Subject : Missed call???

Dear Mr Talarico,

At 4:14 am today I received an email with a message that I missed a call from your office.

The message only says "Hello Mr" and has a date in the body of the email of January 22, 2021

I'm not sure if you actually called me this morning or if this is some sort of technical glitch from Comcast, my phone service provider.

Please disregard if this is a glitch.

If you are trying to reach me please feel free to call again.

Thanks,
Paul
