ANSWER:

1. 1999-2011 Sharp Printing, Inc., 4606 Hayden Ct., McHenry, IL 60051

Paul Dulberg was an owner and operator of Sharp Printing, Inc. along with his two partners Scott Dulberg and Michael McArtor. Dulberg provided full time employment services to Sharp Printing, Inc. and thus was "employed" by Sharp Printing, Inc. However, Dulberg did not draw a salary from Sharp Printing, Inc. and did not receive any profits from the company.

Paul Dulberg was the President, salesperson, graphic designer, 8 color screen print pressman, handled fulfillment, shipping & receiving, as well as other day to day operations of the company.

For income, see tax returns.

Sharp Printing, Inc. operated out of the lower floor of Paul Dulberg's personal residence and paid all utilities bills, including garbage, water, natural gas, electric, internet, phone, and cable. The approximate value is $650 per month.

19. As a result of your personal injuries from the underlying case, were you unable to work? If so, state:

(a) The name and address of your employer, if any, at the time of the occurrence, your wage and/or salary, and the name of your supervisor and/or foreperson;
(b) The date or inclusive dates on which you were unable to work;
(c) The amount of wage and/or income lost by you; and
(d) The name and address of your present employer and/or wage and/or salary.

SUPPLEMENT TO ORIGINAL ANSWER:

Paul Dulberg was self-employed by Sharp Printing and unable to work after the accident. He was also an independent contractor with Juskie Printing. He has not been employed since the date of the accident. See tax returns for lost wages. See SSDI documents for current income.

26. Identify and describe the false and misleading information Mast and Popovich provided to you, and explain how you realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information was false and misleading and the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake, as alleged in paragraph 56 of your second amended complaint.

SUPPLEMENT TO ORIGINAL ANSWER:

On December 8, 2016, the mediator issued a net award to Dulberg of $561,000. Dulberg discovered he could not recover the entire mediation award from Gagnon. At that time Dulberg realized that Mast's advice to settle with the McGuires for $5,000 was incorrect, because Mast had cited Dulberg being able to recover in full from Gagnon as his reasoning.

27. Identify and describe the expert opinions provided to you in December 2016 as alleged in paragraph 57 of your second amended complaint, including the identity of the expert, the opinions, and any other information provided by the expert which caused you to learn in the summer of 2016 and become reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent you.

SUPLEMENT TO ORIGINAL ANSWER:

Dr. Landford is a chainsaw expert who was retained by Dulberg during the mediation which occurred in 2016. Landford's expert opinion demonstrates that contrary to Mast's advice, the McGuires were liable for Gagnon's actions with the chainsaw. The expert report came out in February of 2016 and the mediation award was issued in December of 2016.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. WILLIAMS:

MS. WILLIAMS: Okay, so this is the discovery deposition of Hans Mast taken pursuant to all applicable rules and notice in the case of Dulberg versus The Law Offices of Thomas Popovich, et al. This deposition is being taken for the purposes of discovery.

Q. Hans, can you state your name for the record, please?

A. Hans Mast.

Q. Have you had your deposition taken before?

A. Yes.

Q. And how many times?

A. I think two.

Q. And for what purpose?

A. Long, long time ago I think there was a malpractice case I was a witness on and a legal -- a medical malpractice case that turned into a legal malpractice case, not against me but against the office I was with.

Q. Okay. So you weren't named in the lawsuit as a defendant?

A. I might have been named. I might have been named, but I was somebody that appeared on a motion. I think I got out eventually.

Q. Okay, and then -- And then -- Sorry. And then you said you think twice, so do you know approximately what year that medical malpractice case that turned into a legal malpractice case, do you know roughly what year that was?

A. '94 or something.

Q. Okay, and then the second time, what would have that been?

A. It's not coming to me. It was another legal case. I don't remember the details.

Q. Okay --

A. There -- Go ahead.

Q. More than 10 years? I'm sorry, I didn't mean to interrupt you.

A. Yes.

Q. We can go over the -- I'm going to try not to interrupt you, you're going to try not to interrupt me. You've taken depositions before, I'm sure we can get into that and appreciate you answering orally, all of those typical things that apply, and I'll try not to interrupt you too much. Have you ever -- Other than the one time you just identified, have you ever been sued other than this suit for legal malpractice?

A. No.

Q. Do you recall any other details about that medical malpractice lawsuit that turned into a legal malpractice suit? Do you know what the basis of the suit was?

A. It was a medical malpractice case that I think lost on a summary judgment motion and they were -- the client was suing the office and I think I got involved in it because I was on a motion.

Q. Were you the one that drafted the summary judgment motion?

A. I don't think so. I don't really remember clearly back then, but I don't think I did.

Q. Okay.

A. I think I argued -- I might have argued it. I don't remember.

Q. Okay. Have you -- Have you taken depositions before?

A. Yes.

Q. Roughly how many depositions do you think you've taken in your legal career?

A. Lots. Lots.

Page 8

Q. Hundreds?

A. Probably.

Q. Oh, I'm sorry, I forgot to do this, but I think we saw your room. It's just you and George Flynn in the room with you, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And there's no one else in the room and if there were, you would identify them, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And you don't have any devices or anything with you? You're not communicating with anyone during this deposition other than the attorney in the room with you, correct?

A. And you and who else is on this meeting.

Q. Okay. I'm sorry, let me rephrase. Is there anyone that I don't know that you are communicating with that I wouldn't know?

A. Not that I'm aware of.

Q. Okay. If you take any notes or otherwise communicate with people during the deposition, we just ask that those notes be produced. Okay. Did you do anything to prepare for the deposition today?

A. Well, I just saw some exhibits you sent George. I didn't really prepare them. I looked them over briefly.

Q. Did you review any of the other files that have been produced in this case?

A. No.

Q. Did you review any notes?

A. No.

Q. Any other documents?

A. No.

Q. Did you meet with anyone --

A. Other than George?

Q. -- to prepare? Other than George.

A. No.

Q. And you did meet with George, I'm assuming. I don't want to know the contents of that meeting, but you met with George to prepare?

A. Not very long.

Q. Okay. Did you talk to anyone else about today's deposition prior to the deposition today?

A. No.

Q. Where did you go to law school?

A. Kent.

Q. And what year did you graduate?

A. '91.

Q. And were you admitted to practice in Illinois that same year?

A. Yes.
Q. And have you -- Are you admitted to practice anywhere else?
A. No.
Q. Have you ever been reprimanded or disciplined by any courts?
A. No.
Q. Have you ever been publicly reprimanded or disciplined by any oversight body, such as the ARDC?
A. No.
Q. When did you start practicing?
A. '91.
Q. And where did you start?
A. In Rockford.
Q. With a firm?
A. Yeah, Cacciatore.
Q. And how long were you there?
A. About a year and a half.
Q. And what kind of work did you do there?
A. Personal injury, plaintiff.
Q. Have you done personal injury your entire career?
A. No, I did some defense work.

Page 11

Q. Okay. So you were at Cacciatore for a year and a half and you were doing plaintiff's personal injury work. What did you do after that?
A. I went to the Loggans firm in Chicago for about 6 months.
Q. And what did you do there?
A. Plaintiff's.
Q. PI again, personal injury?
A. Yeah.
Q. And after that?
A. Judge and James in Park Ridge.
Q. And how long were you there?
A. 7 years, I think.
Q. Did you do plaintiff's personal injury there as well?
A. No, that was defense.
Q. What kind of defense work?
A. Lots -- All kinds, municipal, tort.
Q. Did you defend personal injury cases while you were there as well?
A. Yes.
Q. And then after that, where did you go?
A. Kemper, I think.
Q. And how long were you with Kemper?

Page 12

A. I think a couple years. Maybe a little more than that.
Q. And what kind of work did you do at Kemper?
A. Defense.
Q. Defense of what type of cases?
A. Lots of different kinds, auto accidents, premises.
Q. Mostly torts though, negligence-type cases?
A. Yes.
Q. And then after Kemper?
A. I think Popovich was next.
Q. And how long were you with the Popovich firm?
A. About 18 years, I think.
Q. And do you know what year you -- roughly what year you joined Popovich?
A. 2001 maybe.
Q. And you were there for roughly 18 years you think?
A. Yes.
Q. So you left maybe just last year?
A. In '18.
Q. 2018?
A. Yeah.

Page 13

Q. And why did you leave Popovich?
A. To start on my own.
Q. And where are you now?
A. With Compton Law Group.
Q. I'll give you just a second to come back.
A. Yeah.
Q. And what types of -- I'm sorry, I'm going to go back to the Popovich firm. What kind of cases did you handle at Popovich's firm?
A. Plaintiff's personal injury, all kinds.
Q. And then at Compton, what kind of work do you do?
A. Same thing, same kind of cases, plaintiff's personal injury.
Q. So is it fair to say you've been doing plaintiff's personal injury cases steadily throughout your career?
A. Yeah, except for the time I was with the defense offices.
Q. Okay. But you were still doing personal injury, just on the defense side, not on the plaintiff side?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. Did you answer discovery in this case, in the malpractice case that we're -- the Dulberg versus Thomas Popovich case?

A. I think I did.
Q. Do you remember -- Did you review discovery in this case, do you recall?
A. Like I said, I think I answered some and signed off on some, I just don't remember. I haven't seen them recently.
Q. Okay. Okay. If you recall, do you remember reviewing the documents that were produced in this case?
A. I don't know what was produced.
Q. Okay.
A. I assume the file.
Q. Right. Okay, if I represented that the file was produced, would that make sense to you? Can we kind of agree that the file was produced?
A. Well, if you told me that.
Q. Okay. So when the file was produced, I don't know if you recall, there were black -- some black pages between the file. Do you remember any discussions about that?
A. I didn't produce anything so and I haven't reviewed what was produced, that wasn't my -- I was in a different office when it was produced, I think.

Q. Okay. So Thomas Popovich would have had possession of the file?
A. Right.
Q. You did not have possession of any documents from the underlying case, from the Dulberg versus Gagnon-McGuire case?
A. I didn't.
Q. Okay. So you would not have had access to that file since you were with Thomas Popovich in 2018?
A. Once I left the firm, I have not had the file.
Q. Okay. In this case did you produce emails that you possessed or did you not have access to those either?
A. I would -- I don't know what was produced, again, by the Popovich firm. I don't know if they had my emails, but I have a new email address. I don't think it's the same as it was back then.
Q. Okay.
A. So I didn't produce anything.
Q. So you didn't produce any emails or communications that -- in the -- from the underlying case?

A. Not that I'm aware of. Unless I produced it to Popovich and he produced it. I don't know how that worked.
Q. Okay. When were you retained by Paul Dulberg?
A. I don't recall. I'm assuming there's paperwork that shows that.
Q. Yes. Let me upload a file here. Just give me a second.
A. I don't think he retained me. I think he retained Tom Popovich's office.
Q. Okay. I just uploaded a file that's titled Dulberg Mast Dep Exhibit 1, if you can -- And, George, you should have that as well -- and it should be the retainer contract.
A. Yeah, I see it.
Q. Okay. So it's a contract for legal services and it's marked POP, P O P, 000586 on the bottom, just for reference, so this will be the first exhibit in this deposition. Do you recognize this document?
A. I recognize what it looks like, yeah.
Q. Yeah, and it's the contract for legal services and it's undated, it looks like.

Page 17

A. That's what it looks like.
Q. Okay. I'm going to upload another exhibit. So I'm uploading Exhibit 2, it's titled Dulberg Mast Dep Exhibit 2, and this should be the original complaint filed in the case of Dulberg versus Gagnon, et al., 12 LA 178, filed in McHenry County. Do you see that document?
A. Yeah. What I'm going off are an email I got with all the exhibits attached, so I'm not — that's what I'm looking at.
Q. Okay.
A. It's a complaint and it says Exhibit 2.
Q. Right, okay. So our numbers may be a little off, but the description should be correct. In that complaint shows file stamp May 15, 2012?
A. Yeah, that's what it says.
Q. Okay, and so Mr. Dulberg would have hired you sometime -- hired the Popovich firm sometime prior to that, correct?
A. I'm assuming. I --
Q. Okay. Do you have any idea?
A. I'm sorry.
Q. I'm sorry, I didn't mean to interrupt you. Go ahead.

Page 18

A. Go ahead.
Q. Do you have any idea about -- Do you have any idea about what timeframe he would have hired -- retained you?
A. I really, again, I don't have an independent recollection of it. I think there's probably a memo out there of me meeting with him, too.
Q. Okay. Actually, I think there is. Okay, I just uploaded Dulberg Mast Dep Exhibit No. 3 and the top says -- it's titled, "Intake Memo." At the top it says, "Memorandum," it's Popovich, it says POP00961 and 000962. Do you recognize this document?
A. I -- It looks familiar.
Q. And it indicates that it's from you, so you would have drafted this document, correct?
A. I would have dictated it, yeah.
Q. Okay, and it looks like you had a new client meeting with Paul on December 1st of 2011?
A. That's what it says.
Q. Okay. Does that seem like that timeframe would have been roughly correct?
A. I have no reason not to believe that's accurate.
Q. Okay. So Paul retained you probably sometime in December of 2011 and then you filed a complaint around May 15, 2012?

A. That's what it appears.
Q. Okay. So can you just tell me what the case against Mr. -- I'm sorry. Can you describe the case between Paul Dulberg and David Gagnon, Caroline and William McGuire?
A. What do you mean describe it? What it's about?
Q. Yeah, basically what was it about?
A. An injury, a chain saw injury.
Q. Okay. Was there anything about the case that was unique to you?
A. Other than it was a chain saw injury.
Q. Okay. What was your theory of that case? What was your theory of liability in the case?
A. I think the -- Paul had claimed Dave struck him with the chain saw.
Q. So was it just a negligence theory or was it a strict liability or --
A. I believe it was negligence, if I recall correct.
Q. Negligence against Gagnon, David Gagnon?
A. Yeah, and I think the McGuires actually were named as well.

Page 20

Q. And what was the theory as to the McGuires?
A. I think Paul had said that they were the ones that owned and looked over the work that was being done.
Q. Okay. So if they owned the chain saw and were overseeing the work, what's the legal theory for liability on that? Why would they be liable?
A. Under case law potentially there's liable -- liability for people that oversee and direct the work.
Q. Okay, and is that a strict liability or is it some other form of liability?
A. It would be negligence.
Q. So negligent oversight?
A. Potentially.
Q. Okay. Were there any other theories that you were going to pursue or could be pursued?
A. Not that I recall.
Q. Okay. So a negligence claim against Gagnon for negligently utilizing the chain saw and then a negligence claim against McGuires for not -- for not controlling his use of the chain saw, is that accurate?

Page 21

A. I don't recall the exact allegations, but I think in a general theme that was what we were going to try to prove.
Q. Okay. In the intake memo, do you want to go back to that? There are some notes on this exhibit that state -- it looks to me like it says, "Hans BC the accident occurred on their premises, their HO med pay will cover the bills," and then it's signed. Do you recognize that handwriting?
A. Yeah, that would be Tom.
Q. Okay, and what does that note mean?
A. Medical coverage, medical payments coverage.
Q. So there -- So the McGuires -- When he says their, is he referring to Caroline and Bill McGuire?
A. Well, I don't know what he's referring to. I think what he's -- Well, he circled their names, so that probably indicates what he's referring to.
Q. Okay. Would their -- Would their insurance cover medical bills in an instance like this?
A. Possibly.
Q. Okay. Did you reach out to their insurance company about covering any medical bills?
A. I don't recall if that was applicable or I don't know -- I don't recall that issue.

Q. Okay.
A. Oh, uh, I think -- It just kicked me off.
MR. FLYNN: I got disconnected, too. It's the Wi-Fi.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay, we'll just wait a minute here.
A. I can hear you. I just can't see you.
Q. We'll wait a minute until you can get your video back on.
MR. FLYNN: Julia, we think the Wi-Fi may have dropped here in the office.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. Well, let's just give it a minute and see.
MR. FLYNN: Okay.
(Whereupon, a break was taken, after which the following proceedings were had:)
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. I think we're back on the record. Barb, are you doing all right?
THE REPORTER: Yes.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay. So we just went through the memo that Tom made a note about insurance and your testimony was that you don't recall whether you made any requests to the McGuires' insurance to pay Paul's medical bills; is that correct?

A. I don't remember, right.
Q. Okay. Back to the actual claims made. Do you remember -- Do you recall what the defense was for first Gagnon and then Bill -- William and Caroline McGuire?
A. What do you mean by defense?
Q. What was their theory of defense in the case, do you recall? As you understood it.
A. I mean, that's a big question. I mean, they, like every case, they were denying what we were alleging.
Q. Were they denying the facts? Did they dispute the facts of the case?
A. Definitely.
Q. Okay. Do you recall what they were alleging as far as the facts that were different from what you were alleging?
A. I mean, I can probably answer that for -- with an hour -- an hour answer. There's a lot that they were denying. There was a lot that, you know, I mean, I'd have to -- I could look at their answer. I could look at their deposition testimony, but, I mean, that brings up a lot of issues.

Q. Okay. Let's -- Let me narrow it down a little bit and try to get more to a point that will be useful for our discussion. At some point, you had recommended that Paul settle the case as to the McGuires; is that correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. And what was the reasoning for settling the case as to William and Bill McGuire?
A. Just risk, like you always discuss with any settlement.
Q. Can you be a little more specific about what type of risk?
A. Again, that's a long question but, I mean, it's like any settlement, you're taking a risk if you don't settle the case when you have issues that could be problematic.
Q. Okay. When you say issues that can be problematic, and I know it could be a very long answer, but as much as you can, can you summarize what you think those risks were?
A. Understanding it's a summary that, I mean, I could probably answer that in a couple hours, but the chance of recovery was in my view very slim if at all because of lots of reasons, one, because of Paul's testimony, Gagnon's testimony, the McGuires' testimony. The evidence didn't seem to be something that was going to allow us to prove the case against the McGuires.

Q. Okay. What -- And, again, I understand this is -- these are very long questions, but just in summary, what were you going to need to prove the case against the McGuires?
A. Now, again, understanding I would have to put myself in my place where I was back at the time that I fully evaluated this with Paul, but if I'm just trying to come up with some thoughts now years later the case law, I think, was against us. The defense was going to file a motion for summary judgment if we didn't work out some sort of settlement that I felt they were going to win and the testimony from all parties was not helpful to us.
Q. Okay. I'm going to move forward and then we may come back to this a little bit. Do you recall when the first time was that you talked to Paul about settling the claims with the McGuires?
A. No, whenever -- You know, the defense attorney would have reached out to me to ask for some sort of demand, I assume.

Q. Did you make a demand at some point?
A. I think -- I think some of your paperwork showed that I did.
Q. Okay. I just uploaded Dulberg Mast Exhibit 4 and it says letter -- it's "Letter Re Settlement," and that should be -- still be Exhibit 4 that was emailed around to Counsel so that you would have it. And it is labeled POP192 and POP193. Do you recognize those documents?
A. Wait. I think the Internet, maybe because we were having problems, is the Internet went down, so now my exhibits aren't pulling up. Can you try it again? Do you have that, George?
MR. FLYNN: Yeah, here's the hard copy.
THE WITNESS: I'll look at the hard copy, so what are you asking?
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Great. So it should be the document it has letterhead on the top, Popovich letterhead on the top, and at the bottom it's POP000192 and POP000193.
A. Right.
Q. Do you recognize those documents?

Page 27

A. I mean, they look familiar. Documents from the Popovich firm, if that's what you're asking.
Q. Is that your signature?
A. Yes.
Q. So you would have drafted or caused this letter to be drafted and sent?
A. It appears that way, yeah.
Q. And this is a demand letter where you make a demand of $7,500; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall making that demand?
A. No.
Q. Do you recall if you talked to Paul prior to making the demand?
A. I'm sure I would have.
Q. Okay. Do you recall -- Do you have any memos or notes regarding that conversation with Paul?
A. I don't personally.
Q. Okay. If there were memos and notes, would they be in Thomas Popovich's file?
A. It should.
Q. Okay. Do you recall any emails about the demand -- the 7,500 demand?
A. I know there were lots of emails. I don't know if this number is identified in those emails, but, again, it would have been something I would have talked to him about before making it.

Q. Okay. But at this time you don't know if there are any memos, notes or emails memorializing any conversation with Paul prior to sending the October 22, 2013 demand?
A. Not that I recall.
Q. Okay, and if they did exist, they would be in the possession of Thomas Popovich, correct?
A. I would think so.
Q. Okay, and if you had those in your possession, you would produce them in discovery, correct?
A. If I had them.
Q. Okay. Just uploaded Exhibit 5, and this is email dated October 30, 2013, and it's marked at the bottom POP000195.
A. Okay.
Q. Okay, and here in this email it looks like you started this email chain to Paul on October 25, 2013. Do you see that?
A. It looks like there's a couple emails here. There's several pages. You just mean the first page?

Page 29

Q. I think -- It should only be, I believe it's only one page and it looks like --
A. Oh, these aren't part of it? Just one page?
Q. The document that I have is just one page. Are we looking at the same thing?
A. Okay.
Q. It's POP00195 on the bottom.
A. Yeah, he had a couple other pages on it, but okay.
Q. Okay. I just want to make sure that I didn't -- Okay. And on the bottom there of the first sheet, if you have several, I've only published one sheet for the purposes of this deposition, it states, "Friday, October 25, 2013," do you see that?
A. Where does it say that?
Q. So about halfway down the page it looks like it says, "Original message from Paul"?
A. Yeah.
Q. Okay. So that looks like Paul reached out to you about medical deposition and then on the top it appears to be your reply of October 30, 2013. Does that seem like that's accurate?
A. That's what it shows.
Q. Okay. Okay. And here you first -- Am I correct in summarizing this is an email where you talk to Paul about liability for Mr. Gagnon?

A. Look likes I did cover that issue.
Q. Okay, and do you recall at the time what your purpose was behind this email?
A. I mean, every purpose is just to have open communication. That's all the purpose --
Q. Okay. Would you have been trying to explain to Paul the liability issues in his case that you described earlier?
A. Yeah, I definitely was discussing several issues for him so he knows what's going on.
Q. Okay, and this email response is dated October 30th, so that was after you sent that initial letter. Do you recall whether there would have been anything prior to this?
A. Whether what was prior to this?
Q. Would there have been any communications about liability either to Gagnon or the McGuires prior to the October 30, 2013 email?
A. Every time we talked, there were issues about liability, I mean, for whatever I first -- he first came to the office I recall he was lots of questions and I gave him lots of answers as is reflected in my emails.

Q. Okay. Did you meet with Paul after you sent that October 22nd demand letter?
A. Did I meet with him?
Q. Yes. In person.
A. I'm sure I did.
Q. Okay. Do you recall -- Do you recall meeting -- the dates of those meetings?
A. No, I don't recall the dates.
Q. Okay. So I'm going to upload another file here.
A. Yeah, our Internet is down. That's why I can't bring these up.
Q. Okay.
MR. FLYNN: Julia, just so you know, I've got hard copies of the majority of the exhibits you sent with the exception of the larger files, like the insurance policy and the dep transcripts.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. Okay, great.
MR. FLYNN: I've got some of the deposition transcripts, but I didn't want to waste a lot of paper and ink at home.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. I think we'll be -- For the most part, I think we'll be fine and we'll deal with it if and when we get to that point.

Q. Okay. So the document that I'm looking at now is another email on the -- it's now titled Exhibit 6. I don't think it was entitled Exhibit 6 in what I sent to George, but it's an email that the first date on the email is November 4, 2013, and the last date on the email is November 5, 2013 email chain and it's -- at the bottom it's stamped Dulberg001531.
A. What exhibit is it?
Q. I think it might have been 5-A to George. It's now Exhibit 6 for the purposes of this deposition.
A. Yeah, that wasn't part of the download then. Do you have --
MR. FLYNN: Yeah, I don't think that was included.
THE WITNESS: What's the Bates stamp or what's the stamp?
MS. WILLIAMS: The Bates stamp is Dulberg001531.
THE WITNESS: Yeah, I don't recall --
MR. FLYNN: I don't recall seeing a 5-A on the download. I think it just went straight from

5 to 6.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay, let me see if I can do something else. I'm going to try to share my screen. I don't know if I'm going to be able to do it. So bear with me. Okay. I can't -- I can't share the screen. Can I email -- George, can you pull up an email if I email it to you?
MR. FLYNN: I should be able to eventually.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay, let me see if that will --
THE WITNESS: Let me run to the washroom real quick while you guys do --
MS. WILLIAMS: We'll take a quick break, that's fine, we'll try to work this out. If anybody else needs a break, obviously take a break now.
(Whereupon, a break was taken, after which the following proceedings were had:)
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay, back on the record. This is the Exhibit 6 for the deposition and it's marked at the bottom Dulberg001531 and it's an email chain between Paul Dulberg and Hans Mast dated November 4th through about November 5th, is that accurate, Hans?

Page 34

A. That's what it appears.
Q. Okay, and it appears at the bottom that Paul is asking you if he should bring anything to a meeting.
A. Okay.
Q. And that meeting appears to be at 3:00 p.m. on November 4th of 2013.
A. Okay.
Q. Is that an accurate description? Okay? Do you recall having --
A. Go ahead, I'm sorry.
Q. Do you recall having a meeting on November 4th of 2013 with Paul Dulberg?
A. I don't have an independent recollection.
Q. Okay. Okay.
MR. FLYNN: Julia, now I recall, this is a separate exhibit you sent a little bit later than the original download, so I did have this.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. Okay. We got it worked out.
MR. FLYNN: Yeah, okay.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay. So you don't recall calling a meeting for November 4th?

Page 35

A. We had lots of meetings so --
Q. Okay.
A. -- I don't have an independent recollection of that one particular date.
Q. Okay. Okay, I'm going to stop screen sharing. Okay. I'm going to upload another file. This is Deposition Exhibit 7. George, you probably had it as Exhibit 6, but for the purposes of this deposition right now it's going to be 7 and it's an email chain dated --
A. I have these on the computer. You don't need to, unless you want to, but I'm just saying I have these on the computer.
Q. Okay, but Barb needs them, so that's why I keep uploading them, otherwise she doesn't have them. Okay. So Exhibit 7, and it's POP00181 and POP00182, and it's two pages of an email chain, November 15th, looks like on the second page it starts November 15th and ends November 19th, is that accurate?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay, great. So here it looks like Paul started this email chain, but then on November 18th you note that, "The McGuires' attorney has offered us, you, $5,000 in full settlement of the claim against the McGuires only," do you see that?

A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Do you recall that offer being made?
A. I do have some recollection of having a conversation with them.
Q. Okay. So I'm going to upload another document and then we can keep going here. And then this is Exhibit 8 and for -- it is a letter from Ronald Barch to you, Hans, and it's POP000667. Do you have that?
A. What's it dated?
Q. I'm sorry, dated November 18, 2013.
A. Yeah, I have that.
Q. Okay. And that's a settlement letter from Barch offering the settlement of $5,000, correct?
A. Right.
Q. Do you recall receiving this letter?
A. I mean, I don't today recall getting the letter, but I'm familiar with the transaction, yes.
Q. Okay. Okay. So you would have received the $5,000 offer from Barch and you communicated it to Paul via the email on November 18th?
A. As well as when we talked, yes.
Q. Okay. Okay. And when did you talk?

Page 37

A. Again, I don't know the dates. I just know generally how this all transpired.
Q. Would you have talked to Paul on the 18th when the letter came in?
A. It's dated the 18th. I doubt I got it on the 18th. Whenever I got it, I would have told Paul.
Q. Okay. And it looks like the email you sent, which is Exhibit 7, communicated that offer?
A. Okay.
Q. Would you have talked to the McGuires' attorney prior to receiving the letter about the offer?
A. I don't recall. It might have -- that might have happened.
Q. Okay. Do you recall whether you met with Paul sometime after -- on or after November 18 to discuss the settlement offer?
A. I'm sure we did. I know we had several conversations and meetings about that.
Q. Okay. In this email chain that's Exhibit 7 about halfway down the page it says on November 18, 2013, at 7:40 p.m., Paul responds to your email. Can you see that?
A. Are we going back to the email now?

Page 38

Q. Yep, it's POP00181.
A. What exhibit?
Q. It's Exhibit 7.
A. 7, that's the letter.
Q. If may be 6 for you. It may be 6 for you.
A. Let's take a look. What page is the email?
Q. The date at the top of the email chain is Tuesday, November 19, 2013.
A. Yeah, I have that.
Q. Okay. And then about maybe halfway down the page it's dated on November 18, 2013, at 7:40 p.m., do you see that?
A. Yep.
Q. And there it says, "Only five? That's not much at all," do you see that?
A. That's his response, yes.
Q. Right. Right. Do you recall talking to Paul about the $5,000 and that not being much?
A. Like I said, yes, we've had plenty of conversations and meetings on that.
Q. Okay. When you originally offered the 7,500, did you talk about what the possible outcomes as far as counteroffers, what they may demand, something like that, did you talk about that prior to making that $7,500 offer?

A. I mean, I think I generally understand what you're asking. Did we just have general conversations of numbers? Yes.
Q. Okay. In this email and this is -- I understand this is speculation, but in this email it appears that Paul is surprised that it's $5,000 was the offer, correct? Would that be fair to characterize it that way?
A. Is he surprised at it or is he surprised at the amount? It looks like he didn't think it was much.
Q. Right. So if you originally offered 7,500 and they came back at 5,000, in your experience, does that seem like much of a difference when it comes to counteroffers?
MR. FLYNN: I'll object to the form.
THE WITNESS: Yeah, I'm not real sure what you mean by that.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. I guess let me rephrase because I don't think I'm getting to the point. Prior to making the $7,500 offer, did you discuss with Paul that the McGuires may come back with an offer that was lower than the 7,500?

A. Again, I'm -- I understand the question. I'm just not trying to play games, but you're asking me do I recall specific words that are used or topics. All I can tell you about this is we talked about the whole gamut of options, that I didn't feel it was a strong case, that they were reaching out to us for $5,000, and that balancing everything, the risks, costs, even though it wasn't much, it was something that would have been desirable for him if he wants to end up with money versus the McGuires.
Q. I'm going to add another exhibit here. Okay, for the purposes of this deposition it's Deposition Exhibit 9. This is a memorandum. At the top it will say, "Memorandum," and the date is November 20, 2013, and at the bottom it's identified as POP and then 3 — there's 000003, I believe. Do you have that?
A. What exhibit is it?
Q. I think you're probably going to have it as Exhibit 8, but for the purposes of this deposition it's actually going to be Exhibit 9.
A. Okay.
Q. And it's Dulberg Mast Memo,

Page 41

2013 November 20.
A. Okay, yeah.
Q. Okay. It looks from this memo that you had a meeting with Paul and his friend on November 20th, is that accurately reflected what's stated in the memo?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you remember this document? Do you recall this?
A. As I said before, I understand what you're asking, but we've had lots of meetings. Do I remember that particular date, no, but I remember the meetings.
Q. Do you recognize this memorandum?
A. I recognize the discussion that's referenced in the memo. I haven't seen the memo for 7 years.
Q. Okay. Do you recall the advice that you gave in that meeting of November 20th?
A. Yeah, like I said, it's summarized a little bit in there. Yeah.
Q. Okay. And what was the -- Why don't -- What was the advice that you gave?
A. Do you want me to read the memo or you want me to just tell you generally what the topics were or what?

Q. Generally to the best that you can recall.
A. Looks like on that day he brought his friend in because before he wanted to consider the offer, he wanted to have his friend come with him to talk about these issues with me. So we went over --
Q. So --
A. Go ahead.
Q. No, I'll let you finish. Go ahead. I'm sorry.
A. Well, we went over all the issues, all the risks, all the money issues, all of the issues.
Q. Do you recall who the friend was?
A. Not as I sit here today.
Q. From this memo it says, "Paul maintains the McGuires controlled everything that they were doing and you told him that wasn't what the evidence seemed to show." So can you expound on what -- This is really going to be a complicated question, but to the best of your ability, can you explain what the theory of your case was against the McGuires and what the evidence was that was going to -- what evidence was your reason for believing that you couldn't prove your theory?

Page 43

A. We already talked a little bit about that earlier, but every time we met, we talked about this because this was a subject at the time with the McGuires and given the testimony of the McGuires, given Paul's testimony, given the lack of any evidence that they were controlling any work or even knew what Paul was doing, I felt it was a big, high risk of moving forward on that claim.
Q. So I'm going to try to summarize this. Maybe in parts. So in order for the McGuires to be liable for Gagnon's work, Paul would have to prove in his case that the McGuires controlled Gagnon's work, is that accurate?
A. Are you asking me if that's an accurate statement of the law?
Q. Yes.
A. I think that's partially right. There's a lot more to it. It's different branches and elements that you have to prove, control was a factual matter, and he would have to be able to establish there was some oversight. It goes down into some factual issues that you have to be able to show.
Q. Okay. So can you -- To the best of your ability, can you kind of walk me through for the negligence claim against the McGuires what the legal elements were that you would have to show?

A. I haven't brushed up recently on that area, but I can tell you that under the case law they have to have some oversight and control over what was going on and some involvement in the work and some knowledge higher and above what Paul was doing, and if you look at their testimony, they were not out there, they were not looking at it, they didn't even really know what Paul was doing frankly.
Q. And what about David? Did they have to control what David was doing as well?
A. I meant David, I'm sorry.
Q. Okay. So the McGuires would have to have oversight and control over David Gagnon?
A. Over the work.
Q. Okay. Over the work. Okay. So William and Caroline did buy the chain saw, correct?
A. I believe that is true.
Q. Okay. But then David Gagnon was the one operating the chain saw?
A. Right.
Q. And you would have to show in Paul's case that Bill and Caroline, one or the other, had control over David's operation of the chain saw?

A. Control could mean a lot of things. They would have to be in a position to instruct him, tell him what to do, be aware of the work that was being done and have some control over what he was doing.
Q. Okay. So in your -- Your opinion of the case was that it was insufficient for them to have simply purchased the chain saw and provided it to Gagnon?
A. Yeah.
Q. And what about if they were paying him? Would that make any difference?
A. No.
Q. I'm sorry, I don't know or no?
A. No.
Q. Just bear with me for a second here. And you informed Paul -- I'm sorry, let me back up. In exhibit -- Deposition Exhibit 7, so it's probably 6 for you, the email chain between you and Paul, roughly November 18th through the 19th, Popovich 000181, on the bottom of that first page, November 18, 2013, at 1:28 p.m. there's an email from you. Do you see that?
A. Yes.

Q. "In addition, the McGuires' attorney," so it's ATTY, "has offered us, you, 5,000 in full settlement of the claim against the McGuires only. As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners so they likely will get out of the case on a motion." Did I read that correctly?
A. Yes.
Q. So this is where you told Paul that you didn't believe the McGuires had any liabilities for the reasons -- in part for the reasons we just discussed?
A. Right.
Q. Ultimately Paul accepted that $5,000 offer, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. And you communicated that to the other side later in 2013, does that sound correct to you?
A. Yes.
Q. I'm uploading Exhibit 10, and it should be Exhibit 10 for you as well, and it's a memorandum dated December 20, 2013, and at the bottom it's POP000884, do you see that?
A. Yes.

Page 47

Q. And that's a memorandum that you wrote to the legal file; is that correct?
A. It looks like that.
Q. I think I already said this, it's dated December 20, 2013?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. And the substance of it, it appears that you had a conversation on December 18th with Paul and that he was authorizing you to accept the $5,000 settlement?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Do you recall that conversation of December 18?
A. I recall having lots of conversations, this is one of them, and generally I do recall the conversations in a general sense, not the exact dates.
Q. Okay. So you don't remember anything specific to this December 18th call what you would have discussed?
A. Not other than what I've already said we discussed over the time.
Q. Okay.
A. Paul was weighing his options. He knew the risk and he had -- he wanted some time to think about it and consider it.

Q. Okay. All right, just bear with me here. Okay, I just uploaded Deposition Exhibit 11, it's a settlement acceptance letter, letterhead from Thomas Popovich's office dated December 26, 2013. Hans, your signature appears on there and it's POP00670. Do you recognize this document?
A. That appears to be a letter from Popovich's office to defense counsel.
Q. Do you recognize your signature on here?
A. Yes.
Q. And this is the letter where you accepted the offer on behalf of Paul, is that accurate?
A. It appears, yeah.
Q. Okay. So the Defendants made the original offer around November 18 and Paul -- November 18, 2013, and Paul accepted it around December 20, 2013. Is that statement accurate?
A. I don't have, like I said, independent recollection of the dates. I would just have to go off the documents.
Q. Okay. Was there -- If that timeframe is roughly correct, was there anything that occurred during that timeframe that indicated to you, you know, why Paul changed his mind from originally thinking it was too little to now accepting it. Was there anything that stuck out in your mind about that?

A. Yeah.
Q. Can you expound on that?
A. Well, he had his friend with him during our meeting and he reviewed the depositions.
Q. Okay. Did he not have the depositions prior to that?
A. I remember he asked for copies of them, so I provided them to him.
Q. Okay, and when you say the depositions, do you mean just the party depositions, the McGuires and the Gagnon?
A. I don't remember if I gave him the doctors. I don't remember which ones I gave him, but I know specifically it was Gagnon and the McGuires.
Q. Okay, I'm uploading Dulberg Mast Dep Exhibit 12. This is titled, "Legal Research." And this is hard because there's -- it's 27 pages. Some of them have Bates numbers, but some of them are black on the bottom, so I think the Bates numbers didn't -- didn't take, but it's roughly -- looks like roughly 204, maybe 205, Dulberg204, 205 through roughly Dulberg00304 -- Actually, I'm sorry, these aren't going to be continuous. But do you have that packet of legal research in front of you? It appears to be copies out of a -- copies of case law out of the Northeastern Digest.

