

From: Julia Williams juliawilliams@clintonlaw.net
Subject: Re: Legal Malpractice - Update ending in proposed Settlement Discussions
Date: October 19, 2018 at 3:45 PM
To: PAUL DULBERG paul_dulberg@comcast.net
Cc: Ed Clinton ed@clintonlaw.net

JW

Thank you Paul. Did the court grant you 21 days to obtain new counsel?

As far as settlement, it may be worth while exploring, but I do not know that doing so without counsel would benefit you.

We are reviewing your materials and will get back with you on Monday. I am doing some legal research to see what the thought process was when dismissing the homeowners.

Best Regards,

Julia Williams
Of Counsel
The Clinton Law Firm
111 W. Washington, Ste. 1437
Chicago, IL 60602
P: 312.357.1515
F: 312.201.0737
juliawilliams@clintonlaw.net

This message may be privileged and confidential. If you are not the intended recipient, please delete the email and notify the sender immediately.

On Oct 16, 2018, at 4:11 PM, PAUL DULBERG <paul_dulberg@comcast.net> wrote:

Hi Julia,

I know you haven't taken me on as a client yet but I thought I'd keep you apprised of what is going on in the event that you do.

As you know, yesterday The Gooch Firm withdrew from my case.

After the hearing Sabina Walczyk, an associate attorney for the Gooch Firm, told me that I should receive the answers to interrogatories sent to the defense council on the 8th of October.

Today George Flynn, defense council with Clausen Miller P.C. E-mailed me and wanted to discuss settlement noting that I was not currently represented by council.

All I can think at this moment is, wow that didn't take long.

If you have any questions, concerns or want any of the emails between Hans Mast from the Law Group of Thomas J Popovich and myself to help your inquiry just let me know and I will provide them.

Thank You,

Paul

Paul Dulberg
847-497-4250