Dear Mr Talarico,

After filing the motion to extend time to file the answer please take a minute to update me via email on the courts schedule in all the cases as to when things are due, next court dates, and please send me any documents not previously sent that have been filed with the courts by all parties in all the cases.

Thank You,
Paul

Please see the following:

on or before 06/22/2023 I must file the Response to the Baudins' 2-19.1 Motion;
on or before 06/26/2023 must file Notice of Appeal regarding the Olsen Defendants ISC 304(a) Order;
on July 6, 2023 Allstate's motion for Summary Judgment is first time up in court;
on July 31, 2023
1) Appellant Brief in Popovich case is due;
2) court status on:
 (a) Amended complaint against ARD;
 (B) status on Baudins' 2-619.1 Motion.
on August 31, 2023 Kost v. Mt. Prospect and S.B. Friedman is set for a case management Conference; on September 18, 2023 Appellant's Reply is due in the Popovich case.

All of the above are somewhat "set" dates that can change in various ways due to litigation actions taken by the parties.

For example, of the 22 Defendants named in the Kost v. Mt. Prospect et al the following were not served because Mt. Prospect claims they are no longer employed Connor Harmon. Ryan Hagarty and Peggy Pissarrek.

The Plaintiffs will have to decided if the three above are necessary parties and if so, a skip trace will have to be performed on each and thereafter a Special Process Server engaged and Court Appointed on motion.

Every potential action by any party can effect already set dates and parties must stay flexible during litigation.

The only correct statement at this point is that for the next 3 months plus there will be an incredible amount of work.

Thank you,
Alphonse A. Talarico, esq.