A. I just have the one case here.

Q. Just one case? Which -- What's the case title?

A. The first one, it's L A J A T O.

Q. Okay. Do you -- Did you copy this case law?

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you recall providing any case law to Paul?

A. I don't know if I did or didn't. I don't know if he asked.

Q. Okay. Do you recall doing case law research?

A. I'm sure I did, yeah.

Q. Would have there been a memo or something regarding that research?

A. Not necessarily. I was familiar with the law.

Page 51

Q. Okay. Okay. Was there any -- Was there any case law that stuck out to you, any particular cases that stuck out to you?

MR. FLYNN: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: You mean stuck out to me with regard to Paul and his case?

BY MS. WILLIAMS:

Q. No. Were there any applicable cases that stuck out to you one way or the other as to whether the McGuires would be liable? Was there any specific cases that made you think that the McGuires may not be liable given the facts in Paul's case?

A. I mean, you deal with this issue a lot and I can't think of one particular name of a case, but these cases all go along the same line, so there were lots of cases on this one particular issue. It wasn't a complicated issue.

Q. So particularly the issue of control of Gagnon.

A. Of a premises owner's liability for an independent contractor.

Q. Okay. So can you explain generally what an independent contractor is?

A. I'll give you have an answer if you want, but just, I mean, we're talking now, what is it, 7 years later? I haven't been asked to do any research before today's deposition, but so, I mean, if you're asking me for what the case law says, I'd have to look at the case law, if that's what you're asking.

Q. I'm asking based on your -- on your experience and knowledge as a personal injury attorney and not necessarily related to Dulberg's case specifically.

A. Okay.

Q. But based on your knowledge and experience in premises liability cases, what is an independent contractor?

A. Someone that works on their own.

Q. And can you explain what you mean by on their own?

A. Somebody that's hired, like, somebody that's hired to paint the house.

Q. Okay. So somebody that's hired by a homeowner or maybe a business?

A. Yes.

Q. But someone that's hired by a homeowner but the homeowner doesn't -- doesn't tell them how to do their job?

A. Right.

Q. Did you ever obtain a copy of the McGuires' insurance policy, do you recall?

A. I don't have an independent recollection.

Q. Did you ever advise Paul as to the limits of the McGuires' policy?

A. I'm sure we talked about it.

Q. Okay. I just uploaded Dulberg Mast Deposition Exhibit 13 McGuire Interrogatory Answers and they're Bates stamped Dulberg000162 is the first page and there's roughly 14 pages. Do you see that document?

A. Yes.

MR. FLYNN: This is 14?

MS. WILLIAMS: It should be Exhibit 13 -- 13 or 14. I think I have it as 13. Yes, okay. And this -- I'm looking at paragraph 15 or at least I'm trying to look at paragraph 15.

Q. Okay. In paragraph 15 it looks like there was a question about the homeowner's insurance and the McGuires respond with their personal liability and their medical liability, do you see that?

A. Yes.

Page 54

Q. Okay. Now that you see that, do you recall whether you ever got a copy of that policy?
A. I don't -- You mean the dec pages or the whole policy?
Q. Either. Did you get a copy of the dec pages?
A. I have no idea.
Q. And you have no idea whether you got a copy of the whole policy?
A. Yeah, don't know.
Q. But they are representing what their insurance was and the liability there, correct, or their liability coverage there?
A. That's what it appears.
Q. Okay. And these -- This was -- looks like this was responded to based on the McGuires' signature on roughly the 12th page of the document. It looks like it was August 6th of 2012.
A. That's what it appears.
Q. Yeah. So prior to when they would have made the settlement offers, correct?
A. That's what it appears.
Q. Okay. Did you ever talk to Paul about those -- the limits of the insurance policy and how that may be important in his case?

A. I suspect we talked about the policy, yeah.
Q. Okay. Prior to any settlement discussions?
A. Yeah.
Q. Okay. But you've already testified you didn't -- You don't know if you -- You don't know if you obtained a copy. What about Gagnon's insurance policy, did you ever obtain a copy of that?
A. I don't know. I don't know.
Q. Okay. Did you issue interrogatories to Mr. Gagnon?
A. I'm sure I did.
Q. Let me upload this. Would they have been in Popovich's file if you --
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. So I can tell you, I don't recall seeing any documents issued by you. I'm going to upload a document that appears to be interrogatories issued by McGuires' counsel in the case. I'm going to upload it right now. It's Exhibit 14 and Answers to Co-Defendant Interrogatories and it is stamped Dulberg00178. Do you see that document?
A. Yes.
Q. It appears that these were issued by

Page 56

Co-Defendants, in other words, the McGuires, does that seem accurate to you?
A. Yes.
Q. So would you have issued interrogatories in addition to what the McGuires' counsel issued?
A. It's probable.
Q. Okay. Do you recall one way or the other today as we sit here?
A. Not other than it's probable I did.
Q. I have not seen those in discovery, so if they exist, we'd ask that they be produced. Do you ever recall talking to Paul about the policy limits of the Gagnon insurance policy?
A. It's a topic that frequently comes up. I don't have an independent recollection.
Q. Would you have any memos or notes on that?
A. I could. I may. I don't have an independent recollection of that.
Q. Okay. And, again, that would have been in the file that -- in Thomas Popovich's file?
A. Correct.
Q. In your knowledge and experience not related to the Dulberg case but just in your general knowledge and experience, are there any situations where a homeowner may be strictly liable for someone doing work on their property?

MR. FLYNN: I'm just going to object to the hypothetical being inaccurate and incomplete, also calls for an expert opinion. While this witness is a lawyer, I won't necessarily -- I don't expect to call him as an F-2 or F-3 witness in the case.
THE WITNESS: So you're asking if a homeowner can be strictly liable for an injury?
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Right.
A. In general terms, not with regard to this case?
Q. No, in general terms. I'm just asking in general terms in your -- based on your experience and knowledge of injury cases.
A. I mean, I think -- Not in Paul's case, but I think I could probably think of something that maybe could be -- as products strict liability, there's hazardous materials strict liability, there's different issues that potentially factually if they're applicable could apply, but not in Paul's case.
Q. Okay. Just in general, what kind of hazardous -- When you say hazardous, are you talking about hazardous chemical-type cases?

Received 09-16-2022 04:17 PM / Circuit Clerk Accepted on 09-16-2022 04:18 PM / Transaction #19526335 / Case #2017LA000377

A. There's a string of cases when you're dealing with hazardous chemicals and hazardous materials, like a bomb or something like that, things like that.

Q. Okay. Okay. Are there any, like, hazardous actions? Could something be considered, like, some type of action be considered hazardous?

A. What do you mean by action? Activity?

Q. Yeah, like, I'm trying to give you an example because I'm just trying to understand it more than anything else. Yeah, is there an activity that you could be doing on your property, I don't know, like, what about tearing down your home, would that be considered -- would that be something that could be hazardous?

A. There would have to be statutory authority for that and there isn't.

Q. Okay. Okay. Okay. So generally for strict liability there has to be some type of statutory authority for that?

A. Or common law. Yeah. They have a particular fact pattern.

Page 59

Q. Okay. But this case particularly is simply a negligence case. Paul's case against the McGuires was a simple negligent failure to control case in your opinion?

A. That's what was pled.

Q. Okay. Did you ever make any -- ever consider pleading any other allegations?

MR. FLYNN: Object to the form.

THE WITNESS: I don't -- No. Not that I recall.

MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. Can we take about a 4-minute break?

MR. FLYNN: Sure.

MS. WILLIAMS: Let's just take -- I just want to take a quick break and review my notes and I want to give everybody an opportunity to kind of stretch for a second. I'm going to go on mute.

MR. FLYNN: Okay.

(Whereupon, a break was taken, after which the following proceedings were had:)

MS. WILLIAMS: Let's go back on the record. Okay, thank you everyone. Okay, just a little bit more here.

Page 60

Q. On -- When you were talking to Paul about settlement in the general timeframe of November-December 2013, did you ever suggest at that time that he seek alternative counsel or any recommendation related to that?

A. I think that did come up.

Q. Do you recall what your advice to him was or what the discussion was?

A. I think, you know, we always talk about the risks of not settling and further down the road what, you know, having to try the case and having to try prove the case or getting a motion for summary judgment, having the costs exceed the benefits and all that, and I think my position with Paul, since he didn't give a relatively very good deposition, my thought was we were going to have a tough time, an uphill battle, and he can always seek other counsel if he doesn't agree with me.

Q. And you just stated that you thought Paul didn't give a very good deposition, that may not have been your exact language, but roughly that the deposition wasn't great. Can you explain what -- as you recall it, what about the deposition was problematic?

A. I mean, he even agreed with me, but he just doesn't do a very good job.

Q. You mean -- Can you expand on that a little bit?

A. As a witness, as I recall, again, it's been quite some time, as I recall he was -- his testimony wasn't given -- wasn't strong, it wasn't definite, it didn't have credible points and some points were incredible when compared to other -- other testimony. I mean, there's just a lot -- there was a lot of problems with his testimony.

Q. Okay. Do you recall the circumstances that Paul described as to why he came to the McGuires'?

A. I think he was either going to pick up something or drop something off.

Q. Okay.

A. I don't really recall. I'm just thinking back now.

Q. Okay. Do you recall whether he was asked to come over to help with the tree, to help take down the tree? Was that the purpose of his visit?

A. I don't recall that.

Q. Would it matter as for liability whether it was or wasn't?

Page 62

A. As by who? As to whose liability?
Q. I'm sorry, his and McGuires' liability.
A. As to how he got there?
Q. Whether he was -- Whether he was invited for the purpose of assisting with the removal of the tree.
MR. FLYNN: Object to the form. Just invited by whom?
THE WITNESS: Yeah, that's a complicated question, but I don't think --
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Let me clarify if I can. Okay. So my question was does it matter if the McGuires invited Paul to their residence to remove the tree on that -- on the June -- roughly June, I believe, 2011 date?
MR. FLYNN: Object to the hypothetical.
THE WITNESS: I don't think it matters.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay. Would it matter if they were paying Paul?
A. That's not the issue. The issue is Dave.
Q. Okay. So the relationship between the McGuires and Paul is somewhat irrelevant?
A. I'm just saying the issue really that -- about liability is Dave's relationship with them.

Q. Because Dave is the one that controlled the chain saw that injured Paul, is that accurate?
A. He was the one hired to do the work or asked to do the work, however, whatever that background was.
Q. And Caroline and William McGuire both testified that they had never used a chain saw; is that correct?
A. I think that's accurate. I'd have to refresh my memory, but that sounds right.
Q. Okay. Do you remember discussing bankruptcy with Paul?
A. I don't remember that.
Q. Do you remember that Paul filed for bankruptcy? Do you recall that?
A. I saw a -- Maybe I didn't see one. I remember there was some sort of bankruptcy matter. I don't know the dates or when it came up.
Q. Okay. Do you recall if you advised Paul to file for bankruptcy?
A. I don't advise people to file for bankruptcy.
Q. All right. So you would not have advised

Page 64

Paul to file for bankruptcy?
A. Would not.
Q. Okay. And then sometime after the McGuire settlement but before the -- but while the Gagnon -- the claims against David Gagnon were still pending you withdrew from the case; is that correct?
A. The law firm did. I -- Again, he hired the law firm.
Q. Sure. Sure. I'm sorry. The Popovich firm withdrew?
A. Right.
Q. And I -- Let's see -- I think we're on Exhibit 14.
THE REPORTER: 15.
MS. WILLIAMS: 15, okay.
Q. I have, I think, one more and then -- Okay, I am uploading Exhibit 15, Dulberg Mast Dep Exhibit 15. It's a motion to withdraw and it's four pages and on the first page it has a Dulberg versus Gagnon case caption and file stamped March 13, 2015. Do you have that document?
A. Yeah.
Q. And this is the Popovich's firm motion to withdraw as counsel for Paul Dulberg in the Dulberg versus Gagnon-McGuire case, correct?

A. Yes.
Q. And you drafted or caused this motion to be drafted and filed?
A. Yes.
Q. And was it granted that same day it was filed?
A. I'm sure it had to be noticed up.
Q. Okay. On the notice of motion it looks like it was noticed for March 13, filed on March 13, but sent to the service list on March 5th, does that seem accurate?
A. That's what it says.
Q. But at any rate, you withdrew sometime in roughly March of 2015?
A. It appears that way. Again, I don't have an independent recollection of the date.
Q. Okay. Okay. That's fine. And I didn't see it -- an order actually showing the exact date of when you withdrew. Can you explain why you withdrew from the case?
A. The short version is just we had a difference of opinion.
Q. Can you give me the long version or slightly

Received 09-16-2022 04:17 PM / Circuit Clerk Accepted on 09-16-2022 04:18 PM / Transaction #19526335 / Case #2017LA000377

longer?
A. Well, we have difference of opinion but Paul was a bit difficult, so I just had to -- there were a couple times that I told him I was going to withdraw and then he begged me not to and so I didn't, but then ultimately he -- it got pretty -- it got pretty tough. He was saying some unfavorable, unflattering things and I just decided we're not going to get anywhere, I'm going to move on.
Q. Okay, so you -- the client relationship broke down and you withdrew?
A. Yes.
Q. Okay. Was there anything about Gagnon's liability or your thoughts on his liability that would have caused you to withdraw?
A. That was another aspect of it. Paul was looking for the stars and the moon and I didn't see it.
Q. And when you say Paul was looking for the stars and the moon, you mean -- Well, what do you mean by that?
A. He was looking for a lot of money.
Q. Okay, and what was your opinion as to David Gagnon's liability in the case?

Page 67

A. I didn't think much of the liability issue. I thought it was going to be a long, tough haul given that --
Q. And --
A. -- Paul was going to be our only witness on our side pretty much.
Q. Okay, and there were no other witnesses other than Paul and David; is that correct?
A. Correct.
Q. And what about -- Anything related to, like, the actual injury, the doctors' depositions or anything like that?
A. That all -- It was the whole ball of wax. The doctors weren't supporting his claim. Dave was saying he's a liar, he tried to bribe him. There was just a lot of -- a lot of bad stuff, not enough good stuff.
Q. Okay, and then at that point you and Paul disagreed and Paul retained alternative counsel?
A. Right.
Q. Okay. Was there anything else about the case that you can recall right now that gave you pause as to the liability either to the McGuires or David Gagnon?

Page 68

A. Anything other than what? Pretty much everything was not good.
Q. Okay. I mean, anything that we haven't really discussed here today. We've talked about Paul's testimony, Gagnon's testimony a little bit, the McGuires, the premises liability. We talked -- You mentioned the doctors' depositions. Is that sort of the general gamut of it?
A. That's the whole case.
Q. Okay. Have you ever had any other chain saw liability cases other than this particular case?
A. I'm sure I have. I don't -- If you're going to ask me to name a date, I don't know. I mean, it's not a common issue, but it comes up from time to time.
Q. Okay. Did you state -- Did you seek out a liability expert, a chain saw liability expert, during the time you were representing Paul?
A. No.
Q. Is there a reason for that?
A. That's always a possibility. It's always a consideration, but I had to consider even more whether we could even get to prove a credible case and that was my first object, my first -- my first tier. It doesn't do any good to hire an expert if you don't have a good case.

Q. Okay. Okay. If you were going to take the case to trial, at that point would you have hired an expert, chain saw expert?
A. For this case, I don't know. I'd have to look at it again and see what we need to prove, what they're arguing. There's -- As I recall, they weren't arguing the chain saw -- They weren't arguing. He didn't get hit with the chain saw. So I'm not real sure. I'd have to think whether we need to prove -- what we need to prove, anything more than that.
Q. Okay.
A. It was more what happened, who caused it to happen, not that it happened.
Q. Okay. Is there a difference between an independent contractor and an employee?
A. In terms of what? In terms of duty or what?
Q. Right. In terms of the supervisor's duty. So if the Gagnons -- If Gagnon was, and this is a hypothetical, if Gagnon was an employee of his parents as opposed to an independent contractor, would there be a liability difference?

MR. FLYNN: Object to the hypothetical. It's inaccurate and incomplete.
THE WITNESS: That's a very complicated question, even though it doesn't sound like one. It depends on lots of things.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay. We've already talked about an independent contractor. So just in your experience and knowledge, what is a supervisor's duty as to an employee? That's actually a really terrible question. Let's strike that question.
Is there a difference -- Is there a difference between the control aspect of -- Would an -- Let me start again. This is a complicated question, more complicated than I'm anticipating right now. Okay.
We've generally established that in order for an -- someone who hires an independent contractor to be liable for the actions of that independent contractor, they would have to control the work. In a situation, an employer-employee situation, is that control element also present when considering liability? Does the employer have to control the work of the employee in the same way?

A. I think there are --
MR. FLYNN: I just want to raise an objection for the record. I object to the form. I think that the premise of the question indicated that we already established some legal precedent. I don't think that's the case. I don't think that he's testified to that, so, again, I'll just object to the form. But if you can --
THE WITNESS: You're asking me to compare two different theories without a fact pattern, but there's a lot to each issue and it's hard to just say, well, if you have this, then you have that. There's a lot of different facts that apply, but now I'm forgetting what you asked initially about the employer-employee question.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. So I guess my question to the point of is an employer liable for their employees in a different way than a homeowner would be liable for an independent contractor?
A. I think --
Q. Based on -- You go ahead.
A. I think under the law there are different elements to those actions.

Page 72

Q. And there are --
A. Go ahead.
Q. So there would be different elements if something was an employer-employee situation, that would be different law, different case law?
A. Yeah, there's a different cause of action.
Q. Okay.
A. Different elements potentially have to be pled and proved.
Q. Okay. But in this case you were trying to prove -- In Dulberg's case against the McGuires and Gagnon you were trying to show that -- The theory of the case was that Gagnon was not an employee, but an independent contractor, and the McGuires had to control him in order to be liable?
A. Well, that's ultimately what it appeared. You followed the evidence, you follow the facts, so if it turned out it was employee-employer-employee relationship, that's a different evaluation.
Q. Okay. So but, for the most part, you were -- your evaluations of the liability were based on an independent contractor analysis?
A. Well, that's where it went because of the evidence.

Page 73

MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. I'm going to go on mute for just a second so you guys don't hear me shuffling papers, but I think I'm almost finished here or may be finished.
MR. FLYNN: Okay.
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Okay. Just a couple more questions and then we'll wrap things up here. When did you first advise Paul that you didn't think the claims against Gagnon were going to be very strong?
A. Probably day one.
Q. Before the settlement with the McGuires?
A. Yeah.
Q. And did you discuss that several times prior to that McGuire settlement?
A. Like I said, we discussed those issues every time we'd meet, liability issues, damages issues.
Q. Do you recall any particular instances, like maybe after Paul's deposition, after David's deposition, did that stick out in your mind at all?
A. Discussing what, the issues of liability against Gagnon?
Q. Yes.
A. Those are probably something we talked about every visit.

Q. Okay. So we discussed this a little bit before, but I believe the testimony was that the McGuires testified that they purchased the chain saw and I believe you said yes, that was your recollection as well; is that correct?
A. That sounds right. I just don't have an independent recollection at this point.
Q. Okay. If the McGuires -- Let's assume that -- Just for the purposes of this, let's assume that the McGuires did -- it was their chain saw, they purchased it and let Gagnon use it on their property. Would they have any duties to share the manual of that chain saw with Gagnon or provide any other education as to the use of the chain saw to Gagnon?
A. All right, so you're asking me to make a judicial decision whether they had a duty or not?
Q. No, I'm asking you in your experience with these types of cases is there any duty there for them.
A. All right, so a legal duty?
Q. Right. Right. And -- Go ahead, George.
MR. FLYNN: Yeah, I'll just object. I mean, there isn't any evidence that Gagnon asked for a manual, for one, but as far as him providing legal opinions not based on the facts of this case, I'm just going to caution him not to provide what could be considered an expert opinion.

THE WITNESS: You don't want me to answer?
MR. FLYNN: It's up to you. I don't know if you can.
THE WITNESS: I don't remember the question. You're asking me should the McGuires have given Gagnon the manual to the chain saw?
BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Yes.
A. Sure, if he asked for it or if they wanted to give it to him.
Q. Are there any other warnings that they should have provided?
A. See, I mean, you're asking me to -- I get the question, but I'm saying you're asking me to evaluate the conduct of both parties and interpret something and I don't know that that's my position as a witness, but should they have warned him? You know, sure, go ahead and warn him, but obviously when you take on a piece of equipment that you're skilled and experienced in operating, you should be able to operate it effectively yourself safely.

Q. Sure. Okay. And --
A. So I mean --
Q. Okay. But today you're not giving an opinion one way or the other whether they had a duty to provide warnings, whether they had a duty to provide the manual, fair enough?
A. Yeah, legal wise, no, I'm not giving you a legal opinion on that.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay. Okay, I don't think I have anything further.
MR. FLYNN: I actually have just a few follow-ups to that.
MS. WILLIAMS: Sure.
EXAMINATION
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Hans, is your understanding based on the evidence that there were only two eyewitnesses to Mr. Dulberg's accident, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. That was Mr. Dulberg himself and David Gagnon?
A. Correct.
Q. And did you have an understanding as to how the evidence and testimony shook out as to each gentleman's version of the accident and how it occurred?

A. Well, as I said before, I thought Paul's case was going to be very difficult to prove based on the testimony of everybody, credibility issues, and the lack of evidence to support and prove.
Q. David Gagnon's testimony regarding the facts surrounding the accident differed from Paul Dulberg's version of the facts, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. You took that into account in your evaluation and analysis of the case?
A. Definitely.
Q. Did you also take into account your professional analysis of Paul Dulberg's performance as a witness at his discovery deposition?
A. Definitely.
Q. You didn't think he made a very good witness for himself, did he?
A. He even admits he didn't and I don't think he -- I think -- that was one of the worst -- that was one of my worst fears with this case. I had lots of cases and on a scale of weak witnesses, he's probably up at the top, and I'm not putting him down, that's just a reality and I think he even acknowledged that reality.

Q. Okay. Not everyone is a professional witness?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. Generally speaking, your evaluation of the case hinged in part on whether the McGuires controlled the manner and method of the use of the chain saw, correct?

A. Right.

Q. Do you have any recollection as to what the McGuires were doing while the work was being done?

A. They were inside the house, just another day to them. They weren't even -- I don't think even paying attention to what was going on outside.

Q. Did Mr. McGuire testify that he was watching television inside the house while David was working on the tree?

A. They were both inside as I recall.

Q. Your recommendation or suggestion that Mr. Dulberg settle the case for $5,000 was based on your analysis of the entire case, including the risks and benefits of going forward and potentially losing the case at trial, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you have any way to predict whether the case would result in a verdict on behalf of the plaintiff in the case against the McGuires?

A. I'm sorry?

Q. Did you have any -- Did you have any certainty as to whether Mr. Dulberg could prevail at trial on liability against the McGuires?

A. I would have staked a lot that we would not have recovered in the case and just something that didn't come up with the direct is they didn't offer the arbitrator to me. That was something that was later decided. I talked to them about that. They did not offer that to me, so that was not an option to me.

Q. So you were -- Based on your professional judgment, you suggested that you attempt to settle the matter as opposed to taking it to trial versus the McGuires, correct?

A. Right.

MR. FLYNN: Okay. That's all I have.

MS. WILLIAMS: I have no follow-up.

THE REPORTER: Signature?

Page 80

THE WITNESS: I'll waive signature.

MS. WILLIAMS: We'll order the original, E-tran.

MR. FLYNN: I'll take a regular and a mini copy.

MEMORANDUM

FROM: Hans

DATE: December 5, 2011

SUBJECT: PAUL DULBERG - NEW CLIENT

HAM
B/C the accident occurred on their premises, their H.O. will pay the bills.

On December 1, 2011, I met Paul Dulberg and his mother, concerning a recent injury that Paul suffered at a friend's house due to a chainsaw accident on June 28, 2011. Paul was referred to our office by a former client, Hubert McArtor. Paul had previously been with Francisco Botto in Woodstock but they rejected the case. He did sign a contract with Botto but we have correspondence in the file that they rejected him and sent him away. They did not refer him to us. Apparently, they rejected the case because they did not think that they would be able to prove that the defendant was more than 50% negligent causing the accident. I disagree.

Exhibit 3
Witness: Hans Mast
Date: 6/25/20
Court Reporter: Barb Smith

Paul's contact information is as follows:

Paul describes that he was at a friend's house, Caroline and Bill McGuire who live at 1016 W. Elder Avenue, McHenry, IL 60051, phone 815/344-4274. The McGuire's son, Dave was at the home and Dave was cutting up some tree limbs in the yard. Caroline had called Paul over to the house earlier to see if he wanted the wood for firewood. Dave asked Paul to hold some tree limbs while he cut them up. He had held two tree branches previously and then about an hour after he arrived he was holding another branch and Dave suddenly swung around with the chainsaw rising it in the air and cutting his Paul's forearm severely while holding on to a branch. Paul said that the chainsaw went about 40% through his forearm. Dave took him immediately to NIMC where they stitched him up. It was a very deep and open wound. Unfortunately, he did not take any photos of the wound. Instead, he followed up with his family physician, Dr. Frank Sek on Route 120 in McHenry who removed the stitches about a week later. Dr. Sek thought there was going to be possible nerve damage due to his arm being very painful. About two weeks later he went to a doctor at the Associates in Neurology in Libertyville and they took and EMG test which found that there were some branch nerves that had been severed which may be the cause of his ongoing pain. They thought that the pain was probably more ligamentous and they referred him to Dr. Paul Papierski, phone 847/247-0547. That was in August. He has not returned to see Dr. Papierski because apparently they needed an MRI and he did not have money to pay for an MRI. I urged him to return to see Dr. Papierski and to have the MRI done even if they have to hold a lien on our case. His arm is very painful when he lifts anything and he drops things continuously. He said that he will follow up with Dr. Papierski and advise me further what needs to be done as far as treatment.

At the time of the accident he was not employed but he had been just recently hired when the accident occurred by AMS Screw Products in Spring Grove. He was going to earn $12 an hour for 40 hours per week. He had talked to Karen over at AMS Screw and she agreed to hire him, but unfortunately, he was injured before he could start work. Their phone number is 732/545-8888x231.

The central issue in my view in this case is whether there is insurance coverage. Since the son was not living with the McGuire's at the time of the accident, it may be that David Gagnon is not going to be insured for the accident. However, Paul and his mother advised me that Dave also had a home and lived at 39010 90th Place in Genoa City, Wisconsin. Therefore, hopefully he has homeowner's insurance that will apply to this claim as well as med-pay coverage to help pay for the MRI that needs to be done.

The McGuire's were insured by:

By copy of this memo, I ask Alarie to set up a new file.

By copy of this memo, I ask Marla to order the medical records and bills from NIMC, Dr. Frank Sek and Associates in Neurology in Libertyville. Please also diary the 1 and 2 year SOL deadlines in this case.

Paul, here are my thoughts regarding your case. There are two issues. The first liability, or whether Mr. Gagnon is liable for your injury. If he is not proven liable, then it does not matter how badly you were hurt since he will not be found responsible for your damages. The second issue is your damages, or to what extent you were injured due to Mr. Gagnon’s acts.
Both of these issues are strongly contested in your case.
As to liability, there were no witnesses to the accident. So, whether Mr. Gagnon will be held responsible for your damages is uncertain and a gamble. That is because it is your word against his word. Our argument is that you were simply holding a limb when he caused the chain saw to strike you. His argument is that you moved your arm in the path of the chain saw unexpectedly. If the jury determines that we did not prove your "version" of the accident, then they can find against you and in favor of Mr. Gagnon at trial.
As to damages, the issue is complicated. That is because your treating physicians do not all agree on exactly what injury you suffered or whether your had a fully recovery or not.
Dr. Talerico at MidAmerica Hand and Shoulder, saw you twice. The first time was in December, six months after your injury. He was not supportive of your claim in most respects. He didn’t really feel there was anything wrong with you - as to the forearm. He said that you complained mostly of pain radiating down the forearm from the laceration site with numbness and tingling. On exam he noted no tenderness and it was mostly a normal presentation. Strength was good. He did not see any nerve problem. He prescribed physical therapy due to a muscular sort of symptomology - not nerve related. Apparently you did only 2 sessions of therapy and returned January, 2012. No new complaints at the time. The EMG was normal. He did not believe you were disabled. He continued you on therapy. He saw no evidence of nerve problems. The only symptoms were subjective - not represented by any abnormal exam finding.
Dr. Sagerman has also been deposed. I will summarize his testimony for your soon. His was more favorable, but still limited in what he related to the chain saw accident. Apparently he does not believe you presently have any symptoms relatable to the chain saw injury.
Think about these issues. I will provide you Dr. Sagerman’s summary soon.
Hans

Morning Hans,Wanted to touch base this morning because the call from you about something not being medically linked has been on my mind.I'm not sure what was said during that deposition with the drs that prompted the call but I have been thinking about what it could be. Most likely it was the right elbow procedure. During my deposition I remember being asked if the two were linked and I answered yes. Let me explain my answer to you. If the chainsaw had not gone through my arm then the procedure on my elbow wouldn't have happened. That procedure was exploratory to find what was bothering the arm from the chainsaw. Upon opening up the arm they did find some compressions which from my understanding was nothing unusual for a male of my age and very well may or may not have happened during my retreat from the chainsaw when I ended up half way across the yard on the ground. Incidental finding or not it still would not have been found if I hadn't had the chainsaw incident. So as I see it they are linked good or bad and cannot be separated. The exploratory procedure was to find and possibly fix issues relating to the chainsaw incident. They also removed a ton of scar tissue in the forearm on the same day during the same exploratory procedure that was a direct result of the chainsaw.

Hope this helps explain things better.Let me know,Thanks,Paul

Hans,

Below is a link to an article talking about the integration of digital cameras at the centegra facilities.

A friend of mine who works at NIMC for well over a decade just replied to me and she says everything is recorded and available exactly for the purposes we discussed.

I still don't get how they don't feel responsible for work done on their property by their own son that ended up cutting through 40% of my arm.

Perhaps their negligence is the fact that they didn't supervise the work close enough but they did oversee much of the days activity with David. Just because Dave was doing the work doesn't mean they were not trying to tell their kid what to do. They told him plenty of times throughout the day what to do. How is that not supervising?

Issued For Settlement Purposes Only

Dear Mr. Mast:

I am writing to confirm our telephone conversation earlier this morning, wherein I advised you that I was authorized to propose settlement of Mr. Dulberg's claim against Carolyn and Bill McGuire for a lump-sum total of $5,000.00. The settlement would of course be contingent upon customary settlement documents, including a release, a good faith settlement finding and dismissal.

Pursuant to your request, I searched my file materials for lien notices. The only notice of lien contained in my file at this time is your Attorney's Lien (enclosed). I have asked my contact at Auto-Owners Insurance Company to confirm no lien notices have arrived on his end since Mr. Dulberg's case was assigned to me for the defense of Mr. and Mrs. McGuire. I do not anticipating any lien notices, but just wanted to be safe.

I understand that you intend to run my settlement proposal by Mr. Dulberg. I look forward to hearing from you once you have had a chance to confer with him.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM

TO: File

FROM: Hans

DATE: November 20, 2013

SUBJECT: PAUL DULBERG

On November 20, 2013, I met with Paul and his friend to discuss the McGuire's $5,000 settlement offer and other issues with regard to this case. I also told them there is a dispute as to McGuire's liability, as they maintain that they were not directing Dave's work. Paul maintains that the McGuire's controlled everything that Dave was doing. I told him that that's not what the evidence seems to show. I told them the McGuire's could possibly get out of the case on motion, and the alternative is to accept the $5,000 offer. Paul wants to read the deps of the McGuire's and also wants us to order his and Dave's dep to review. I agreed to do so.

By copy of this memo, I ask Sheila to order copies of Paul and Dave's deps. I think defense counsel ordered them, so all we need to do is get copies. Please let me know if the copies have not been already ordered so we don't have to order the originals.

Thanks,

Hans

debridement and skin grafting. In Fomond, a two-and-one-half-year-old girl sustained third-degree burns that required at least seven surgeries, including two skin grafts and continued physical therapy even several years after receiving the burns. In Negrete, a 17-month-old baby boy sustained burns from hot water, resulting in permanent scarring across 60% of his body and, due to the burning of his genital area, possible permanent damage to his reproductive capacity. In Rogers, the defendant poured grain alcohol on top of the female victim's head and then threw a lit match at her, causing her head, face, chest and pants to ignite.

In light of the above-cited case law, I would reverse defendant's conviction for heinous battery.

Defendant was properly convicted of aggravated battery against a child, however, no sentence was imposed for that crime. If a reviewing court reverses a conviction on which the sentence was imposed, it can remand for sentencing on a conviction on which no sentence was imposed. Such process has been approved in People v. Dixon, 91 Ill.2d 346, 63 Ill.Dec. 442, 438 N.E.2d 180 (1982) and People v. Frantz, 150 Ill.App.3d 296, 300, 103 Ill.Dec. 649, 501 N.E.2d 966 (1986) ("[i]f the reviewing court acts to affirm the incomplete judgment of conviction, the reviewing court then must remand the cause for imposition of sentence").

v.

AT & T, INC., Defendant–Appellee, and Third Party Plaintiff (Quinn Delivery Service, Inc., Third Party Defendant).

No. 1–95–0447.

Appellate Court of Illinois,
First District, Fifth Division.

Aug. 9, 1996.

Independent contractor who was injured when loading telephone company's battery hoist for transport brought negligence action against telephone company. The Circuit Court, Cook County, Anthony J. Bosco, J., granted summary judgment for telephone company. Contractor appealed. The Appellate Court, Gordon, J., held that: (1) contractor's motion for reconsideration was timely; (2) telephone company had not voluntarily undertaken duty to properly maintain and secure battery hoist for transport; (3) telephone company was not liable as gratuitous bailor; and (4) trial court did not abuse its discretion by denying contractor's motion to amend his complaint.

Affirmed.

Posttrial motion must be filed within 30 days of final judgment or trial court will lose jurisdiction to modify or vacate final order which it entered after lapse of 30 days. S.H.A. 735 ILCS 5/2–1203.

2. Motions ⇐39

Motion to reconsider is posttrial motion, and therefore falls within purview of post-judgment motions which must be filed within 30 days after challenged judgment is entered. S.H.A. 735 ILCS 5/2–1203.

3. Appeal and Error ⇐344

Only if posttrial motion is timely filed will it extend time for filing notice of appeal. Sup.Ct.Rules, Rule 303(a)(1).

Negligence ⇐20

Telephone company did not voluntarily ndertake duty to properly maintain and se- re its battery hoist for transport, where dependent contractor, who was injured by ist when loading it for transport as result loosening of strap securing motor, had al discretion in preparing and moving ist, and there was no evidence that tele- one company had strapped motor, that apping was undertaken as protection for ntractor, or that contractor relied upon fety of strapping. Judgment ⇐185(1)

Unsubstantiated hearsay statements cannot be considered in ruling on motion for summary judgment.

Pleading ⇐236(6)

Trial court did not abuse its discretion by denying motion of independent contractor, who was injured when loading telephone company's battery hoist for transport, to amend his complaint to allege more specifically facts that there was voluntary undertaking by telephone company, after trial court granted summary judgment for telephone company, where issue was not that complaint was deficient in its framing of issues but that evidence presented in support of voluntary undertaking theory failed to establish genuine issue of material fact, and amendment would be prejudicial to telephone company in that amendment was sought on eve of trial and five years after inception of lawsuit, with no explanation as to why contractor never before attempted to develop facts necessary to withstand telephone company's summary judgment motion.

William F. DeYoung, Loretto M. Kennedy, Carole C. Tubbesing Burke, Weaver & Prell, Chicago, for American Telephone & Telegraph.

Justice GORDON delivered the opinion of the Court:

This is an action for damages brought by the plaintiff, Fernando Lajato, arising from injuries he incurred while working as an independent contractor for third-party defendant Quinn Delivery Service, Inc. (Quinn) to move a battery hoist owned by defendant AT & T. AT & T filed a contingent third-party complaint against Quinn, not at issue in this appeal, seeking indemnification pursuant to the delivery service contract between Quinn and AT & T, in the event plaintiff recovered a judgment in his tort action against AT & T. AT & T subsequently filed a motion for summary judgment against plaintiff which the trial court granted. In that order, the court also denied plaintiff's oral motion requesting leave to amend his complaint. Subsequently, plaintiff filed a motion to reconsider, which the court ultimately struck by reason of its alleged lack of jurisdiction to hear it. Plaintiff appeals from the orders granting summary judgment to AT & T, denying his motion to amend his complaint, and refusing to hear his motion to reconsider. AT & T has moved to dismiss this appeal for lack of appellate jurisdiction.

