Hi Julia,
Below is the exchange between George Flynn and myself.
I'm not sure why Mr. Flynn would tell you it was an offer when Mr. Flynn clearly states it was not a firm offer of settlement made.

No, I will not settle this matter for anything less than what I would have received if the McGuires were not discharged from the original suit.

Thank you,
Paul

Mr. Dulberg:

I understand. Just to clarify, my offer was to discuss settlement. There was not a firm offer of settlement made. Going forward we will limit any written communications to scheduling, etc.

Mr Flynn,
I respectfully decline your offer.
Please keep further communications limited to scheduling conflicts, notices of motions, etc... but not substance.
Thank You,
Paul

FOR SETTLEMENT PURPOSES ONLY

Mr. Dulberg:

I certainly respect your preference to only communicate by email. I was going to suggest that we might be able to briefly discuss settlement. I may be able to obtain a small amount of settlement authority, perhaps $5,000, if it would allow us to avoid additional legal fees going forward.

Feel free to call me, or to respond to this email. If you would prefer not to discuss settlement, I will respect your wishes.

It is my understanding that you are not currently represented by counsel. If you do retain counsel, please have your attorney advise me of the representation as soon as practicable.

Best regards,

Mr. Flynn,
Respectfully on second thought, I'd prefer it be in email and limited to scheduling and not substance.
What is it you would like to discuss?
Thank You,
Paul
