I forgot to ask,
Do you want me to write you a few smaller checks instead of one large one so you don't run into the bank hold on the deposited funds on your end?
Thanks,
Paul

Dear Mr Talarico,
I wanted to touch base on the balance due.
I have to admit it was more than I thought so I had to have funds deposited from elsewhere this morning.
The bank tells me they put a hold on large deposited sums for up to 10 days and will notify me when the funds are available.
Rest assured the funds are on their way as soon as the bank releases the hold.
Thank you,
Paul

Dear Mr. Dulberg,
I have recapped my hand written time sheets which are the basis for my formal billing which as I explained today, would take me away from the monumental task I am working on in getting a necessary understanding of the many years of litigation for your matter.
I have reviewed and audited my worksheets and I am confident that the information I give you now is accurate and that supporting detail of my activities on your case will be forthcoming when your case demands slow down.

I currently have put in 119.35 hours since October 2020 and have spent $48.75 in necessary expenses (initial court appearance via court call) so @225.00 per hour the total is $26, 902.50.

You deposited a retainer of $10,000.00 so the balance is $16, 902.50.

I appreciate your confidence in my ability to properly represent you after so many attorneys have failed to do so.

Sincerely,

Alphonse A. Talarico Esq.