In November 1989, plaintiff filed a complaint against AT & T, wherein he alleged that on July 1, 1988, he was on the premises of AT & T on behalf of Quinn in order to move an AT & T battery hoist. The complaint further alleged that while performing that task, the hoist fell upon him, causing him injuries for which he sought damages. The complaint averred that AT & T was negligent in its failure to maintain, inspect, and repair the battery hoist, and for AT & T's failure to warn plaintiff of the propensity of the hoist to fall. In April 1990, AT & T filed its answer, specifically denying each basis for recovery alleged in plaintiff's complaint. The matter was scheduled for trial in June 1995.

On April 25, 1994, AT & T filed a motion for summary judgment, alleging that, based upon the undisputed facts, it was clear that [illegible] owed no duty of care to plaintiff with respect to his injuries. In support of its motion, AT & T submitted excerpts of the deposition testimony of plaintiff and a copy of the delivery services contract between AT & T and Quinn. In his deposition, plaintiff testified that on the date of the accident, July 1, 1988, he was making pick-ups and deliveries of telephone equipment at various AT & T locations as an independent contractor for Quinn. He stated that he had received instructions from Quinn via radio to go to an AT & T property in Rolling Meadows, Illinois, the scene of the accident, to pick up a battery hoist and to transport it to another AT & T location in Rockford, Illinois. Approximately 99% of plaintiff's delivery work for Quinn involved pick-ups and deliveries of AT & T equipment. The plaintiff stated that AT & T did not direct him in his moving work, but rather, allowed him to use his own expertise to determine how each move would be accomplished.

Plaintiff further testified that the battery hoist, which weighs approximately [illegible] pounds, was used to lift batteries weighing approximately 300 pounds up onto shelves. Plaintiff described the hoist as being rectangular in shape, on wheels, and consisting of a large, black metal frame with a motor and hoist accessories suspended from the middle of the frame. The hanging motor and accessories could be pulled to one side of the hoist frame and secured thereto with a nylon strap and a chain, both of which were always attached to the hoist, in order to stabilize the hoist during transport and when not in use to perform its battery-lifting function. It was plaintiff's customary practice to inspect the hoist to ensure that the motor and accessories were firmly secured with the strap and the chain prior to moving the hoist. Plaintiff had moved this particular hoist on at least 10–15 different occasions.

Plaintiff's deposition further revealed that when he reached the AT & T Rolling Meadows location, an AT & T employee directed him to the hoist, and that after that brief conversation, plaintiff had no further discussions with anyone, AT & T employees or otherwise, until after the accident.

intiff approached the hoist, he observed t its motor and accessories were already apped and secured to the hoist's frame. also testified that he personally examined strap to ensure that the hanging appara- was firmly secured to the frame of the st with the nylon strap and the motor ain before attempting to move the hoist. intiff then wheeled the hoist to the back his truck and onto his truck's hydraulic lift form, which he had lowered to ground- el in order to lift the hoist into his truck. er raising the lift and the hoist from und-level up to the truck's bed, plaintiff bed into the truck bed and began to pull hoist into the bed.

Plaintiff further testified that while pulling hoist into the truck, the strap around the or and hoist accessories loosened for rea- beyond his knowledge, permitting the or and the accessories to swing free and weight of the hoist to shift towards him. ediately thereafter, the hoist fell onto tiff, causing him various injuries. Plain- stated that there were no known wit- es to the accident. He also stated that t two months after the accident, he d from an AT & T installer that certain laborers at AT & T had told him that plaintiff's accident, they would not use hoist because it was unsafe, and that AT ultimately shipped the hoist back to the facturer.

addition to plaintiff's deposition testimo- AT & T submitted the Quinn–AT & T ery contract in support of its motion for mary judgment. That contract reveals Quinn, through its own independent con- tors, performed moving services for de- nt AT & T. The contract required n to ceive, pick up, load, transport, unload, d deliver telephone equipment and other terial (the "Material"), and perform the her services provided for in this agree- ent as ordered by [AT & T] from April 1, 87 to March 31, 1989."

contract further provided that Quinn or gents

hall have the sole and exclusive care, ustody and control of the Material from the time it is tendered to [Quinn], [Quinn's] agents or servants, until it is delivered to and accepted by [AT & T] * * *."

In his response to AT & T's motion for summary judgment, plaintiff argued that AT & T had voluntarily assumed and breached a duty to him to keep its premises safe and to maintain the hoist such that it would not do harm to those moving it. In support of his position, plaintiff attached additional excerpts from his own deposition, pointing to his testimony that the AT & T hoist's motor and accessories were already secured to the frame of the hoist by the nylon strap and the motor chain when he arrived at the site to move the hoist. He also referred to his testimony that there was no motor lock securing the motor to the frame, and that the motor and accessories would not have swung free after the strap loosened if there had been such a motor lock.

In a hearing on July 27, 1994, the trial court granted AT & T's motion for summary judgment with prejudice. Later at that same hearing, the trial court heard plaintiff's oral request for leave to amend his complaint pursuant to section 2–1005(g) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure (735 ILCS 5/2–1005(g) (West 1994)), where plaintiff argued that he should be allowed to amend his complaint to show that AT & T voluntarily undertook to secure the hoist and did so negligently. The court denied plaintiff's motion to amend, stating as its reason that "[i]t's an '89 case."

On August 25, 1994, within 30 days of the July 27 order granting summary judgment and denying leave to amend, plaintiff filed a motion to reconsider. However, plaintiff did not serve AT & T with that motion until September 18, 1994, at which time he transmitted that motion to AT & T via facsimile at AT & T's request. No notice of motion was served upon AT & T until November 9, 1994, and plaintiff did not file a certificate of service for that motion until November 17, 1994.

AT & T subsequently filed a motion objecting to plaintiff's motion to reconsider, arguing that the trial court had no jurisdiction to hear it based on plaintiff's failure to file a proof of service within 30 days of the July 27 order. On January 13, 1995, the trial court sustained AT & T's objection, finding that it had no jurisdiction to hear plaintiff's motion to reconsider, and therefore did not address the merits of that motion. On January 25, 1995, within 30 days of the trial court's January 13 order, plaintiff filed his notice of appeal, both from that order and from the July 27, 1994 order granting summary judgment and denying plaintiff leave to amend.

Plaintiff contends on appeal that the trial court erred in granting summary judgment because by improperly securing the battery hoist for transport, AT & T negligently performed a voluntary undertaking, and because as a gratuitous bailor, AT & T knew the hoist was dangerous yet failed to inform plaintiff of its dangerous condition. Plaintiff also contends that the trial court abused its discretion in denying him leave to amend his complaint after the grant of summary judgment.

I. JURISDICTION:

Before reaching plaintiff's contentions on appeal, we must first address defendant's motion to dismiss this appeal for want of appellate jurisdiction. Bell Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Bank of Ravenswood, 203 Ill.App.3d 219, 148 Ill.Dec. 559, 560 N.E.2d 1156 (1990). In its motion to dismiss, AT & T contends that plaintiff's failure to file a proof of service with its August 25, 1994 motion to reconsider prevents this court from reviewing either of the trial court's July 27 or January 13 orders. Defendant argues, somewhat obliquely, that plaintiff's motion to reconsider should not be considered as being timely filed, because it was not accompanied by a proof of service, and as a result, the trial court was correct in stating that it had no jurisdiction to consider it. Consequently, defendant would urge that the motion to reconsider did not have the effect of extending the time for filing plaintiff's notice of appeal beyond the initial 30 day period following entry of the summary judgment order. See Illinois Supreme Court Rule 303(a)(1) (155 Ill.2d R. 303(a)(1)) (discussed more fully below). We disagree.

[1–3] Under Supreme Court Rule 303(a)(1), a notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days after the entry of the final judgment from which the appeal is taken, or, if a timely post-trial motion directed at the judgment is filed, within 30 days after entry of the order disposing of the last pending post-trial motion. (134 Ill.2d R. 303(a)(1)). Under section 2–1203 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, a post-trial motion must be filed within 30 days of a final judgment. 735 ILCS 5/2–1203 (West 1994). Otherwise, the trial court will lose jurisdiction to modify or vacate the final order which it entered after the lapse of 30 days. Archer Daniels Midland Co. v. Barth, 103 Ill.2d 536, 83 Ill.Dec. 332, 470 N.E.2d 290 (1984); In Matter of Application of County Treasurer, 208 Ill.App.3d 561, 153 Ill.Dec. 528, 567 N.E.2d 486 (1990). A motion to reconsider is a post-trial motion (Elmhurst Auto Parts v. Fencl–Tufo Chevrolet, 235 Ill.App.3d 88, 175 Ill.Dec. 771, 600 N.E.2d 1229 (1992)), and therefore "falls within the purview of post-judgment motions which must be filed within 30 days after the challenged judgment is entered." Sho–Deen, Inc. v. Michel, 263 Ill.App.3d 288, 290, 200 Ill.Dec. 729, 732, 635 N.E.2d 1068, 1071 (1994). Only if a post-trial motion is timely filed pursuant to section 2–1203 will it extend the time for filing the notice of appeal under Rule 303(a). In Matter of Application of County Treasurer.

[4] Thus, the question as to whether the appellant's notice of appeal was filed beyond the 30 day period allowed under Rule 303(a), thereby depriving this court of its jurisdiction, depends upon whether the failure to file a certificate of service vitiated the filing of the plaintiff's motion to reconsider. If we determine that the filing of plaintiff's motion to reconsider on August 25 within 30 days after the July 27 summary judgment order was timely, notwithstanding the failure to file an accompanying certificate of service within that 30–day period, then plaintiff's notice of appeal from both the July 27 and the January 13 orders was timely. This would follow under Rule 303(a), since the notice of appeal was filed on January 25, within 30 days after the trial court's disposition on January 13 of plaintiff's motion to reconsider. On the other hand, if the trial court was correct in its determination that under section 2–1203, the timely filing of a certificate of service is

[5] Defendant next would urge that if we determine that the January 13 order is reviewable, we should confine our review solely to the correctness of the trial court's denial of its jurisdiction over the motion to reconsider. Defendant contends that if we find that the trial court's jurisdictional determination was erroneous, we should remand the matter to the trial court to allow the trial court to first consider the merit of that motion. We disagree for the same reasons as articulated in Myers v. Health Specialists, S.C., 225 Ill.App.3d 68, 167 Ill.Dec. 225, 587 N.E.2d 494 (1992). There, the court stated as follows:

> "Defendant initially urges us, without citation to authority, to remand this matter to the circuit court because that court did not address the merits of plaintiff's motion. This argument betrays a misperception of the nature both of the question presented and of our review. As noted above, we consider summary judgment orders de novo: we, like the circuit court, must decide only whether the parties' pleadings and other submissions present an issue of triable fact and if not, whether plaintiff is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. This is a question of law, not of fact." Myers v. Health Specialists, S.C., 225 Ill.App.3d 68, 76, 167 Ill.Dec. 225, 231, 587 N.E.2d 494, 500 (1992).

Here, too, the grant of summary judgment is subject to de novo review, requiring our de novo determination whether the submissions of the parties presented triable issues of fact and if not whether defendant was entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Thus, here, as in Myers, we may consider this appeal on its merits without the necessity of a remand.

II. MERITS:

[6] As noted earlier, plaintiff contends on appeal that the trial court erred in granting summary judgment because the facts are sufficient to create an inference that AT & T voluntarily assumed a duty to properly secure the battery hoist for transport, a duty which was breached as a result of AT & T's negligence. Additionally, plaintiff contends, for the first time on appeal, that there was error in granting summary judgment because the facts are sufficient to create an inference that as a gratuitous bailor, AT & T knew the hoist was dangerous yet failed to inform plaintiff of its dangerous condition. Plaintiff also contends that even if summary judgment was properly entered in favor of AT & T under the issues framed by the existing complaint, the trial court abused its discretion in denying him leave to amend his complaint pursuant to section 2–1005(g) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure (735 ILCS 5/2–1005(g) (West 1994)).[1]

[7, 8] We first address plaintiff's contention that the trial court erred in entering summary judgment pursuant to the issues framed by the existing complaint. Summary judgment is proper when the pleadings, depositions and affidavits on file, construed in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, establish that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. See generally 735 ILCS 5/2–1005 (West 1994); First State Insurance Co. v. Montgomery Ward & Co., 267 Ill.App.3d 851, 204 Ill.Dec. 814, 642 N.E.2d 715 (1994); Torres v. City of Chicago, 261 Ill.App.3d 499, 197 Ill.Dec. 985, 632 N.E.2d 54 (1994); Giannoble v. P & M Heating & Air Conditioning, Inc., 233 Ill.App.3d 1051, 175 Ill.Dec. 169, 599 N.E.2d 1183 (1992). Appellate review of an order granting summary judgment is de novo. E.g., Hesselink v. R.L. Perlow Corp., 265 Ill.App.3d 473, 202 Ill.Dec. 36, 637 N.E.2d 575 (1994); La Salle National Bank v. Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, 262 Ill.App.3d 899, 200 Ill.Dec. 225, 635 N.E.2d 564

1. As previously noted, at the trial level, plaintiff urged liability both on the basis of premises liability and the law governing voluntary undertakings. Plaintiff has conceded on appeal that he cannot base his action against AT & T upon a theory of premises liability as a matter of law, due to the holding in Pagano v. Occidental Chemical Corp., 257 Ill.App.3d 905, 913, 196 Ill.Dec. 24, 30, 629 N.E.2d 569, 575 (1994), insofar as he incurred his injuries in the bed of his truck, and not due to any condition of AT & T's premises. See also Jackson v. Hilton Hotels Corp., 271 Ill.App.3d 457, 214 Ill.Dec. 31, 660 N.E.2d 222 (1995) (in action based on premises liability, no duty to plaintiff existed where plaintiff failed to show that his injuries were caused by any condition of the premises).

jurisdictional, without which the motion to reconsider cannot be deemed to have been timely filed, then the notice of appeal in this case, filed more than three months after the entry of the summary judgment order, would be untimely pursuant to Rule 303(a) and leave this court without appellate jurisdiction.

The rule is clear that the absence of a certificate of service will not vitiate the filing of a motion to reconsider. This matter has been specifically preempted by Illinois Supreme Court Rule 104 (134 Ill.2d Rule 104), which provides at parts (b) and (d) as follows:

"(b) Filing of Papers and Proof of Service. Pleadings subsequent to the complaint, written motions, and other papers required to be filed shall be filed with the clerk with a certificate of counsel or other proof that copies have been served on all parties who have appeared * * *.

* * * * * *

(d) Failure to deliver or serve copies as required by this rule does not in any way impair the jurisdiction of the court over the person of any party, but the aggrieved party may obtain a copy from the clerk and the court shall order the offending party to reimburse the aggrieved party for the expense thereof." 134 Ill.2d R. 104(b), (d) (Emphasis added).

Thus, under Rule 104(d), the failure to deliver or serve copies does not impair the jurisdiction of the court. This rule has been applied to post-trial motions in In re Marriage of Collins, 154 Ill.App.3d 655, 107 Ill.Dec. 109, 506 N.E.2d 1000 (1987) and in Kollath v. Chicago Title and Trust Co., 24 Ill.App.3d 353, 321 N.E.2d 344 (1974), which held that the failure to include proof of service with a post-trial motion will not invalidate the motion or render it untimely.

Defendant contends that Rule 104(d) only addresses the failure to actually serve copies of the motion but does not address the failure to file a certificate of service. This contention is devoid of any rationale since a failure to serve will preclude the filing of a certificate, unless the movant seeks to perjure himself. Thus, if the failure to actually serve notice does not impair jurisdiction, then a fortiori, the failure to serve a certificate of service will not impair the validity or timeliness of the motion. See In re Marriage of Collins.

Defendant's reliance on Vlahakis v. Parker, 3 Ill.App.3d 126, 278 N.E.2d 523 (1971) (abstract of op.) and Ingrassia v. Ingrassia, 156 Ill.App.3d 483, 109 Ill.Dec. 68, 509 N.E.2d 729 (1987) is misplaced. Although Vlahakis reached a contrary result, it is clear that that opinion did not purport to in any way consider or confront the impact of Rule 104(d) in its determination. That opinion has therefore been distinguished and rejected on that basis in Kollath v. Chicago Title and Trust Co., 24 Ill.App.3d at 357–58, 321 N.E.2d at 348 ("Rule 104(d) renders a failure to comply with Rule 104(b) * * * non-jurisdictional * * * [and] the only cases decided since enactment of rule 104(d) which reached a contrary result [, including Vlahakis v. Parker,] did not consider that provision at all"). Likewise, the opinion in Ingrassia does not purport to consider rule 104(d) in its determination. Moreover, Ingrassia does not purport to deal with the validity or timeliness of the filing of a post-trial motion, but, rather, with the sufficiency of the notice of that motion when given to the opposing party only a few hours before the hearing on the motion. Hence, Ingrassia is not in point, since here there is no question that defendant had actual knowledge of the pendency of plaintiff's motion to reconsider well in advance of the scheduled hearing date on that motion.

Consequently, plaintiff's August 25 motion to reconsider, and therefore his January 25 notice of appeal, were seasonably filed, notwithstanding that no certificate of service was filed until long after 30 days had passed since summary judgment was entered on July 27. Since the August 25 motion was timely, the notice of appeal filed on January 25 complied with Rule 303(a) since it was filed within 30 days after the trial court disposed of the motion to reconsider, albeit on jurisdictional grounds, on January 13. Accordingly, our jurisdiction to review both the July 27 and January 13 orders of the trial court remains unimpaired.

(1994). To withstand a motion for summary judgment in an action based in negligence, a plaintiff must allege facts sufficient to show that the defendant owed him a duty, that defendant breached that duty, and that his injury proximately resulted from that breach. See DiBenedetto v. Flora Township, 153 Ill.2d 66, 178 Ill.Dec. 777, 605 N.E.2d 571 (1992); Ziemba v. Mierzwa, 142 Ill.2d 42, 153 Ill.Dec. 259, 566 N.E.2d 1365 (1991).

[9, 10] With respect to plaintiff's contention concerning AT & T's duty arising from its purported voluntary undertaking, section 323 of the Restatement (Second) of Torts provides as follows:

"One who undertakes, gratuitously or for consideration, to render services to another which he should recognize as necessary for the protection of the other's person or things, is subject to liability to the other for physical harm resulting from his failure to exercise reasonable care to perform his undertaking, if

(a) his failure to exercise such care increases the risk of such harm, or

(b) the harm is suffered because of the other's reliance upon the undertaking." Restatement (Second) of Torts § 323, at 135 (1965).

See generally, Cross v. Wells Fargo Alarm Services, 82 Ill.2d 313, 45 Ill.Dec. 121, 412 N.E.2d 472 (1980); Jackson v. Hilton Hotels Corp., 277 Ill.App.3d 457, 214 Ill.Dec. 31, 660 N.E.2d 222 (1995). Whether a duty has been voluntarily undertaken is a question of law to be determined by the court. Gouge v. Central Illinois Public Service Co., 144 Ill.2d 535, 163 Ill.Dec. 842, 582 N.E.2d 108 (1991); Jackson v. Hilton Hotels Corp.

In the instant case, plaintiff has failed to allege facts sufficient to establish in the first instance that defendant voluntarily assumed or undertook any duty to properly maintain and secure the battery hoist for transport. First, it is undisputed that AT & T had neither control nor influence over the manner in which plaintiff, an independent contractor retained by Quinn (who was also an independent contractor), readied or moved the hoist, and that plaintiff had total discretion in preparing and moving the hoist. Moreover, plaintiff did not submit any evidence that AT & T strapped the motor to the hoist, nor any evidence regarding whether the strapping was undertaken as protection for the plaintiff. Lastly, and more overridingly, even if we were to presume that the strapping was effected by AT & T, there is no evidence whatsoever submitted by plaintiff that he relied upon the safety of that strapping. In fact, the record is clear that plaintiff himself checked the strapping of the motor to ensure it was fastened securely prior to moving the hoist, as was his customary practice when moving that particular hoist.

"[A] gratuitous bailor may be liable for physical harm caused by the use of his chattel when he knows or has reason to know that the chattel is or is likely to be dangerous when put to the use for which it is supplied; has no reason to believe that those for whose use the chattel is supplied will realize its dangerous condition; and fails to exercise reasonable care to inform the user of its dangerous condition or of the facts which make it likely to be dangerous." Pagano v. Occidental Chemical Corp., 257 Ill.App.3d 905, 913, 196 Ill.Dec. 24, 30, 629 N.E.2d 569, 575 (1994).

[14] Plaintiff has not produced evidence as to any specific defect either in the design or manufacture of the hoist itself which would indicate that AT & T had actual or constructive knowledge that the hoist was unsafe when it was handed over to plaintiff. Plaintiff himself did not testify as to the condition of the hoist except to say that the strap loosened. The only other evidence that plaintiff has presented consists of unsubstantiated hearsay statements. In that regard, plaintiff testified in his deposition to a conversation which took place after the accident with an AT & T installer who told plaintiff that certain other fellow employees had stated that after plaintiff's accident they refused to use the hoist because it was unsafe, and that AT & T ultimately returned the hoist to its manufacturer. However, plaintiff was unable to identify those other AT & T employees, and he did not provide any further detail regarding the specific contents of their statements. Such unsubstantiated hearsay statements cannot be considered in a ruling on a motion for summary judgment. See Certified Mechanical Contractors, Inc. v. Wight & Co., Inc., 162 Ill.App.3d 391, 113 Ill.Dec. 888, 515 N.E.2d 1047 (1987) (in deciding a motion for summary judgment, court should ignore personal conclusions, opinions and self-serving statements and consider only facts admissible in evidence under the rules of evidence); Seefeldt v. Millikin National Bank of Decatur, 154 Ill.App.3d 715, 107 Ill.Dec. 161, 506 N.E.2d 1052 (1987) (although a complaint may purport to raise an issue of material fact, summary judgment is appropriate if such issue is not further supported by evidentiary facts, and in determining the genuineness of a fact, a court should ignore personal conclusions and opinions and consider only admissible facts).

Plaintiff's reliance on Pagano is not well taken. There, the court on appeal did find an issue of fact as to whether a defective dolly supplied by the defendant to help move certain barrel drums of ink rendered the defendant liable under a theory of gratuitous bailment. However, in that case, plaintiff gave direct testimony as to specific, observable defects in the dolly which, if believed, would establish that the dolly was defective. Here, aside from the inadmissible hearsay rumors which were reported, the plaintiff himself presented no evidence to show either a defect in the hoist or that AT & T knew or should have known of any dangerous propensities in the hoist. Consequently, the evidence presented here was not effective to support a counterinference for purposes of summary judgment.

[15] Plaintiff next contends that the trial court erred in its refusal in its July 27 order to allow him leave to amend his complaint to more specifically allege facts that there was a voluntary undertaking and that it was implemented negligently. We disagree.

Section 2–1005(g) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure (735 ILCS 5/2–1005(g) (West 1994)) provides as follows:

"(g) Amendment of pleading. Before or after the entry of a summary judgment the court shall permit pleadings to be amended upon just and reasonable terms."

The allowance of an amendment to the pleadings is in the trial court's discretion, and reversible error can only be found if there is a manifest abuse of discretion. *Loyola Academy v. As noted, on July 27, immediately after the trial court entered summary judgment against him, plaintiff made an oral motion to amend his complaint, as follows:

There will be no new deps. That's what the evidence is through the Plaintiff's deposition."

The court denied plaintiff's motion to amend, stating that "It's an '89 case. I'll deny the motion [to amend]."

We first note that plaintiff never made the proposed amended complaint a part of the record on appeal, except for his oral proposal before the trial judge which, without any offers of new evidence, essentially duplicates the voluntary undertaking theory which has already been argued and rejected. Plaintiff's failure to include the proposed amendment and supporting facts therefor in the record could be found to constitute a waiver in this court of his right to have the denial of his request for leave to amend reviewed. See Mendelson v. Ben A. Borenstein & Co., 240 Ill.App.3d 605, 181 Ill.Dec. 114, 608 N.E.2d 87 (1992) (plaintiff's failure to tender amended complaint or to include it in the appellate record diminished the appellate court's ability to determine whether the proposed amendment would provide a viable theory against defendant, and constituted waiver of right to a review of the denial of his request for leave to amend). See also Ignar v. Norbut, 271 Ill.App.3d 522, 207 Ill.Dec. 648, 648 N.E.2d 285 (1995) (no abuse of discretion in denying motion for leave to amend complaint where movant orally moved to amend yet failed to submit proposed amendment to trial court).

Notwithstanding waiver, even if we were to review the amendment which plaintiff orally proposed, we would find no abuse of discretion by the trial court in denying plaintiff leave to amend. As already discussed, there was ample evidence before the trial court to support its conclusion that the facts in this case as revealed in the summary judgment submissions would not permit a pleading which could allege a valid cause of action. Moreover, by the same token, even if the complaint were amended to more specifically allege a voluntary undertaking as requested by the plaintiff, the allegations of the complaint would be superseded by the extrinsic facts already submitted which as noted would dictate for summary judgment. See Werckenthein v. Bucher Petrochemical Co., 248 Ill.App.3d 282, 188 Ill.Dec. 332, 618 N.E.2d 902 (1993) (where allegations in nonmovant's complaint are contravened by movant's extrinsic submissions in summary judgment proceedings, extrinsic submissions control); East Side Fire Protection District v. City of Belleville, 221 Ill.App.3d 654, 164 Ill.Dec. 192, 582 N.E.2d 755 (1991) (nonmovant must controvert proofs offered by movant in support of motion for summary judgment and cannot merely rest on pleadings); Seefeldt v. Millikin National Bank of Decatur. The issue here is not simply that plaintiff's complaint is deficient in its framing of the issues, but that, as discussed, the testimony and evidence presented in support of his negligent voluntary undertaking theory are deficient, and fall short of establishing a genuine issue of material fact such that judgment should not be entered as a matter of law on that theory of action.

Plaintiff's reliance on Loyola Academy v. S & S Roof Maintenance, Inc., 146 Ill.2d 263, 166 Ill.Dec. 882, 586 N.E.2d 1211 (1992) is not well taken. In Loyola, the court on appeal set forth four factors to determine whether the trial court had abused its discretion in denying a section 2–1005(g) amendment, including whether the proposed amendment would cure the defective pleading, whether it would cause prejudice or surprise to other parties, whether it was timely, and whether previous opportunities to amend the pleading could be identified.

Applying these factors in order, in the instant case the question of whether plaintiff's proposed amendment would cure the defective pleading is not relevant, because as already discussed, AT & T succeeded in its motion for summary judgment not because plaintiff's complaint was improperly pleaded, but because the evidence presented at summary judgment shows no genuine issue of material fact regarding the allegations in the complaint. Werckenthein v. Bucher Petrochemical Co.; East Side Fire Protection District v. City of Belleville. Taking the second and third Loyola factors together (whether there would be prejudice or surprise to AT & T and whether the proposed amendment was timely), the record is ample to support the trial court's determination that the allowance of an amendment would in fact be prejudicial to AT & T, insofar as the amendment was being sought on the eve of trial, five years after the inception of this lawsuit, with no explanation from plaintiff as to why he never before attempted to develop the facts which would be necessary to withstand AT & T's motion for summary judgment. See Mendelson v. Ben A. Borenstein & Co. (no abuse of discretion in denying leave to amend following grant of summary judgment where proposed amendment was sought beyond the pleading stages). See also Ignarski v. Norbut.

The final Loyola factor is whether plaintiff had sufficient prior opportunities to amend. To that extent, we note that plaintiff indeed had substantial opportunities to amend. Although plaintiff complains that AT & T never gave him notice of any deficiency in his complaint which would require amendment because AT & T never filed a motion to dismiss prior to filing its motion for summary judgment, it is axiomatic that a party can amend its pleading on its own motion. See 3 R. Michael, Illinois Practice, ch. 26, at 446 (West 1989). The case of Evans v. United Bank of Illinois, N.A., 226 Ill.App.3d 526, 168 Ill.Dec. 533, 589 N.E.2d 933 (1992), upon which plaintiff relies, does give credence to plaintiff's contention under the fourth Loyola factor that the failure of AT & T to challenge his pleadings prior to its motion for summary judgment deprived plaintiff of any prior opportunity to amend. However, we note that in Evans the court on appeal did not rely on that factor alone in finding that the trial court abused its discretion in denying the plaintiff in that case leave to amend, but found that all of the Loyola factors supported that plaintiff's motion for leave to amend.

In any event, even if plaintiff were correct in his reliance upon Evans, we need not consider its application here. As already discussed, the issue here is not whether the allegations of the complaint were sufficient to state a cause of action based upon a voluntary undertaking theory, but whether the facts adduced were sufficient to create an inference to support such allegations. See Werckenthein v. Bucher Petrochemical Co.; East Side Fire Protection District v. City of Belleville. As previously noted, the fa submitted here are insufficient to raise su an inference. Hence, we find that the tr court's denial of the motion to amend was n an abuse of discretion. See Regas v. Asso ated Radiologists, Ltd., 230 Ill.App.3d 9 172 Ill.Dec. 553, 595 N.E.2d 1223 (19 (where a cause of action cannot be sta even after amendment, leave to ame should be denied).

laintiff approached the hoist, he observed t its motor and accessories were already apped and secured to the hoist's frame. also testified that he personally examined strap to ensure that the hanging appara- was firmly secured to the frame of the st with the nylon strap and the motor ain before attempting to move the hoist. laintiff then wheeled the hoist to the back his truck and onto his truck's hydraulic lift form, which he had lowered to ground- el in order to lift the hoist into his truck. er raising the lift and the hoist from ound-level up to the truck's bed, plaintiff nbed into the truck bed and began to pull hoist into the bed.

Plaintiff further testified that while pulling hoist into the truck, the strap around the or and hoist accessories loosened for rea- beyond his knowledge, permitting the or and the accessories to swing free and weight of the hoist to shift towards him. ediately thereafter, the hoist fell onto ntiff, causing him various injuries. Plain- stated that there were no known wit- es to the accident. He also stated that two months after the accident, he d from an AT & T installer that certain laborers at AT & T had told him that plaintiff's accident, they would not use hoist because it was unsafe, and that AT ultimately shipped the hoist back to the facturer.

addition to plaintiff's deposition testimo- AT & T submitted the Quinn–AT & T ry contract in support of its motion for ary judgment. That contract reveals Quinn, through its own independent con- tors, performed moving services for de- nt AT & T. The contract required n to eceive, pick up, load, transport, unload, d deliver telephone equipment and other terial (the "Material"), and perform the her services provided for in this agree- nt as ordered by [AT & T] from April 1, 87 to March 31, 1989."

contract further provided that Quinn or gents

hall have the sole and exclusive care, ustody and control of the Material from the time it is tendered to [Quinn], [Quinn's] agents or servants, until it is delivered to and accepted by [AT & T] * * *."

In his response to AT & T's motion for summary judgment, plaintiff argued that AT & T had voluntarily assumed and breached a duty to him to keep its premises safe and to maintain the hoist such that it would not do harm to those moving it. In support of his position, plaintiff attached additional excerpts from his own deposition, pointing to his testimony that the AT & T hoist's motor and accessories were already secured to the frame of the hoist by the nylon strap and the motor chain when he arrived at the site to move the hoist. He also referred to his testimony that there was no motor lock securing the motor to the frame, and that the motor and accessories would not have swung free after the strap loosened if there had been such a motor lock.

In a hearing on July 27, 1994, the trial court granted AT & T's motion for summary judgment with prejudice. Later at that same hearing, the trial court heard plaintiff's oral request for leave to amend his complaint pursuant to section 2–1005(g) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure (735 ILCS 5/2–1005(g) (West 1994)), where plaintiff argued that he should be allowed to amend his complaint to show that AT & T voluntarily undertook to secure the hoist and did so negligently. The court denied plaintiff's motion to amend, stating as its reason that "[i]t's an '89 case."

On August 25, 1994, within 30 days of the July 27 order granting summary judgment and denying leave to amend, plaintiff filed a motion to reconsider. However, plaintiff did not serve AT & T with that motion until September 18, 1994, at which time he transmitted that motion to AT & T via facsimile at AT & T's request. No notice of motion was served upon AT & T until November 9, 1994, and plaintiff did not file a certificate of service for that motion until November 17, 1994.

AT & T subsequently filed a motion objecting to plaintiff's motion to reconsider, arguing that the trial court had no jurisdiction to hear it based on plaintiff's failure to file a proof of service within 30 days of the July 27 order. On January 13, 1995, the trial court debridement and skin grafting. In Fomond, a two-and-one-half-year-old girl sustained third-degree burns that required at least seven surgeries, including two skin grafts and continued physical therapy even several years after receiving the burns. In Negrete, a 17-month-old baby boy sustained burns from hot water, resulting in permanent scarring across 60% of his body and, due to the burning of his genital area, possible permanent damage to his reproductive capacity. In Rogers, the defendant poured grain alcohol on top of the female victim's head and then threw a lit match at her, causing her head, face, chest and pants to ignite.

In light of the above-cited case law, I would reverse defendant's conviction for heinous battery.

Defendant was properly convicted of aggravated battery against a child, however, no sentence was imposed for that crime. If a reviewing court reverses a conviction on which the sentence was imposed, it can remand for sentencing on a conviction on which no sentence was imposed. Such process has been approved in People v. Dixon, 91 Ill.2d 346, 63 Ill.Dec. 442, 438 N.E.2d 180 (1982) and *People v. Independent contractor who was injured when loading telephone company's battery hoist for transport brought negligence action against telephone company. The Circuit Court, Cook County, Anthony J. The Appellate Court, Gordon, J., held that: (1) contractor's motion for reconsideration was timely; (2) telephone company had not voluntarily undertaken duty to properly maintain and secure battery hoist for transport; (3) telephone company was not liable as gratuitous bailor; and (4) trial court did not abuse its discretion by denying contractor's motion to amend his complaint.

William F. DeYoung, Loretto M. Kennedy, Carole C. Tubbesing Burke, Weaver & Prell, Chicago, for American Telephone & Telegraph.

Justice GORDON delivered the opinion of the Court:

This is an action for damages brought by the plaintiff, Fernando Lajato, arising from injuries he incurred while working as an independent contractor for third-party defendant Quinn Delivery Service, Inc. (Quinn) to move a battery hoist owned by defendant AT & T. AT & T filed a contingent third-party complaint against Quinn, not at issue in this appeal, seeking indemnification pursuant to the delivery service contract between Quinn and AT & T, in the event plaintiff recovered a judgment in his tort action against AT & T. AT & T subsequently filed a motion for summary judgment against plaintiff which the trial court granted. In that order, the court also denied plaintiff's oral motion requesting leave to amend his complaint. Subsequently, plaintiff filed a motion to reconsider, which the court ultimately struck by reason of its alleged lack of jurisdiction to hear it. Plaintiff appeals from the orders granting summary judgment to AT & T, denying his motion to amend his complaint, and refusing to hear his motion to reconsider. AT & T has moved to dismiss this appeal for lack of appellate jurisdiction.

In November 1989, plaintiff filed a complaint against AT & T, wherein he alleged that on July 1, 1988, he was on the premises of AT & T on behalf of Quinn in order to move an AT & T battery hoist. The complaint further alleged that while performing that task, the hoist fell upon him, causing him injuries for which he sought damages. The complaint averred that AT & T was negligent in its failure to maintain, inspect, and repair the battery hoist, and for AT & T's failure to warn plaintiff of the propensity of the hoist to fall. In April 1990, AT & T filed its answer, specifically denying each basis for recovery alleged in plaintiff's complaint. The matter was scheduled for trial in June 1995.

On April 25, 1994, AT & T filed a motion for summary judgment, alleging that, based upon the undisputed facts, it was clear that it owed no duty of care to plaintiff with respect to his injuries. In support of its motion, AT & T submitted excerpts of the deposition testimony of plaintiff and a copy of the delivery services contract between AT & T and Quinn. In his deposition, plaintiff testified that on the date of the accident, July 1, 1988, he was making pick-ups and deliveries of telephone equipment at various AT & T locations as an independent contractor for Quinn. He stated that he had received instructions from Quinn via radio to go to an AT & T property in Rolling Meadows, Illinois, the scene of the accident, to pick up a battery hoist and to transport it to another AT & T location in Rockford, Illinois. Approximately 99% of plaintiff's delivery work for Quinn involved pick-ups and deliveries of AT & T equipment. The plaintiff stated that AT & T did not direct him in his moving work, but rather, allowed him to use his own expertise to determine how each move would be accomplished.

Plaintiff further testified that the battery hoist, which weighs approximately [illegible] pounds, was used to lift batteries weighing approximately 300 pounds up onto shelves. Plaintiff described the hoist as being rectangular in shape, on wheels, and consisting of a large, black metal frame with a motor and hoist accessories suspended from the middle of the frame. The hanging motor and accessories could be pulled to one side of the hoist frame and secured thereto with a nylon strap and a chain, both of which were permanently attached to the hoist, in order to stabilize the hoist during transport and when not in use to perform its battery-lifting function. It was plaintiff's customary practice to inspect the hoist to ensure that the motor and accessories were firmly secured with the strap and the chain prior to moving the hoist. Plaintiff had moved this particular hoist on at least 10–15 different occasions.

