Dear Paul,

Attached is the retainer contract that may be returned via email, fax, or mail (a scanned signature is fine).

We are looking for $5,000 upfront to pay for costs associated with the case.

Finally, your prior counsel likely has a lien on the case. We do not address that at all in this retainer and we'll discuss it again when the issue arises.

Best Regards,

Julia Williams

We do not expect this expenses to be extraordinary, but if we expect a costly expense, we will notify you and may require you to pay the vendor directly.

Our firm requests a retainer of $5,000 in order to cover the initial costs in this case. We will not begin work until this letter is signed and the retainer fee is received.

We anticipate a long and mutually satisfactory relationship. However, you have the right to terminate our engagement at any time by giving us written notice of termination. We also have the right, subject to our responsibilities under applicable ethical rules, to terminate our engagement by giving you written notice if you fail to cooperate with us or to pay our bills for costs incurred when due or if we determine that continuing to represent you would be unethical, impractical or improper. If our relationship is terminated by either of us, you will remain obligated to pay us in full for our past services under principles of quantum meruit and for costs and expenses in accordance with the terms of this letter.

NO GUARANTEE OF OUTCOME

We do not guarantee any outcome in the litigation. Any views expressed as to the possible ruling are our opinions only.

AGREEMENT APPLICABLE UNTIL CHANGED IN WRITING

This agreement will apply to this matter only. If you wish to obtain our assistance with another matter, we will prepare a written engagement agreement for that matter.
