PD

I completely understand. I take care of my 82 yr old mom and won't be able to see her for 2 weeks because I went to court this morning.

Thank you for clarifying this.

Dear Paul,

Thank you for the order.

It was our decision to conduct a remote deposition, not Mr. Mast. We are not conducting any in-person depositions due to the risk our staff and attorneys. We have people in our office/their family in high risk groups. I am simply unwilling to expose them any more than necessary.

Best Regards,

Mr. Popovich was in Court this morning and had no problem being in a room full of people. Makes me curious if Mast shows up for his court dates but is using Covid to avoid personally attending depositions.

Here is today's court order