Plaintiff's deposition further revealed that when he reached the AT & T Rolling Meadows location, an AT & T employee directed him to the hoist, and that after that brief conversation, plaintiff had no further discussions with anyone, AT & T employees or otherwise, until after the accident.

sustained AT & T's objection, finding that it had no jurisdiction to hear plaintiff's motion to reconsider, and therefore did not address the merits of that motion. On January 25, 1995, within 30 days of the trial court's January 13 order, plaintiff filed his notice of appeal, both from that order and from the July 27, 1994 order granting summary judgment and denying plaintiff leave to amend.

Plaintiff contends on appeal that the trial court erred in granting summary judgment because by improperly securing the battery hoist for transport, AT & T negligently performed a voluntary undertaking, and because as a gratuitous bailor, AT & T knew the hoist was dangerous yet failed to inform plaintiff of its dangerous condition. Plaintiff also contends that the trial court abused its discretion in denying him leave to amend his complaint after the grant of summary judgment.

I. JURISDICTION:

Before reaching plaintiff's contentions on appeal, we must first address defendant's motion to dismiss this appeal for want of appellate jurisdiction. Bell Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n v. Bank of Ravenswood, 203 Ill.App.3d 219, 148 Ill.Dec. 559, 560 N.E.2d 1156 (1990). In its motion to dismiss, AT & T contends that plaintiff's failure to file a proof of service with its August 25, 1994 motion to reconsider prevents this court from reviewing either of the trial court's July 27 or January 13 orders. Defendant argues, somewhat obliquely, that plaintiff's motion to reconsider should not be considered as being timely filed, because it was not accompanied by a proof of service, and as a result, the trial court was correct in stating that it had no jurisdiction to consider it. Consequently, defendant would urge that the motion to reconsider did not have the effect of extending the time for filing plaintiff's notice of appeal beyond the initial 30 day period following entry of the summary judgment order. See Illinois Supreme Court Rule 303(a)(1) (155 Ill.2d R. 303(a)(1)) (discussed more fully below). We disagree.

[1-3] Under Supreme Court Rule 303(a)(1), a notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days after the entry of the final judgment from which the appeal is taken, or, if a timely post-trial motion directed at the judgment is filed, within 30 days after entry of the order disposing of the last pending post-trial motion. (134 Ill.2d R. 303(a)(1)). Under section 2-1203 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, a post-trial motion must be filed within 30 days of a final judgment. 735 ILCS 5/2-1203 (West 1994). Otherwise, the trial court will lose jurisdiction to modify or vacate the final order which it entered after the lapse of 30 days. Archer Daniels Midland Co. v. Barth, 103 Ill.2d 536, 83 Ill.Dec. 332, 470 N.E.2d 290 (1984); In Matter of Application of County Treasurer, 208 Ill.App.3d 561, 153 Ill.Dec. 528, 567 N.E.2d 486 (1990). A motion to reconsider is a post-trial motion (Elmhurst Auto Parts v. Fencl-Tufo Chevrolet, 235 Ill.App.3d 88, 175 Ill.Dec. 771, 600 N.E.2d 1229 (1992)), and therefore "falls within the purview of post-judgment motions which must be filed within 30 days after the challenged judgment is entered." Sho-Deen, Inc. v. Michel, 263 Ill.App.3d 288, 290, 200 Ill.Dec. 729, 732, 635 N.E.2d 1068, 1071 (1994). Only if a post-trial motion is timely filed pursuant to section 2-1203 will it extend the time for filing the notice of appeal under Rule 303(a). In Matter of Application of County Treasurer.

[4] Thus, the question as to whether the appellant's notice of appeal was filed beyond the 30 day period allowed under Rule 303(a), thereby depriving this court of its jurisdiction, depends upon whether the failure to file a certificate of service vitiated the filing of the plaintiff's motion to reconsider. If we determine that the filing of plaintiff's motion to reconsider on August 25 within 30 days after the July 27 summary judgment order was timely, notwithstanding the failure to file an accompanying certificate of service within that 30-day period, then plaintiff's notice of appeal from both the July 27 and the January 13 orders was timely. This would follow under Rule 303(a), since the notice of appeal was filed on January 25, within 30 days after the trial court's disposition on January 13 of plaintiff's motion to reconsider. On the other hand, if the trial court was correct in its determination that under section 2-1203, the timely filing of a certificate of service is sdictional, without which the motion to consider cannot be deemed to have been ely filed, then the notice of appeal in this e, filed more than three months after the try of the summary judgment order, would untimely pursuant to Rule 303(a) and ve this court without appellate jurisdic-n.

The rule is clear that the absence of a tificate of service will not vitiate the filing a motion to reconsider. This matter has n specifically preempted by Illinois Su-me Court Rule 104 (134 Ill.2d Rule 104), ch provides at parts (b) and (d) as follows:

"(b) Filing of Papers and Proof of Service. Pleadings subsequent to the complaint, written motions, and other papers required to be filed shall be filed with the clerk with a certificate of counsel or other proof that copies have been served on all parties who have appeared * * *.

* * * * * *

(d) Failure to deliver or serve copies as required by this rule does not in any way impair the jurisdiction of the court over the person of any party, but the aggrieved party may obtain a copy from the clerk and the court shall order the offending party to reimburse the aggrieved party for the expense thereof." 134 Ill.2d R. 104(b), (d) (Emphasis added).

Thus, under Rule 104(d), the failure to liver or serve copies does not impair the isdiction of the court. This rule has been plied to post-trial motions in In re Mar-ge of Collins, 154 Ill.App.3d 655, 107 Ill. ec. 109, 506 N.E.2d 1000 (1987) and in llath v. Chicago Title and Trust Co., 24 Ill.App.3d 353, 321 N.E.2d 344 (1974), which eld that the failure to include proof of ser-ce with a post-trial motion will not invali-ate the motion or render it untimely.

Defendant contends that Rule 104(d) only addresses the failure to actually serve copies of the motion but does not address the fail-ure to file a certificate of service. This con-tention is devoid of any rationale since a failure to serve will preclude the filing of a certificate, unless the movant seeks to per-jure himself. Thus, if the failure to actually serve notice does not impair jurisdiction, then a fortiori, the failure to serve a certifi-cate of service will not impair the validity or timeliness of the motion. See In re Mar-riage of Collins.

Defendant's reliance on Vlahakis v. Par-ker, 3 Ill.App.3d 126, 278 N.E.2d 523 (1971) (abstract of op.) and Ingrassia v. Ingrassia, 156 Ill.App.3d 483, 109 Ill.Dec. 68, 509 N.E.2d 729 (1987) is misplaced. Although Vlahakis reached a contrary result, it is clear that that opinion did not purport to in any way consider or confront the impact of Rule 104(d) in its determination. That opinion has therefore been distinguished and rejected on that basis in Kollath v. Chicago Title and Trust Co., 24 Ill.App.3d at 357–58, 321 N.E.2d at 348 ("Rule 104(d) renders a failure to comply with Rule 104(b) * * * non-jurisdictional * * * [and] the only cases decided since enactment of rule 104(d) which reached a contrary result [, including Vlahakis v. Parker,] did not consider that provision at all"). Likewise, the opinion in Ingrassia does not purport to consider rule 104(d) in its determination. Moreover, Ingrassia does not purport to deal with the validity or timeliness of the filing of a post-trial motion, but, rather, with the sufficiency of the notice of that motion when given to the opposing party only a few hours before the hearing on the motion. Hence, Ingrassia is not in point, since here there is no question that defendant had actual knowledge of the pendency of plaintiff's motion to reconsider well in advance of the scheduled hearing date on that motion.

Consequently, plaintiff's August 25 motion to reconsider, and therefore his January 25 notice of appeal, were seasonably filed, notwithstanding that no certificate of service was filed until long after 30 days had passed since summary judgment was entered on July 27. Since the August 25 motion was timely, the notice of appeal filed on January 25 complied with Rule 303(a) since it was filed within 30 days after the trial court disposed of the motion to reconsider, albeit on jurisdictional grounds, on January 13. Accordingly, our jurisdiction to review both the July 27 and January 13 orders of the trial court remains unimpaired.

[5] Defendant next would urge that if we determine that the January 13 order is reviewable, we should confine our review solely to the correctness of the trial court's denial of its jurisdiction over the motion to reconsider. Defendant contends that if we find that the trial court's jurisdictional determination was erroneous, we should remand the matter to the trial court to allow the trial court to first consider the merit of that motion. We disagree for the same reasons as articulated in Myers v. Health Specialists, S.C., 225 Ill.App.3d 68, 167 Ill.Dec. 225, 587 N.E.2d 494 (1992). There, the court stated as follows:

> "Defendant initially urges us, without citation to authority, to remand this matter to the circuit court because that court did not address the merits of plaintiff's motion. This argument betrays a misperception of the nature both of the question presented and of our review. As noted above, we consider summary judgment orders de novo: we, like the circuit court, must decide only whether the parties' pleadings and other submissions present an issue of triable fact and if not, whether plaintiff is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. This is a question of law, not of fact." Myers v. Health Specialists, S.C., 225 Ill.App.3d 68, 76, 167 Ill.Dec. 225, 231, 587 N.E.2d 494, 500 (1992).

Here, too, the grant of summary judgment is subject to de novo review, requiring our de novo determination whether the submissions of the parties presented triable issues of fact and if not whether defendant was entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Thus, here, as in Myers, we may consider this appeal on its merits without the necessity of a remand.

II. MERITS:

[6] As noted earlier, plaintiff contends on appeal that the trial court erred in granting summary judgment because the facts are sufficient to create an inference that AT & T voluntarily assumed a duty to properly secure the battery hoist for transport, a duty which was breached as a result of AT & T's negligence. Additionally, plaintiff contends, for the first time on appeal, that there was error in granting summary judgment because the facts are sufficient to create an inference that as a gratuitous bailor, AT & T knew the hoist was dangerous yet failed to inform plaintiff of its dangerous condition. Plaintiff also contends that even if summary judgment was properly entered in favor of AT & T under the issues framed by the existing complaint, the trial court abused its discretion in denying him leave to amend his complaint pursuant to section 2–1005(g) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure (735 ILCS 5/2–1005(g) (West 1994)).[1]

[7, 8] We first address plaintiff's contention that the trial court erred in entering summary judgment pursuant to the issues framed by the existing complaint. Summary judgment is proper when the pleadings, depositions and affidavits on file, construed in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, establish that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. See generally 735 ILCS 5/2–1005 (West 1994); First State Insurance Co. v. Montgomery Ward & Co., 267 Ill.App.3d 851, 204 Ill.Dec. 814, 642 N.E.2d 715 (1994); Torres v. City of Chicago, 261 Ill.App.3d 499, 197 Ill.Dec. 985, 632 N.E.2d 54 (1994); Giannoble v. P & M Heating & Air Conditioning, Inc., 233 Ill.App.3d 1051, 175 Ill.Dec. 169, 599 N.E.2d 1183 (1992). Appellate review of an order granting summary judgment is de novo. E.g., Hesselink v. R.L. Perlow Corp., 265 Ill.App.3d 473, 202 Ill.Dec. 36, 637 N.E.2d 575 (1994); La Salle National Bank v. Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, 262 Ill.App.3d 899, 200 Ill.Dec. 225, 635 N.E.2d 564

1. As previously noted, at the trial level, plaintiff urged liability both on the basis of premises liability and the law governing voluntary undertakings. Plaintiff has conceded on appeal that he cannot base his action against AT & T upon a theory of premises liability as a matter of law, due to the holding in Pagano v. Occidental Chemical Corp., 257 Ill.App.3d 905, 913, 196 Ill.Dec. 24, 30, 629 N.E.2d 569, 575 (1994), insofar as he incurred his injuries in the bed of his truck, and not due to any condition of AT & T's premises. See also Jackson v. Hilton Hotels Corp. 273 Ill.App.3d 457, 214 Ill.Dec. 31, 660 N.E.2d 222 (1995) (in action based on premises liability, no duty to plaintiff existed where plaintiff failed to show that his injuries were caused by any condition of the premises).

(1994). To withstand a motion for summary judgment in an action based in negligence, a plaintiff must allege facts sufficient to show that the defendant owed him a duty, that defendant breached that duty, and that his injury proximately resulted from that breach. See DiBenedetto v. Flora Township, 153 Ill.2d 66, 178 Ill.Dec. 777, 605 N.E.2d 571 (1992); Ziemba v. Mierzwa, 142 Ill.2d 42, 153 Ill.Dec. 259, 566 N.E.2d 1365 (1991).

[9, 10] With respect to plaintiff's contention concerning AT & T's duty arising from its purported voluntary undertaking, section 323 of the Restatement (Second) of Torts provides as follows:

"One who undertakes, gratuitously or for consideration, to render services to another which he should recognize as necessary for the protection of the other's person or things, is subject to liability to the other for physical harm resulting from his failure to exercise reasonable care to perform his undertaking, if

(a) his failure to exercise such care increases the risk of such harm, or

(b) the harm is suffered because of the other's reliance upon the undertaking." Restatement (Second) of Torts § 323, at 135 (1965).

See generally, Cross v. Wells Fargo Alarm Services, 82 Ill.2d 313, 45 Ill.Dec. 121, 412 N.E.2d 472 (1980); Jackson v. Hilton Hotels Corp., 277 Ill.App.3d 457, 214 Ill.Dec. 31, 660 N.E.2d 222 (1995). Whether a duty has been voluntarily undertaken is a question of law to be determined by the court. Gouge v. Central Illinois Public Service Co., 144 Ill.2d 535, 163 Ill.Dec. 842, 582 N.E.2d 108 (1991); Jackson v. Hilton Hotels Corp.

In the instant case, plaintiff has failed to allege facts sufficient to establish in the first instance that defendant voluntarily assumed or undertook any duty to properly maintain and secure the battery hoist for transport. First, it is undisputed that AT & T had neither control nor influence over the manner in which plaintiff, an independent contractor retained by Quinn (who was also an independent contractor), readied or moved the hoist, and that plaintiff had total discretion in preparing and moving the hoist. Moreover, plaintiff did not submit any evidence that AT & T strapped the motor to the hoist, nor any evidence regarding whether the strapping was undertaken as protection for the plaintiff. Lastly, and more overridingly, even if we were to presume that the strapping was effected by AT & T, there is no evidence whatsoever submitted by plaintiff that he relied upon the safety of that strapping. In fact, the record is clear that plaintiff himself checked the strapping of the motor to ensure it was fastened securely prior to moving the hoist, as was his customary practice when moving that particular hoist.

"[A] gratuitous bailor may be liable for physical harm caused by the use of his chattel when he knows or has reason to know that the chattel is or is likely to be dangerous when put to the use for which it is supplied; has no reason to believe that those for whose use the chattel is supplied will realize its dangerous condition; and fails to exercise reasonable care to inform the user of its dangerous condition or of the facts which make it likely to be dangerous." Pagano v. Occidental Chemical Corp., 257 Ill.App.3d 905, 913, 196 Ill.Dec. 24, 30, 629 N.E.2d 569, 575 (1994).

[14] Plaintiff has not produced evidence as to any specific defect either in the design or manufacture of the hoist itself which would indicate that AT & T had actual or constructive knowledge that the hoist was unsafe when it was handed over to plaintiff. Plaintiff himself did not testify as to the condition of the hoist except to say that the strap loosened. The only other evidence that plaintiff has presented consists of unsubstantiated hearsay statements. In that regard, plaintiff testified in his deposition to a conversation which took place after the accident with an AT & T installer who told plaintiff that certain other fellow employees had stated that after plaintiff's accident they refused to use the hoist because it was unsafe, and that AT & T ultimately returned the hoist to its manufacturer. However, plaintiff was unable to identify those other AT & T employees, and he did not provide any further detail regarding the specific contents of their statements. Such unsubstantiated hearsay statements cannot be considered in a ruling on a motion for summary judgment. See Certified Mechanical Contractors, Inc. v. Wight & Co., Inc., 162 Ill.App.3d 391, 113 Ill.Dec. 888, 515 N.E.2d 1047 (1987) (in deciding a motion for summary judgment, court should ignore personal conclusions, opinions and self-serving statements and consider only facts admissible in evidence under the rules of evidence); Seefeldt v. Millikin National Bank of Decatur, 154 Ill.App.3d 715, 107 Ill.Dec. 161, 506 N.E.2d 1052 (1987) (although a complaint may purport to raise an issue of material fact, summary judgment is appropriate if such issue is not further supported by evidentiary facts, and in determining the genuineness of a fact, a court should ignore personal conclusions and opinions and consider only admissible facts).

Plaintiff's reliance on Pagano is not well taken. There, the court on appeal did find an issue of fact as to whether a defective dolly supplied by the defendant to help move certain barrel drums of ink rendered the defendant liable under a theory of gratuitous bailment. However, in that case, plaintiff gave direct testimony as to specific, observable defects in the dolly which, if believed, would establish that the dolly was defective. Here, aside from the inadmissible hearsay rumors which were reported, the plaintiff himself presented no evidence to show either a defect in the hoist or that AT & T knew or should have known of any dangerous propensities in the hoist. Consequently, the evidence presented here was not effective to support a counterinference for purposes of summary judgment.

[15] Plaintiff next contends that the trial court erred in its refusal in its July 27 order to allow him leave to amend his complaint to more specifically allege facts that there was a voluntary undertaking and that it was implemented negligently. We disagree.

Section 2–1005(g) of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure (735 ILCS 5/2–1005(g) (West 1994)) provides as follows:

"(g) Amendment of pleading. Before or after the entry of a summary judgment the court shall permit pleadings to be amended upon just and reasonable terms."

The allowance of an amendment to the pleadings is in the trial court's discretion, and reversible error can only be found if there is a manifest abuse of discretion. Loyola Academy v. S & S Roof Maintenance, Inc., 146 Ill.2d 263, 166 Ill.Dec. 882, 586 N.E.2d 1211 (1992). See also Misselhorn v. Doyle, 257 Ill.App.3d 983, 195 Ill.Dec. 881, 629 N.E.2d 189 (1994); Eyman v. McDonough District Hospital, 245 Ill.App.3d 391, 184 Ill.Dec. 502, 613 N.E.2d 819 (1993).

As noted, on July 27, immediately after the trial court entered summary judgment against him, plaintiff made an oral motion to amend his complaint, as follows:

"MR. JOHNSON [Plaintiff's attorney]: [I] set it out to specifics that they undertook the duty to secure the hoist and they negligently performed that duty and as a result Plaintiff was injured based upon the Nelson v. Pippen, Phillips [sic] case, that when undertakes a duty to do something, they do so negligently, and someone is injured they are absolutely liable.

There will be no new deps. That's what the evidence is through the Plaintiff's deposition."

The court denied plaintiff's motion to amend, stating that "It's an '89 case. I'll deny the motion [to amend]."

We first note that plaintiff never made the proposed amended complaint a part of the record on appeal, except for his oral proposal before the trial judge which, without any offers of new evidence, essentially duplicates the voluntary undertaking theory which has already been argued and rejected. Plaintiff's failure to include the proposed amendment and supporting facts therefor in the record could be found to constitute a waiver in this court of his right to have the denial of his request for leave to amend reviewed. See Mendelson v. Ben A. Borenstein & Co., 240 Ill.App.3d 605, 181 Ill.Dec. 114, 608 N.E.2d 97 (1992) (plaintiff's failure to tender amended complaint or to include it in the appellate record diminished the appellate court's ability to determine whether the proposed amendment would provide a viable theory against defendant, and constituted waiver of right to a review of the denial of his request for leave to amend). See also Ignar v. Norbut, 271 Ill.App.3d 522, 207 Ill.Dec. 9, 648 N.E.2d 285 (1995) (no abuse of discretion in denying motion for leave to amend complaint where movant orally moved to amend yet failed to submit proposed amendment to trial court).

Notwithstanding waiver, even if we were to review the amendment which plaintiff orally proposed, we would find no abuse of discretion by the trial court in denying plaintiff leave to amend. As already discussed, there was ample evidence before the trial court to support its conclusion that the facts in this case as revealed in the summary judgment submissions would not permit a pleading which could allege a valid cause of action. Moreover, by the same token, even if the complaint were amended to more specifically allege a voluntary undertaking as requested by the plaintiff, the allegations of the complaint would be superseded by the extrinsic facts already submitted which as noted would dictate for summary judgment. See Werckenthein v. Bucher Petrochemical Co., 248 Ill.App.3d 282, 188 Ill.Dec. 332, 618 N.E.2d 902 (1993) (where allegations in nonmovant's complaint are contravened by movant's extrinsic submissions in summary judgment proceedings, extrinsic submissions control); East Side Fire Protection District v. City of Belleville, 221 Ill.App.3d 654, 164 Ill.Dec. 192, 582 N.E.2d 755 (1991) (nonmovant must controvert proofs offered by movant in support of motion for summary judgment and cannot merely rest on pleadings); Seefeldt v. Millikin National Bank of Decatur. The issue here is not simply that plaintiff's complaint is deficient in its framing of the issues, but that, as discussed, the testimony and evidence presented in support of his negligent voluntary undertaking theory are deficient, and fall short of establishing a genuine issue of material fact such that judgment should not be entered as a matter of law on that theory of action.

Plaintiff's reliance on Loyola Academy v. S & S Roof Maintenance, Inc., 146 Ill.2d 263, 166 Ill.Dec. 882, 586 N.E.2d 1211 (1992) is not well taken. In Loyola, the court on appeal set forth four factors to determine whether the trial court had abused its discretion in denying a section 2–1005(g) amendment, including whether the proposed amendment would cure the defective pleading, whether it would cause prejudice or surprise to other parties, whether it was timely, and whether previous opportunities to amend the pleading could be identified.

Applying these factors in order, in the instant case the question of whether plaintiff's proposed amendment would cure the defective pleading is not relevant, because as already discussed, AT & T succeeded in its motion for summary judgment not because plaintiff's complaint was improperly pleaded, but because the evidence presented at summary judgment shows no genuine issue of material fact regarding the allegations in the complaint. Werckenthein v. Bucher Petrochemical Co.; East Side Fire Protection District v. City of Belleville. Taking the second and third Loyola factors together (whether there would be prejudice or surprise to AT & T and whether the proposed amendment was timely), the record is ample to support the trial court's determination that the allowance of an amendment would in fact be prejudicial to AT & T, insofar as the amendment was being sought on the eve of trial, five years after the inception of this lawsuit, with no explanation from plaintiff as to why he never before attempted to develop the facts which would be necessary to withstand AT & T's motion for summary judgment. See Mendelson v. Ben A. Borenstein & Co. (no abuse of discretion in denying leave to amend following grant of summary judgment where proposed amendment was sought beyond the pleading stages). See also Ignarski v. Norbut.

The final Loyola factor is whether plaintiff had sufficient prior opportunities to amend. To that extent, we note that plaintiff indeed had substantial opportunities to amend. Although plaintiff complains that AT & T never gave him notice of any deficiency in his complaint which would require amendment because AT & T never filed a motion to dismiss prior to filing its motion for summary judgment, it is axiomatic that a party can amend its pleading on its own motion. See 3 R. Michael, Illinois Practice, ch. 26, at 446 (West 1989). The case of Evans v. United Bank of Illinois, N.A., 226 Ill.App.3d 526, 168 Ill.Dec. 533, 589 N.E.2d 933 (1992), upon which plaintiff relies, does give credence to plaintiff's contention under the fourth Loyola factor that the failure of AT & T to challenge his pleadings prior to its motion for summary judgment deprived plaintiff of any prior opportunity to amend. However, we note that in Evans the court on appeal did not rely on that factor alone in finding that the trial court abused its discretion in denying the plaintiff in that case leave to amend, but found that all of the Loyola factors supported that plaintiff's motion for leave to amend.

In any event, even if plaintiff were correct in his reliance upon Evans, we need not consider its application here. As already discussed, the issue here is not whether the allegations of the complaint were sufficient to state a cause of action based upon a voluntary undertaking theory, but whether the facts adduced were sufficient to create an inference to support such allegations. See Werckenthein v. Bucher Petrochemical Co.; East Side Fire Protection District v. City of Belleville. As previously noted, the fa submitted here are insufficient to raise su an inference. Hence, we find that the tr court's denial of the motion to amend was an abuse of discretion. See Regas v. Asso ated Radiologists, Ltd., 230 Ill.App.3d 9 172 Ill.Dec. 553, 595 N.E.2d 1223 (19 (where a cause of action cannot be sta even after amendment, leave to am should be denied).

appointed to you and we will not ask questions until he has been appointed—"I told him, without his attorney I wouldn't talk to him and that would be it. That he didn't have to say anything." (He said he didn't want a lawyer.) (5) If you decide to answer now with or without a lawyer, you have the right to stop questioning at any time or stop questioning and consult a lawyer—"I told him, if I start talking to you and it becomes apparent to you that you suddenly think you want an attorney to tell me and we will stop right there and we won't ask any further questions at that point. In other words, he could stop me from asking anything, at any time and I will just stop and leave the room." (He said he still wanted to talk to me.)

Dickett testified that she gave defendant the Miranda warnings one at a time, speaking slowly. After each one she asked defendant if he understood and he said he did. She testified that she told him the word attorney meant lawyer and instead of the phrase, "appoint a lawyer", she told him the court would give him a lawyer.

In contrast to this questioning by Kill and Dickett, Smith testified that she interviewed defendant on December 15, 1989, six months after the fire. In questions she posed which were intended to determine whether or not he could intelligently waive what are commonly known as "Miranda rights or Miranda warnings" she would ask him "what does this mean, and then I would say what the particular right was" and his reaction would be to "look around, scratch his head and draw a blank. He didn't say anything." From these reactions she concluded that "he didn't understand what these rights meant."

The contrast in the manner in which the police officer and assistant State's Attorney advised the defendant and the form of the questions posed to the defendant by the psychologist lead us to the conclusion that the record does not support the trial court's conclusion that defendant did not understand his rights and therefore did not knowingly and intelligently waive them. The court's grant of defendant's motion to suppress is not supported by the record.

Here we find the defendant was advised of his right to remain silent and his right to have an attorney present in language he could understand. He was advised that anything he told the officer could be used against him in court. Defendant then stated that he wanted to tell the police about the fire. He repeated the story to the officer and to the assistant State's Attorney in a coherent manner. Although he was asked to do so, he chose not have his statement taken down verbatim in writing. Since he was unable to read, he could not verify what a written statement contained.

While the State has a heavy burden to show that a defendant has waived his constitutional rights in a knowing, intelligent and voluntary manner, (Brownell, 79 Ill.2d at 516, 88 Ill.Dec. 757, 404 N.E.2d 181) we find the State has met that burden. We find the weight of the evidence establishes that defendant waived his Miranda rights in a knowing and intelligent manner. For all of the foregoing reasons the order of the trial court granting defendant's motion to suppress his statements is reversed.

Presiding Justice CERDA delivered the opinion of the court:

Plaintiff, Byong K. Choi, brought this action against defendant Commonwealth Edison Company seeking recovery for injuries sustained when plaintiff fell on a concrete floor while working at a construction site. The trial court granted defendant's motion for summary judgment. On appeal, plaintiff argues that the trial court erred in granting defendant's motion for summary judgment because a genuine issue of material fact exists. In addition, he argues that the trial court erred by failing to recognize defendant's duty to provide a safe workplace for workmen engaged in construction work on its premises and by failing to extend that duty to include taking precautions against the accumulation of water inside the building.

On January 10, 1979, plaintiff Choi was employed by Universal Power Piping, Inc. (UPP) as a welder at the Dresden Nuclear Power Plant, which is owned by defendant Commonwealth Edison Company. UPP was a subcontractor hired by Commonwealth Edison to complete installation of a decontamination flushing system in the Reactor 1 building. Plaintiff was working on the third-floor turbine deck receiving pipes brought in from the outside by UPP employees. While stored outside, the pipes became encrusted with snow and ice. Once inside, the pipes were raised from the ground floor to the third-floor turbine deck area by an overhead crane, which was operated by a Commonwealth Edison employee. Then, the pipe was taken from the crane, placed on a cart, and moved through the interlock hatch to the reactor building by UPP employees, including plaintiff. Snow and ice melted from the frozen pipes, forming puddles of water on the deck wherever the pipes were transported. Plaintiff was working in this manner all day prior to the accident.

As plaintiff and a co-worker were carrying a pipe, approximately 20 feet long and 10 inches in diameter, plaintiff slipped on water that was on the concrete floor. He fell backward, hitting his back on a pipe, and a floor spacer fell across his mid-section, causing injuries.

Previously, the appellate court upheld the trial court's summary judgment order for defendant regarding a Structural Work Act (Ill.Rev.Stat.1983, ch. 48, pars. 60 through 69). (Choi v. Commonwealth Edison Co. (1984), 129 Ill.App.3d 878, 85 Ill.Dec. 17, 473 N.E.2d 385.) In plaintiff's second amended complaint, he alleged that defendant was guilty of several negligent acts in its supervision of the construction work. Defendant filed a motion for summary judgment, arguing that under Illinois law, it had no duty to take precautions against natural accumulations of snow, ice or water that were tracked into a building. Defendant noted that the UPP foreman's deposition stated that he did not inform Edison of the condition because it was the duty of the contractor's own employees to clean up after themselves. Defendant pointed out that the snow came from pipes that plaintiff and his co-workers had brought in and carried to the area.

In response to defendant's motion for summary judgment, plaintiff argued that defendant owed him a duty to maintain a reasonably safe work place because it retained control over the construction work performed by UPP employees and could stop the work in progress for safety or other reasons. Plaintiff also argued that defendant breached that duty by failing to provide a reasonably safe workplace and by failing to stop work that was being performed in an unsafe manner. In addition, plaintiff contended that the melted snow and ice that caused the unsafe condition did not accumulate naturally, was not transported into the building by pedestrian traffic, and was caused by defendant's refusal to allow the pipes to be brought into the building and cleaned off before being transported to the work area. Plaintiff notes that the deposition of Commonwealth Edison's superintendent stated that Commonwealth Edison employees had the responsibility to clean snow and ice which came into the building, had the authority to stop work being performed in an unsafe manner, and regularly inspected the area.

Concluding that the facts were essentially undisputed, the trial court ordered summary judgment for defendant. The trial court stated that there was a common law duty of an occupier of land to exercise reasonable care for the safety of people lawfully on the premises, but that duty did not extend to a building owner being required to mop up water from an accumulation of snow, ice or water brought inside a building construction site. The trial court indicated that it would be an impossible burden placed on an owner of a building construction site to require following the independent contractor's employees around, mopping up every drip of water brought in from the outside. The trial court further ruled that Commonwealth Edison did not create the dangerous condition, but merely failed to clean up a mess which is common whenever building materials from the outside of a building are moved into a building.

The trial court analogized this case to Lohan v. Walgreens Co. (1986), 140 Ill.App.3d 171, 173, 94 Ill.Dec. 680, 488 N.E.2d 679, which ruled that a landowner has no duty to clean up snow, ice or water that is tracked into a building from a natural accumulation on the outside. The trial court made no finding whether the accumulation inside the building was natural or unnatural, but did state that the water began as a natural accumulation of snow and ice on the pipes outside, and was brought into the building the same way as people tracking it on their feet. The trial court did not consider the expert's affidavit and deposition because it was not factually based. The expert did not actually examine the premises, the court noted, but merely looked at photographs.

After the trial court denied plaintiff's motion to reconsider, plaintiff appealed the summary judgment order. Plaintiff's argument emphasizes that Commonwealth Edison owed him a duty to maintain a safe workplace even though he was employed by an independent contractor hired by Commonwealth Edison. He asserts that the duty included mopping up water that accumulated on the building's floor when snow and ice from the pipes melted onto the floor, causing puddles of water. Plaintiff relies on cases holding that the landowner owes a duty to the employee of an independent contractor if the owner retains sufficient control over the contractor's work. Claudy v. City of Sycamore (1988), 170 Ill.App.3d 990, 120 Ill.Dec. 812, 524 N.E.2d 994; See Haberer v. Village of Sauget (1987), 158 Ill.App.3d 313, 110 Ill.Dec. 628, 511 N.E.2d 805; Tsourmas v. Dineff (1987), 161 Ill.App.3d 897, 113 Ill.Dec. 758, 515 N.E.2d 743; Weber v. Northern Illinois Gas Co. (1973), 10 Ill.App.3d 625, 295 N.E.2d 41; Pasko v. Commonwealth Edison Co. (1973), 14 Ill.App.3d 481, 302 N.E.2d 642. These cases state that the duty owed is to maintain a reasonably safe workplace.

Even if the water began as a natural accumulation on the outside, plaintiff asserts, Commonwealth Edison's intervening acts caused the water to be unnaturally accumulated on the inside of the building. In the alternative, plaintiff states, the condition was aggravated by Commonwealth Edison because it would not allow the pipes to be stored inside where the snow and ice could be safely removed after it melted. Furthermore, plaintiff argues, the pipes were brought in from the outside and loaded onto an overhead crane operated by a Commonwealth Edison employee. The overhead crane then took the pipes to the third floor of the building, where UPP employees transported the pipes through a tunnel into the reactor building. By the time the pipes reached the third floor, the snow and ice was melting, and water from the pipes was dripping on the floor. It is on that water that plaintiff fell and injured himself.

Defendant responds that the water was a natural accumulation tracked in from the outside by UPP employees, including plaintiff. It asserts that this situation should be treated the same as a natural accumulation tracked in from the outside by pedestrian traffic, thus creating no duty by the landowner.

Defendant relies on two types of cases: those concerning natural accumulations of snow, ice or water outdoors and those concerning snow, ice or water tracked into a building from the outside, whether tracked in by pedestrians' shoes, coats or umbrellas. In Lohan, 140 Ill.App.3d at 172, 94 Ill.Dec. 680, 488 N.E.2d 679, the plaintiff slipped and fell on water that had been tracked from the outside into the common hallway of the defendants' stores. The appellate court ruled that the owners did not have a duty to continuously remove the tracks left by customers who had walked through the natural accumulations of snow or water outside, tracking them inside. Even if the owner has knowledge that the accumulation caused a dangerous condition, the court stated, there is no duty if the accumulation is natural. (Lohan, 140 Ill.App.3d at 173, 94 Ill.Dec. 680, 488 N.E.2d 679.) See also Handy v. Sears, Roebuck & Co. (1989), 182 Ill.App.3d 969, 131 Ill.Dec. 471, 538 N.E.2d 846 (summary judgment in favor of defendant store affirmed where plaintiff slipped and fell on water located within store); *Shoemaker v. tiff fell on snow and slush covered steps of bus owned and operated by defendant).

[1, 2] The purpose of summary judgment is to determine whether a triable issue of fact exists. (Haberer, 158 Ill.App.3d at 316, 110 Ill.Dec. 628, 511 N.E.2d 805.) It may be granted if the pleadings, exhibits, affidavits, and depositions on file establish that there is no genuine issue of material fact, and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. (Ill.Rev. Stat.1985, ch. 110, par. 2–1005(c); Branson v. R & L Investment, Inc. (1990), 196 Ill.App.3d 1088, 1090, 143 Ill.Dec. 689, 554 N.E.2d 624.) Although the plaintiff does not have to try his case, he must provide a factual basis which would arguably entitle him to judgment. (Handy, 182 Ill.App.3d at 972, 131 Ill.Dec. 471, 538 N.E.2d 846.) The determination that summary judgment is appropriate will not be reversed absent an abuse of the trial court's discretion such that the plaintiff's right to fundamental justice is violated. Breeze v. Payne (1989), 181 Ill.App.3d 720, 727, 130 Ill.Dec. 386, 537 N.E.2d 453.

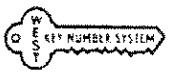

[3–5] Commonwealth Edison owed plaintiff the duty to maintain a reasonably safe workplace, but it did not extend to taking precautions against water tracked inside from a natural accumulation outside. Duty is determined by considering a number of factors: the foreseeability of harm (Breeze, 181 Ill.App.3d at 727, 130 Ill.Dec. 386, 537 N.E.2d 453), the likelihood of the injury, the magnitude of the burden of guarding against it, the consequences of placing that burden on the defendant, public policy, and social considerations. Dealers Service & Supply Co. v. St. Louis National Stock. (1987), 155 Ill.App.3d 1075, 1080, 108 Ill.Dec. 664, 508 N.E.2d 1241.

[6, 7] In Illinois, a landowner owes no duty where a natural accumulation of snow, ice or water exists on the outside or is tracked into a building by pedestrian traffic. (Lohan, 140 Ill.App.3d at 172, 94 Ill.Dec. 680, 488 N.E.2d 679.) However, a property owner does have a duty and may be liable where the injuries are a result of an unnatural or artificial accumulation, or a natural condition aggravated by the owner's use of the area and creation of the condition. (Handy v. Sears, Roebuck & Co. (1989), 182 Ill.App.3d 969, 971, 131 Ill. Dec. 471, 538 N.E.2d 846.) To establish a duty, the plaintiff must make an affirmative showing of an unnatural accumulation or an aggravation of a natural condition before recovery will be allowed. (McCann v. Bethesda Hospital (1979), 80 Ill.App.3d 544, 549, 35 Ill.Dec. 879, 400 N.E.2d 16.) Plaintiff made no such showing in this case.

[8] Therefore, summary judgment for defendant was proper. The water in the nuclear power plant was a continuation of a natural accumulation. There was no evidence presented that Commonwealth Edison did anything to aggravate the condition. To require an owner of a construction site to follow workmen around and immediately clean up any melting snow, ice or water that had been brought in from the outside would be too high a burden.

c. Objection. This interrogatory is better directed to David Gagnon. Answering subject to objection, the answering party do now know whether or by whom David Gagnon was trained in the use of chain saws. Answering further, the answering parties are aware that Mr. Gagnon has used chain saws many times in the past and he appears/appeared to know what he is doing.

