Dear Monica Mallory,

Back in August of 2023 you helped me obtain my medical records from Paul Dulberg v. Carolyn Colvin, No. 15 C 50219 (N.D. Ill.).

Thank you again for that but that is not why I am contacting you now.

My attorney, Alphonse A Talarico, recently suggested I contact the Department of Justice about all the litigation Issues we have documented for over one decade.

What should have been simple litigation in a single circuit court now spans across several cases in two different circuit courts and 2 different appellate districts.

The problems started in December 2011 and is still ongoing to this day.

When Mr Talarico suggested I contact the DOJ I immediately thought of you.

On this particular issue of fraud committed during litigation by multiple parties I have no clue where to begin or who I should be speaking to.

The litigation has become so complex that I cannot possibly sum up the multitudes of issues in any simple way so below is a link to a website where my brother/sibling and full trustee over my affairs, Thomas Kost, is recently attempting to document everything in detail that we have encountered and continue to encounter:

fraudonthecourt.net

I am hoping that you would know who to talk to about this and can lead us in the right direction.

Thank you in advance for any help you may offer and I wish you a Happy New Year as well.

Sincerely,
Paul
