Dear George,

Given the concerns with COVID 19, I am cancelling Hans Mast deposition scheduled for next week, Thursday, March 16.

I will be in touch about rescheduling and possibly about procedures to take some type of remote deposition—maybe a video deposition.

We can discuss this further as things progress.

I hope you are all safe and healthy.

Hi George,

How is the June 16, 17, or 18? If not, we should also be open the week after on Wednesday or Thursday—June 24, 25.

I anticipate this will be a video deposition, despite things opening back up, I think it is the safest route for everyone and given the Supreme Court rules, it makes sense to take advantage of the remote deposition option. Details to come on that. We can work that out and a time once we get the date nailed down.

I believe we have a June 5 status date. I believe we are encouraged to either use CourtCall or get an agreed order. I am happy to draft an agreed order setting out a date for close of oral fact discovery (f(1), f(2)) and setting the matter for further status, so we can submit it to the Judge prior to June 5 to avoid the date. Alternatively, I am also happy to appear via CourtCall if you intend to appear.

I hope you and your family are well.

Good Morning, George,

I hope you are doing well. I would prefer to do an in-person deposition given that the client will likely want to be present and that may present some issues with a video deposition. That being said, I don't want to hold this up indefinitely.

Let's plan for the end of June. If the "stay at home" orders get extended again, we will reconsider the "in person" v "remote" deposition.

I hope you and your family are well.

I am working remotely. If you need to call—the best remote number is 312.508.3376.

The recent temporary amendment to Rule 206 (facilitating depositions during the Covid crisis), prompted me to touch base and inquire whether you may want to consider attempting to depose Hans Mast remotely in the 2nd half of May.

Otherwise, perhaps we can get a live deposition on the books for some time in June. If so, I would suggest the 2nd half of June.

Let me know what you think

Dear George,

Attachments available until Jul 23, 2020

I am attaching the deposition exhibits that I may use on Thursday. I don't believe there will be any additions between now and then, but if there are they will be minor and I will do my best to send them ahead of time. Obviously, I may not use all of these.

I have not used US Legal or done any remote depositions so you will have to forgive any errors. My understanding is that in the video conferencing system I will be able to upload the document in Pdf or other format (I am only using PDFs), then you and the court reporter will be able to download it. The court reporter will label the exhibits and court reporter will be able to download it. The court reporter will label the exhibits and include them in the transcript after the deposition is complete. You are not required to print any of the documents—unless of course you would like to do that.

I did my best to label the exhibits in the number order that I believe I will use them. That being said, things change in depositions and they may have to be renumbered. In an effort to not make it super confusing, I used descriptive names as well.

If you have questions/concerns, please let me know. Otherwise, I will see you remotely on Thursday and we'll hope that everything goes smoothly.

Hi George,

Here is the notice of deposition. It looks like all the agencies are set up to have the reporter there with you or remotely, so it is just a matter of minor logistics. More to come on that.

For Friday:

f(1) and f(2):

1. We have a firm date for Hans Mast deposition.

2. That after that deposition, Plaintiff will determine whether he wants to take Thomas Popovich's deposition or a representative of the Popovich firm (I can only imagine that it would be Thomas Popovich). I don't believe that there will be any other depositions from our side, but I would like f(1) and f(2)s to stay open through the summer.

3. Let me know if you think you'll have any more folks you want to depose.

Written Matters:

There is some outstanding updated written discovery that you requested and needs to be addressed after Plaintiff's deposition. It was put on the back burner due to the COVID crisis. But I will get on top of that. If there are any issues, we can address them before the next court date.

Next Date:

Early August? Early September? We should be ready to close f(1) and f(2) at that point.

Best Regards,

Julia Williams

Good Afternoon Cherelle,

We completed the deposition of Hans Mast in the Dulberg v Law Office of Thomas Popovich et al matter. We just received the transcript. We are hoping to get an invoice from you as soon as you can provide it so that we can properly bill the file.

Please cc my assistant Mary Winch, marywinch@clintonlaw.net on the email with the invoice. She will handle getting it paid.

Thank you for your help on this.

Hello,

In advance of tomorrow's deposition. I want to give everyone a couple important pieces of information. Please follow the steps below in order to participate in tomorrow's deposition. Please also refer to the attached Quick Guide for a brief overview RemoteDepo controls. Please also login to the deposition at least 15 minutes early to provide time to troubleshoot any technical issues.

*All parties have been BCC'd on this invitation.

To join the virtual deposition room:

- Step 1: Click the link provided to you below under Join Meeting (also including it here for easy reference):
 - <https://uslegalsupport.remotecounsel.com/zoom/meeting/OTUyNDU=>
- Step 2: A website will open that will launch Zoom. Click "open zoom" to launch

- Step 3: Join with video

- Step 4: We recommend selecting the “Call Me” option and the system will dial you directly.
 - Step 4b: If you selected to dial in yourself, enter #, your unique Participant ID (36 in the example below) then press # again

You're now set to participate in our meeting.

Please confirm receipt of this email and once you've reviewed, let me know if you have any questions.

The court reporter will ask the deponent to show a government issued ID.

The test center below is a shared test center. Therefore a number of people may be testing at the same time.

Dear Alan,

We have an issue. I need another participant id. Paul Dulberg, who is a party to the case, but is not the deponent and is not an attorney, needs to join the deposition. He is a witness entitled to sit in on the deposition. I need an id for him. I have cc'd him here as well.

Here is his email address: pdulberg@comcast.net

The total participants are as follows:

George Flynn, who received is ID
Hans Mast, the deponent, who is going to be in the same room with George Flynn and thus can log in with him.
Myself, Julia Williams, I have an ID
Paul Dulberg—needs a participant id.

Dear George,

Please see attached the confirmation from the court reporter re the deposition next week. The reporter will be remote. More information will be provided two days in advance of the deposition.

I note that Hans Mast will need to show a government issue ID to the court reporter.

Again, I also note that Paul Dulberg will be attending remotely.

Good Morning,

In light of current health concerns and possible restrictions on travel, we are asking our clients to confirm as early as possible so we can ensure adequate reporter coverage. Once you know if this is moving forward or not, please contact our office by email or telephone.

Please review the details carefully and let me know if this is still going forward-court reporter and RemoteDepo. Please also provide a notice and the witness' email or let us know that someone will forward the link.

Please note that that the RemoteDepo Test Center is a public link and it is entirely possible when someone goes in, other parties will be in that room. It is a test center and therefore a number of people are using it. Additionally, the court reporter will be asking the witness for a government ID to ensure they are who they say they are.