12. What was the scope of work or task David Gagnon was engaged in with use of the chain saw at or about the time of the alleged accident.

ANSWER:

To the extent "scope of work" or "engaged" constitute legal conclusions, the answering Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 12. Answering subject to objection, at the time of the alleged occurrence, the answering Defendants were in the process of replacing an old shed on their property. Paul Dulberg helped David Gagnon tear down the old shed. The answering Defendants further believe that Mr. Dulberg took the components of the old shed to his property for eventual reassembly. On the date of the occurrence, Mr. Dulberg was helping David Gagnon take down several trees to make room for a new shed. On information and belief, prior to the occurrence Mr. Gagnon and Mr. Dulberg had been cutting logs and tree branches into smaller sections without incident. While in the process of cutting tree branches Paul Dulberg unexpectedly and without warning moved his right arm directly in the path of the running chain saw. Answering further, the answering Defendants did not engage, hire or pay either individual for their activities on site. Nor did either answering Defendant dictate, control or otherwise supervise the methods and means by which Mr. Gagnon and Mr. Dulberg performed the tree and branch cutting at issue.

13. Who (names and addresses) requested or chose to engage Gagnon in the "task" of use and operation of the chain saw at or about the time of the alleged accident.

ANSWER:

To the extent the words "chose" and "engage" constitute legal conclusions, the answering Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 13. Answering subject to objection, David Gagnon undertook the tree cutting and trimming in question as a favor to his parents. He was not engaged, hired or paid for the activities in question.

14. What instructions or guidance, if any, was given to Gagnon prior to Plaintiff's alleged injury/accident with regard to how he was to perform the chain saw work at the premises.

ANSWER: See response to Interrogatory No. 11.

Subject: Findings and Conclusions for Dulberg v. Gagnon and McGuire

After reviewing the Depositions of Mr. Dulberg and Mr. Gagnon and the chainsaw owner's manual, the following observations and conclusions were made:

Mr. Dulberg was cut on the forearm (bottom) by a chainsaw while helping Mr. Gagnon limb a pine tree on the property of Mr. Gagnon's parents – Bill and Carol McGuire. While power tools such as this chainsaw make work more efficient, they carry hazards such as experienced in this incident. Manufacturers and retailers of power equipment go to great lengths to reduce the dangers associated with such equipment through training and warnings listed in owner's manuals. The chainsaw in this incident appears from a photograph to be a EFCO MT3500 purchased by the McGuires close to the date of the incident and probably was a new saw and probably equipped with an owner's manual. Depositions from both Mr. Gagnon and Mr. Dulberg indicated that they received no additional chainsaw training. Therefore, the owner's manual and their field experience were the primary sources of instructions for the safe use of the saw.

Mr. Gagnon was the only operator of the saw and, therefore, was responsible for its use. While the saw was appropriate for the tasks involved, there are safe and unsafe activities that could have taken place. The owner's manual shows 2 bar lengths for this saw – 14 and 16 inches. It appears that the McGuires chose the 16 inch bar. For the work involved, the shorter bars would have been safer and might have prevented or reduced the injury. It appears that Mr. Gagnon performed some unsafe acts which lead to Mr. Dulberg being cut. Also, Mr. and Mrs. McGuire who owned the saw apparently did not heed the warnings posted on page 2 of the owners manual which states: "Allow persons only who understand this manual to operate your chainsaw."

Cuts with chainsaws cause more damage than those caused by power or hand tools having a thinner blade such as that of a table saw. Chainsaws are designed to take out a "kerf" of about ¼ -inch, so if someone is cut, the sides of the cut are separated by this gap (or kerf) removing a chunk of meat and causing excessive bleeding and organ damage.

From the depositions, there is no mention of safety apparel – hard hat with ear and eye protection, safety chaps or pants nor safety gloves. (See page 7 of the owners manual for proper safety apparel.)

Proper safety apparel may have eliminated or reduced the severity of the injury.

Mr. Gagnon and the McGuires' goal was to remove a tall pine tree (40 – 50 feet in height) in their yard without damaging their buildings. From depositions, Mr. Gagnon chose to delimb this tree as it stood in a vertical position. According to Mr. Dulberg, Mr. Gagnon did this by climbing and cutting off limbs as he climbed the tree using limb stubs as a ladder where he placed his feet. In the owner's manual on page 9, it tells to never cut limbs from a ladder or a tree and always cut from a firm foundation or platform. Not having seen the exact circumstances, it cannot be stated unequivocally, but my recommendations would have been to fell the tree first before trying to remove any limbs higher than could be reached safely from the ground. Once the tree has been felled on the ground, the secondary limbs could have been removed while the primary limbs were still attached to the main bole. Bucking the primary limbs into firewood lengths could also be done in a safer fashion with them attached to the bole. Doing the work in this fashion would have eliminated the conditions of where Mr. Dulberg was cut. From Mr. Gagnon's deposition, there was room to fell the pine tree with its described height.

The EFCO MT3500 has a number of features designed to operate it safely. The handle where the accelerator trigger is located has a throttle trigger lockout device that must be depressed before the engine can accelerate which means that Mr. Gagnon had a tight hold on the trigger handle when the saw accelerated before cutting Mr. Dulberg. Mr. Dulberg states in his deposition that he was holding the butt end of a primary limb, and Mr. Gagnon was removing the secondary limbs moving from the tip of that primary limb toward the butt. The accident occurred after Mr. Gagnon removed the last secondary limb and was moving toward him with the saw. The saw accelerated with the bar and chain moving upward contacting the bottom of Mr. Dulberg's arm.

There was no mention of the chain brake being used. The MT3500 has a lever mounted just forward of the front handle. This lever serves to stop and lock the cutting chain movement when pushed forward; when in the rear position, the chain travels freely on the bar. On page 8 of the owners manual, it is recommended that the chain brake be set whenever the operator moves from place to place. Also, the bar should be facing to the rear of the direction of travel so that the sawyer would not fall on the bar and chain if he were to trip and fall. This applies directly to this incident. If Mr. Gagnon had set his chain brake and/or put the bar in a rearward position as he finished cutting the last secondary limb, Mr. Dulberg would not have been cut.

The MT3500 comes with a saw chain designed to reduce kickback. Kickback is a violent upward action of a chainsaw bar when the chain on the upper quadrant of the bar's tip comes in contact with an object. While this chain does not completely eliminate kickback, it helps. It is assumed here that the chain supplied by the manufacturer had not been replaced. In addition, if the saw chain had come in contact with some object that caused a kickback, the chain brake would have instantly stopped the chain as the bar traveled vertically and Mr. Gagnon's hand activated the chain brake. This brake activation would probably have protected Mr. Dulberg. Therefore, it is doubtful that a kickback occurred.

Page 7 of the owner's manual recommends that other people (bystanders) be kept at least 35 feet from someone operating a chainsaw. This is because the chainsaw operator should be focusing his attention on his task, not bystanders. Chainsaws are noisy and anyone around them should be wearing ear protection thus muffling emergency calls for help. It is recommended that bright clothing be worn by all bystanders and operators to help operators see people who might inadvertently move into the danger zones. This distance of 35 feet may be a bit overcautious, but the intent is to keep bystanders beyond the reach of the saw, limbs or trees being cut. The operator is the person in control of his saw and responsible for whatever results from his cutting. When trees are being felled, bystanders should be beyond the height of the tree; 2 tree heights is the recommended distance. If this rule had been followed, Mr. Dulberg would not have been cut.

Page 7 of the owner's manual has some additional recommendations that might apply to this incident. Cutting with chainsaws is fatiguing even for professional sawyers who use their saws everyday. For the occasional operator, chainsaw work can be very exhaustive. In this incident, Mr. Gagnon not only used a chainsaw when he was not accustomed to using one, but he also climbed a tree and delimbed it as he climbed. By the time Mr. Gagnon stop limbing and started removing secondary limbs from the primary limbs, he must have been very fatigued even with frequent breaks as described by Mr. Dulberg. The warning of the owner's manual not to cut when fatigued is very important in that fatigue impairs judgment, reduces response time and probably impairs reflexive actions. Simply put, we make mistakes when we are tired.

Another factor of this incident may have been a loose chain. New saw chains stretch when first used. This saw was probably new; this may have been its first application. The owner's manual discussed how to tension the chain on page 17 and describes proper break-in of the chain. The chain should have been tightened after the engine had become warm and later after some use. A loose chain might jump off the bar. Pertinent to this incident was that a loose chain will not decelerate as fast as a properly tightened one. Without the chain brake engaged, the chain continues to travel along the bar until it naturally comes to a stop. Mr. Dulberg said he tried to move away from the saw chain but could not escape its travel path. With a properly tensioned chain, it may have stopped before contacting his arm or at least been traveling at a slower speed and caused less damage to his arm.

After the review of the above evidence, it is my opinion that Mr. Gagnon was fully responsible for this accident and his parents – the McGuires – were also somewhat responsible by letting their son, Mr. Gagnon, use their chainsaw – a potentially dangerous tool – without enforcing the warnings and instructions available in the owner's manual. Mr. Gagnon was in full control of the saw and Mr. Dulberg was his assistant. Mr. Gagnon could have prevented this accident by following the instructions given in the owner's manual. The instructions in the owner's manual are quite clear and unambiguous, and if followed, would have prevented this accident. Mr. Gagnon admits that he was relatively inexperienced in the use of chainsaws, and therefore, should have been more careful while using such a potentially dangerous tool.

DEFENDANTS THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C. AND HANS MAST'S MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF TO ANSWER WRITTEN DISCOVERY

Defendants The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. and Hans Mast ("Popovich"), by and through their attorneys, Karbal, Cohen, Economou, Silk & Dunne, LLC, for their motion to compel Plaintiff to answer written discovery, state as follows:

1) On November 28, 2017, Plaintiff Paul Dulberg ("Dulberg") filed a complaint for legal malpractice against Defendants, more than two years after Defendants withdrew their appearance for Dulberg in his personal injury action against Defendant David Gagnon in Dulberg v. Gagnon, Case No. 12 LA 178 in the Circuit Court of McHenry County, Illinois (the underlying complaint), which arose out of a chainsaw accident.

2) At the time of the original filing in the instant matter, Plaintiff was represented by the Gooch Law Firm, and the complaint against Popovich was signed by Thomas W. Gooch, III. (Complaint, Ex. A)

3) In ¶20 of Exhibit A, Dulberg invoked the "discovery rule" in an attempt to toll the two year statute of limitations for legal malpractice claims under 735 ILCS 5/13-214.3. He alleged that Mast and Popovich had provided Dulberg false and misleading information in connection with his settlement in the premises liability case with Gagnon's co-defendants, Bill and Carolyn McGuire in the premises liability case, and that Dulberg was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

4) The Gooch firm withdrew from representing Dulberg in the instant case, and the Clinton Law Firm substituted as his counsel, with attorney Julia Williams as the primary handling attorney.

5) On December 6, 2018, Dulberg filed his second amended complaint in this case (Ex., B) filed by the Clinton Law Firm. As compared to Exhibit A, Dulberg's allegations regarding the "discovery" on his cause action against Popovich are slightly different. In ¶¶ 56 and 57 of his second amended complaint, Dulberg alleges that he did not learn that false and misleading information had been provided to him until the mediation in December 2016 based on the expert opinions that Dulberg retained for the mediation.

6) Dulberg gave a discovery deposition in this case on February 19, 2020 (Ex. C). Dulberg was questioned about the "discovery" of his cause of action against Popovich and his law firm beginning on page 106 of his deposition (See also, page 108 where plaintiff Dulberg testified that his attorney at the time, Randy Boudin had told him to seek an independent opinion from an attorney that handles malpractice matters, and that Dulberg received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016 from Thomas Gooch.) Dulberg again confirmed that Gooch provided him with the legal opinion on December 16, at page 112 of his deposition. See also, pp. 113 and 114.

7) At Dulberg's deposition, Ms. Williams asserted the attorney-client privilege on behalf of her client relative to Gooch's advice in December 2016, but over the objection allowed

Dulberg to testify concerning the substantive the discussions. The substantive testimony was sparse and vague. At p. 126 of his deposition, Dulberg agreed that his discussion with any malpractice lawyer in December 2016 is responsive to interrogatory no. 1 from Hans Mast (Ex. D). At p. 127 of his deposition, Dulberg responded to the following question:

Q: How did you find out that Mast and Popovich breached the duty of care to you? Because Gooch told you, right?

A: Yes.

Q: That's what you've alleged here in this complaint.

A: Yes.

8) On July 2, Popovich served supplemental production requests aimed at Dulberg's discovery of the malpractice as alleged in December of 2016, including the following production requests. (Ex. E)

9) On July 30, 2020, Julia Williams, then Dulberg's counsel requested 28 days to respond to Popovich's supplemental request for production. Counsel for Popovich agreed, but then received notice of the Clinton Law Firm's motion to withdraw on August 18, 2020.

10) On September 10, 2020, this Honorable Court granted the Clinton Law firm's motion to withdraw as Dulberg's counsel. Dulberg currently has a pro se appearance filed on his own behalf.

11) The attorney-client privilege exists to encourage and promote full and frank consultation between a client and legal advisor by removing the fear of compelled disclosure of information. *Waste Management, Inc. v. ascertaining that the truth which is essential to the proper disposition of a lawsuit. Center Partners, Ltd. v. Growth Head GP, LLC, 2012 IL 113107, ¶ 35; Daily, 2018 IL App (5th) 150384 at ¶ 23. While the Illinois Supreme Court has not had occasion to find an "at issue" exception to the attorney-client privilege, it has clearly recognized that such an exception exists where the client voluntarily injects into a case either a factual or legal issue, the truthful resolution of which requires examination of confidential communications. Center Partners, Ltd., 2012 IL 113107 at ¶ 35; Daily, 2018 IL App (5th) 150384 at Irri 24-25. The Illinois Supreme Court in Fischel & Kahn, Ltd. v. Van Straaten Gallery, Inc. illustrated that the test in determining whether the exception exists is whether or not the communications in question are necessary to resolve the truthfulness of a factual or legal issue that was introduced by the client holding the privilege. 189 Ill. 2d 579 (2000). Furthermore, when a plaintiff places at issue in a case the extent to which multiple attorneys representing it proximately caused its alleged damages, all communications between the plaintiff and its attorneys are discoverable "to truthfully resolve the factual and legal issues necessary to adjudicate the causation element of plaintiff's claims." Daily, 2018 IL App (5th) 150384 at ¶¶31- 32 (finding that the "at-issue" exception applied because "there is an issue of whether [plaintiffs' attorneys] contributed to the cause . . . and the relative contribution of each to the plaintiffs' damages").

12) In Lama v. Preskill, 353 Ill. App. 3d 300 (2nd Dist. 2004), the Plaintiff's husband met with an attorney 4 days after her medical procedure (in March 1999) that was the subject of a medical malpractice claim. The claim was untimely filed, and the doctor sought production of records relative to the husband's meeting with the attorney. The patient asserted that production would violate the attorney-client privilege. The court affirmed the trial court's finding that the privilege was waived when she voluntarily injected the statute of limitations issue into her case, alleging she did not discover her medical malpractice claim until June 1999. This case is on point and binding.

13) At pages 133-142 of his deposition, Dulberg admitted that he communicated in writing with Gooch regarding Popovich's breaches of the standard of care, and the bases for same.

14) Based on all of the above, Dulberg has placed the discovery of his malpractice claim "at issue" and must produce any and all communications which form the basis for his "discovery" of his malpractice claims, and the bases for his argument that the 2 year statute of limitations should be tolled.

WHEREFORE Defendants The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. and Hans Mast, respectfully request that this Court grant their motion to compel Plaintiff to answer written discovery and produce requested documents and that Plaintiff be required to answer the outstanding written discovery and produce all documents requested in Exhibit D within 14 days of the presentation of this motion, deny any and all objections to said production, including any objection based on the attorney-client privilege, and for any and all further relief this Court deems just and appropriate.

4. That due to the actions and status of MAST in relation to POPOVICH, the actions and inactions of MAST are directly attributable to his employer, partnership, or principal, being THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPVICH, P.C.

5. Venue is therefore claimed proper in McHenry County, Illinois, as the Defendants transact substantial and regular business in and about McHenry County in the practice of law, where their office is located.

6. On or about June 28, 2011, your Plaintiff, DULBERG was involved in a horrendous accident, having been asked by his neighbors Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, in assisting a David Gagnon in the cutting down of a tree on the McGuire property. DULBERG lived in the neighborhood.

7. At this time, Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw he was using causing it to strike DULBERG. This caused substantial and catastrophic injuries to DULBERG, including but not limited to great pain and suffering, current as well as future medical expenses, in an amount in excess of $260,000.00, along with lost wages in excess of $250,000.00, and various other damages.

8. In May of 2012, DULBERG retained THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C., pursuant to a written retainer agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9. A copy of the Complaint filed by MAST on his own behalf, and on behalf of DULBERG, is attached hereto as Exhibit B, and the allegations of that Complaint are fully incorporated into this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

10. An implied term of the retainer agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, was that at all times, the Defendants would exercise their duty of due care towards their client and conform their acts and actions within the standard of care every attorney owes his client.

11. That as Exhibit B reveals, Defendants property filed suit against not only the operator of the chain saw, but also his principals, Caroline McGuire and William McGuire, who purportedly were supervising him in his work on the premises.

12. At the time of filing of the aforesaid Complaint, MAST certified pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 137, that he had made a diligent investigation of the facts and circumstances around the Complaint he filed, and further had ascertained the appropriate law. MAST evidently believed a very good and valid cause of action existed against Caroline McGuire and William McGuire.

13. The matter proceeded through the normal stages of litigation until sometime in late 2013 or early 2014, when MAST met with DULBERG and other family members and advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and told DULBERG he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuire's for the sum of $5,000.00. DULBERG, having no choice in the matter, reluctantly agreed with MAST and to accept the sum of $5,000.00 releasing not only William and Caroline McGuire, but also Auto-Owners Insurance Company from any further responsibility or liability in the matter. A copy of the aforesaid general release and settlement agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

14. MAST and POPOVICH continued to represent DULBERG through to and including March of 2015, following which DULBERG and the Defendants terminated their relationship.

15. Continuously throughout the period of representation, MAST and POPOVICH represented repeatedly to DULBERG there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and lulled DULBERG into believing that the matter was being properly handled. Then, due to a claimed failure of communication, MAST and POPOVICH withdrew from the representation of DULBERG.

16. Thereafter, DULBERG retained other attorneys and proceeded to a binding mediation before a retired Circuit Judge, where DULBERG received a binding mediation award of $660,000.00 in gross, and a net award of $561,000.00. Unfortunately, a "high-low agreement" had been executed by DULBERG, reducing the maximum amount he could recover to $300,000.00 based upon the insurance policy available. The award was substantially more than that sum of money, and could have been recovered from McGuire's had they not been dismissed from the Complaint. A copy of the aforesaid Mediation Award is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

17. The McGuire's were property owners and had property insurance covering injuries or losses on their property, as well as substantial personal assets, including the property location where the accident took place at 1016 West Elder Avenue, in the City of McHenry, Illinois. McGuire's were well able to pay all, or a portion of the binding mediation award had they still remained parties.

18. DULBURG, in his relationship with POPOVICH and MAST, cooperated in all ways with them, furnishing all necessary information as required, and frequently conferred with them.

19. Until the time of the mediation award, DULBURG had no reason to believe he could not recover the full amount of his injuries, based on POPOVICH'S and MAST'S representations to DULBERG that he could recover the full amount of his injuries from Gagnon, and that the inclusion of the McGuire's would only complicate the case.

20. Following the execution of the mediation agreement with the "high-low agreement" contained therein, and the final mediation award, DULBURG realized for the first time that the information MAST and POPOVICH had given DULBERG was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuire's was a serious and substantial mistake. Following the mediation, DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling Legal Malpractice matters, and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

21. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBURG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:

a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuire's) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG;

b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG;

d) Failed to understand the law pertaining to a property owner's rights, duties and responsibilities to someone invited onto their property;

e) Improperly urged DULBURG to accept a nonsensical settlement from the property owners, and dismissed them from all further responsibility;

f) Failed to appreciate and understand further moneys could not be received as against Gagnon, and that the McGuire's and their obvious liability were a very necessary party to the litigation;

g) Falsely advised DULBURG throughout the period of their representation, that the actions taken regarding the McGuire's was proper in all ways and respects, and that DULBURG had no choice but to accept the settlement;

h) Failed to properly explain to DULBURG all ramifications of accepting the McGuire settlement, and giving him the option of retaining alternative counsel to review the matter;

i) Continually reassured DULBURG that the course of action as to the property owners was proper and appropriate;

j) Were otherwise negligent in their representation of DULBERG, concealing from him necessary facts for DULBURG to make an informed decision as to the McGuire's, instead coercing him into signing a release and settlement agreement and accept a paltry sum of $5,000.00 for what was a grievous injury.

22. That DULBERG suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of MAST and POPOVICH in urging DULBURG to release the McGuire's, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of MAST and THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, PAUL DULBERG prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

4. As an agent, employee, or principal in Popovich, Popovich is liable for Mast's actions alleged herein.

5. Venue is proper in McHenry County, Illinois, as the Defendants transact substantial and regular business in and about McHenry County in the practice of law, where their office is located.

B. Relevant Facts

6. On or about June 28, 2011, Dulberg assisted Caroline McGuire ("Caroline"), William McGuire ("Williams") (Caroline and William collectively referred to herein as "the McGuires"), and David Gagnon ("Gagnon") in cutting down a tree on the McGuire's property.

7. Dulberg lives in the next neighborhood over from the McGuire family.

9. David Gagon is Caroline's son and William's stepson.

10. On June 28, 2011, at the Property, Gagnon was operating a chainsaw to remove branches from a tree and cut it down on the Property.

11. The McGuire's purchased and owned the chainsaw that was being utilized to trim, remove branches, and cut down the tree.

12. Dulberg was invited to the McGuire's property to see if he wanted any of the wood from the tree.

15. Gagnon and the McGuires asked Dulberg to assist with trimming and removal of the tree.

16. Gagnon was acting on behalf of Caroline and William and at their direction.

17. Caroline, William, and Gagnon all knew or show have known that a chainsaw was dangerous and to take appropriate precautions when utilizing the chain saw.

18. The safety information was readily available to Caroline and William as the safety instructions are included with the purchase of the chainsaw.

19. It is reasonably foreseeable that the failure to take appropriate caution and safety measures could result in serious injury.

20. The likelihood of injury when not properly utilizing the chainsaw or not following the safety precautions is very high.

21. The safety instructions outlined are easy to follow and do not place a large burden on the operator of the chainsaw or the owner of the property.

22. Caroline, William, and Gagnon had a duty to exercise appropriate caution and follow the safety instructions for the chainsaw.

23. Caroline, William, and Gagnon breached that duty by either not exercising appropriate care, failing to follow the safety instructions, or failing to instruct Gagnon to exercise appropriate care and/or follow the safety instructions.

24. Caroline and William, owners of the property and the chainsaw, instructed Gagnon to use the chain saw despite Gagnon not being a trained in operating the chainsaw.

25. Gagnon was operating the chain saw in close proximity to Dulberg.

26. Neither Gagnon nor Dulberg were provided protective equipment when operating or assisting with operating the chainsaw.

27. Gagnon failed to utilize the chainsaw in compliance with the safety measures outlined in the owner's manual.

28. Caroline and William failed to instruct and require that Gagnon utilize the chainsaw only in compliance with the safety measures outlined in the owner's manual.

29. Gagnon lost control of the chainsaw that he was using and it struck Dulberg in the right arm, cutting him severely.

30. Dulberg incurred substantial and catastrophic injuries, including, but not limited to, pain and suffering, loss of use of his right arm, current and future medical expenses in amount in excess of $260,000, lost wages in excess of $250,000, and other damages.

31. In May 2012, Dulberg hired Mast and Popovich to represent him in prosecuting his claims against Gagnon and the McGuires. Exhibit A.

32. Mast and Popovich, on behalf of Dulberg filed a complaint against Gagnon and the McGuires. Exhibit B.

33. Mast and Popovich entered into an attorney client relationship with Dulberg.

34. Based upon the attorney client relationship, Mast and Popovich owed professional duties to Dulberg, including to a duty of care.

35. On behalf of Dulberg, Mast and Popovich prosecuted claims against both Gagnon and the McGuire's.

36. The claims against Gagnon were resolved later through binding mediation with new counsel.

37. The claims against the McGuires included (a) common law premises liability, (b) statutory premises liability, (c) common law negligence, and (d) vicarious liability for the acts of their son and agent.

38. In late 2013 or early, Mast urged Dulberg to settle the claims against the McGuire's for $5,000.

39. On November 18, 2013, Mast wrote two emails to Dulberg urging Dulberg to accept the $5,000.00, "the McGuire's atty has offered us (you) $5,000 in full settlement of the claim against the McGuires only. As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery...." * * * "So if we do not accept their $5,000 they will simply file a motion and get out of the case for free. That's the only other option is letting them file motion getting out of the case". (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

40. Similarly, on November 20, 2013, Mast emailed Dulberg urging him to accept the $5,000.00 otherwise "the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion." (See Emails attached as Group Exhibit C.)

41. On or around December 2013 or January 2014, Mast met with Dulberg and again advised them there was no cause of action against William McGuire and Caroline McGuire, and verbally told Dulberg that he had no choice but to execute a release in favor of the McGuires for the sum of $5,000.00 and if he did not, he would get nothing.

42. During that same time frame, Mast advised Dulberg that the Restatement of Torts 318 was the only mechanism to recover from the McGuires and that Illinois did not recognize the Restate of Torts 318, thus Dulberg did not have any viable claims against the McGuires.

43. Mast failed to advise or inform Dulberg of other basis for recovery against the McGuires.

44. Based upon Mast's erroneously advice that Dulberg's claims against the McGuire's were not viable and that Dulberg would not recover if he pursued the claims, Dulberg settled with the McGuire's and their insurance company, Auto-Owners Insurance Company, for $5,000, which included a release of all claims against the McGuire's and claim for indemnification under the McGuire's insurance policy. Exhibit D (Settlement).

45. Mast also told Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was limited to $100,000.

46. From 2013 forward, Mast and Popovich represented repeatedly to Dulberg that there was no possibility of any liability against William and/or Caroline McGuire and/or Auto-Owners Insurance Company, and led Dulberg to believe that the matter was being properly handled.

47. Mast also reassured Dulberg that Dulberg would be able to receive the full amount of any eventual recovery from Gagnon.

48. After accepting the $5,000 settlement, Dulberg wrote Mast an email on January 29, 2014 stating "I trust your judgment." (See Email attached as Exhibit E.)

49. Mast and Popovich continued to represent Dulberg into 2015 and continuously assured him that his case was being handled properly.

50. The McGuires owned their home, had homeowner's insurance, and had other property that could have been utilized to pay a judgment against them and in favor of Dulberg.

51. Dulberg cooperated with and appropriately assisted Mast and Popovich in prosecuting the claims against Gagnon and the McGuires.

52. In December of 2016, Dulberg participated in binding mediation related to his claims against Gagnon.

53. In December of 2016, Dulberg was awarded a gross amount of $660,000 and a net award of $561,000 after his contributory negligence was considered.

54. Dulberg was only able to recovery approximately $300,000 of the award from Gagnon's insurance and was unable to collect from Gagnon personally.

55. Only after Dulberg obtained an award against Gagnon did he discover that his claims against the McGuires were viable and valuable.

56. Following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, Dulberg realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information Mast and Popovich had given Dulberg was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake.

57. It was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinions that Dulberg retained for the mediation, that Dulberg became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000.00 on an "all or nothing" basis.

58. Mast and Popovich, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed Dulberg by violating the standard of care owed Dulberg in the following ways and respects:

a) failed to fully and properly investigate the claims and/or basis for liability against the McGuires;

b) failed to properly obtain information through discovery regarding McGuires assets, insurance coverages, and/or ability to pay a judgement and/or settlement against them;

c) failed to accurately advise Dulberg of the McGuires' and Gagnon's insurance coverage related to the claims against them and/or Dulberg's ability to recover through McGuires'and Gagnon's insurance policies, including, but not limited to, incorrectly informing

Dulberg that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000" and no insurance compnay would pay close to that;

d) failed to take such actions as were necessary during their respective representation of Dulberg to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed and/or were principals of Gagnon, and who sought the assistance Dulberg by for example failing to obtain an expert;

e) failed to accurately advise Dulberg regarding the McGuires' liability, likelihood of success of claims against the McGuires, the McGuires' ability pay any judgment or settlement against them through insurance or other assets, and/or necessity of prosecuting the all the claims against both the McGuires and Gagnon in order to obtain a full recovery;

f) Coerced Dulberg, verbally and though emails, into accepting a settlement with the McGuires for $5,000 by misleading Dulberg into believing that he had no other choice but to accept the settlement or else "The McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion."

59. As a direct result of Mast and Popovich's wrongful actions, Dulberg suffered serious and substantial damages, not only as a result of the injury as set forth in the binding mediation award, but due to the direct actions of Mast and Popovich in urging Dulberg to release the McGuires, lost the sum of well over $300,000.00 which would not have occurred but for the acts of Mast and The Law Offices of Thomas Popovich, P.C.

WHEREFORE, your Plaintiff, Paul Dulberg prays this Honorable Court to enter judgment on such verdict as a jury of twelve (12) shall return, together with the costs of suit and such other and further relief as may be just, all in excess of the jurisdictional minimums of this Honorable Court.

Morning Hans,
Ok we can meet. I will call Shelia today and set up a time.
Please send me a link to the current Illinois statute citing that the property owner is not liable for work done on their property resulting in injury to a neighbor.
I need to read it myself and any links to recent case law in this area would be helpful as well.
Thanks,
Paul

The legality of it all is that a property owner does not have legal liability for a worker (whether friend, son or otherwise) who does the work on his time, using his own independent skills. Here, I deposed the McGuires, and they had nothing to do with how Dave did the work other than to request the work to be done. They had no control on how Dave wielded the chain saw and cut you. Its that simple. We don't have to accept the $5,000, but if we do not, the McGuires will get out for FREE on a motion. So that's the situation.

Just because Dave was doing the work doesn't mean they were not trying to tell their kid what to do. They told him plenty of times throughout the day what to do. How is that not supervising?

They all left me out in the yard screaming for help while they were busy making sure they were covered.

She even went as far as to finally call the Emergency Room after I was already there just to tell me she was covered.

How selfish are people when they worry about if their insured over helping the person who was hurt and bleeding badly in their yard.

I'm glad she got her answer and had to share it with me only to find out her coverage won't even pay the medical bills.

I'm not happy with the offer.

As far as John Choyinski, he knows he has to call you and said he will tomorrow.

As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now. You probably won't see any of it due to liens etc. but it will offset the costs deducted from any eventual recovery....

Ok, it's signed and in the mail.
Hope that some yahoo in the govt. doesn't someday decide to go after everyone they think they might get a dollar out of and end up holding me responsible for the McGuires fees incurred while they fight it out.
I'm not in the business of warranting, insuring or protecting the McGuires from government. Especially for only 5 grand. For that kind of protection it could cost millions but I trust your judgement.

How hard is it to sue an atty?

And yes I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case...

The issue of my word vs David Gagnons... Did he cut me or did I cut myself?

Of coarse he cut me.

Next issue please?

I've been telling you over a year now the problems with the case and you just don't see them. You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear - it is not. My guess is that seven out of 10 times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I have been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to. There's only $100,000 in coverage. Allstate will never offer anything near the policy limits therefore there's no chance to settle the case. The only alternative is to take the case to trial and I am not interested in doing that. I will wait for you to find a new attorney. I can't assist you any further in this case. Just let me know.

(WHEREUPON, the witness was duly sworn.)
PAUL DULBERG, called as the plaintiff herein, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
EXAMINATION
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let the record reflect that this is the discovery deposition of Paul Dulberg taken by agreement of the parties and pursuant to notice.
This deposition is being taken pursuant to the Rules of the Illinois Supreme Court, the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules in McHenry County.
Sir, could you state your name and spell your last name for the record.
A. Palm Dulberg, D-u-l-b-e-r-g.
Q. What is your address?
A. 4606 Hayden Court, McHenry, Illinois 60051.
Q. How long have you lived there?
A. Forty-nine years.
Q. Who do you live there with now?
A. Mike McArtor.

Page 4

Q. Did your mother live there at some point throughout the history of this case?
A. Yes.
Q. I'm just going to go over a few rules for the deposition. I know you've testified at least one time in a deposition before because you testified in the underlying personal injury case, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Have you testified in any other depositions before?
A. No.
Q. I'll just remind you of a few rules that I'm sure you were aware of back then when you gave your deposition.
The court reporter is here to take down everything that you and I say. She can only take down one at a time so I'd ask that before you answer a question, let me finish the entire question. Okay?
A. Yes.
Q. I'll try to do the same. I'll try to let you respond before I ask a follow-up question.
You just nodded your head. That's another good point to make. She can't take down nods of the head, shrugs of the shoulders or other hand gestures. Your answers need to be verbal.

From time to time we forget those rules and I may just point to the court reporter as a reminder, if that's okay.

A. Yes.

Q. If you need to take a break at any time, feel free to stop me. I just ask that it's not while a question is pending that has not been answered. Fair enough?

A. I'll try to do that.

Q. If you've answered a question, I will assume you understood it. Okay?

A. Yes.

Q. I was asking you about your mother. She lived at the house during the pendency of the underlying case?

A. Yes.

Q. Is she still alive?

A. Yes.

MS. WILLIAMS: Can we define "underlying case"?

BY MR. FLYNN:

Q. The underlying case is a personal injury

Page 6

case that you filed against Bill and Caroline McGuire and David Gagnon.

A. That sounds correct.

Q. We'll get into the dates of the filing a little bit later. We'll call that, generally, the underlying case.

Your mother lived at the house at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. Did she own the house?

A. No.

Q. Do you own the house currently?

A. Yes.

Q. Does anyone else own the house?

A. No.

Q. How long have you owned it?

A. I think I first purchased it off my parents in '97, '98, something like that.

Q. Did you hire a lawyer in connection with that transaction?

A. No.

Q. Were your parents represented by a lawyer?

A. No.

Page 7

Q. The building, as I understand it, is a duplex; is that right?

A. No.

Q. Were there two apartments in the building at one time?

A. No.

Q. Was there a point in time where you and your mother lived in one half of the house and Mike McArtor lived in the other half?

A. Yes.

Q. How was that arrangement with respect to the location of the living spaces, if you can describe it?

A. It has a walkout basement. He had the downstairs with an exit out the back. We had the upstairs with an exit out the front.

Q. Have you ever been convicted of a crime of fraud, dishonesty or deceit?

A. No.

Q. Besides the hiring of the Popovich firm in connection with the underlying personal injury case, up to that point in time had you ever had an occasion to hire a lawyer?

A. I did during a traffic accident, and I don't remember the year.

Q. Were you injured in about 2002? Does that sound right?

A. Roughly.

Q. Who did you hire?

A. I might get the name wrong because it's been a long time. I think it was Weiss and Michling and something else. It was a lawyer right outside the courthouse in Woodstock.

Q. A McHenry County lawyer?

A. Yeah.

Q. It was a personal injury case?

A. Yeah. It was a car accident.

Q. Did you file a lawsuit in that case?

A. I don't think we needed to.

Q. You just filed an insurance claim?

A. They did, yes.

Q. You settled it?

A. Yes.

Q. Any other occasions to hire a lawyer between that time and the time you hired the Popovich firm?

A. May I consult for a minute because I'm not sure how to answer that.

Q. Why don't you just tell me why you can't answer it.
A. Because I've hired lawyers, but they were for the company that I had. That's different.
Q. I'm asking general questions about any interaction you've had with hiring lawyers. Any experience you've had with hiring lawyers.
A. I had a corporate lawyer. My mom and dad hired a lawyer for me when I was a kid. It was something. And myself, just the corporate lawyer, the car accident lawyer and the Popovich firm.
Q. Have you ever been married?
A. No.
Q. So you never hired a divorce lawyer. Good. How old are you now?
A. Forty-nine.
Q. The underlying case arose out of an injury that occurred on June 28, 2011, correct?
A. That sounds correct.
Q. How old were you at that time?
A. Forty-one.
Q. Besides the underlying lawsuit against the McGuires and Mr. Gagnon, had you ever filed any other lawsuit up until that point in time?

Page 10

A. No.
Q. Have you filed any lawsuits since that time besides the lawsuit against Popovich and Mast?
A. No.
Q. Do you have any military experience?
A. Yes.
Q. Please tell me about that.
A. Army National Guard. Illinois Army National Guard.
Q. How long have you been in the National Guard?
A. I'm not currently in it.
Q. When were you, from when to when?
A. I may not get the year correct. '88 or '89 to '92 or '93, somewhere in there.
Q. What was your highest rank when you were discharged from the National Guard?
A. When I was discharged?
Q. Correct.
A. I don't know. I've gotten moved up and moved down. I don't know where I ended up.
Q. How was it that you were discharged?
A. Less than honorable.
Q. What was the cause?

Page 11

A. I missed morning call, roll call. If you're not there, you're AWOL.
Q. Absent without leave?
A. Yes.
Q. What is the highest level of education that you've attained?
A. I do not have a degree. Two years of college.
Q. You graduated from high school?
A. Yes.
Q. Was that in Johnsburg in 1988?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you know Mr. Gagnon from Johnsburg High School?
A. Not from high school but just after high school.
Q. Just coincidentally you attended the same high school?
A. He was three years older than I was. I didn't know who he was until after high school.
Q. You had some education after high school but did not receive a degree, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Where did you study?

Page 12

A. I had a couple classes at McHenry County College and McMurray College.
Q. What did you study?
A. The first two years. The basics.
Q. General studies?
A. Yeah. I did a criminal justice course. I did a macro/microeconomics. I did psychology, sociology. The normal stuff.
Q. How did you meet David Gagnon?
A. Through a mutual friend.
Q. When was that?
A. I want to say, roughly, 1990.
Q. Was your home located somewhere fairly close to his parents' home or his mom and stepdad's home?
A. Two streets away.
Q. That's where you were injured on June 28, 2011, was at David Gagnon's mom's house and his stepdad's house?
A. Yes.
Q. And their name is McGuire?
A. Yes.
Q. Generally speaking, you were injured assisting David with a chainsaw trying to cut down a

A. He was cutting a branch.
Q. Cutting branches off a tree, correct?
A. Cutting up the branches after they were off the tree.
Q. Could you tell me a little bit about your work history. Do you have any licenses or certifications?
A. I'm certified to run printing presses. Or at least I was.
Q. You worked for Sharp Printing, Inc. from '91 to 2011; is that right?
A. Ninety-one? No. I would say 1999.
Q. Did you own that corporation?
A. Yes. Well, partner. I was a partner. I didn't own like...
Q. It was an Illinois corporation?
A. Yes.
Q. Were you –
A. A stockholder.
Q. Let me just finish my question so she can take us down.
You were a stockholder in Sharp Printing, Inc.?

Page 14

A. Yes.
Q. Who else were the stockholders?
A. Mike McArtor and Scott Dulberg and at that time it was Herbert Dulberg.
Q. What does that mean? Do you mean Scott's name was Herbert?
A. No. Scott Dulberg was an owner and Herbert Dulberg was an owner. Three different Dulbergs: me, my brother, my dad.
Q. And Mike McArtor?
A. Yes.
Q. There were four owners at what time?
A. Until my dad died and then it went to three.
Q. Was that business incorporated?
A. Yes.
Q. Did a lawyer assist the corporation with setting up the corporation?
A. Yes.
Q. When did that happen?
A. 1999.
Q. Did you hire the lawyer yourself?
A. All three of us did. All four of us. Sorry.

Page 15

Q. What was the name of that attorney?
A. McAndrews, and I don't remember the rest of it. It was McAndrews in McHenry. I can get you the rest of that information.
Q. They are based in Crystal Lake, Illinois?
A. It used to be in McHenry when we did that.
Q. Patrick McAndrews, he was also identified as the registered agent of that corporation?
A. Yes.
Q. It was voluntarily dissolved on April 8, 2011; is that right?
A. That's what the Secretary of State's Office has, yes.
Q. Is that your understanding as well?
A. I was corrected. My partners – I was corrected. It was actually after the accident. How it got to end up with that date, I'm not sure.
Q. What was corrected, exactly?
A. Well, do you want me to – Mike read my deposition and he said, "You got that wrong." I said, "What do you mean?" because I answered it twice in that deposition.
I was thinking that Juskie happened before the accident. Sharp Printing wasn't actually dissolved until after the accident when we decided to sell off the equipment and end it all. That's the honest truth.

Q. I will represent to you that the Illinois Secretary of State's Website as of today shows that the company was involuntarily dissolved on April 8, 2011. So it's your testimony that that is not true?
A. I don't know how they come up with that.
Q. Why don't we break it down and start with why the corporation was involuntarily dissolved. Do you know that?
A. Involuntarily? I don't know. It may be that I was late on paying the corporate licensing thing, which we just pay a fine and did it. We didn't renew it because we decided to end it.
We had a ten-year thing, I think, on it. I may be wrong. I've got to go back and look at the records.
Q. Is it possible that the corporation was actually involuntarily dissolved by the Illinois Secretary of State on April 8, 2011?
A. Sure.
Q. Did Sharp Printing, Inc. file corporate tax returns while it was a going concern?

A. We had a problem the couple of years before the accident because I was not up in Illinois and I usually did that with the lawyer and the accountant and things got screwed up while I was taking care of a loved one who was dying down in Florida.
Q. Did the corporation ever file tax returns?
A. Oh, yes.
Q. When did they file?
A. Quarterly and annually.
Q. Until what year?
A. Roughly somewhere in 2008. I was missing things because I was not here. I know we missed a few.
Q. I believe you testified in your underlying deposition that Sharp Printing, Inc. was not dissolved as a result of your June 28, 2011 chainsaw accident, correct?
A. Yes, I did. I stood corrected by my partners.
Q. So is it your testimony that the corporation was dissolved because of your personal injury?

A. I don't know how to answer that without going back and looking at records.
Q. Was the company winding down up until about the time you were hurt?
A. The company books got screwed up when I was down in Florida and I was back up in Illinois in 2010 getting back on my feet and I was going to pick things back up, get everything paid up, the fines and everything.
Q. Who were you taking care of in Florida?
A. My grandmother.
Q. You were gone from when until when?
A. I want to say from the mid to end of 2007 until somewhere in the beginning of 2010.
Q. Was anyone running Sharp Printing during that period of time?
A. Mike McArtor.
Q. Did Sharp Printing have any customers for that three-year period?
A. Yes, they did.
Q. How many?
A. I'm not sure, without looking at the books.

Page 19

Q. Can you estimate what the yearly revenues were for Sharp Printing in the year 2007?
A. In 2007? I'd have to look at the books, to be honest with you.
Q. Was it more than $5,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Was it more than $100,000?
A. No.
Q. Was it more than $20,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Same line of questioning with respect to 2008. Do you know what the revenues were for Sharp Printing in '08?
A. Are you asking me what we reported or what we made and put into accounts for equipment?
Q. I'm asking you about revenues.
A. Total sales?
Q. Total revenues.
A. In two thousand...?
Q. 2008.
A. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Can you estimate what they were?
A. No, because I wasn't there.
Q. Do you know how many customers the company had in 2008?

A. We had a few, I know that. I don't know how many. Mike was handling it and it got messed up.
Q. What types of customers did Sharp Printing have in 2007 and 2008?
A. What kind of customers?
Q. Right. What did you do?
A. We printed on t-shirts. We printed on CDs. We printed on anything that wasn't wet. We printed on glass, all different stuff.
Q. Were there any full-time employees of Sharp Printing in '07 and '08?
A. In '07 and '08, no.
Q. Just the owners?
A. Just the owners.
Q. Did all the owners operate the business?
A. Yes.
Q. Including your brother?
A. Yes.
Q. What were the yearly revenues of Sharp Printing in 2009?
A. I don't know.
Q. What about 2010, do you know?

A. No.
Q. When did Sharp Printing start selling its equipment?
A. I put up the ad in August. I think August. I might be off by a month or two. August of 2011.
Q. Did you sell any equipment prior to August 2011?
A. No.
Q. What type of equipment did Sharp Printing, Inc. have or own?
A. Mostly textile screen printing equipment, but we had other screen printing stuff too. Paper.
Q. Where was the equipment located?
A. My home.
Q. Did you require a license to conduct this business out of your home?
A. We had what was called a temporary -- we're in a rural area so we didn't have to have that.
Q. In any event, you didn't have a license, correct?
A. We had a license to do business there, yes.

Page 22

Q. In that location?
A. Yes.
Q. Did customers ever come to the shop?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall how many customers the business had in 2010?
A. Not in 2010.
Q. Was it more than five?
A. Yes.
Q. Was it more than 100?
A. It might be around that. I don't know, specifically.
Q. In 2010 you may have had 100 customers that you did t-shirt screen prints for?
A. Possibly. I'm not saying that is the number, but it's possible.
Q. Did Sharp Printing have any customers in 2011?
A. Mike was finishing up one customer's thing in the spring of 2011, yes. We don't -- I'll give you -- we don't typically get much work between January 1st and the first warm days of Spring. We sell t-shirts and not a lot of people buy during that period. They just don't.

Page 23

Q. You did not earn a salary from Sharp Printing, correct?
A. No.
Q. You did not earn an hourly wage, correct?
A. No.
Q. I think your interrogatory answers indicate you didn't take a profit or a draw, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. How much, if any, money did you earn from Sharp Printing in 2011?
A. Can I ask how to define that? In 2011 I didn't pull any.
Q. Did you earn any income whatsoever from Sharp Printing in 2010?
A. I don't think so.
Q. You were down in Florida for '07 to 2010?
A. Sometime in early 2010, yes.
Q. Did you earn any income from Sharp Printing from 2007 to 2010?
A. No.
Q. Were you working in Florida?
A. No.
Q. Is it fair to say you were unemployed

Page 24

from 2007 to 2010?
A. Yes. I was not officially collecting unemployment.
Q. You weren't an employee of any business or working for any individual, correct?
A. I did do some work for Mark. I did some traveling back and forth from Florida to Illinois back and forth during that time. When I was up here, I did do some work for Juskie Printing. Not much, though.
Q. What is Juskie Printing?
A. Juskie Printing is another one that I had listed as an employer in the underlying case.
Q. What are they?
A. Another print broker.
Q. Where are they located?
A. I don't know the exact address, but it's off of Chicago Avenue off of 355 going south.

A. Yes.
Q. How long did you have a relationship with Juskie Printing?
A. Since the early 2000s.
Q. What type of printing did Juskie do?
A. Offset, mostly.
Q. What does that mean?
A. Prints on paper.
Q. Did you have a set schedule at any time working for Juskie?
A. I don't know what you mean by "a set schedule."
Q. Did you have a particular number of hours per week?
A. No. The jobs I got were project based.
Q. How many projects did you have from 2007 to 2011 for Juskie?
A. Probably a few hundred quick little things, yeah. At least.
Q. Do you know what you earned from working at Juskie in 2007?
A. Not without looking at the returns, I don't know offhand.

Page 26

Q. How often were you in the Chicago area in 2007?
A. I didn't leave here until, I want to say, August or September of '07.
Q. And then thereafter?
A. I was not back that year.
Q. You didn't work for Juskie in 2008, correct?
A. I might have done some stuff.
Q. You're not sure?
A. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Were you in Florida?
A. Part of the time, yeah.
Q. How often did you come back and forth between –
A. About every three months I tried to get back up here.
Q. For how long?
A. Sometimes a few weeks. Sometimes a month.
Q. Did you come back and work or did you take care of other things?
A. If I'd let Mark know I was back, "I've got something for you or I don't."

Page 27

Q. Who is Mark?
A. Mark owns Juskie Printing.
Q. I think your interrogatory answers indicated from 1999 through 2006 you were employed in a barter situation; is that right?
A. With Mark, yes.
Q. What does that mean, exactly?
A. Well, he would owe me money and he would give me printing equipment instead of cash.
Q. He owed you money for working for him?
A. Well, he owed both Sharp Printing and me, personally, money. They are two different things. But he would just pay by saying, hey, I've got this or I've got this paper cutter or this or that. It was a barter.
Q. So you worked for him from 1999 to 2006 but did not earn any income in the traditional sense?
A. No money changed hands.
Q. He gave you things to pay you for projects?
A. Correct.
Q. You gave a deposition in the underlying case on January 24, 2013. Does that sound right?

Page 28

A. If it says it on there, yes.
Q. You took an oath that day?
A. Yes.
Q. You told the truth?
A. I tried to, to the best of my knowledge, on that day, yes.
Q. You told the truth in response to all of the questions that day, correct?
A. I tried to, yes.
Q. You testified you were last employed prior to the accident in May of 2011?
A. That would be with Juskie, yes.
Q. It's accurate –
A. Actually, I wasn't employed. I was a 1099 so I was self-employment.
Q. When in May did you stop working for Juskie, whether it be as an employee or an independent contractor?
A. I believe it was the end of May.
Q. Then from the beginning of June until your accident on June 28, 2011, you were not employed; is that an accurate statement?
A. Correct.
Q. You were not even acting as an independent contractor for any business from that period of time, correct?

A. Not during that month, no.
Q. Your deposition testimony from 2013 is typed up on 175 pages. I don't intend to go back over each of those details.
A. Okay.
Q. It's fair to say you were injured, your arm was injured on June 28, 2011, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Which arm was that?
A. My right arm.
Q. As a result of the injury, you hired the Popovich law firm to explore a recovery in the case?
A. I hired them to represent me, yes.
Q. You hired them to represent you and file a lawsuit against David Gagnon who was operating the chainsaw that injured you, correct?
A. He was one of them, yes.
Q. I'm asking you if you hired him to – listen to the question, please.
David Gagnon was operating the chainsaw, correct?
A. Correct.

Page 30

Q. No one else was operating the chainsaw?
A. Correct.
Q. You also hired Popovich to sue Bill and Caroline McGuire, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. They were the land owners where your accident occurred?
A. They did own the land, yes.
Q. The accident occurred at their house, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. This was in the backyard, so to speak?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans Mast was the primary handling attorney at the Popovich firm for your case?
A. That's who I met with, yes.
Q. Did any other lawyer communicate with you while Popovich was handling your case?
A. The lady who sat in on my deposition. Ms. Freeman I think it is. I'm not sure about that.
Q. Generally speaking, Hans Mast, though, was the primary handling attorney?
A. Yes.
Q. Before you hired the Popovich firm in May of 2012, is that the correct time period?

A. I don't think so. I don't think they filed it until then, but I might be wrong. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Was there a retainer agreement executed in May 2012?
A. I don't think I paid a retainer.
Q. Did you execute an attorney engagement agreement in May 2012?
A. I believe it was much earlier than that.
Q. You only executed one engagement letter or engagement agreement with Popovich, correct?
A. Yeah.
Q. Before you executed or came to an arrangement with Popovich, had you talked to any other lawyers about investigating –
A. One.
Q. Let me finish the question.
– investigating or filing the lawsuit?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was that?
A. I went back to the same firm that handled the car accident for me years earlier.
Q. What was the name of that firm?

Page 32

A. They changed names when I went back there. It was Weiss – I have to go back through paperwork and get you the actual name.
Q. They are known as a personal injury firm; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. Why did you not hire them to take your case?
A. The man who handled my case previously with the car accident was no longer with the firm and they said go find somebody else.
Q. I'm not sure what one has to do with the other.
A. I don't either. I just said okay and I went and found somebody else.
Q. Did you meet with an attorney at that firm?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you tell them what happened with your incident?
A. Yes.
Q. They told you that they did not want to take the case; is that right?
A. Yes.

Page 33

Q. They declined the case?
A. They declined the case.
Q. Did they tell you why they declined the case?
A. No.
Q. You next went to the Popovich firm?
A. Yes.
Q. They took the case?
A. Yes.
Q. They, ultimately, filed a lawsuit against Gagnon and the McGuires on May 15, 2012; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. You reviewed the lawsuit and approved it, correct?
A. I didn't – I never got anything to review.
Q. Did you ever read the lawsuit?
A. No. I was never given any paperwork.
Q. Back to the incorporation of Sharp. What interaction did you have with corporate lawyers when they were first retained?
A. McAndrews?
Q. Correct.

Page 34

A. What relationship?
Q. What experience did you have with McAndrews when you first retained them?
A. He was good.
Q. How often did you meet with him or speak to him?
A. Once a year.
Q. Did he file corporate returns or other documents for the company?
A. No. I had to file them. He just made sure they were all done right, I believe.
Q. Have you ever had occasion to hire a criminal lawyer?
A. I did in 1990. My mom and dad had to hire one. Not me.
Q. Did you hire a criminal lawyer for your mom and dad?
A. No. They hired one for me.
Q. Who was that?
A. Give me a second. You're digging back far in my memory. Driscoll was the last name.
Q. This was a McHenry County-based criminal lawyer?
A. No. Des Plaines.

Page 35

Q. What was the general nature of the reason for the need for a lawyer?
A. Drug possession.
Q. Were you convicted of it?
A. Yes. I pled guilty.
Q. That was a Cook County case, then?
A. No. It was a McHenry County case.
Q. The lawyer was in Des Plaines, though?
A. Yes.
Q. But he represented you in McHenry County in criminal court?
A. Yes.
Q. Throughout the case you met with the lawyer?
A. A few times.
Q. While Popovich represented you in the underlying personal injury case, did you ever communicate with any other lawyers about your case?
A. At the end, yes.
Q. Popovich withdrew sometime in March 2015?
A. Correct.
Q. And Brad Balke entered his appearance on March 19, 2015. Does that sound correct?
A. That is correct.

Page 36

Q. Popovich also withdrew that day, right?
A. I don't know if it was on the same day. I'd have to look at the paperwork.
Q. Besides Mr. Balke, had you talked to any other lawyers towards the end of the relationship with Popovich?
A. Yes.
Q. How many?
A. Hundreds.
Q. Hundreds of lawyers?
A. I'm not kidding. Yes.
Q. Did you ask those lawyers to take your case?
A. I asked them to review it.
Q. Did any of them take the case?
A. No.
Q. They all reviewed it, though?
A. Yes. Most took the time to review it.
Q. Did any of them tell you why they didn't want to take the case?
A. There were different reasons I got from various. Some people just didn't get back to me and some people wrote me letters. I think I gave you some of those. But I got various reasons back from attorneys.

Q. I don't recall seeing any lawyers, but I would ask you to search for those.
MS. WILLIAMS: We'll search for those. I'll make a note.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. As you sit here, do you recall the basis for any attorney declining to take your personal injury case over from Popovich?
A. Say that again.
Q. As you sit here today, do you recall any of the reasons why any attorney declined to take your personal injury case over from the Popovich firm?
A. Yes.
Q. What were those reasons?
A. I remember a few. One I was looking at local lawyers in McHenry County and I was told like – I can name them. My sister was married to him.
Anyway, I was told if Tom Popovich says you don't have a case, you don't have a case and we're not even going to look at it. That I got a lot of it.

Page 38

Q. That's one reason. Any others?
A. That I got locally a lot of. As I started to work away from local further out finding attorneys, the thing was your decision to settle with the McGuires was a mistake and we don't take it because of that.
Q. Who said that?
A. Sal Ferris.
Q. When did you speak to Sal Ferris?
A. I don't know the exact date.
Q. When did he –
A. He wasn't the only one.
Q. When did he say that to you, that you just described?
A. He said it in a letter and he said it on the phone and he sent me an e-mail, I think. I don't remember the ways that he contacted me. I'd have to go back and look.
MS. WILLIAMS: We'll find it.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Besides Sal Ferris, can you recall any other attorney, specifically, that told you they wouldn't take the case because of your settlement with the McGuires?

Page 39

A. Yes.
Q. Who was that?
A. There was at least three firms downtown here right near the Daley Center that I came down to see and I don't remember their names, but they – I got the same thing out of all three of them.
Q. Did any of the lawyers give you any other reason for declining your case?
A. Mostly it was because they knew Popovich or it was the McGuire settlement.
Q. Did any lawyer tell you that they didn't want to take your case because there was questionable liability against David Gagnon?
A. No.
Q. Did any lawyer tell you that there was questionable liability against the property owners, the McGuires?
A. No.
Q. We're jumping ahead, but did you have different lawyers that handled a binding arbitration or binding mediation for you in the underlying case?
A. Yes.
Q. Their name was Baudin?
A. Yes.

Page 40

Q. Why did Brad Balke not handle the binding arbitration?
A. I fired him.
Q. When did you fire Brad Balke?
A. I'd have to look at the dates. I'm not sure, exactly.
Q. Why did you fire him?
A. Because he forced me to undergo the exact mediation at the McHenry County court in front of Judge Meyer that Hans Mast set up that I specifically said no to.
Q. When was this mediation?
A. I'd have to look at the dates again.
Q. Was it a pretrial conference?
A. Yes.
Q. You actually attended this pretrial conference?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. What happened?
A. I said no.
Q. You said no about what?
A. They offered an amount of money and I said no.
Q. The defendants offered an amount of money?

A. Yes.
Q. Was this before or after the McGuires settled out of the case?
A. They were settled.
Q. So there was an offer of settlement from David Gagnon or his insurer?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall what that amount of money was?
A. $50,000.
Q. You refused the offer?
A. Yes.
Q. Why did that cause you to fire Brad Balke?
A. He wouldn't take it any further than that and he agreed to when I hired him. He agreed that that was not going to be the end of it and then he changed his tune, and I said, you know what – and the other thing was, I finally got through to the Baudins who I wanted to take the case because they had helped my family – his dad helped my family many eons earlier.
Q. Did you ever talk to Brad Balke about the liability or lack of liability by the McGuires, the property owners in the case?

A. I don't think so. We were on the Gagnon case.
Q. You didn't discuss the McGuires?
A. There may have been a word or something, but that's not what he was there for.
Q. He never gave you an opinion one way or the other whether the settlement was appropriate?
A. I don't believe Brad did, no. Like I said – I don't think he did.
Q. At some point after your accident did you hire the Daley Disability Law Firm?
A. Yes.
Q. Was that for –
A. I didn't hire.
Q. I know you're anticipating what I'm saying.
A. I was trying to correct myself. I did not hire.
Q. Either way, let me try to get out my question before you raise any kind of response, just so she can take down –
A. Count before I answer.

Page 43

Q. That's a good idea.
Did you ever retain the Daley Disability Law Firm?
A. NO.
Q. Did you have any relationship with Daley Disability –
A. Yes.
Q. – Law? Let me finish it before you answer. I know you're anticipating what you think I'm going to say, but it might not come out the way you think. Either way, she can't take down both of us talking over each other.
What relationship did you ever have with the Daley Disability Law Firm?
A. They stepped in as a substitute counsel for the law firm that I did hire.
Q. You originally hired some other law firm to represent you in connection with social security disability?
A. Yes.
Q. What was the name of that original law –
A. The lady's ladies name was Margaret Bradshaw.
Q. You terminated your relationship with her

Page 44

one way or another?
A. No.
Q. Why did Daley Disability Law substitute in for her?
A. I was told by – I have to go back and look at the communications exactly how it happened, but I was told that, basically, they are going to be taking over the hearing part of it. I don't know why. I don't know whether they sub out work. I don't know how it works.
Q. Would it be fair to say that you first retained Ms. Bradshaw in 2012 sometime?
A. I'd have to go back and look.
Q. Is that approximately when you applied for social security?
A. It sounds like it.
Q. The Daley Disability Law Firm came in sometime in 2012 as well?
A. I don't know exactly when. I don't know.
Q. Would it be 2012 or 2013?
A. I know that they were there and – I know that something had to be signed when we went in for the hearings. Margaret Bradshaw had to sign something for the judge allowing Daley Disability to

Q. Did you file for bankruptcy while your personal injury case was pending?
A. Yes.
Q. When did you file for bankruptcy?
A. I'd have to look at the paperwork again, but I don't believe that was until, I want to say, about eight or nine months, but I'm guessing, after the McGuire settlement.
MS. WILLIAMS: The question was what month and year.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. I don't know exactly. I'd have to go back and look at the paperwork.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Did you hire a lawyer to represent you in a bankruptcy?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was that lawyer?
A. David Stretch.
MS. WILLIAMS: If it helps, we can stipulate to the date the bankruptcy was filed.

Page 46

MR. FLYNN: That's fine. I think we've got some e-mails that may reflect when it was. I just wondered if he knew offhand.
MS. WILLIAMS: I can stipulate, at least, that it was 2014.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. You filed for bankruptcy while the Popovich firm was still representing you –
A. Yes.
Q. – in the underlying case, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Sometimes I'll still pause in my question so if you could please pause before you answer.
In the underlying case you answered written discovery; is that true?
A. I believe so.
Q. Then you later testified at your deposition January 24, 2013, correct?
A. If that's the date, yes.
Q. Ultimately, David Gagnon was also deposed, true?
A. Yes.
Q. Were you present for his deposition?
A. No.

Page 47

Q. Did Caroline McGuire give a deposition in that case?
A. I believe so, yes.
Q. Were you present for that dep?
A. No.
Q. What about Bill McGuire's deposition?
A. I was not present.
Q. Did you e-mail back and forth with Hans Mast a fair amount during the Popovich firm's representation of you?
A. By "fair amount," what do you mean?
Q. Did you regularly e-mail with Hans Mast?
A. Yes.
Q. Those e-mail communications have all been produced in this case?
A. Yes.
Q. On to the exhibits. This will be 1.

BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me show you what's been marked as Exhibit 1. These are one set of your Answers to Interrogatories in our case, the current legal malpractice case you filed against the Popovich firm and Hans Mast.

Do you recognize this document?
A. Yes.
Q. We've been providing you with various copies of the signature page in the case that's been back and forth between me and your counsel.
I don't, frankly, know if this verification that's attached is the one that went with this document, but I'll just ask you, for the record, if these are your answers, that's your signature, and that this verification is accurate?
A. That is my signature on there, yes.
Q. What was the e-mail address you used in the communication with Hans Mast?
A. Primarily it was pdulberg@comcast.net.
Q. His address was hansmast@comcast.net?
A. And he switched it to at&t.net.
Q. Did you use some other e-mail address as well?
A. I may have accidentally e-mailed him a couple of times from a Yahoo account.
Q. In answering discovery in our case, the legal malpractice case, did you search through both of those e-mail accounts of yours?

A. I no longer have the Yahoo account.
Q. Did you search through the Comcast account?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you search for PDFs or attachments to those e-mails that you produced?
A. Everything that I got, I turned over. I had converted the e-mails to PDFs because Comcast started purging the e-mails after so many years, so I turned them all into PDFs.
MS. WILLIAMS: The question was what did you search in your in box.
BY THE WITNESS:
A. What did I search?
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me ask you a different question. You produced e-mails in this case?
A. Yes.
Q. You turned e-mails into PDFs and sent them to your lawyer; is that right?
A. Yes.
Q. Some of the e-mails I reviewed have an icon that indicates there was a PDF or some other attachment to the e-mail. Do you understand that?

Page 50

A. Yes.
Q. Did you produce the attachments to each of the e-mails in this case?
A. We went through that. I produced the attachments that I still had.
Q. There were some that were not available, correct?
A. Yeah. When I looked at them, 99 percent of them were already part of some other document that we turned over. I think 100 percent of them.
Q. At some point in time while Hans was handling your case, did he start to communicate with you relative to his analysis of the McGuires' liability in the case?
A. Yes.
Q. Did he start to generally advise you that he didn't believe that there was a strong case for liability against the McGuires?
A. Yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that Hans' opinion was that the McGuires did not have liability in the case because they did not control the work that David Gagnon was doing?

Page 51

A. Yes.
Q. That's generally a fair summary of Hans' opinion?
A. Not quite exactly those words, but yeah.
Q. The McGuires' liability as property owners was questionable because based on Hans' analysis of the evidence, they did not control the work or the manner of work of David Gagnon on the date of the accident; is that a fair summary?
A. Depends on which time he said that.
Q. Did he say things like that over and over again?
A. He did say things like that, yes.
Q. Again, I don't want to go over the facts you already testified to with regards to the date of the accident. At some point in time was William McGuire swimming in the swimming pool?
A. Yes.
Q. Was that an above ground pool or –
A. Above ground.
Q. Was there a fair amount of time during the day that Mr. McGuire was inside the house watching television?
A. Maybe – he went inside the house for probably about 45 minutes before the accident happened. I don't know that he was watching television.

MR. FLYNN: Let's mark the next exhibit as 2.
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 2, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 2, which is an e-mail chain including e-mails from November 18, 2013, are these e-mails between you and Hans Mast?
A. It looks like it, yes.
Q. I think the time stamps on these e-mails go from the bottom, which would be page 2, to the top of the first page, correct?
A. It's backwards, yes.
Q. In the original e-mail at 1:28 p.m., did Hans Mast relay to you a $5,000 settlement offer from the McGuires?
A. Which – where are you at?
Q. We're on Exhibit 2, which is also labeled as Bates label POP 181. At the bottom of the page, does Hans relay to you a settlement offer for $5,000?

A. Yes.
Q. He was telling you that the McGuires' attorney offered to settle the case for $5,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have an understanding that that was a settlement just for the McGuires, not including David Gagnon?
A. Yes.
Q. In the e-mail Hans says, quote, "As we discussed, they have no liability in the case for what Dave did as property owners. So they will likely get out of the case on a motion at some point, so my suggestion is to take the $5,000 now."
Is that an accurate reading?
A. Of that sentence, yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that he suggested that you take the $5,000 but didn't force you to take it?
A. It says, "So my suggestion is..."
Q. Then did you respond to the e-mail?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans replied again at 8:07 p.m. that same day, right?
A. Yes.

Page 54

Q. He said, "Paul, whether you like it or not, they don't have a legal liability for your injury because they were not directing the work."
Is that right?
A. Part of it, yes.
Q. Was my prior summary of Hans' legal analysis a fair summary in view of these e-mails and his opinion that he relayed to you?
A. I think it went further than this, and other things, but yes.
Q. As far as these e-mails, I've accurately –
A. This e-mail, yes.
Q. What else did he tell you about the McGuires and why he didn't think they would be found liable in the case?
A. I'm pulling out of memory because I can't quote which document it's off of.
Q. That's what we're here for.
A. I can only give you the gist.
Q. I'll ask you for the exact language, but if you don't have it –
A. At one point he defined what an independent contractor is for me and he said that

Page 55

David was an independent contractor and that the McGuires weren't liable because they had hired somebody outside even though it's their own son, he's an adult, outside to do the work and that they weren't responsible.
Q. By the way, how old was David at the time that this accident occurred?
A. I'm adding. If I was 41 – I don't know what his birthday is, but I'm assuming he would be 44, 45.
Q. Is it fair to say that there were two 40-plus-year-olds, a 41- and a 44-year-old trimming trees with a chainsaw in David's parent's backyard that day, correct?
A. I was not using it. There was one 44-year-old using a chainsaw.
Q. You, the 41-year-old was holding some branches for him?
A. Yes. Just before the accident, yes.
Q. Up until this point in time when Hans is providing this legal analysis to you, you had a fair number of occasions to interact with lawyers, as we've discussed today, correct?
A. At this point, the only lawyer that I interacted with was the first one.

Q. I'm talking about in your lifetime. You had a corporate lawyer, you had a criminal lawyer, another personal injury lawyer –
A. I didn't hire –
Q. Let me finish. You had experience with lawyers representing you up to this point in time?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have an understanding that lawyers evaluate cases differently?
A. Yes.
Q. And judges evaluate cases differently?
A. Sure. That's fair.
Q. Would it be fair to say that some laws in our country are clearer and some are open to interpretation?
A. I think all of them are.
MS. WILLIAMS: Objection. Calls for speculation.
If you understand the question, you can answer it.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Would you say, for example, that the tax code is a little more clearcut than common law that's created by cases and case precedent?

A. I'm not real familiar with tax law. I have accountants for that.
Q. How about an easier question. The stop sign means that you stop, and if you go through it, it's pretty clear that you're liable for a traffic violation?
A. I'll agree with that.
Q. The legal liability for a property owner in Illinois might be a little more complicated; is that a fair statement?
A. I don't know.
Q. Would it be fair to say, in your opinion or your knowledge of the law, the property owner isn't necessarily liable because somebody is injured on their property?
A. Are you talking about what I know now or what I knew back when this was?
Q. At any time.
A. What I know now is in the circumstances that we were in, they were very liable.
Q. I'm just asking if – just because somebody is injured on a property owner's property, they are not necessarily liable, correct? Other factors are required too.

MS. WILLIAMS: I'm going to object for – he's not an expert and can't testify to legal analysis.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. As you sit here today, do you know whether a premises liability case involves multiple factors to prove liability against the property owner?
A. I don't know. I'd say that's fair. You're asking the wrong person for that.
Q. It was Hans' opinion that the McGuires did not control the work based on the evidence, correct?
A. In my opinion?
Q. That's not what I'm asking.
Was it Hans' opinion –
A. I can't –
Q. Let me just finish.
Did Hans tell you that it was his opinion that the McGuires were not liable because they did not control the work?
A. He said that right there, yes.
Q. Do you believe that he truly felt that way? That was his legal opinion?

Page 59

A. Do you want the Monday morning quarterbacking version or at the time?
Q. I'm asking if at that time you felt that he truly believed that the McGuires did not have liability?
A. At the time I trusted him, yes. I hired him to represent me, and yeah.
Q. You believed that he was relying his honest legal opinion to you at that time?
A. Yes.
Q. Including on November 18, 2013?
A. Yes.
Q. You did not accept the settlement offer of $5,000 that he relayed to you on that day, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. Did you ultimately meet with Hans to discuss the settlement offer?
A. I think it was the day before this, but I'm not sure. It was either the day before or the day after.
MS. WILLIAMS: I think the question was, did you meet with him, at all, not the date.

BY THE WITNESS:
A. Yes.
MR. FLYNN: Can we mark this as Exhibit 3, please.
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 3, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 3. Do you recognize this memorandum?
A. Yes.
Q. You may have seen it from the document production that we made in this case. This is a memorandum drafted by Hans Mast, which purportedly memorializes a meeting that he had with you on November 20, 2013.
Does this refresh your memory as to when you met with him or if you met with him?
A. If he took the memorandum on the same day, then sure.
Q. In the memo Hans says, "I met with Paul and his friend."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you meet with Hans and some third person –
A. Yes.
Q. – at or about this time regarding the case?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was that friend?
A. Tom Kost.
Q. Who is Tom Kost?
A. My brother.
Q. Not that it matters necessarily for privilege purposes, but can you tell me how Tom Kost is your brother?
A. We have the same mom.
Q. He was with you and observed the meeting between you and Hans?
A. Yes.
Q. The $5,000 settlement offer was discussed, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. At that time did Hans, again, relay his opinion as to the questionable liability about the McGuires – strike that.
Did he relay to you his opinion about the

Page 62

questionable nature of the McGuires' liability?
A. At the meeting with Tom, yes.
Q. He advised you they maintain they were not directing Dave's work. That was the McGuires' position, correct?
A. I don't know that he stayed on that at that meeting. At different times he gave different reasons.
Q. The next line says, "Paul maintains the McGuires controlled everything that Dave was doing."
Is that an accurate reflection of your opinion?
A. Yes.
Q. As you sit here today, do you know if that statement is consistent with your own deposition testimony from the underlying case?
A. Yes.
Q. We'll come back to that. Did you tell Hans that you wanted to read the depositions of the McGuires and David Gagnon's depositions?
A. Say that again.
Q. Did you tell Paul that you wanted to read the depositions of the McGuires and Dave Gagnon's depositions?

Page 63

A. Did I tell Paul?
Q. I'm sorry. Did you tell Hans that?
A. That I wanted to read the McGuires and David Gagnon's depositions?
Q. Yes.
A. Yes, I did.
Q. What was the purpose of your wanting to review those depositions?
A. Hans had told me that what they said in their depositions meant that they had no liability.
Q. You wanted to review the testimony to determine whether you wanted to consider the $5,000 settlement offer; is that correct?
A. Right.
Q. Did you do that?
A. Eventually, yes.
Q. Before you accepted the offer?
A. I think so.
Q. So sometime after this meeting on November 20, 2013 and before you accepted the settlement offer on January 29, 2014, did you review those three deposition transcripts?
A. I'll correct you. I did not accept the offer on January 20th. I signed a release on

Page 64

January 29th.
Q. Fair point. Did you read the depositions between those two dates, November 20, 2013 and January 29, 2014?
A. Yes.
Q. Those are –
A. I believe I asked him – I don't know – it may be a little earlier because I don't know that I asked him before or after the meeting. I don't remember. I'd have to go back in the e-mails to give the date.
Q. Some point in time between those two dates you read the deps?
A. I may have asked for them before. I don't know without seeing the e-mail. It was, roughly, in the last quarter of that year, yes. Or the first month. I don't remember the first time that I asked to read them. I don't remember off the top of my head.
Q. At any point in time did you ever grant Hans authority to make a settlement demand in the case?
A. No.

Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 4. This is a copy of the original complaint in this instant case. It reflects a filing date of November 28, 2017.

Is this your original legal malpractice complaint against the Popovich firm and Hans Mast?

A. I believe so.

Q. Did you review and approve the allegations in this complaint?

A. For the most part. I wanted to reword some things, but the lawyer, they do their thing.

Q. At the time you were represented by the Gooch firm is when you filed this lawsuit, correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Directing your attention back to Exhibit 1, if you still have it. If you could turn to page 10.

The answer to Interrogatory No. 24 indicates that on November 4, 2013, Mast was granted authority to investigate a settlement but a specific dollar amount was never provided. Do you see that?

A. He was verbally granted authority to investigate, yes.

Q. Who did you want him to investigate a settlement with?

A. The McGuires.

Q. Just the McGuires or the McGuires and –

A. He wanted to do it. I didn't. I said, "If you want to look at that, go ahead."

Q. Did you grant him authority to investigate a settlement with David Gagnon as well?

A. I don't know if I did or not, off the top of my head, but that would have been much later.

Q. Eventually did you tell Hans that you would agree to accept the $5,000 settlement offer from the McGuires?

A. Eventually did I tell him that?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. When did you tell him that?

A. I want to say just before Christmas in December of 2013.

Q. There's no doubt in your mind that you relayed your acceptance of the $5,000 settlement offer to Hans Mast before Christmas Day, which would be December 25, 2013?

A. Right.

Q. Then did Hans mail to you a settlement release by letter dated January 24, 2014?

A. I'd like to see the letter, but yeah, I believe so.

Q. I believe it's –

A. I believe he had to mail it a couple times because I didn't get it.

Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 5. I'll represent to you that this is a copy of the second amended complaint that you filed in this case by your new lawyers, your current lawyers. If I could direct your attention to Exhibit D attached to this Exhibit 5.

Is Exhibit D a January 24, 2014 cover letter from Hans Mast to you enclosing the general release and settlement agreement from defense counsel for Caroline and Bill McGuire?

A. That's what it says.

Q. In the letter did he ask you to – it looks like it might be a typo. It says, "Please release and return it to me in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope at your earliest convenience."

A. Right, but I believe it was just a release – it was all tied into one.

Q. This letter is unsigned. Did you receive the letter unsigned?

A. Did I receive this unsigned?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes.

Q. Have you ever seen a signed copy of this letter?

A. No.

Q. If I could direct your attention to the next page of Exhibit D. Is that page 1 of the general release and settlement agreement?

A. Exhibit D?

Q. Correct.

MS. WILLIAMS: Turn the page.

Q. Is this what you received attached to the cover letter?
A. I don't think so. Let me see. Yes, this looks like it because it's got these things I remember.
Q. When did you receive this letter and the attachment?
A. I would say I wrote back on January 29th and I probably got it that day, signed it and sent it back.
Q. The copy of the release is also unsigned. It's attached as exhibit -- part of Exhibit D to your second amended complaint.
Do you see the signature lines and the notary signature here that's missing?
A. Yes.
Q. Is this the document that you signed and sent back to Hans Mast?
A. The document that I signed had my signature.
Q. I'm asking if this is the same document that you signed and sent back to him?
A. Yes.

Page 70

Q. Right now we don't have a signed copy. I don't know that I've seen one in the case.
MS. WILLIAMS: Can we go off the record for a second?
MR. FLYNN: Sure.
(WHEREUPON, discussion was had off the record.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Is there any doubt, in your mind, that Exhibit D is the letter and attachment that you received from Hans Mast?
A. No. I believe that this is it.
Q. You signed some copy of this release and sent it back to Hans on January 29; is that correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You accepted the settlement offer prior to Christmas and presumably defense counsel or Hans drafted the settlement release and then Hans mailed it to you, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. At any point in time from December 25th until you received this settlement release, did you contact any lawyer to discuss whether it would be appropriate to let the McGuires out for 5,000?

Page 71

A. I believe I contacted Hans again.
Q. Besides Hans, did you talk to anyone else?
A. No.
Q. Was there anything preventing you from seeking a second opinion from some other lawyer at that time?
A. No.
Q. Directing your attention to Exhibit E attached to the second amended complaint, the second amended complaint, again, being Exhibit 5. Is this an e-mail from you to Hans on January 29, 2014?
A. This is the e-mail chain between me and Hans, yes.
Q. Down below at the bottom of the page, January 29 at 10:51 a.m., it appears that you were questioning Hans regarding some of the language in the release, including social security disability check boxes. Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans responded to you and then at the top of the page here at 1:59 p.m. it says, "Okay, it's signed and in the mail."
A. Correct.

Page 72

Q. What did you mean by that?
A. I signed it and mailed it.
Q. Did you -- where did you mail it from?
A. My home.
Q. How did you do that?
A. Put a stamp on the envelope and put it in the mailbox, put the flag up and waited for the mailman.
Q. Is the mailbox attached to your home or is it --
A. It's out on the street.
Q. You walked down there and you put the mail -- the envelope in the mailbox, put the flag up and --
A. That is correct.
Q. Your understanding of signing that release and sending it back to your lawyer was that you would agree to take the $5,000 settlement, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Hans didn't deliver the letter to you personally. He mailed it to you, correct?
A. He mailed it to me?
Q. He mailed it to you.

A. Correct. U.S. mail.
Q. Do you recall an allegation in your complaint or amended complaint or second amended complaint in this case alleging that you were pressured or alleging undue influence by Hans in urging you to accept the $5,000 settlement from the McGuires?
A. Yes.
Q. How is it, as you sit here today, can you tell me how Hans unduly influenced you to accept the $5,000 settlement offer?
A. I don't know what Hans was thinking. How did I feel influenced?
Q. Unduly influenced.
Let me put it this way. He didn't put a gun to your head?
A. No.
Q. He suggested that you take the settlement?
A. Correct.
Q. He didn't force you to take the settlement?
A. Correct.
Q. It was your decision?

Page 74

A. Correct.
Q. You signed it and you sent it back to him in the mail?
A. Yes.
Q. Aside from your e-mails with Hans on January 29, did you call him that day?
A. I believe so.
Q. Did you also discuss whether it was appropriate to accept the McGuires' $5,000 settlement offer at that time?
A. Yes.
Q. You deliberated on it and decided to take it, correct?
A. There wasn't much – it was take it or get nothing.
Q. You had the opportunity to deliberate on it, correct?
A. For that day, yeah.
Q. You had reviewed the transcripts of the McGuire depositions and David Gagnon's depositions in order to provide you with some information in order to determine whether to accept the settlement offer, correct?
A. I believe I did try to read those, yes.

Page 75

Q. Did you call Hans or e-mail him and question him with respect to the evidence, the testimony contained in those deposition transcripts?
A. Yes.
Q. What did you say to him and what did he say to you?
A. There were many conversations over the phone and I'm sure some through e-mails.
Q. He continued to tell you that it was his opinion that the liability on the McGuires is questionable because they did not control David Gagnon's work that day, correct?
A. It depends on which time. Sometimes he said because they didn't tell them how to squeeze the trigger. It depends which time you are talking about.
Q. Again, there was nothing preventing you from seeking a second opinion from some other lawyer at the time you signed the settlement release and sent it back to Hans, correct?
A. From the time I received it, signed it and sent it back?
Q. Right.
A. No. It was a matter of hours. I got it

Page 76

that morning.
Q. You decided to mail it that day, right?
A. He needed it. He said now or you're not going to get anything.
Q. There was nothing preventing you from seeking the advice of another attorney at that time?
A. At that time it was time. It was now or nothing.
Q. You were in the comfort of your own house when you received the letter, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You had the ability to go find another lawyer and ask them to discuss the case at that time. You had done it hundreds of times earlier – strike that.
After the settlement with the McGuires, you continued to prosecute the case against Gagnon, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you have an understanding as to what, if any, insurance coverage he had?
A. Yes.
Q. How much was that?
A. What time frame are you talking about?

Page 77

Q. What was your initial understanding as to the limits on David Gagnon's insurance coverage?
A. Hans Mast told me he had $100,000.
Q. Was that in an e-mail?
A. There were — not initially, no, but later on he reiterated that in e-mails, yes.
Q. Did you, ultimately, learn that there was some additional amount of coverage with respect to Gagnon's policy?
A. Long after Hans Mast was gone, not part of the case.
Q. How much was the coverage?
A. The Allstate coverage, I believe, was 300,000.
Q. We'll talk about the settlement later, but did you ultimately settle the case again Gagnon for 300,000?
A. I believe it went to binding mediation.
Q. Was there an award of $300,000 based on a high/low agreement?
A. Yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that if Hans made a mistake about the $100,000 in coverage, that that was corrected and there was never any harm done as a result of his —

A. No.
Q. Explain to me how you were harmed by the representation that there was $100,000 in coverage.
A. You want me to explain?
Q. Yes.
A. Had I known the value of the case, I would have not filed for bankruptcy.
Q. Explain to me why one has something to do with the other.
A. Is my family and me going to dump money into a black hole that we can't recover or is there a light at the end of the tunnel where I can pay them back.
Q. At the time that you filed for bankruptcy, had any settlement offer been made from David Gagnon or his lawyers to you?
A. At the time of when?
Q. When you filed for bankruptcy.
A. I don't think so. I'd have to check the dates, but I don't think so.
Q. As the case was progressing against David Gagnon, were your doctors deposed?
A. As the case progressed with David Gagnon,

Page 79

I believe they were deposed. I don't remember. I'd have to look at the dates.
Q. Discovery continued on in the case?
A. I believe one doctor was deposed after the McGuire settlement. I'm not sure, though.
Q. Did Hans continue to represent you for some period of time?
A. Yes.
MR. FLYNN: I'll have you mark this as Exhibit 6.

BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Showing you what's been marked as Exhibit 6. Do you recognize this e-mail chain?
A. Yes.
Q. This is from September 23, 2014. If we go from the bottom up, it appears that Hans said to you that he wanted to give you the option of finding other counsel at this point if you really want to take the case to trial, which I think ultimately will be necessary. Correct?
A. Are we at "before I proceed" or "that's

the very reason"?
Q. "That's the very reason."
Is it fair to say he was suggesting you find another counsel in the case at that point?
A. Yes.
Q. He also said, "I just do not believe strongly that defense counsel will offer much in the way of settlement."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. That's his opinion regardless of what he believed the coverage limits to be; is that a fair statement?
A. Yes.
Q. You responded to him, he responded to you and then you wrote an e-mail to him at 8:25 p.m. that night?
A. Okay.
Q. Do you see that? Did you say, "First, I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to help prove David cut me with a chainsaw"?
A. Yes.

point in time?
A. I believe I did, that summer. This is fall, September.
Q. You had already started looking for new lawyers?
A. I believe that Hans had told me to start looking for a new lawyer in April of that year.
Q. Did he say why?
A. We'd have to read his thing. He says why.
Q. Do you recall why he said that to you?
A. He did not feel that the case was provable against David. He did not feel the value of the case was worth it. He did not feel -- actually, this is 2014. The dates are rough.
Q. He thought the case against David was difficult, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Have you ever described the case as a he said, she said with respect to the facts of the accident?
A. He described that to me many times.
Q. Have you also --
A. And I used that back, yes.

Page 82

Q. Have you ever described this case as a he said, she said case?
A. I may have. I don't know.
Q. It is your word against David Gagnon's as to what happened and whose fault it was that day?
A. That's what Hans explained to me as what the problem was.
Q. Did you ever describe the accident as a he said, she said?
A. I don't think I called David a "she said" or me a "she said." I don't know. Right here I do.
Q. What do you say there?
A. I said, "I'm sorry that I'm not a better witness to help prove David cut me with a chainsaw."
Q. He was denying that he even cut you, correct?
A. No, he never denied that.
Q. What was your reason for writing this sentence in that way?
A. Because Hans said that he believed David over me.
Q. With respect to what fact at issue?
A. His deposition versus mine. He said that I didn't make a good witness.

Page 83

Q. With respect to what points?
A. All of it. He was dumping me and he was coming up with his own excuses.
Q. You and David were the only ones that witnessed this accident?
A. Correct.
Q. Based on your understanding of how the evidence came out in the case, would you agree that there were differences with respect to the version of events?
A. Oh, yeah.
Q. There were differences between what he said happened and what you said happened?
A. Oh, definitely.
Q. Would it be fair to say, then, it would be up to the trier of fact, whether it be a judge or a jury, to determine who they believed?

Q. You said after a traumatic experience. Are you referring to the bankruptcy filing from that day?
A. That, in combination with migraines, yes.
Q. David Stretch was your lawyer that filed bankruptcy for you?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you meet with Mr. Stretch and discuss the bankruptcy process before you hired him?
A. Yes.
Q. How long did you meet with him?
A. I think I asked about it. I don't know. It may have been a couple of months or a couple weeks before it got filed. I wanted to learn about it.
Q. Did you, ultimately, list the case against David Gagnon as an asset in your bankrupt filing?
A. Yes, I did.
Q. Is that why the bankruptcy trustee became involved with the binding mediation?

A. Yes.
Q. Did you ever meet the bankruptcy trustee?
A. Yes. The first one.
Q. What was the name of that person?
A. The first one was Heeg was her last name. H-e-e-g, I think.
Q. Again, we established that Brad Balke became your lawyer in the case on March 19, 2015, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Is it fair to say that your relationship with Hans Mast was deteriorating over the fall and beginning of the winter of 2015?
A. I would say it had been deteriorating long before that. You can see from the last exhibit I'm melting down and it was already started deteriorating.
Q. By the time you drafted Exhibit 7, had you talked to other lawyers about taking your case?
A. I have to go back and look, but probably. If he told me to look at other lawyers in April before this, yes.
Q. How many lawyers would you say you talked to between April and the time you drafted this e-mail on September 26?

A. I couldn't count that high, probably.
Q. Quite a few?
A. Yeah.
Q. Did any of them take your case?
A. No.

A. Yes.
Q. Halfway down in that e-mail message you said, quote, "Now I'm left wondering... how hard it is to sue an attorney?"
A. That is true.
Q. You wrote that?
A. Yes.

Page 88

Q. The next line you wrote, "And yes, I am and have been looking for someone who will take this case..."
A. That is not in reference to suing the attorney. That was in reference to the Gagnon case.
Q. What did the reference to suing an attorney mean?
A. That was me being angry.
Q. With Hans?
A. Yes. I was seeing red.
Q. You're suggesting that you may sue him?
A. Yeah. I didn't know that I could. I'm wondering about it.
Q. You, basically, made a threat, whether it be a veiled threat or an overt threat to sue him, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. You, ultimately, sued him for legal malpractice, right?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that what you had in mind when you wrote this?
A. No. This was about dropping Gagnon. The malpractice is about dropping the McGuires.

Q. This –
A. We're talking – this is 2015.
Q. In this 2015 e-mail you are suggesting to Hans that you may sue him because of the McGuire settlement; is that right?
A. No.
Q. Then what is it that you're saying to him?
A. That if he damaged the Gagnon case, I didn't know if he did or didn't, and I'm threatening because I'm angry. You can see, again, I'm melting down here. These are emotional outbursts, I guess.
Q. Moving up the page a little bit also on February 22, 2015 at 8:14 p.m., you say, "To be honest, you took this case knowing it was my word versus his."
A. Yes.
Q. He said, he said, right?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that a fair characterization of the case, your word against David's?
A. That's how Hans kept describing it. That's the way I put it back to him, yes.
Q. You didn't correct him or dispute his characterization, did you?

Page 90

A. No. I used his characterization.
Q. You agreed with it?
A. He said – how did it go? We had conversations between these e-mails on the phone. Then we would hang up and I would get angry and type it in an e-mail, type whatever it was that bothered me so he had it.
Q. Let me ask another question, if that's okay.
Did you ever correct Hans if he called this a he said, he said case? Did you ever say it's more than that?
A. Do I ever say it's more than that?
Q. Did you ever correct him? If he said it's a he said, he said case, did you say no, that's not right?
A. He said there's no witnesses. I said, "I'm a witness."
Q. You're one of the hes. It's your word against David Gagnon's, as you said in this e-mail?
A. Yes.
MR. FLYNN: If I could have you mark that as Exhibit 9.

Page 91

(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 9, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Exhibit 9, is that Brad Balke's substitute appearance that was filed on March 19, 2015 in the case against Gagnon?
A. It looks like it, yes.
Q. Back to Exhibit 5, which is the second amended complaint. If I could direct your attention to Exhibit F. This appears to be a more complete copy of another e-mail we just talked about. Is Exhibit F more of the February 22, 2015 e-mail chain?
A. I'm not sure if that's separate or the same. Oh, it looks like it.
Q. At 7:20 p.m. Hans wrote to you and said, "Paul, I can no longer represent you in the case. We obviously have differences of opinion as to the value of the case."
Right?
A. Yes.
Q. He says, "I've been telling you over a year now the problems with the case and you just don't see them."

Page 92

Correct?
A. That's what it says.
Q. Obviously, a difference of opinion, right?
A. Yes. Are you talking about difference of opinion as to the value or difference of opinion of the problems within the case?
Q. Let's go on. He says, "You keep telling me how injured you are and completely ignore that it doesn't matter if you passed away from the accident because we still have to prove that the defendant was at fault. While you think it is very clear, it is not. My guess is that seven out of ten times you will lose the case outright. That means zero. That's why I've been trying to convince you to agree to a settlement. You clearly do not want to."
Did I accurately read that?
A. Just that part of that paragraph, yes.
Q. So Hans is telling you that in his opinion your case against Gagnon you're going to lose it seven out of ten times, correct?
A. In this one, yes.
Q. He's acknowledging that you may have a chance.

A. I think later on he says nine out of ten.
Q. In this e-mail he says seven out of ten you will lose.
A. Yes.
Q. He's recognizing three times out of ten you may win, right?
A. I don't know what Hans is thinking.
Q. Is that what he said?
A. He says seven out of ten times you lose.
Q. You understood that there are risks in taking the case to trial that you could lose?
A. There are unforeseen risks, yes.
Q. There are always risks, period, in taking a case to trial?
A. Yes.
Q. Before you hired Brad Balke and after Hans told you he couldn't represent you, did you talk to any other lawyers about taking your case?
A. Yes.
Q. How many?
A. I can't tell you. A lot.
Q. Did any of them tell you that they wouldn't take the case because they didn't think you could prevail against Gagnon?

Page 94

A. No.
Q. Not one?
A. No.
Q. What are the names of any of the lawyers you talked to about taking your case over from Popovich?
A. I can't tell you without looking at documents who it was and what date it was, what it was between these two.
Q. I don't think documents I produced would help you in that regard.
I'll just ask you based on your memory the names of any lawyers you met with from the time Hans wrote this February 22 e-mail –
A. I believe –
Q. Let me finish.
A. I believe –
MS. WILLIAMS: He has not finished his question.
THE WITNESS: Sorry.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. From the time that Hans wrote this February 22 e-mail and the time that Brad Balke enters an appearance on March 19. Just the name of any lawyer you –

Page 95

A. I believe that Sal Ferris that I was talking about was one of the lawyers that I talked to.
Q. You're not sure? You believe that he was?
A. In between this time and this time?
Q. Yes.
A. I believe it's right around then.
Q. What type of law practice does Sal Ferris have?
A. I believe personal injury.
Q. Did you ever talk to him about taking your case before that date?
A. Before the date of this e-mail?
Q. Yes.
A. I'd have to look at it.
Q. He wasn't one of the original attorneys that you spoke with at the beginning of the case?
A. No.
Q. Fair to say once Balke entered his appearance on March 19, 2015 that Mast and Popovich were no longer your attorneys, correct?

Page 96

A. When Balke enters his appearance?
Q. Yes.
A. I would believe that, yes.
Q. They were terminated and Balke stepped in?
A. Yes.
Q. Can you tell me how the binding mediation which proceeded on December 8, 2015 evolved and came to be.
A. I was ordered into it from a bankruptcy court.
Q. Why is that?
A. I believe that the trustee put a motion up. I don't know who did it. I assume it was the trustee and the court ordered that it be put into binding mediation.
Q. Did you appear at the mediation?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you recall the name of the mediator?
A. Not off the top of my head, no.
Q. One of the exhibits to your second amended complaint indicates it was retired Judge James Etchingham.
A. That sounds familiar.

Q. Do you recall how long the mediation lasted?
A. All day.
Q. Do you know if the parties submitted mediation briefs or statements to the judge?
A. I believe both sides submitted a whole bunch of things.
Q. The Boudins represented you in this mediation?
A. Yes.
Q. Because you had fired Balke by this point?
A. Oh, yes.
Q. Directing your attention, again, to Exhibit 5, the second amended complaint and Exhibit G. Exhibit G is, apparently, a memorialization of the mediation award. Do you see that?
A. It's how the judge decided to break it down, yes.
Q. Do you see that there's an award for future medical expenses of $200,000?
A. Yes.
Q. Since that date of December 8, 2015, have you received any medical treatment relative to your injuries –

Page 98

A. Yes.
Q. Let me finish. Strike the question.
Since that date, December 8, 2015, have you received any medical treatment for your injuries incurred on January 28, 2011?
A. You're asking since the date of the binding mediation?
Q. That's right.
A. Yes.
Q. What medical treatment have you received?
A. I do an ongoing with the neurologist for the dystonia.
Q. That's in your right arm?
A. Yes.
Q. Have you calculated the medical bills that you've incurred since that day?
A. No, I have not.
Q. Are they anywhere near $200,000?
A. It depends if you calculate with or without insurance. I know what I pay, but then I have to pay for the insurance that pays for that.
Q. How much have you paid out of pocket since that date for medical treatment on your arm?

Page 99

A. I don't know, offhand.
Q. Was there any doctor that opined that you would require $200,000 in future medical expenses?
A. I believe so.
Q. Who was that?
A. I believe that was Dr. Patel. I don't know that she said $200,000. She was the doctor that was handling it at the time.
Q. Did you discuss your injury with the mediator at the mediation?
A. He did ask me a few questions.
Q. How much time did you spend with him?
A. On and off. He would come in and ask me questions and then go away and then come in and would ask me questions and then go away.
I don't remember which one was the mediator, which one was the Allstate adjuster, which one was the – I don't remember.
Q. You're not sure which one was the mediator?
A. They came in and they said they are going to ask you some questions and I answered them.
Q. As you sit here today, you don't know how much face time you had with the mediator that day?

Page 100

A. I don't remember the face of which one is which.
Q. Did the issue of lost wages ever come up?
A. At the mediation with me?
Q. Yes.
A. I don't remember.
Q. Did you ever make a claim of lost wages of $250,000?
A. I may have.
Q. Do you know what that was based on?
A. Yeah.
Q. What is that based on?
A. Past and future.
Q. What past wages had you ever earned that could lead to an award of $250,000?
A. To me, that's not a very high number. I think I asked for more than that. It would be an average over a certain number of years plus benefits and that's all lost.
Q. Would it be fair to say that your income would be accurately reflected in the tax returns you've produced in this case, so I don't want to ask you about each one of them?
A. I would say my personal income, yeah.

MR. FLYNN: I believe the next exhibit is 10.
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 10, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I'm handing you what's been marked as Exhibit 10. This is a six-page binding mediation agreement. The copy I have is unsigned.
Do you recognize this as the mediation agreement that governed your December 8, 2016 mediation?
A. Yes.
Q. If I could direct your attention to -- first, let me ask you.
Do you know why the bankruptcy trustee or the bankruptcy court ordered binding mediation as opposed to nonbinding?
A. I have no idea.

Q. On page 4, section F, subsection B – I'm sorry, 1B. It says, "The parties agree that for this mediation the minimum award to Paul Dulberg will be $50,000. Also, the maximum award to Paul Dulberg will be $300,000."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you know why the parties agreed to this high/low agreement?
A. No.
Q. Do you recall alleging in your original complaint against Popovich that there was a high/low agreement?
A. There is. There was.
MS. WILLIAMS: Can you repeat the question, please.
(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)
BY THE WITNESS:
A. I don't know. I'd have to read it.
MS. WILLIAMS: I asked her to read it. And you had answered it previously.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Directing your attention back to

Page 103

Exhibit 4, which is the original complaint in this case. Page 4, paragraph 16.
A. Okay.
Q. There's a sentence that begins with, "Unfortunately, a high/low agreement had been executed by Dulberg reducing the maximum account he could recover to $300,000 based upon the insurance policy available."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. It's not your position or testimony that Popovich had anything to do with the high/low agreement?
A. That was a mistake in there. No.
Q. You would agree that Popovich had nothing to do with the high/low agreement?
A. I believe that events that unfolded the way they did was due to Hans Mast's initial assessment of the value of the case.
Q. Let me ask it a different way.
Did Popovich have any idea that this high/low agreement existed when it was entered into?
A. I don't know.
Q. Do you have any reason to believe that he did?

A. I don't know. I don't know how much the Boudins were in contact with them because they worked together. I don't know.
Q. What do you mean, "they worked together"?
A. They worked together on all different cases. That's a small county out there.
Q. Did you ever write to Hans and accuse Popovich of having a conflict of interest because he may have gone to high school with David Gagnon?
A. I did learn that.
Q. Do you believe the fact that someone went to high school with another person may give rise to a conflict of interest in a lawsuit?
A. I was shooting in the dark and guessing why they didn't see this as a viable case.
Q. Do you think that was appropriate to send to your lawyer at the time?
A. When you're wondering why they are doing what they are doing and you learn that and they were pretty much in the same class and they all knew each other and it's a small town, let me ask you, are you friends with the guy I'm suing? That's an appropriate question.

Page 105

Q. You didn't say that. You asked if they went to school together.
A. Correct.
Q. Popovich did not enter into this high/low agreement on your behalf, correct?
A. Popovich, no.
Q. When I say "Popovich," I mean generally the Popovich firm and your lawyers.
A. This was years later. No.
Q. They had nothing to do with it, right?
A. I wouldn't say anything to do with it.
Q. Withdrawn.
Who drafted this high/low agreement that's contained in the mediation agreement?
A. I'm not sure who drafted it.
Q. Would it have been either the mediator, the bankruptcy trustee, your lawyers or the defense attorneys?
A. I assume that this would have been an agreement of all of them.
Q. You don't think Popovich had anything to do with drafting this high/low agreement, do you?
A. I don't know that he did or didn't.
Q. Do you have any reason to believe that he did?

A. At this point, no.
Q. Continuing on in Exhibit 4. Directing your attention to the bottom of page 4, paragraph 10.
A. Exhibit 4. Say it again.
Q. The bottom of page 4, paragraph 20. This is your complaint against Popovich and Mast.
A. This has been amended since then.
Q. I understand. Paragraph 20 reads, "Following the execution of the mediation agreement with the high/low agreement contained therein and the final mediation award, Dulberg realized for the first time that the information Mast and Popovich had given Dulberg was false and misleading and that, in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake."
Do you see that?
A. Yes.
Q. Can you tell me, as you sit here today, what false and misleading information did Mast and Popovich give you?
A. That I realized on the day of the — following the execution of the mediation agreement?

Page 107

Q. Correct.
A. The liability of the McGuires.
Q. What was false about it?
A. What made them liable and what didn't.
Q. What is it you learned to dispute what you were told?
A. I learned from a reliability expert that had the report there that day that the McGuires provided the tools which made Gagnon an agent of the McGuires. He was working at their behest.
Q. Who was this liability expert?
A. What's his name?
Q. He's a doctor?
A. Yes.
Q. Continue on with that paragraph. "Following mediation, Dulberg was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016."
Do you see that allegation?
A. Yeah.
Q. Who advised you to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters?

Page 108

A. I believe that was Boudin.
Q. You believe that or you know that?
A. I know that.
Q. You alleged it in this complaint so it's important that we know who that was.
A. Yes, that was Boudin.
Q. Boudin told you to seek an independent opinion from an attorney that handles malpractice matters?
A. Yes.
Q. It says you received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.
A. Yes.
Q. That's separate and apart from any opinion you may have received from a liability expert, a doctor, an expert on chainsaws?
A. Yes.
Q. Who was the lawyer that you received a legal opinion from on December 16, 2016?
A. I believe that would be Thomas Gooch.
Q. The drafter of this complaint?
A. I'd have to look at the dates because I think — December 8th was the mediation; is that right?

Q. Correct.
A. So the 16th would sound about right to be meeting with Gooch, but I can get that date.
Q. You met with Gooch –
A. Soon, within weeks. It was quick.
Q. Now that the door has been opened, you fired Gooch in this case, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. He drafted this complaint and he's also the one that gave you an opinion about legal malpractice liability on the part of my clients?
A. Yes.
Q. What is it that he told you on December 16, 2016?
MS. WILLIAMS: Objection. I don't think we've waived that privilege, but – can we go off the record for a second?
MR. FLYNN: I don't want to go off the record. I've asked this interrogatory in about five different ways and it hasn't been answered appropriately.
The allegation was made in the complaint. That's why I drafted the interrogatory the way I did. I don't think that there's been a square answer to it. This is clear that you're talking about a legal opinion.

BY THE WITNESS:
Q. Is this the same wording as we have in the current complaint?
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. It's not exactly.
A. What would this be valid for, then?
Q. You've raised a response to a statute of limitations defense in this case and placed your knowledge of the malpractice and the date of incurring of an injury at issue.
Because your discovery of malpractice has been placed at issue, it's our position that you've waived privilege anyhow with respect to this conversation on December 16, 2016.
A. I'm not sure –
MS. WILLIAMS: There's not a question pending. I'm going to make a standing objection as to privilege with Gooch.
If we can agree that that objection will stand, we can go through this line of questioning and then if we need to later, have a judge determine whether or not that line of questioning is admissible. Are you agreeable to that?

MR. FLYNN: I'm agreeable to continuing on for a few minutes. I want to explore. I'll try to lay foundation for – to confirm this wasn't anyone else, for starters. Why don't we continue on and if you need to raise it again, we can talk.
MS. WILLIAMS: Otherwise, I'm just going to raise it to every single question you ask. I just don't want to have to continue to make the objection as to – if questions are asked about advice given by a legal malpractice attorney, I'm going to raise an objection as to that.
MR. FLYNN: Okay. But this is why we had the 201K conferences, multiple 201K conferences. It was made clear, to me, that there was a waiver with respect to subsequent counsel.
MS. WILLIAMS: Tom Gooch isn't subsequent counsel.
MR. FLYNN: The allegation has been made in this complaint and apparently this is subsequent counsel subsequent to my client's representation.
MS. WILLIAMS: It is a different case. It's not subsequent counsel in the underlying case. It's a new case.

Page 112

MR. FLYNN: We'll get to the interrogatory in a few minutes. I'll pull that out.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me ask you. Is there any other attorney besides Mr. Gooch that gave you an opinion that's referenced here on December 16?
A. No one that isn't privileged.
Q. Could it have been anyone else?
A. No.
Q. So Gooch is the only person that's being referenced here in this allegation that's in your complaint that's a public record?
I'm not asking you right now what the opinion is. I'm going to do that later. I'm asking you who gave it to you. It's not anyone besides Mr. Gooch, correct?
A. Yes. It was Thomas Gooch.
Q. He drafted the very complaint that that allegation is contained in?
A. Yes.
Q. Dr. Landford was the liability expert that you referenced earlier, correct?
A. Yes.
Q. Back to the allegation that Gooch and – that Popovich and Mast provided you false and misleading information. That information was simply their legal opinion on the McGuires' liability; isn't that correct?

A. No. There was nothing simple about that. That's a very complex series of things that go all the way back to before the McGuire settlement.
Q. They didn't lie to you, did they?
A. It depends on how you define lie.
Q. How do you define lie?
A. If you know better and you say something else, that's a lie. Omission is a lie.
Q. Did they provide you with anything other than a legal opinion as to the McGuires' liability?
A. Yes. They provided me with case laws. They provided me with all different stuff. Yes.
Q. Whatever the advice that was given to you on December 16, 2016, you felt that you were mislead by Popovich and Mast at that point in time, correct?
A. At that point in time it was confirmed to me that I had a valid case against Popovich.
Q. You had a valid malpractice case against Popovich?
A. Yes. I did not know before that.

Page 114

Q. As of December 16, 2016?
A. Yes.
Q. Why is it that you didn't file that lawsuit until nearly a year later on November 28, 2017?
A. I believe because Thomas Gooch had some health issues and then his wife had some health issues. It took a while.
(WHEREUPON, a certain document was marked Exhibit No. 11, for identification, as of 02/19/2020.)
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I'm handing you what has been marked as Exhibit 11. This is one set of your supplemental Answers to Interrogatories.
First, I'll ask you if that is your verification and signature at the end?
A. That is my signature.
Q. Again, I don't know if that verification was attached to this original document. It may have been. But there's been some confusion with respect to these verification pages. This is your signature and you answered these interrogatories, correct?
A. Yeah.

Q. So this is a valid verification page with respect to this discovery document; is that a fair statement?
A. This is supplemental to original answers.
Q. That's your signature and you agree these are your answers?
A. I've reviewed them and we went over them and yes, I agree.
Q. And they are accurate?
A. As accurate as we can be.
Q. If I could direct your attention to Interrogatory No. 26. Do you see that?
A. Okay. Yes, I see it.
Q. This is similar to what we just talked about a few minutes ago. I'll read the interrogatory to you. "Identify and describe the false and misleading information Mast and Popovich provided to you and explain how you realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information was false and misleading and the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake as alleged in paragraph 56 of your second amended complaint."
Do you see your supplemental answer here?

A. I see it, yes.
Q. You reference the mediation award and then you state, quote, "At that time Dulberg realized that Mast's advice to settle with the McGuires for $5,000 was incorrect because Mast had cited Dulberg being able to recover in full from Gagnon as his reasoning."
A. I do.
Q. Can you explain what that means because I don't quite understand it.
A. Hans Mast assured me – I want to go back to 2013, the Fall between October and the signature of the final release for the McGuires.
He assured me that, he said -- at that time he didn't tell me what anybody's policies were. He assured me that if we let the McGuires out of the case, Gagnon has enough insurance, you're going to get everything from him, so it doesn't matter that you're carrying the McGuires in the case.
Q. The next interrogatory is 27. "Identify and describe the expert opinions provided to you in December 2016 as alleged in paragraph 57 of your second amended complaint including the identity of the expert, any opinions and any other information provided by the expert which caused you to learn in the summer of 2016 and became reasonably aware that Mast and Popovich did not properly represent you."

What does the summer of 2016 have to do with your discovery of malpractice?

A. Technically, I was sent Dr. Landford's report – I might be off a little by a couple months here, but I think in July of that year. And I read it, but I didn't – you don't catch everything the first time you read it.

It was not until later that I caught the part of the report that was brought to the attention – it caught my eye when I was sitting there and reading it.

Q. You didn't read any of this interrogatory or the original interrogatory as requesting legal opinions that you had alleged that gave you notice that there was a malpractice claim against Mast and Popovich?

A. Excuse me?

MR. FLYNN: Can you read that back.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)

Page 118

BY THE WITNESS:

A. The way she said it, I don't understand.

BY MR. FLYNN:

Q. I'll rephrase it.

We've known about this allegation in the original complaint since it was filed. You received some legal opinion in 2016. That's why you didn't know you had a malpractice case against Mast and Popovich.

We asked you in discovery answers a couple different ways what those legal opinions are. You didn't read 26 and 27 as requesting information about legal opinions?

A. I don't know that an expert witness would be considered a legal opinion. Wouldn't that be more like an attorney?

Q. I'll ask you again. Why is it that you first became aware of a legal malpractice matter against Mast and Popovich on or about December 16, 2016?

A. December 16th I was talking to a legal malpractice attorney.

Q. You were told that there was a case against –

Page 119

A. A valid case, yes.

Q. – Mast and Popovich?

A. Yes.

Q. Why is it you didn't know about this valid case prior to that date?

A. Because I hadn't talked to anybody that was a lawyer that specialized in that area.

Q. Whatever it is that he said to you gave you the basis for believing you had a valid case against Mast and Popovich?

A. Very much so, yes.

Q. You're withholding that information from me right now, as we sit here. You won't tell me what that expert said, correct?

MS. WILLIAMS: Repeat the question.

(WHEREUPON, the record was read by the reporter as requested.)

MS. WILLIAMS: I'm asserting attorney-client privilege on behalf of my client for Gooch's advice on December – in December of 2016.

However, because I want to move forward with this deposition, if he can answer the question, I believe we should go ahead and move forward and have him answer the question.

Page 120

I'll assert the privilege with the understanding that this may have to be briefed later.

MR. FLYNN: To be stricken later?

MS. WILLIAMS: Right.

MR. FLYNN: The substance of the answer he can put on the record. You're just saying you may move to strike it later?

MS. WILLIAMS: Right. I want to maintain the privilege with the objection, but I don't want to have to call the judge right now. I don't think it's something we should have to call the judge about right now.

MR. FLYNN: Just for the record, I believe it's been placed at issue by virtue of the first amended complaint. The responses to the statute of limitation defenses that were raised in very dispositive motions before Gooch withdrew from the case, the gist of that is the discovery rule has been raised and, therefore, it's our position that the date of discovery has been placed at issue and, accordingly, any legal opinions that were provided to this plaintiff have been exposed and that we're entitled to know what those are.

MS. WILLIAMS: Can I also note one more thing?
MR. FLYNN: Sure.
MS. WILLIAMS: In the supplemental – in the request it specifically refers to paragraph 57 of the second amended complaint, which is different.
MR. FLYNN: It is different. I'll acknowledge that. I believe that the prior original interrogatories asked for any opinions relative to the discovery of the malpractice. I could be wrong. There was a reason I asked this and that's why I believe that's what it was about.
MS. WILLIAMS: So –
MR. FLYNN: That particular one I agree with you is not phrased as calling for –
MS. WILLIAMS: Right. That's the question that was asked. We answered the question that was asked, which that particular paragraph does not refer to a legal expert. It just merely – I'll read it out loud. "It was not until the mediation in December of 2016 based on the expert's opinion that Dulberg retain for mediation that Dulberg became reasonably aware."
I just want it clear that he did answer the question that was asked. I understand your line of questioning and we'll agree to move forward.

MR. FLYNN: I believe there were other discovery requests that did point to that and I think we can take a break here and I can find them fairly quickly because I think we're getting close to the end anyway.
MS. WILLIAMS: Okay.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Did you ever receive any money from the mediation award?
A. No. I received money from the bankruptcy itself. It was a surplus bankruptcy.
Q. There was a $300,000 award given in the mediation.
A. That did not go to me. That went to bankruptcy.
Q. It was collected on your behalf and paid to the bankruptcy trustee, correct?
A. Correct.
Q. All $300,000?
A. I don't know that because I think – I don't know how exactly it works. I heard attorneys have a lien that's special. I don't know how they break it up. I assume it goes to the trustee.

Page 123

Q. The Boudins weren't working for free. They got something out of it, right?
A. Yes.
Q. The trustee took the remainder and paid off some of your creditors, correct?
A. Correct. All of them.
Q. But the award was paid to the trustee on your behalf?
A. I believe so. I don't know how it worked.
Q. How much was the surplus after your creditors were paid?
A. After just the creditors?
Q. How much did you get?
A. How much did I get?
Q. Yes.
A. A third.
Q. I'm asking how much money did you get?
A. A third of the award.
Q. Dollars. How much money did you get?
A. Roughly a hundred.
Q. $100,000?
A. I don't know the exact number. It's roughly a hundred.

Page 124

Q. Was there a check that was issued to you?
A. By the trustee, yes.
Q. Did you cash it?
A. Yes.
Q. At what bank?
A. McHenry Bank & Trust.
Q. Do you still have an account there?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you have a copy of the canceled check?
A. I'm sure the bank has a photo thing.
Q. You can request a copy of the check, correct?
A. I could. I could see if they got it.
Q. I would ask you to do that. If you have any other documentation relative to the payouts that were made by the bankruptcy trustee on your behalf, we are requesting that information.
MR. FLYNN: Why don't we take a break and I'm going to look for one document and then we're just about done here.
(WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)
MR. FLYNN: Mark these as the next two.

BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I'm going to show you what I've marked as Exhibits 12 and 13. Twelve are your answers to Hans Mast's interrogatories. Thirteen is your responses to Popovich's request for production.
Interrogatory No. 1 from Mast asks, "Identify and describe each and every way that Popovich or Mast breached any duty of care to you, the date of the breach, and when and how you became aware of the breach."
Do you understand that?
A. Yes.
Q. So how is it they committed malpractice?
A. May I see it?
Q. I'm going to show it to you in a second. I only have one copy.
This is basically, how did you first become aware that they committed malpractice?

Page 126

That's the essence of that interrogatory.
Here is your response. I can show that to you. It doesn't reflect any discussion with any malpractice lawyer in December of 2016.
Tell me --
A. Let me read it again. We're talking about No. 1 on this?
Q. Correct.
A. Okay.
Q. You understand it?
A. Yes.
Q. Would you agree that the legal opinion you received on December 16, 2016 is responsive to that interrogatory, whatever it is that you were told?
A. Yes.
Q. You didn't identify this December 16, 2016 discussion in the answer to that interrogatory, correct?
A. Say that again.
Q. Your discussion with Mr. Gooch on December 16, 2016, that's referenced in your original complaint, you didn't respond and identify it in this answer to the interrogatory, correct?

Page 127

A. This asks for every way Popovich or Mast breached the duty of care. It didn't ask for Gooch's opinion.
Q. How did you find out that Mast and Popovich breached the duty of care to you? Because Gooch told you, right?
A. Yes.
Q. That's what you've alleged here in this complaint.
A. Yes.
Q. Here I'm asking you, each and every way that they ever breached a duty of care to you. I covered the waterfront. You didn't answer --
A. On the McGuire case it was between October 2013 and January 2014. Yes. There's a multitude of things and that's why I listed a range.
Q. I'm asking when you became aware of it, in that interrogatory. Do you see that?
A. I became aware of that when Thomas Gooch read them and said there's a problem here.
Q. That's not the way you answered the interrogatory, correct?
A. I answered the first part. I did not answer after the comma and the and.

Page 128

Q. There's no objection and indication that any information is being withheld, correct?
A. Excuse me?
Q. There's no objection and an indication that you're withholding --
A. I was not withholding.
Q. I'll show you Exhibit 13. It asks -- Exhibit 13 are the production requests to you. Number 8 asks for you to produce a privilege log identifying the creator and recipient of any document withheld, the basis for any claimed privilege, the date the document was created and the date the recipient received the document.
The answer is, "The plaintiff is only withholding attorney-client communication between his successor counsel."
Is that your answer to the production request and did I accurately read No. 8?
A. May I consult with her for a minute?
Q. Sure.
THE WITNESS: Can we go off the record?
MS. WILLIAMS: If you can answer the question, answer the question first.

BY THE WITNESS:
A. It's been a while since I've done this, so I'm not sure who the successor counsel is. Is it her or is it the Boudins or Balke?
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. I think successor counsel, we can both agree, the successor counsel in the underlying case which would be Balke and then Boudin.
You didn't identify any documents withheld other than documents between you and successor counsel, correct?
THE WITNESS: I believe we waived those, didn't we, for Balke and Boudin?
MS. WILLIAMS: For Balke and Boudin we can represent that we waived those.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. Let me ask a different question.
Did Gooch communicate with you in writing relative to his opinion that you had a legal malpractice case against Mast and Popovich?
A. In writing?
Q. Yes.
A. I suppose the agreement between us that he would represent me because I had the case is a document in writing.

Q. Did he tell you – strike that.
The discussion that you reference in the complaint, paragraph 20 of December 16, 2016, was that a face-to-face communication with Gooch?
A. What number is that?
Q. Exhibit 4, paragraph 20. The legal opinion you received, was it verbal, was it written?
A. I believe it was verbal.
Q. Now, I'm going to ask you what he said. There was an objection and that will be addressed by the Court later. Please tell me what Gooch told you.
A. He read what I brought him, looked through some things, and I don't remember if it was the same day that we talked to him or he took a day or two. I don't remember. He got back to me and he said, "You have a case here. You have a valid case."
Q. Did he say why?
A. On the basis of what I brought to him. Yes.
Q. Specifics, though. I don't want to talk about generalities. Did he tell you what Mast and

Page 131

Popovich did wrong and how it injured you?
A. How it injured me? Yeah.
Q. The first part of my question was, did he tell you exactly what they did wrong in connection with your – their representation of you?
A. He probably did. I'm not recalling it right now. I'm pulling a blank.
The parts of the conversation I'm remembering, and for some reason I'm not pulling it. We've been at this a while and this is a long thing. Yes, he said based on what he saw, he saw reason for malpractice.
Q. You don't remember any details, as you sit here? Did you discuss the liability of property owners in Illinois?
A. Well, if they were just property owners in the case, that would be one thing, but they weren't just property owners.
Q. That wasn't my question. I'm asking if you discussed it?
A. Certainly.
Q. You and Gooch discussed the liability of the McGuires in the case?
A. Yes.

Q. What did you say to him and what did he say to you?
A. I showed him the expert opinion.
Q. The chainsaw expert?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you show him any deposition transcripts?
A. Yes.
Q. Which ones?
A. All of them.
Q. And he read them before you talked?
A. I don't remember. Like I said, it may have been a few days between our initial meeting and bringing the whole file that I had and trying to get what the Boudins had and letting him go through it. I don't remember how long that took.
Q. How did you transmit the documents to him –
A. My brother carried them.
Q. Let me finish.
How did you transmit the documents to Mr. Gooch, including the deposition transcripts?
A. I believe we brought him a box.
Q. So you physically handed the documents to him?

A. I didn't physically hand them. My brother did.
Q. Did you communicate with Mr. Gooch by e-mail, at all, leading up to this meeting?
A. No.
Q. Did he ever write you any letters?
A. An e-mail or regular mail or what are you talking about?
Q. Any letters whatsoever.
A. Throughout the course of his representation, yes.
Q. What about in December of 2016?
A. I believe we started communicating in December, yes.
Q. But in writing?
A. In e-mails, sure.
Q. Did he discuss –
A. We may have. I'm not – whenever we started – whenever he started sending me things and going back and forth, I don't remember the exact date, but it was right after he started representing me, sure, we exchanged e-mails and started, yes.
Q. When did Gooch begin representing you?

Page 134

A. The day that he agreed to represent me. I believe it would have been the day that he decided that he had a case.
Q. On or about December 16?
A. Yes.
Q. At that point in time, or shortly thereafter, he communicated with you in writing the details of the breach of the standard of care committed by Popovich and Mast; is that correct?
A. I believe he started to detail those out in the complaint and we were working it back and forth trying to get it right.
Q. When did you first exchange drafts of the complaint?
A. I'd have to look back in the e-mails. I don't remember the dates.
Q. Did you look for any of these e-mails in connection with my discovery requests in this case?
A. At the time I think we thought they were privileged.
Q. That privilege objection wasn't exactly made. My question is, did you look for them?
A. Did I look for them? I have them.
Q. I would ask that you preserve each and every communication between you and Mr. Gooch, all written communications, even phone records that might reflect the dates and times of your phone communications, if any. Did you use a cell phone back then?

Page 135

A. I used VOIP over a data line.
Q. Who was your carrier?
A. Comcast.
Q. Is that still your carrier?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you have the same phone that you utilized?
A. Same phone number for 50 years, yes.
Q. What else could you remember that Gooch told you on or about the 16th of December 2016 about Mast and Popovich breaching the standard of care and how it damaged you?
A. Say that again.
Q. What, if anything, else do you recall about your discussions with Gooch on December 16 regarding the breach of the standard of care by Popovich and Mast and how it injured you?
A. We discussed the whole scenario between October and January and what happened. It was pretty detailed. We discussed everything that you see that's been communicated in the e-mails. He didn't have much else to go on other than the documents and the e-mails.

Q. You're talking about the e-mails between you and Hans from the fall of 2013?
A. Yes.
Q. Ultimately leading to the $5,000 settlement?
A. Yes.
Q. Other than you have a case, what did Gooch say to you?
A. He said that they definitely committed malpractice.
Q. Did he ever put this in writing?
A. Did he ever put it in writing? I think he backed it up by filing a suit. That's documented.
Q. Again, the suit wasn't filed until November of 2017.
A. Yes, he had some health problems and then his wife had some health problems. Believe me, I was pushing for him to get that done.
Q. From December of 2016 until the complaint was filed, you exchanged some drafts of complaints with him?

A. I believe he let me see what he wanted to put in the complaint. I got to review some things. Of course I had, do this or that's not right. In fact, a couple of these things in here we had to definitely – you caught one. He totally worded it wrong. It was wrong. We had to amend.
MS. WILLIAMS: His question was, did he give you drafts for you to review?
THE WITNESS: Yes.
BY MR. FLYNN:
Q. These were exchanged by e-mail?
A. I believe so, yes.
Q. So you would have records of them?
A. Yes.
Q. Any comments with respect to the pleadings, as well, did you ever ask him questions? Did he explain to you the basis for the allegations in the draft complaints, similar to what you did with Hans?
A. Over many times, yes.
Q. This is all reflected in e-mails?
A. Yes.

Page 138

Q. Ultimately, you didn't file until November of 2017?
A. Correct.
Q. Popovich ceased being your lawyer March 19 of 2015, correct?
A. That sounds about right.
Q. Until December 16, 2016, you didn't have any reason to believe there was a malpractice case against –
A. Say the date again.
Q. Until December 16, 2016, you didn't have any other reason to believe there was a malpractice case against Popovich and Mast?
A. I did not know that I had a case, no.
Q. You threatened one with respect to the Gagnon case –
A. Yes.
Q. – at another point in time, correct?
A. I think I threatened him a few times in there. Yeah. I was actually nice to what I really wanted to say.
Q. Subject to the ruling on these objections, you don't recall any other specific details that you discussed with Popovich – I'm sorry – Gooch on December 16, other than what we already talked about?

A. I discussed the exact same things that you – the same documents that you already have. We went over the case that Mast and Popovich had against the McGuires. He followed through all the way to the end. We went over the whole case. You see as much as he did.
Q. Did Gooch ever explain to you why the McGuires would have been liable any more than Mast explained to you that they wouldn't be liable?
A. He said he agreed right away. He said that's obvious.
Q. Did Gooch ever provide you with any cases or statutes?
A. Provide to me, maybe. Maybe. I don't know.
Q. Would that be by e-mail?
A. It could be. I was in his office quite a few times. He may have.
Q. As you sit here today, other than you have a case against Popovich and Mast, what did Gooch tell you specifically that was any different than what Mast and Popovich told you with respect to the McGuires' liability?

A. That they were definitely liable. He tried to say that – like Popovich and Mast were first- or second-year lawyers and that they may have made a mistake here.
I said they've got 20 years in this. You think they'd know the difference. That's the kind of thing. He agreed with me. Twenty years, yeah, they should have known better.
Q. Did you ever discuss the specifics of the McGuires' potential liability with Gooch?
A. Liability with Gooch?
Q. With Gooch, did you ever discuss the specifics of the McGuires' liability other than he thinks you have a case?
A. Yes.
Q. Did he ever tell you why? What was it?
A. Because he agreed with the expert's opinion.
Q. The expert on the chainsaw?
A. Yes. The liability expert.
Q. The expert said you should use safety goggles and gloves and things like that?
A. He said more than that, but yes.

Page 141

Q. Do you know who commissioned that expert report?
A. Boudins.
Q. Do you know when the first draft of that doctor's expert report was circulated?
A. I heard that Boudin got it in February, maybe. I don't think I got it until July, but I'm not sure about that.
Q. July of what year?
A. The same year as the mediation.
Q. Of 2016?
A. Yeah.
Q. So you actually read it in advance of the mediation?
A. I talked about this earlier. I said yes. You don't catch everything the first time you read it. I was sitting there at the mediating table and I was reading it and I caught it and I turned to Randy and I said, after it was over, does this mean – that means.
Q. Means what?
A. Does this mean the McGuires are liable? Yeah, that means they are liable. He said, call my office after everything and I'll give you a name for an attorney you should go see.

Page 142

MR. FLYNN: Any follow-up, Julia?
MS. WILLIAMS: I have two follow-up questions.

EXAMINATION

BY MS. WILLIAMS:
Q. Did you ever give Hans authority to make a settlement demand regarding Mr. Gagnon?
A. I think at one time in one of my meltdown letters I said get whatever you can, but no, I never actually signed anything saying you have the right to offer a settlement.
Q. Did you ever give Hans authority to make a settlement demand with regard to the McGuires?
A. A demand, no. He said he was going to probe and see what was out there, and I said, if you want to do that, that's fine.
MS. WILLIAMS: I have no further questions.
MR. FLYNN: Signature?
MS. WILLIAMS: We can waive signature.

NOW COMES Defendant, The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. by and through its attorneys, Karbal, Cohen, Economou, Silk & Dunne, LLC, and pursuant to the provisions of Illinois Supreme Court Rule 214, respectfully requests Plaintiff, Paul Dulberg, to produce within 28 days at the law offices of Karbal, Cohen, Economou, Silk & Dunne, LLC, 150 South Wacker Drive, Suite 1700, Chicago, Illinois 60606, the following photographs, documents, objects, and other tangible things:

SUPPLEMENTAL PRODUCTION REQUESTS

1. Any and all documents relating to your "discovery" of any alleged breach of the standard of care or legal malpractice by Popovich or Mast, and which caused you damages or injury.

RESPONSE:

2. Any and all documents relating to any consultation or advice you received from any attorney or "legal expert" or legal malpractice expert which formed the basis for your alleged discovery of Mast's and Popovich's breach or breaches of the standard of care while they represented you in your claim or lawsuit against William and Caroline McGuire and David Gagnon.

3. Any and all documents regarding or reflecting advice from any attorney or legal expert, including but not limited to Tom Gooch, including but not limited to your communications with Tom Gooch in December 2016 (up to and including the date of the filing of your original complaint against Popovich and Mast), which relate to your discovery of any breach of the standard of care by Popovich or Mast and proximately caused damages or injury resulting therefrom.

RESPONSE:

4. Any and all documents regarding any damages you suffered at any time as a result of any breach of the standard of care by Popovich or Mast in their representation of you or provision of legal services to you.

RESPONSE:

5. Any and all documents which provide or form the basis for your contention that you did not discover until December 16, 2016 that you had been injured or damaged by Mast or Popovich's negligence in representing you in the claim or lawsuit against William and Caroline McGuire.

RESPONSE:

6. All documents, including letters and email communications between Tom Gooch on the one hand, and you on the other hand, regarding legal advice he provided to you on December 16, 2016 and thereafter, that you "had a malpractice case" against Popovich, as testified by you at pages 129-142 of your discovery deposition from February 19, 2020.

RESPONSE:

7. Any and all documents reflecting opinions by attorney Randy Baudin regarding the liability of the McGuire's, whether the advice or opinions were rendered at your mediation of the underlying case (on or about December 16, 2016) or prior thereto, as testified at your discovery deposition on February 19, 2020 (see page 141).

Pursuant to Illinois Supreme Court Rule 201(k), please advise when the supplemental discovery answers and documents will be served. As I indicated in court on September 10, I plan to file a motion to compel very soon if we do not receive the sworn answers and all responsive documents.

Julia:

I write pursuant to rule 201(k) and rule 219(c). Mr. Dulberg is late in responding to discovery pursuant the the extension you requested, and to which I agreed.

It is finally time for Mr. Dulberg to properly answer discovery in conformity to his allegations, and relative to the matters which he has placed at issue.

Once the Gooch discovery is produced, I would like to immediately depose Dulberg and Gooch. Please pass this along to your client.

You and your firm have been nothing but professional and it was a pleasure working with you.

Best regards,

Dear George,

I will certainly pass this along to our client.

Unfortunately, because we are withdrawing, we are not comfortable answering discovery when another counsel may be appearing. Mr. Dulberg is seeking new counsel and would like to have his new counsel answer. I expect that we will be withdrawing on September 10, 2020. The court will grant Mr. Dulberg 21 days to find alternative counsel. Based upon this, it is unlikely that any answers to supplemental discovery will be prepared prior to the end of September.

I just received your firm's motion to withdraw. If you could please pass along to Mr. Dulberg or his new counsel, that we must insist on the outstanding written discovery being answered by August 27, 2020 per our agreement below, it would be appreciated.

I think we have been very patient with Mr. Dulberg in responding to discovery which has been directed at his assertion of the discovery rule in this case, where he is attempting to overcome a statute of limitations defense (issues which are evident from the face of the pleadings and the applicable statutes involved).

The supplemental discovery we served merely clarified and more specifically identified communications and documents which were the subject of prior discovery requests, and some of which were identified at Mr. Dulberg's discovery deposition taken on February 19, 2020.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss this matter.

DEFENDANTS THE LAW OFFICES OF THOMAS J. POPOVICH, P.C. AND HANS MAST'S MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL AND TO REQUEST HEARING ON PLAINTIFF'S COMPLIANCE WITH APRIL 6, 2021 ORDER ON DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO COMPEL

Defendants The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. and Hans Mast (collectively "Popovich"), by and through their attorneys, Karbal, Cohen, Economou, Silk & Dunne, LLC, and for their Motion to Supplement Defendants' Motion to Compel and To Request Hearing on Plaintiff's Compliance with April 6, 2021 Order on Defendants' Motion to Compel, state as follows:

1) Defendants are bringing this motion to supplement their prior Motion to Compel and request a hearing on Plaintiff's compliance with the Court's April 6, 2021 Order (attached as Ex. A).

2) The Defendants never received a file-stamped copy of the draft order which their counsel submitted to the Court for entry on April 2, 2021 (see Group Ex. B, April 2, 2021 email from Linda Walters, and attached Order). Defendants never received a response, nor received electronic notice of the entry of the Order on April 6, 2021, and accordingly did not diary the June 14, 2021 hearing, and thus did not appear.

3) In the Court's April 6, 2021 Order granting Defendants' motion to compel, the Court ordered the Plaintiff to serve a supplemental answer to Mast's Interrogatory No. 1, and amend its responses to Popovich's Supplemental Request. The Court further ordered, "Plaintiff is directed to provide specific answers and responses to each interrogatory and production request.

4) On June 1, 2021, the Plaintiff served Exhibit C (Plaintiff's Amended Additional Answer to Defendant Hans Mast's Interrogatory to Plaintiff Paul Dulberg), and Exhibit D (Plaintiff's Amended Additional Response to Defendant The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C.'s Supplemental Request for Production). Dulberg also produced fourteen pages of bates labeled records (See Ex. E).

5) The Plaintiff has not complied with the Court's April 6, 2021 Order. Accordingly, Defendants respectfully request that the Court strike the non-responsive portions of Exhibits C, D, and E and close written discovery.

6) With respect to Exhibit C, Dulberg provide a "non-answer." Dulberg was ordered to specifically answer each discovery request. Mast's Interrogatory No. 1 states as follows: Identify and describe each and every way that Popovich or Mast breached any duty of care to you, the date of the breach, and when and how you became aware of the breach. Dulberg's amended additional answer does not describe how there was a breach of the standard of care, he simply identifies a discovery date (December 12, 2016) based upon a binding mediation order. He does not describe the breach of the standard of care, or how, specifically, he became aware of it. He simply writes, "He knew the defendants breached the standard of care due him based upon a verbal discussion with Attorney Tom Gooch on December 16, 2016." He does not describe the discussion or explain how the standard of care was breached, or why his discussion with Tom Gooch enlightened him as to the breach.

7) Moreover, Popovich's supplemental requests for production are aimed specifically at identifying how Dulberg "discovered" his breach of the standard of care, and when he recognized damages as a result of same. In Exhibit D, Dulberg's amended additional response, Dulberg simply attaches various pages from pleadings in this case. He does not attach any discoverable materials, such as emails, letters, etc. Instead, he is simply regurgitating his position in this case. As previously argued in Defendants' Motion to Compel and at hearing, if Dulberg has no documents responsive to the discovery requests, and he has no basis for a tolling of the statute of limitations in this case, then his answer should simply state, "none." Enough is enough. Dulberg's non-responses to this discovery requests should be stricken, and he should be barred attempting to present any additional evidence in support of his tolling theory.

WHEREFORE Defendants The Law Offices of Thomas J. Popovich, P.C. and Hans Mast, respectfully request that this Court grant their Motion to Supplement Defendants' Motion to Compel and set hearing on Plaintiff's compliance with April 6, 2021 Order on Defendants' Motion to Compel, and for any and all further relief this Court deems just and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

PLAINTIFF'S AMENDED ADDITIONAL ANSWER TO DEFENDANT HANS MAST'S INTERROGATORY TO PLAINTIFF PAUL DULBERG

Now Comes Plaintiff Paul Dulberg, by and through his attorney Alphonse A. Talarico, and for his Amended Additional Answer to Defendant Hans Mast's Interrogatory #1 states as follows:

1. Identify and describe each and every way that Popovich or Mast breached any duty of care to you, the date of the breach, and when and how you became aware of the breach.

ANSWER: Between October 2013 and January 2014, Mast told Dulberg that Illinois law does not permit a recovery against the McGuires' in the circumstances of Dulberg's case and that he would not receive any recovery from the McGuires. Mast advised Dulberg that the judge would rule in favor of the McGuires on a motion for summary judgment.

C 1284 V2

Mast further told Dulberg that Dulberg would retain his claim against Gagnon and be able to seek and receive a full recovery from Gagnon.

AMENDED ADDITIONAL ANSWER: Dulberg discovered the pecuniary injury on December 12, 2016 based upon a binding mediation award and knew he had a legal malpractice case on December 16, 2016. He knew that the Defendants breached the standard of care due him based upon a verbal discussion with Attorney Tom Gooch on December 16, 2016.

Dulberg discovered in the defendants' document disclosure, POP 000192, that Mast had in fact sent the McGuires' attorney a $7,500.00 offer on October 22, 2013 without Dulberg's knowledge and that was before the November 4, 2013 meeting in Mast's office when Mast first asked Dulberg if Mast could probe and see what was on the table for a possible settlement with the McGuires.

LA 178. (Exhibit 2, ¶ 9, and Exhibit 2B)[1]. In late 2013, Dulberg settled with the McGuires and executed a Release in their favor in exchange for the payment of $5,000.00. The McGuires and their insurance carrier, Auto Owners Insurance Company, were released. (Exhibit 2, ¶ 18 and Exhibit 2D). Defendants continued to represent Dulberg until March 2015. (Exhibit 2, ¶ 21). Dulberg retained successor counsel and proceeded to a binding mediation and received a mediation award (Exhibit 2, ¶ 24 and Exhibit 2G). After the mediation, Dulberg allegedly realized for the first time that the information Mast and Popovich had given him was false and misleading and that the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake. He was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling legal malpractice matters and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016. (Exhibit 2, ¶ 28-29).

B. Alleged Acts of Negligence

Popovich's and Mast's alleged malpractice revolves around the settlement of the underlying case between Dulberg and McGuires. The allegations of a breach of the standard of care are all contained in ¶ 31, subsections a) through o) inclusive. Paragraph 31 states as follows:

> 31. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBERG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:
>
> a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG, for example hiring a liability expert;
> b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

[1] The exhibits to the underlying complaint in Case No. 12 LA 178 will be referenced as Exhibits 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 2F, and 2G.

28. Following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, DULBERG realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information MAST and POPOVICH had given DULBERG was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake.

29. It was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinions that DULBERG retained for the mediation, that DULBERG became reasonably aware that MAST and POPOVICH did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000.00 on an "all or nothing" basis.

30. DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from a legal malpractice attorney and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

31. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBERG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:

a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuires) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG, for example hiring a liability expert;

b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG, for example hiring a liability expert;

d.) Failed to investigate the insurance policy amounts of the McGuires and Gagnon;

e.) Incorrectly informed DULBERG that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000.00" and no insurance company would pay close to that;

"If a person liable to an action fraudulently conceals the cause of such action from the knowledge of the person entitled thereto, the action may be commenced at any time within 5 years after the person entitled to bring the same discovers that he or she has such cause of action, and not afterwards." See 735 ILCS 5/13-215.

45. DULBERG's Complaint states that DULBERG discovery the negligence of the Defendants on December 16, 2016 when he was informed by outside counsel of his claim for malpractice, or at the earliest by December 8, 2016 when DULBERG learned that he was limited in recovering his damages under the binding mediation.

46. Therefore DULBERG would have until December 2021 to file his claims under fraudulent concealment. DULBERG filed his claims well within the five-year fraudulent concealment statute.

CONCLUSION

After review of the allegations in the Complaint, this Honorable Court must find that DULBERG properly filed his claim for legal malpractice and is not judicially estopped from bringing those claims. Also, the claims are not time barred based on the discovery rule and fraudulent concealment. More importantly, due to the factual questions in this case, granting the Motion to Dismiss would be inappropriate. However, in the event this Court grants the Motion, DULBERG requests a reasonable time to file a First Amended Complaint.

mediation, DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from an attorney handling Legal Malpractice matters, and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

21. MAST and POPOVICH, jointly and severally, breached the duties owed DULBURG by violating the standard of care owed DULBERG in the following ways and respects:

a) Failed to take such actions as were necessary during their representation of DULBERG to fix liability against the property owners of the subject property (the McGuire's) who employed Gagnon, and sought the assistance of DULBERG;

b) Failed to thoroughly investigate liability issues against property owners of the subject property;

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG;

d) Failed to understand the law pertaining to a property owner's rights, duties and responsibilities to someone invited onto their property;

e) Improperly urged DULBURG to accept a nonsensical settlement from the property owners, and dismissed them from all further responsibility;

f) Failed to appreciate and understand further moneys could not be received as against Gagnon, and that the McGuire's and their obvious liability were a very necessary party to the litigation;

g) Falsely advised DULBURG throughout the period of their representation, that the actions taken regarding the McGuire's was proper in all ways and respects, and that DULBURG had no choice but to accept the settlement;

28. Following the execution of the mediation agreement and the final mediation award, DULBERG realized for the first time in December of 2016 that the information MAST and POPOVICH had given DULBERG was false and misleading, and that in fact, the dismissal of the McGuires was a serious and substantial mistake.

29. It was not until the mediation in December 2016, based on the expert's opinions that DULBERG retained for the mediation, that DULBERG became reasonably aware that MAST and POPOVICH did not properly represent him by pressuring and coercing him to accept a settlement for $5,000.00 on an "all or nothing" basis.

30. DULBERG was advised to seek an independent opinion from a legal malpractice attorney and received that opinion on or about December 16, 2016.

c) Failed to conduct necessary discovery, so as to fix the liability of the property owners to DULBERG, for example hiring a liability expert;

d.) Failed to investigate the insurance policy amounts of the McGuires and Gagnon;

e.) Incorrectly informed DULBERG that Gagnon's insurance policy was "only $100,000.00" and no insurance company would pay close to that;

RE: Your accident of January 24, 2013

Dear Mr. Dulberg:

Thank you for consulting with our firm on December 31, 2014 in regards to your personal injury case. Unfortunately, we have decided not to accept your case. Therefore, on behalf of Ferris, Thompson & Zweig, Ltd., we will not be taking any further action on your behalf as it relates to this matter. I believe you should not have settled with the property owners for $5,000.00. There are other reasons for my decision.

This is merely our professional opinion and does not mean you do not have a case. We recommend that you attempt to settle the case at the upcoming pretrial conference with your current attorney.

Sincerely,

Saul M. Ferris

THE COURT: Okay. I saw Mr. Talarico. All right. Mr. Talarico?
MR. TALARICO: Yes, Judge. Good morning.
THE COURT: All right. Counselor here in court, what's going on?
MR. FLYNN: Good morning, your Honor. We brought a motion to supplement our motion to compel. The Court ruled on April 6th and granted defendant's motion to compel and set a June 14 compliance date.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. FLYNN: I'm sorry. June 1st compliance date with a June 14 hearing. Somehow I don't believe we got a copy of the file stamped order and it didn't get diaried, so I believe the case was called on June 14 --
THE COURT: Okay.

that ultimately --

MR. FLYNN: That's our position, yes.

THE COURT: All right. I'm going to pass this. We'll come back to it. And let me see if I can take a look at the compliance at issue.

Mr. Talarico, just hang in there. I'll be back at the end of the call.

MR. FLYNN: Thank you, your Honor.

(Whereupon the afore-captioned cause was recalled.)

THE COURT: Let's go to Dulberg. All right. Plaintiff's counsel for the record, if you could identify yourself.

MR. TALARICO: Good morning, your Honor. My name is Alphonse Talarico. I represent Paul Dulberg.

MR. FLYNN: And good morning again, your Honor. George Flynn on behalf of Popovich and Mast.

THE COURT: All right. So tell me what the issue is.

MR. FLYNN: Again, your Honor, the Court ruled on April 6th that the plaintiff was directed to provide the specific answers and responses to each interrogatory and production request. So we did receive supplemental production responses and a supplemental interrogatory answer. With respect to the supplemental production, there is one document that I consider to be responsive and that is new.

THE COURT: I'm sorry?

MR. FLYNN: There is one document that was produced and I consider it to be responsive and a new production. The rest of the documents that were produced, it's unusual. There are actual pleadings from this case that were attached as responsive documents to my discovery requests. I don't see how those -- which basically just set forth the plaintiff's position in this case in response to the various arguments we've made in motions.

THE COURT: Well, what is it you're looking for? What didn't you get?

MR. FLYNN: I'm looking to strike any of those documents --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. FLYNN: -- that are not responsive.

THE COURT: Is it -- I mean, really is it necessary to go to the trouble of striking them if they're -- I mean, ultimately they're not going to be relevant as a discovery response.

MR. FLYNN: Only -- I just want to make sure there aren't any additional documents that were --

THE COURT: Are there any additional documents, Mr. Talarico?

MR. TALARICO: Judge, I have no idea if -- it's our position we complied completely. We filed our answers on June 1st. If the Court had -- I don't know if the Court remembers, you had ordered us, plaintiff and defendant, to talk up through June 14th to see if there were any issues. The only response I got from the defendants was an e-mail with one word. As I told you on June 14th, the only word was, Thank you. Now I am totally surprised, 73 days later, Judge, and I don't know what else -- I want time to respond in writing, Judge. This is --

THE COURT: I don't -- I don't want to do that.

MR. TALARICO: This has been difficult.

THE COURT: This is --

MR. FLYNN: Yes, it has, Judge.

THE COURT: So what is it you -- what is it you are looking for? Because I have a representation on the record -- and I'm assuming there's an affidavit of compliance.

MR. TALARICO: There is.

THE COURT: Okay. Then -- and he says, I've given you everything.

MR. FLYNN: That's fine with respect to the production response. Now there's the interrogatory answer.

THE COURT: All right. Tell me -- we're moving on to the interrogatory.

MR. FLYNN: And again, this goes to the statute of limitations on a legal malpractice case. The plaintiff is claiming that he didn't discover it until after the 2 years --

THE COURT: Could you keep your voice up a little?

MR. FLYNN: Sure. Plaintiff is arguing for a tolling of the statute of limitations on a legal malpractice case. He was asked in Interrogatory No. 1, Identify and describe each and every way that Popovich or Mast breached any duty of care to you, the date of the breach, and when and how you became aware of the breach.

His response -- his amended additional response discusses his pecuniary injury, that only addresses damages. With respect to the breach of the standard of care and how he discovered it, he simply says he knew that the defendants breached the standard of care due him based upon a verbal discussion with Attorney Tom Gooch on December 16, 2016.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. FLYNN: That describes the date. It doesn't describe how he became aware of it, what Gooch told him. Now, again, I know your Honor is aware of the deposition testimony in this case regarding that December 16 time period. If the answer is that Dulberg doesn't remember what Mr. Gooch told him, if Gooch said simply, You have a case, that's fine. That's what they should say. But I've already taken his deposition. There are no specifics that explain to me why Mr. Gooch crystallized this breach of the standard of care on December 16. But if this is all they have, then that's what he should say, is that I don't remember what Mr. Gooch told me.

THE COURT: I mean, he's -- I think he's complied. I'm not sure --

MR. FLYNN: What is the breach of the standard of care?

MR. FLYNN: And what is the breach of the standard of care? That's what I've asked in the interrogatory. They don't say.

THE COURT: Well, I think that -- all right. I guess that is -- my reading on it, it's implied it's a statute of limitations. But --

MR. FLYNN: No, the statute of limitations is the issue in this case.

THE COURT: All right. What is the --

MR. FLYNN: The underlying personal injury case --

THE COURT: What is the breach? Did Mr. Gooch advise him what the breach was?

MR. TALARICO: Judge, all that Mr. Dulberg recalls was relayed in the responses. There were no recordings that were going on. Nothing was done in writing. I'm not sure how I can possibly respond anymore, to give anymore.

THE COURT: I have a representation that this is all there is.

MR. FLYNN: That's satisfactory to me. As long as when I file my summary judgment motion there's not some new discovery discussion as to --

MR. TALARICO: Judge --

MR. FLYNN: -- what the breach was and what --
MR. TALARICO: I'm sorry. I hate to interrupt. Judge?
THE COURT: Yeah.
MR. TALARICO: We -- again, we were -- our response, I believe is in total compliance with the Court order of June 6th and your instructions on that day from the court record. And I'd like to respond in writing to establish that we did that.
THE COURT: No. No. I mean, you're -- you only need to respond in writing if we're going to have a hearing. If you want to file a brief that -- just in the file, that's fine, but I think we have a resolution today and I don't want to spend more time reading briefs resolving an issue that's moot. So I think this is resolved. What else is outstanding?
MR. FLYNN: I think that does resolve -- the representation resolves both issues, so --
THE COURT: I have -- you have advised -- well, you've advised that's all there is, so I'm finding you in compliance.
MR. TALARICO: Thank you, your Honor.

MR. FLYNN: I suppose with respect to the summary judgment motion that I anticipate, Judge, there was one document that was produced in order to avoid a second deposition of Mr. Dulberg to authenticate this document, which is a letter from Attorney Thompson -- I'm sorry -- Attorney Ferris -- that goes to the issue of the statute of limitations. If Mr. Talarico would stipulate to the authenticity of this March 4, 2015 letter on the record, I don't need to send a request to admit for --

THE COURT: Can you hear all that?

MR. TALARICO: I heard it, Judge, but I'm not familiar with that document. A request to admit would be welcome.

MR. FLYNN: Fair enough.

MR. TALARICO: Just so I can see what it is.

THE COURT: That's fine. We're back again on August 19th. Do you want to delay that date in light of the fact you may be issuing a request to admit?

MR. FLYNN: I think that would make sense.

THE COURT: All right. So let's strike August 19th and tell me when it makes sense to come back.

MR. FLYNN: I'll need at least 30 days, so --

THE COURT: 60 days?

MR. FLYNN: A 60-day date would be great.

THE COURT: How's September 17th? That's a Friday.

MR. TALARICO: Fine with me, Judge.

MR. FLYNN: That works for me.

THE COURT: All right. So that will be at 8:45 and then we'll see what you guys want to do when you come back. And are you withdrawing your motion or ...

MR. FLYNN: I think that --

THE COURT: Or do you want me expressly to find compliance based on representations in open court?

MR. FLYNN: I'm not requesting a hearing any longer. I think we resolved the matter. So yeah, I'll withdraw it.

THE COURT: All right. Motion's withdrawn. The record still stands. I did find that you were in compliance and we'll deal with the next step whenever it comes up. But I will see you September 17th and if you could draft the order.

MR. FLYNN: I will. Thank you, your Honor.

Mr. Talarico, anything else?

MR. TALARICO: No, Judge, thank you for your time.
